2008 Hall of Fame Inductee Goose Gossage

The New York Yankees congratulate Rich "Goose" Gossage on his 2008 election to the National Baseball Hall of Fame. In his ninth year of eligibility, he was named on 466 of 543 ballots (85.8%) from the Baseball Writers' Association of America, surpassing the 75.0 percent required for membership.

Gossage had a 22-year Major League career with nine teams, including the Chicago White Sox (1972-76), Pittsburgh Pirates (1977), New York Yankees (1978-83, '89), San Diego Padres (1984-1987), Chicago Cubs (1988), San Francisco Giants (1989), Texas Rangers (1991), Oakland A's (1992-93) and Seattle Mariners (1994). He retired with a 124-107 career record, 310 saves and a 3.01 ERA in 1,002 games and 1809.1IP.

The Colorado-born-and-raised Gossage grew up a Yankees fan and played parts of seven seasons for the club, winning one World Series in pinstripes (1978) and appearing in another (1981). He enjoyed some of his best seasons in the Bronx, compiling a 42-28 record with a 2.14 ERA, 151 saves and 512 strikeouts in 319 games, while allowing just 390 hits in 533.0 innings pitched. He trails only Mariano Rivera (443) and Dave Righetti (224) on the all-time Yankees saves list.

A nine-time All-Star and 1978 Rolaids "Relief Man of the Year," Gossage finished in the top six in his league's Cy Young Award voting five times (1975-sixth; 1978-fifth; 1980-third; 1981-fifth; 1984-fifth). He joins Hoyt Wilhelm, Rollie Fingers, Dennis Eckersley and Bruce Sutter as relievers in the Hall of Fame.

Gossage's durability was never in doubt. In four different seasons with four different teams, Gossage logged in excess of 100.0 innings out of the bullpen (141.2IP with the White Sox in 1975; 133.0IP with the Pirates in 1977, 134.1IP with the Yankees in 1978 and 102.1IP with the Padres in 1984). He recorded 193 saves of four outs or more and 52 saves of seven outs or more. He was also used in the rotation for one season (with the White Sox in 1976), and tossed 15 complete games in 29 starts.

In the 1978 World Series vs. the Los Angeles Dodgers, he appeared in three games, pitching 6.0 scoreless innings, while allowing just one walk and one hit. He earned the win in Game 4, pitching the final 2.0 innings in a 4-3, 10-inning victory and was on the mound for the final out of the Game 6 clincher. In 19 career postseason games (including an NLCS and World Series with San Diego in 1984), he was 2-1 with a 2.87 ERA and eight saves in 31.1IP.

He becomes the 45th former Yankees player, manager or executive to be elected to the Hall of Fame and the first since Phil Rizzuto in 1994 to go into Cooperstown with a Yankees insignia on his plaque.

In Memoriam ~ Matthew Wasser ~ 1985-2007

Matt Wasser joined the New York Yankees Media Relations Department as an intern during the 2007 baseball season and quickly became noticed for all the right reasons—his diligence, his impeccable manners and his ever-present smile. He was talented at his work and kind and compassionate in the way he treated people. He tragically lost his life while volunteering for Major League Baseball during the 2007 ALCS in Boston. In 2008, the Yankees will dedicate a plaque in his honor, which will be placed in the current Yankee Stadium press box. In 2009, the plaque will be moved to the press box of the new Yankee Stadium, where it will remain permanently.

George M. Steinbrenner III
Principal Owner

Currently the longest-tenured owner in Major League Baseball, George M. Steinbrenner III, will celebrate his 35th anniversary as Principal Owner of the New York Yankees in 2008. Under his leadership, the New York Yankees have become the leading sports franchise and the most highly recognized sports brand in the world.

On January 3, 1973, a group of businessmen formed and led by Mr. Steinbrenner purchased the New York Yankees from CBS for a net price of $8.7 million. It took just five years for his aggressive leadership to turn the New York Yankees back into World Champions. In the 35 years he has been Principal Owner of the club, the Yankees have posted a Major League-best .563 winning percentage (3,116-2,419 record) with 10 American League pennants and six World Championships (also the most in the Majors).

In addition to the team's on-field success, the New York Yankees have consistently shattered franchise and league attendance records at home and on the road. In 2007, they drew an American League-record 4,271,083 fans to Yankee Stadium and became one of two franchises in baseball history to draw more than 4 million fans in three consecutive seasons (2005-07). Away from Yankee Stadium, the Yankees continue to be one of the most sought after attractions in all of sports. They have drawn over 7 million fans in combined home and road attendance in each of the last four seasons (2004-07), constituting four of the five largest single-season attendance totals in professional sports history, including the all-time mark of 7,325,051 fans in 2006.

In recent years, Mr. Steinbrenner's far-reaching vision has continued to build the value and prominence of the franchise, positioning it for the future. In 2002, the Sporting News named him the No. 1 "Most Powerful Man in Sports," and he was the driving force behind the launch of the YES Network, a trailblazing enterprise that is currently the nation's leading regional sports network. In 2006, the groundbreaking ceremony for the new Yankee Stadium underscored his role as the principal impetus in moving the much-anticipated facility toward completion and a scheduled opening in April 2009.

In announcing that Major League Baseball's 2008 All-Star Game would be played in New York's Yankee Stadium, Commissioner Bud Selig said of Mr. Steinbrenner, "He has made wonderful contributions to this city and to the Yankees. Clearly one of the primary factors was to honor the city, the franchise and George Steinbrenner."

With 35 seasons of ownership now completed, Mr. Steinbrenner's stewardship has exceeded that of any other New York Yankees owner by 11 years (Colonel Jacob Ruppert purchased the Yankees with Tillinghast L'Hommedieu Huston in January 1915, bought out Huston in 1922, and maintained sole ownership in the club until his death in 1939—a total of 24 years). Since Mr. Steinbrenner became Principal Owner, the other 29 Major League clubs have had 100 owners or ownership groups while the Yankees have had just one.

Mr. Steinbrenner's success in the sports world began at an early age. He was a multi-sport athlete at Culver Military Academy (where he is in the Athletic Hall of Fame) and at Williams College. He began his successful coaching career as an assistant football coach at two Big Ten universities, Northwestern and Purdue. Then he assembled championship basketball teams in the National Industrial and American Basketball Leagues. In 2002, he was honored with the highly prestigious Gold Medal Award from the National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame for a lifetime of "outstanding commitment, dedication and dynamic leadership in his business, as well as his personal life."

Mr. Steinbrenner has devoted as much of his time and effort to the U.S. Olympic Committee as he has to his many other sporting endeavors. He was Chairman of the USOC Foundation (1997-2002) and the Olympic Overview Commission (1988-89) that was created to evaluate the structure and efforts of the USO program. He also served as Vice President of the U.S. Olympic Committee (1989-96) and has been honored with the General Douglas MacArthur USOC Foremost Award and the F. Don Miller United States Olympic Award.

Mr. Steinbrenner is a member of the Baseball Hall of Fame's Board of Directors and has served on the NCAA Foundation Board of Trustees since 1990.

Most of Mr. Steinbrenner's philanthropic endeavors are performed without fanfare. However, he has been repeatedly recognized by the communities in which he immerses himself. In 1993, he earned the Tampa Civitan Club's "Outstanding Citizen" Award, and in 1998, Tampa Law Enforcement named him "Citizen of the Year" for founding a scholarship fund for the children of slain law enforcement officers. In addition, Mr. Steinbrenner was honored as "Outstanding New Yorker" by the New York Society of Association Executives in 1997. Most recently, in February, 2008, the Tampa City Council and the Board of the Hillsborough County Commissioner's Office both passed resolutions endorsing the renaming of Legends Field after Mr. Steinbrenner to pay tribute to his numerous contributions to the area.

January 3, 1973:	A limited partnership, headed by George M. Steinbrenner as its Managing General Partner, purchases the Yankees from CBS.

Henry G. (Hank) Steinbrenner

General Partner

Hank Steinbrenner holds the position of General Partner of the New York Yankees. Along with General Partner Hal Steinbrenner, the 50-year-old son of Principal Owner George Steinbrenner is responsible for overseeing all areas of the club's business and baseball operations.

In his first full off-season in his current role, Mr. Steinbrenner was directly involved in the delicate negotiations and eventual re-signings of Yankees All-Stars Jorge Posada, Mariano Rivera and Alex Rodriguez, while overseeing the managerial search that concluded with the hiring of former Yankees catcher and 2006 National League "Manager of the Year" Joe Girardi.

Mr. Steinbrenner has served as Chairman and Director of Minch Transit Company, Vice President and Director of Bay Farms Corporation, Vice President and Director of Mid-Florida Hotels Corporation, and has been a member of the board of the Ocala Breeders Sales Company. In the Tampa Bay community, he has been involved in a number of children's charities.

Mr. Steinbrenner attended Culver Military Academy and Central Methodist College. He resides in Tampa, Fla.

Harold Z. (Hal) Steinbrenner

General Partner, Chairman of the Board, Yankee Global Enterprises, LLC

Hal Steinbrenner begins his 18th season with the New York Yankees organization in 2008 and his 13th as General Partner. The 39-year-old son of Principal Owner George Steinbrenner was elected General Partner by the New York Yankees Partnership in 1996.

Along with General Partner Hank Steinbrenner, his responsibilities include overseeing all areas of the club's business and baseball operations, including direct involvement in all financial aspects of the New York Yankees, Yankee Global Enterprises and affiliates.

Mr. Steinbrenner is also Chairman and CEO of Steinbrenner Hotel Properties and holds a seat on both the Board of Directors of the Boys & Girls Club of Tampa Bay and the Special Operations Warrior Foundation.

Mr. Steinbrenner, who currently resides in Tampa, Fla., attended Culver Military Academy and graduated from Williams College in 1991 with a Bachelor of Arts degree. He also earned a Master's degree in Business Administration from the University of Florida in 1994.

Jennifer Steinbrenner Swindal

Senior Vice President, New Stadium Public Affairs

Jennifer Steinbrenner Swindal begins her first season in the role of Senior Vice President of New Stadium Public Affairs for the New York Yankees. The elder daughter of Principal Owner George Steinbrenner previously served in the Yankees Public Affairs Department in 1984-85 prior to spending the last 23 years actively participating in the philanthropic community.

Her present responsibilities include the implementation and integration of various community programs relating to the new Yankee Stadium project. In addition, she serves in a supervisory role for the New York Yankees and Tampa Yankees Foundation, overseeing numerous local, regional and national outreach efforts.

Ms. Steinbrenner has a distinguished record of contributing to community projects and initiatives, including current commitments on the Board of Directors of the H.B. Plant Museum, Red Cross Angels, Culver Academies and Tampa Bay Illustrated, as well as a position as co-chair of the New York Pops' 25th Birthday Gala. She has also held prior board positions with the Boys & Girls Club of Tampa Bay, Florida Orchestra, Children's Cancer Center of Tampa and St. John's Episcopal School.

A Morehead Scholar and 1981 graduate of the University of North Carolina, Ms. Steinbrenner worked in the Public Affairs Department of Metropolitan Insurance from 1981-82 before joining Florida City Magazine as a National Sales Manager from 1982-84.

Ms. Steinbrenner was born in Cleveland, Ohio, and currently makes her home in Tampa, Fla. She is a devoted mother to her two children, daughter, Haley (22), and son, Stephen (19), both of whom attend the University of North Carolina, where she currently sits on the UNC Board of Visitors and the Parents Council.

Felix M. Lopez, Jr.

Senior Vice President

Felix M. Lopez, Jr. begins his fourth season as a Senior Vice President with the New York Yankees in 2008. His responsibilities include overseeing the daily operations of Legends Field, the Himes Player Development Complex and the Single-A Tampa Yankees. He is also involved with the Yankees' Latin Baseball Academy in Boca Chica, Dominican Republic, as well as player development in Latin America.

Under Mr. Lopez' supervision, Legends Field has undergone several structural enhancements, including the expansion of field box seating and the redesign of the Yankees' clubhouse facilities.

Fan-friendly amenities have been at the forefront of Mr. Lopez' operational strategy, including the design of the Brighthouse Networks Dugout Club, located underneath the field box seats behind home plate. In addition, Mr. Lopez was instrumental in developing the new Tampa Tribune Deck, which will be unveiled at the start of spring training in 2008. Located beyond the right field wall, the unique and intimate structure features picnic-style seating for 500 people, private concessions and a full bar.

Before joining the Yankees, Mr. Lopez was the president and owner of Architecture Design Construction, Inc., a company specializing in commercial construction in the southeastern United States.

Born on April 1, 1954, in Havana, Cuba, Mr. Lopez moved to Tampa, Fla., in 1969 and later graduated from Cam Tech School of Construction. He is a member of the Grand Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons of Florida and Nobles of the Mystic Shrine of North America. He also serves on the board of the Gold Shield Foundation and contributes to the efforts of the Police Athletic League (PAL).

Mr. Lopez and his wife, Jessica, reside in Tampa, Fla.

Randy Levine

President

Randy Levine begins his ninth season as President of the New York Yankees in 2008. He was named to his position in January 2000, becoming the first person to hold the post with the club since 1986.

Under his supervision and guidance, the Yankees broke ground for a new Yankee Stadium on August 16, 2006, and are scheduled to open the 2009 season in the state-of-the-art facility. Mr. Levine was a principal founder of the YES Network, which was recently named the most-watched regional sports network in the United States for the fifth consecutive year (2003-07).

Mr. Levine has also played a prominent role in the Yankees' international brand expansion, including a first-of-its-kind working relationship with the Chinese Baseball Association. In the summer of 2007, the Yankees also became the first Major League team to sign players from the People's Republic of China with approval from the C.B.A. The Yankees further solidified their footprint within the international baseball community in 2007, becoming the first Major League organization to sign players from the Israel Baseball League. Mr. Levine is also the Yankees' principal liason to Major League Baseball and contributes to player negotiations and contract issues.

Mr. Levine's baseball and business vision has also led to record numbers at Yankee Stadium turnstiles. In addition to establishing the all-time American League home attendance record in 2007, the Yankees have now reached the 4 million mark in home attendance in each of the last three seasons, joining the Toronto Blue Jays (1991-93) as the only Major League franchises to accomplish such a feat.

Before joining the Yankees, Mr. Levine served as New York City's Deputy Mayor for Economic Development, Planning and Administration. He also served as New York City's Labor Commissioner.

From 1995 through 1997, Mr. Levine was Chief Negotiator for Major League Baseball. In 1996, he negotiated the labor agreement that for the first time included revenue sharing, luxury taxes and Interleague play. Prior to that, Mr. Levine served as Principal Associate Deputy Attorney General and Principal Deputy Attorney General at the United States Department of Justice. He has also served as a special delegate to the United States Department of Labor and was a board member for Hudson River Park.

Mr. Levine has served on the Board of Directors of the New Jersey Nets and New Jersey Devils and is a member of the Board of Directors of the YES Network. He is also an officer of Yankee Global Enterprises, LLC.

Mr. Levine has been a partner in the New York law firm of Proskauer Rose Goetz & Mendelson and is presently Senior Counsel at the law firm of Akin Gump Strauss Hauer & Feld.

Born on February 22, 1955, in Brooklyn, N.Y., Mr. Levine received a Bachelor of Arts degree from George Washington University in 1977 and his J.D. from Hofstra University School of Law in 1980. Mr. Levine and his wife, Mindy, reside in Manhattan.

Lonn A. Trost

Chief Operating Officer

Lonn Trost begins his ninth season as Chief Operating Officer of the New York Yankees in 2008. He was named to the position on January 10, 2000, after serving as the club's Executive Vice President and General Counsel from 1997-99.

Mr. Trost is responsible for the overall day-to-day functioning of the Yankees' business operations. Under his direction, the Yankees have seen tremendous growth in brand recognition and sponsorship opportunities, while also establishing single-season home attendance records eight times (1998-99; 2002-07). In 2007, the Yankees led the Major Leagues in average home attendance (52,729), outdrawing the Major League average by more than 21,000 fans per game. Since his appointment to COO prior to the 2000 season, Yankees home attendance has increased at a rate more than twice that of Major League Baseball's other 29 teams (29.7% to 12.5%).

Additionally, Mr. Trost has spearheaded the most complex undertaking in New York Yankees history–construction and development of the new Yankee Stadium, which is the largest privately funded building project in the history of the Bronx.

Before joining the Yankees, Mr. Trost was a partner and member of the Executive Committee of the law firm of Shea and Gould from 1972 to 1994 and was a partner at the New York law firm of Herrick, Feinstein from 1994 through 1997. While with these firms, he served as outside general counsel for numerous sports franchises, institutions and agents. Among his clients were the New York Yankees and Mets, the New Jersey Nets and Devils, the National Baseball Hall of Fame, Little League Baseball and TCI Cable.

Mr. Trost is a member of the Board of Directors of the YES Network and an officer of Yankee Global Enterprises, LLC. Mr. Trost is also active with the Tourette Syndrome Association, where he is a member of the Corporate and Professional Council.

Born on May 8, 1945, Mr. Trost began his legal career in 1971 with the United States Justice Department, Office of Chief Counsel (Treasury Department). A 1968 graduate of Hunter College (Bronx, N.Y.), Mr. Trost received his J.D. from Brooklyn Law School in 1971. He resides in Monroe Township, N.J., with his wife, Carol. They have two children, Evan and Audra, and one grandchild, Ariella.

Brian Cashman

Senior Vice President And General Manager

Brian McGuire Cashman has literally grown up with the Yankees, joining the organization—at age 19—in June 1986 as an intern in the club's Minor League and Scouting Department. On February 3, 1998, Principal Owner George M. Steinbrenner gave him the opportunity—at age 31—to become the second-youngest General Manager in baseball history. Now in his 11th season, Mr. Cashman is the longest-tenured GM under Mr. Steinbrenner and the fourth-longest tenured GM currently in baseball.

In a franchise marked by milestones, Mr. Cashman has carried on the winning tradition of the Yankees. In his first season (1998), he became the youngest GM to win a World Series and went on to become the only GM in Baseball history to win World Championships in each of his first three seasons (1998-2000). He is also only the third GM in Baseball history to win at least four consecutive League Championships and the first to do it in his first four seasons (1998-2001). Only former Yankees General Managers Ed Barrow (four straight, 1936-39) and George Weiss (five straight, 1949-53) have also achieved the feat.

Mr. Cashman is the only General Manager in Major League history to guide a team to the postseason in each of his first 10 seasons on the job (1998-2007). During that span, the Yankees have compiled a cumulative record of 985-631–the best winning percentage (.610) in the Major Leagues during a period that included nine Division titles, five American League titles and three World Championships. According to Baseball America, he has the highest lifetime winning percentage of any General Manager since 1950 (minimum five seasons).

As General Manager of the Yankees, Mr. Cashman has been involved in dozens of high-profile Major League free-agent signings, including Johnny Damon, Jason Giambi, Orlando Hernandez, Jon Lieber, Hideki Matsui, Mike Mussina, Alfonso Soriano and the re-acquisition of Andy Pettitte. Mr. Cashman has also executed more than 70 trades involving nearly 200 players, bringing the talents of Bobby Abreu, Aaron Boone, Roger Clemens, David Justice, Alex Rodriguez and Robin Ventura to the Bronx.

In recent years, Mr. Cashman has made rebuilding the Yankees' farm system a top priority, while still maintaining World Championship-caliber talent at the Major League level. His efforts to develop talent acquired through the First-Year Player Draft and international scouting have advanced the Yankees' organizational ranking by Baseball America from 23rd in 2003 to fifth in 2007. The emergence of homegrown talent at the Major League level, including pitchers Joba Chamberlain, Phil Hughes, Ian Kennedy and Chien-Ming Wang, as well as position players such as Robinson Cano and Melky Cabrera, has allowed Mr. Cashman to provide stability for the organization's future championship drives.

There have been three women in Major League history to hold the position of Assistant General Manager and Mr. Cashman has hired two of them: Jean Afterman, the Yankees' current Vice President and Assistant General Manager; and Kim Ng, who is currently Vice President and Assistant General Manager of the Los Angeles Dodgers.

Various groups have honored the achievements of the Yankees and Mr. Cashman. He has been honored as "Executive of the Year" three times: by the Boston Chapter of the BBWAA in 2000; and in 1999 and 2003 by the New Jersey Sportswriters' Association. The Yankees earned ESPY awards—presented by ESPN—as "Outstanding Team of the Year" in both 1998 and 2000, and they have also been named "Organization of the Year" by Baseball America in 1998 and by USA Today in 1999. In 2001, the Yankees GM received his third consecutive "40 Under 40" Award presented by Street & Smith's Sports Business Journal, which recognizes the top 40 people under the age of 40 who have made the greatest impact in the sports business industry. It was his final year of eligibility for the award, and he has since been inducted into the publication's "40 Under 40" Hall of Fame. In 2003, Cashman was honored by the Latino Sports Writers and Broadcasters with their annual "Latino Achievement Award" for his contributions to the Latin media. He was also honored with the 2005 "Ossie Davis Award for Inspirational Leadership," awarded each year to a key leader in an organization that works to promote opportunity in diversity.

On February 11, 2004, Mr. Cashman was given the honor of ringing the opening bell at the New York Stock Exchange. (The market closed at 10,737.70 on that day, its highest close since June 13, 2001.)

He was heavily involved in bringing the Yankees to Tokyo for "Opening Series 2004" to honor the 70th Anniversary of Major League Baseball's historic tour of Japan (which included Babe Ruth and Lou Gehrig).

Upon graduation from Catholic University in Washington, D.C., in June 1989, Mr. Cashman became a full-time Assistant in Baseball Operations for the Yankees. He was later promoted and transferred to Tampa, Fla., where he served as Assistant Farm Director from 1990 to 1992. He returned to New York and became Assistant General Manager, Baseball Administration in November 1992.

Born on July 3, 1967, in Rockville Center, N.Y., Mr. Cashman grew up in Lexington, Ky. He attended Georgetown Prep in Rockville, Md., before attending Catholic University in Washington, D.C., to major in history and play intercollegiate baseball. His love for baseball developed when long-time family friends (and former Brooklyn Dodger) Ralph and Ann Branca arranged for him to serve as a bat boy for the Los Angeles Dodgers in spring training in 1982.

He and his wife, Mary, have a daughter, Grace Eva, and a son, Theodore John.

Mark Newman

Senior Vice President, Baseball Operations

Mark Newman begins his ninth season as the Yankees' Senior Vice President of Baseball Operations and his 20th season with the Yankees in 2008. Prior to being named to his current position in 2000, Mr. Newman served as the club's Vice President of Player Development and Scouting from 1997 through 1999.

During his tenure, the Yankees player development system has been recognized for producing homegrown talent including All-Stars Robinson Cano, Derek Jeter, Andy Pettitte, Jorge Posada and Mariano Rivera, as well as 2006 Cy Young Award runner-up Chien-Ming Wang. Under Mr. Newman's supervision over the last few years, the Yankees have drafted and stockpiled talented prospects to evolve into what has been lauded as one of the best player development systems in baseball. The 2007 season saw the emergence of pitchers Joba Chamberlain, Phil Hughes and Ian Kennedy on the Major League level, all recent first-round selections in the First-Year Player Draft. Entering 2008, 19 members of the club's 40-man Major League roster were either drafted by the Yankees or signed by the club as a non-drafted free agent.

Over the last two seasons, the Yankees' minor league affiliates (from the Dominican Summer League through Triple-A) have produced the most wins and the best winning percentage among all Major League franchises with a combined record of 952-709 (.573). The 2007 season saw all eight affiliates post winning records with four of the teams making postseason appearances. Both Double-A Trenton and the Gulf Coast League Yankees won their league titles, making the Yankees one of three organizations to win multiple championships in 2007 (also Tampa Bay and San Francisco).

In addition to appearing in Major League postseason play for 13 consecutive seasons (1995-2007), the Yankees are one of only two teams whose minor league affiliates have combined to post winning records in each of the last 18 seasons since 1990 (also Cleveland Indians). The Yankees were selected as the "Organization of the Year" by Baseball America in 1998 and earned the same honor from USA Today in 1999.

Mr. Newman began his career in the Yankees organization in 1989 as Coordinator of Instruction and served in that position until his promotion to Director of Player Development and Scouting in 1996. He was named Vice President of Player Development and Scouting in 1997. In his first role with the club, he oversaw all managers and coaches in the farm system and planned both Major and Minor League spring training.

In 1972, Mr. Newman began his baseball coaching career at 22 years old as pitching coach for Southern Illinois University. After spending nine successful seasons there—during which he earned his law degree with honors—he was named Head Baseball Coach at Old Dominion University in 1981. Mr. Newman's impressive 321-167-3 record in nine seasons was recognized with his induction into the ODU Hall of Fame in 1997. He was inducted into the SIU Hall of Fame in 2000.

Jean Afterman

Vice President, Assistant General Manager

Jean Afterman begins her seventh season as the Yankees' Assistant General Manager in 2008 (sixth as Vice President) and is only the third female to hold such a position in Major League Baseball history (second with the Yankees). She succeeded Kim Ng, who was Baseball's second female Assistant General Manager from 1998 through 2001.

Ms. Afterman has been an integral part of the Yankees' efforts to spearhead operations in Asia. In her first year with the Yankees, she was instrumental in developing the club's relationship with the Yomiuri Giants of the Japan Central League and the signing of three-time Central League Most Valuable Player Hideki Matsui. She continues to cultivate relationships within the international baseball community, and in 2007 joined team President Randy Levine and General Manager Brian Cashman on a week-long trip to Asia that concluded a working agreement with the Chinese Baseball Association.

In 2004, Ms. Afterman was named one of the "Power 100" by the Sporting News and was selected as one of the "50 Most Powerful Women in New York" by the New York Post in 2003 and 2007. Also in 2007, Ms. Afterman was profiled as one of Crain's New York Business' "100 Most Influential Women in New York Business" and in 2008, she was profiled by Forbes Magazine as one of the top female executives in baseball.

Ms. Afterman joined the Yankees with a diverse business and legal background, with experience in corporate, labor and immigration law as well as international sports and licensing with an emphasis on US-Japan matters. She has traveled and lectured in Japan on business issues and, in 1996, Ms. Afterman was appointed by the U.S. Secretary of Agriculture to a federal advisory committee, the National Organic Standards Board. Prior to joining the Yankees, Ms. Afterman managed her own practice, providing athletic representation and management with a specialization in arbitration proceedings.

From 1994 to 1999, she was General Counsel at KDN Sports, Inc. and handled business and legal affairs for international baseball clients, including Hideo Nomo, Hideki Irabu, Masato Yoshii, Alfonso Soriano and more than 30 other Major and Minor League players.

Ms. Afterman graduated from the University of California at Berkeley in 1979 and was the recipient of the Rosalynn Schneider Eisner Prize and the Mark Goodson Scholarship Grant. She received her J.D. from the University of San Francisco School of Law in 1991.

Yankee STADIUM

History of Yankee Stadium

Only a year after they changed Baseball forever with the purchase of Babe Ruth from the Boston Red Sox, the Yankees made another acquisition that would forever change the way the game was watched.

On February 6, 1921, the Yankees issued a press release announcing the purchase of 10 acres of property in the west Bronx. The land, purchased from the estate of William Waldorf Astor for $675,000, sat directly across the Harlem River from the Yankees' current Manhattan home, the Polo Grounds, which they had been unhappily sharing with their landlord, the New York Giants of the National League since 1913.

The relationship between the Giants and their tenant crumbled after the 1920 season when Yankees attendance—boosted by their new slugging sensation—doubled to almost 1.3 million, approximately 25 percent more than that of the Giants. In 1921, the Giants asked the Yankees to vacate the Polo Grounds as soon as possible. With their departure from the Polo Grounds now inevitable, Yankees co-owners Jacob Ruppert and Tillinghast l'Hommedieu Huston set out to build a spectacular ballpark of their own, Baseball's first triple-decked structure. With an advertised capacity of 70,000, it would also be the first to be labeled a "stadium."

Original plans of the architect—the Osborne Engineering Company of Cleveland, Ohio—had the Stadium triple-decked and roofed all the way around. An early press release, in fact, described the Yankees' new home as a field enclosed with towering embattlements rendering the events inside "impenetrable to all human eyes, save those of aviators." But the initial grand design was quickly scaled back with the triple-decked grandstand not reaching either foul pole. Contrary to the owners' wishes, the action would be visible from the elevated trains that passed by the outfield, as well as from the buildings that would spring up across River Avenue. Fortunately, a purely decorative element survived the project's early downsizing and would become the park's most recognizable feature. A 15-foot-high copper frieze would adorn the front of the roof, which covered much of the Stadium's third deck. It would give Yankee Stadium a stately dignity that no park has possessed—either before or since.

The new stadium would favor left-handed power with the right-field foul pole only 295 feet from home plate (It would shoot out to 429 feet in right-center). Though the left-field pole measured only 281 feet from the plate, right-handed hitters would be neutralized by a 395-foot left field and a whopping 460 feet to left-center. The new stadium would also be patron-friendly, boasting an unheard of "eight toilet rooms for men and as many for women scattered throughout the stands and bleachers." (After the Stadium was remodeled 50 years later, it included more than 50 restrooms.) The club's executive offices would be moved from Midtown Manhattan and relocated between the main and mezzanine decks with an electric elevator connecting them with the main entrance.

The construction contract was awarded to New York's White Construction Company on May 5, 1922, with the edict that the job be completed "at a definite price" of $2.5 million by Opening Day 1923. Incredibly, it was. In only 284 working days, Yankee Stadium was ready for its inaugural game on April 18, 1923 vs. the Boston Red Sox.

An announced crowd of 74,200 fans packed Yankee Stadium for its first glimpse of Baseball's grandest facility while thousands more milled around outside after the fire department finally ordered the gates closed. Before the game began, John Philip Sousa and the Seventh Regiment Band led both clubs to the flagpole in deep center field, where the American flag and the Yankees' 1922 pennant were raised. Appropriately, Ruth christened his new home with a three-run homer to cap a four-run third inning as the Yankees coasted to a 4-1 win.

Because it was widely recognized that Ruth's tremendous drawing power made the new stadium possible, New York Evening Telegram sportswriter Fred Lieb dubbed it "The House That Ruth Built." Later that season, the Stadium hosted the first of 37 World Series, and the Yankees won their first World Championship over their former landlord, the Giants. Of course, as the Stadium became the stage for a staggering number of world titles—which now total 26—it would also become known as "The Home of Champions."

Yankee Stadium in the 1920s

In its early years, when wooden bleachers surrounded the outfield, a grass slope rose toward the outfield walls from foul pole to foul pole. Outfielders, especially Ruth in right, routinely backed up the small hill to pull down fly balls. Advertising signs lined the tops of the bleachers except in right-center, where a lone manually operated wooden scoreboard was "big enough to record 12 innings for games played by every club in the two major leagues." Over the years, the board would be replaced by more modern models. The Yankees, in fact, would unveil Baseball's first electronic message board in 1959.

The original manual scoreboard

By 1928, the Stadium was ready for its first major face-lift. The triple-decked grandstand in left field was extended beyond the foul pole to its current termination point, and several rows of box seats were removed in order to extend the left-field foul pole distance to 301 feet. The right-field grandstand was extended in 1937, allowing for "upper-deck" home runs in both directions. With the grandstand expansion, the remaining wooden bleachers were replaced with a concrete structure, and the distance to center field dropped from 490 feet to a still-distant 461 feet.

In 1932, the Yankees began their tradition of commemorating their heroes with monuments and plaques when they dedicated a monument to Manager Miller Huggins, who had died suddenly during the 1929 season. Five more monuments have since been added (one each for Lou Gehrig, Ruth, Mickey Mantle and Joe DiMaggio and one to honor the victims and heroes of the terrorists attacks of September 11, 2001) along with numerous plaques. For years, existing monuments were in the field of play in deep center field, and outfielders occasionally had to work around them to retrieve baseballs hit to that part of the park.

Except for the addition of lights in 1946, the look of Yankee Stadium remained relatively the same until the winter of 1966-67. Then, under the direction of its new owner, CBS, the 44-year-old facility received a $1.5 million modernization, most of which was spent on 90 tons of paint. The brown concrete exterior was painted white as was the timeworn greenish copper frieze. Also, all of the grandstand seats went from green to blue, a color scheme that would be retained when the Stadium was completely remodeled after the 1973 season.

On August 8, 1972, after years of debate about the future of the aging ballpark, the Yankees signed a 30-year lease with the City of New York, which called for Yankee Stadium to be completely modernized in time for the 1976 season. After completing the Stadium's 50th-anniversary season in 1973, the Yankees moved to Shea Stadium for two seasons while the majority of the Stadium was torn down and rebuilt.

The most striking change of the modernization was the removal of the numerous obstructive steel columns that supported the second and third decks, as well as the roof. By "cantilevering" the upper decks and lowering the playing field while increasing the slope of the lower stands, sight lines for fans were dramatically improved. Capacity was reduced from 65,010 in 1973 to 54,028 upon reopening as wider plastic seats replaced wooden seats.

Of course, with the removal of the original roof,

the Stadium almost lost its most-recognizable feature: the copper frieze. However, an innovative design concept included an exact replica of the frieze atop the new 560-foot-long scoreboard wall, which stretched across the rear of the bleachers. The board also included Baseball's first "telescreen," which could provide instant replays of the action by employing a then-incredible "nine shades of gray."

Yankee Stadium's exterior changed dramatically, too, as three escalator towers were added, one at each of the Stadium's three entrances. With seven additional rows of seats added to the upper deck, the already grand Stadium received an even more majestic look. A 138-foot Louisville Slugger-shaped smokestack, commonly called "The Bat," was added outside the Stadium near the home-plate entrance.

The renovated Stadium also saw the mammoth fence distances in left and center field greatly reduced as "Death Valley" in left-center was brought in from 457 feet to 430 feet, and straightaway center field was slimmed from 463 feet to 417 feet. Subsequent alterations prior to the 1985 and 1988 seasons have brought fences in to the configuration that remains today.

The remodeled Yankee Stadium opened on April 15, 1976—with the Yankees topping Minnesota, 11-4—and, like its predecessor, would host the World Series in its inaugural season. In fact, the remodeled Stadium hosted the Fall Classic in its first three seasons with the Yankees winning back-to-back World Series titles in 1977 and 1978.

Yankee Stadium in 2007

As one of the world's most prestigious addresses, Yankee Stadium has also been the home for scores of other sports, entertainment and cultural events. While the Yankees were on the road or in the offseason, the Stadium opened its gates to college and pro football, soccer, political assemblies, religious conventions, concerts and even the circus.

Boxing immediately found a home at Yankee Stadium with Benny Leonard winning a 15-round decision over Lou Tendler for the lightweight title just three months after the gates opened on July 24, 1923. When Muhammad Ali stopped Ken Norton on September 28, 1976, it marked the 30th championship fight at the Stadium. All previous title bouts had taken place between 1923 and 1959–perhaps none more memorable than the June 22, 1938, heavyweight championship match between Joe Louis and Germany's Max Schmeling. After suffering a knockout loss in the initial non-title encounter at the Stadium two years earlier, Louis—now the heavyweight champ—avenged his defeat with a stunning first-round KO in the rematch.

Football also became an immediate fixture at Yankee Stadium with the 1923 Army-Navy game inaugurating a rich history of collegiate and later professional football matchups. On November 12, 1928, with Notre Dame and Army locked in a scoreless game at halftime, the legendary Knute Rockne made his famous "Win One for the Gipper" pep talk, and the Fighting Irish went on to defeat the Cadets, 12-6.

The New York football Giants also called Yankee Stadium home from 1956 through 1973 and on December 28, 1958, played in what is widely recognized as "The Greatest Game Ever Played." With the NFL championship at stake, a crowd of 64,185 watched the Baltimore Colts tie the game, 17-17, on a Steve Myrha field goal with seven seconds left. Eight minutes into professional football's first-ever "sudden-death" overtime period, the Colts' Alan Ameche crashed into the end zone from the 1-yard line, ending a contest that would help establish pro football as a major sport.

The Stadium was also an important stop for religious conventions, especially those of the Jehovah's Witnesses. In 1950, they began holding conventions at the Stadium, including one that drew 123,707 people on August 8, 1958—the largest single-day event in Stadium history. On October 4, 1965—with the Yankees out of the World Series for only the third time in 17 years—the Stadium held the first-ever Papal Mass in the United States as Pope Paul VI celebrated Mass before a crowd in excess of 80,000. Pope John Paul II also celebrated Mass at Yankee Stadium on October 2, 1979, during his tour of the United States.

On August 16, 2006, a groundbreaking ceremony was held for a new Yankee Stadium to be built on the north side of 161st Street and River Avenue in the Bronx, directly across the street from the site of the current and original Stadium. With construction proceeding briskly toward a 2009 move-in, the 2008 season will mark the 86th and final year of Yankee Stadium as we have known it. The new state-of-the-art facility is intended to respect and replicate many of the aesthetics of the original Stadium but also allow fans, players and media all the best of modern 21st-century comforts and amenities. It is sure to inspire future generations both in the stands and on the field while serving as an awe-inspiring reminder of the club's unparalleled legacy of glory.

Previous Homes of the Yankees

Hilltop Park

American League Park (commonly known as Hilltop Park) was the Yankees' first home. Hastily constructed in just six weeks on one of the highest points in Upper Manhattan, the all-wooden ballpark sat on a block bounded by Broadway,165th Street, Fort Washington Avenue and 168th Street, in close proximity to the New York Giants' 155th Street home, the Polo Grounds. The first game at Hilltop Park was played on April 30, 1903—a 6-2 win over Washington, started by Hall of Famer Jack Chesbro.

The ballpark had a covered grandstand ringing the infield from first base to third base and uncovered bleachers running up the foul lines. There was seating for approximately 15,000 people, but as was the case in many ballparks of that time, it could accommodate overflow crowds both in the outfield and along foul ground in the infield, occasionally bringing capacity up toward 25,000.

When a fire ravaged the Polo Grounds on April 14, 1911, the Yankees allowed the Giants to play their home games at Hilltop Park until the Polo Grounds could be rebuilt. From April 15 through May 30, the Giants put together a 20-8 record at their temporary home.

The Yankees were successful in their 10 years at Hilltop Park, compiling a 398-342 all-time record there. The club's final game at the structure came on October 5, 1912—an 8-6 win vs. Washington. After the Yankees' lease at Hilltop Park expired at the end of the season, they decided to leave the rickety ballpark to become renters at the Polo Grounds, where the Giants became their landlords. The move, unthinkable years earlier, was facilitated by the Yankees' post-fire hospitality.

In 1914, Hilltop Park was torn down. Currently, its former location is the site of Columbia-Presbyterian Medical Center.

Hilltop Park (above/below) served as the Yankees' first home. It was built in just six weeks and was located near Broadway and 168th Street in Upper Manhattan.

Polo Grounds

The Yankees called the Polo Grounds home from 1913 through 1922, sharing the park with the New York Giants. Located on West 157th Street and Eighth Avenue in Upper Manhattan, the Polo Grounds was overlooked by a promontory called Coogan's Bluff to the west. To the east was the Harlem River—on the other side of which Yankee Stadium was built in 1923.

The Polo Grounds was constructed with straight sides, and the outfield fences by the foul poles ran parallel to each other and away from home plate. The foul poles in left and right were approximately 277 and 258 feet away from the plate, respectively, while left-center, center and right fields were all in the range of 445-483 feet away from home.

The Polo Grounds, located on West 157th Street and Eighth Avenue in Upper Manhattan, served as the home of the Yankees from 1913-22.

The Yankees compiled a 416-338 all-time regular season record at the uniquely-shaped facility, winning the first two pennants in franchise history while tenants in 1921 and 1922. The club lost both of those World Series to the NL Champion Giants—5 games to 3 in 1921 and 4 games to none with one tie in 1922—in Fall Classics played entirely at the Polo Grounds.

The American Leaguers were welcome tenants as long as they remained less popular than the Giants. But with Babe Ruth's arrival in 1920 and the team's subsequent success, the dynam c quickly changed. After the Yankees started outdrawing the Giants in their own park in 1920 and 1921, the National Leaguers asked the Pinstripers to vacate to a new facility as soon as possible. The 1922 season marked their final season in Manhattan before their April 18, 1923, Yankee Stadium debut in the Bronx.

The Polo Grounds remained home to the Giants until they moved to San Francisco in 1958. It stood empty until 1962 when the Mets arrived to play two seasons there before moving into Shea Stadium. In 1964, the Polo Grounds was demolished. Apartment buildings called the Polo Grounds Towers occupy the site today.

Lou Gehrig Appreciation Day - July 4, 1939

Prior to the Yankees' May 2, 1939, game at Detroit's Briggs Stadium, captain Lou Gehrig gave the umpires his team's lineup card—which did not have his name on it. He watched the entire game from the bench, marking the end of his 2,130-consecutive-games-played streak. "The Iron Horse" was suffering the effects of amyotrophic lateral sclerosis (ALS), a disease since known as Lou Gehrig's Disease. He would never play again.

Just over two months later, on July 4, 1939, Lou Gehrig Appreciation Day was held in front of approximately 62,000 fans in Yankee Stadium. Ceremonies were held between games of a doubleheader against the Washington Senators. Gehrig and his teammates were joined by members of the 1927 Yankees. After speeches by Mayor Fiorello La Guardia and Postmaster James A. Farley, Manager Joe McCarthy said his public goodbye to Gehrig: "Lou, what can I say except that it was a sad day in the life of everybody who knew you when you came to my hotel room that day in Detroit and told me you were quitting as a ballplayer because you felt yourself a hindrance to the team.

"My God, man, you were never that."

Various gifts were presented to Gehrig from club employees and the rival New York Giants. His teammates gave him a trophy, which was inscribed with a poem by New York Times writer John Kiernan. As the crowd chanted, "We want Lou; We want Lou...," Gehrig stepped to the microphone to deliver one of the most touching and oft-quoted speeches in American history.

"Fans, for the past two weeks you have been reading about the bad break I got. Yet today I consider myself the luckiest man on the face of the Earth. I have been in ballparks for 17 years and have never received anything but kindness and encouragement from you fans.

"Look at these grand men. Which of you wouldn't consider it the highlight of his career just to associate with them for even one day? Sure, I'm lucky. Who wouldn't consider it an honor to have known Jacob Ruppert? Also, the builder of baseball's greatest empire, Ed Barrow? To have spent six years with that wonderful little fellow, Miller Huggins? Then to have spent the next nine years with that outstanding leader, that smart student of psychology, the best manager in baseball today, Joe McCarthy? Sure, I'm lucky.

"When the New York Giants, a team you would give your right arm to beat, and vice versa, sends you a gift—that's something. When everybody down to the groundskeepers and those boys in white coats remember you with trophies—that's something. When you have a wonderful mother-in-law who takes sides with you in squabbles with her own daughter—that's something. When you have a father and a mother who work all their lives so you can have an education and build your body—it's a blessing. When you have a wife who has been a tower of strength and shown more courage than you dreamed existed—that's the finest I know.

"So I close in saying that I might have been given a bad break, but I've got an awful lot to live for."

During the ceremony, Gehrig had his No. 4 retired by the Yankees, becoming the first person in sports to be given such an honor. To this day he remains the only Yankee ever to wear the number.

Gehrig died on June 2, 1941, at his home in the Riverdale section of the Bronx. He was 37.

Babe Ruth Day – April 27, 1947

On April 27, 1947, Babe Ruth Day was celebrated throughout Major League Baseball, as the Babe said goodbye in an on-field ceremony at Yankee Stadium. Dressed in a topcoat and hat, Ruth, weakened by throat cancer, made the following remarks:

"Thank you very much, ladies and gentlemen. You know how bad my voice sounds—well it feels just as bad.

"You know this baseball game of ours comes up from the youth. That means the boys. And after you're a boy and grow up to know how to play ball, then you come to the boys you see representing themselves today in your national pastime. The only real game—I think—in the world is baseball.

"As a rule, some people think if you give them a football, or a baseball, or something like that—naturally they're athletes right away. But you can't do that in baseball. You've gotta start from way down [at] the bottom, when you're 6 or 7 years of age. You can't wait until you're 15 or 16. You gotta let it grow up with you. And if you're successful, and you try hard enough, you're bound to come out on top—just like these boys have come to the top now.

"There has been so many lovely things said about me, and I'm glad that I've had the opportunity to thank everybody. Thank you."

Ruth returned to Yankee Stadium once more, on June 13, 1948, to celebrate the 25th anniversary of Yankee Stadium and have his uniform No. 3 retired.

He died on Aug. 16, 1948, at Memorial Hospital in New York at age 53. His body lay in state at the entrance of Yankee Stadium on Aug. 17 and 18, before his funeral on Aug. 19 at New York's St. Patrick's Cathedral.

Monument Park

Since 1932, the New York Yankees have honored their all-time greats with the dedication of monuments and plaques in the outfield section of Yankee Stadium.

On May 30, 1932, the first monument was dedicated to the memory of Miller Huggins, who died suddenly in 1929. The diminutive manager guided the Yankees to six American League pennants and three World Championships in his 11-plus seasons.

The first plaque was placed on the center-field wall in April 1940, a tribute to Jacob Ruppert, the former owner who built Yankee Stadium and brought the tradition of winning to the Yankees.

Two more monuments followed: in 1941 for Lou Gehrig and in 1949 for Babe Ruth. Later plaques were placed in center field for General Manager Ed Barrow (1954) and two great Yankees center fielders, Joe DiMaggio and Mickey Mantle (1969). After his death, Mantle's plaque was removed and replaced by a fourth monument in his honor on August 25, 1996. On April 25, 1999, DiMaggio—who passed away less than two months earlier—was honored with the Stadium's fifth monument. (The two plaques which previously honored DiMaggio and Mantle were donated by the Yankees to the Yogi Berra Museum and Learning Center in Montclair, N.J.).

Originally, the monuments and plaques were part of the playing field. The monuments and flagpole were located in straight-away center field on the warning track approximately 10 feet in front of the wall. Sometimes long hits and fly balls forced fielders to go through or behind the monuments to retrieve the baseball.

One tradition of Yankee Stadium before it was remodeled was the policy of allowing fans to exit through the center-field gates via the warning track, where they could pause and reflect on the achievements of these honored legends. After Yankee Stadium was remodeled in 1974 and 1975, the monuments and plaques were relocated to an area off the field between the Yankees' and visitors' bullpens. Additionally, fans were no longer allowed to exit via the warning track, and viewing Monument Park was only possible at a great distance.

In 1976, two more plaques were added to memorialize managers Joe McCarthy and Casey Stengel. In the 1980s, plaques were dedicated to Yankees greats Thurman Munson (1980), Elston Howard and Roger Maris (1984), Phil Rizzuto (1985), Billy Martin (1986), Whitey Ford and Lefty Gomez (1987), Yogi Berra and Bill Dickey (1988), and Allie Reynolds (1989). Two recent plaques were dedicated to non-uniformed Yankees legends: the "Voice of the Yankees," Mel Allen (1998); and the "Voice of Yankee Stadium," public-address announcer Bob Sheppard (2000). Yankees greats Don Mattingly (1997), Reggie Jackson (2002), Ron Guidry (2003) and Red Ruffing (2004) are the most recent Bombers to be honored with plaques in Monument Park. Plaques commemorating the visits of Pope Paul VI in 1965 and Pope John Paul II in 1979 were dedicated by the Knights of Columbus, and a plaque commemorating the New York Yankees' interlocking "NY" insignia was placed on the floor among the stonework of the park's entrance in 2001.

In 1985, after the left-center-field fence was moved in, the Yankees were able to open Monument Park for up-close fan viewing. By 1988, long lines and increased fan interest caused the Yankees to move the fence in further and expand the area. A special walkway was added with an exhibit honoring those Yankees who have had their uniform numbers retired.

In a pregame ceremony on Sept. 11, 2002, the Yankees dedicated a monument in remembrance of the victims and heroes of the 9/11 tragedy. It was the sixth monument dedicated in Yankee Stadium and the first to non-Yankees personnel.

In all, there are six monuments (five for Yankees players or managers and one to commemorate 9/11) and 23 plaques (16 Yankees players or managers, two for Yankees owner/executives, two for public-address/broadcasting personnel, two for papal visit commemorations and one related to the Yankees insignia).

We Remember
On September 11, 2001, despicable acts of terrorism were perpetrated on our country.

In tribute to the eternal spirit of the innocent victims of these crimes and to the selfless courage shown by both public servants and private citizens, we dedicate this plaque.

These valiant souls, with unfettered resolve, exemplify the true character of this great nation. Their unity and resilience during this time of distress defined American heroism for future generations.

Bob Sheppard "The Voice of Yankee Stadium"

As synonymous with Yankee Stadium as Monument Park, Bob Sheppard celebrates his 58th anniversary as public address announcer in 2008.

The 'egendary "Voice of Yankee Stadium," who has also been dubbed the "Voice of God" by generations of admiring players and fans, began his tenure with the Yankees on April 17, 1951, the only instance in which Joe DiMaggio and Mickey Mantle shared an Opening Day outfield.

Born in Ridgewood, Queens, before moving to Richmond Hills, also in the borough, Sheppard attended St. John's College, which eventually became St. John's University. Always a talented athlete, he received a full athletic scholarship to the school, playing quarterback on the football team all four years. He went on to enroll at Columbia University, where he received his master's degree in speech and worked his way up from teacher in training to substitute teacher to permanent teacher to department chairman. To supplement his teaching salary, Sheppard played semiprofessional football on Sundays in Long Island with the Valley Stream Red Riders and the Hempstead Monitors, earning $25 a game.

By the time World War II broke out, Sheppard was married with three small children, and he sought out a position as a naval officer in order to best provide for his family. He finished a two-year tour of duty and was released from his military commitment with honor. He returned to teaching as chairman of the speech department at John Adams High School in Ozone Park, Queens, where he stayed for 25 years.

Sheppard's incredible career behind the microphone started when he volunteered his services for a charity football game in Freeport, Long Island, in the late 1940s. An executive from the Brooklyn Dodgers football team of the All-America Conference was at the game, liked Sheppard's style ("clear, concise and correct") and hired him. The football Dodgers folded after only one season at Ebbets Field (1948), but one of their opponents—the New York football Yankees—heard Sheppard's booming voice and offered him their PA job at Yankee Stadium. Baseball's Yankees then heard him and offered him the same role for them for the 1950 season. But Sheppard's teaching schedule could not accommodate the 77-game home schedule for baseball (plus World Series games), and he turned down the offer.

"You must remember that in those days there were a lot of afternoon games," Sheppard said. "It was just not possible to do both things."

But the Yankees were persistent and again offered the PA job to Sheppard for the 1951 season with one attractive addition. The Yankees would allow Sheppard to hire a replacement for any games he would have to miss. And the rest, as they say, is history.

"A temporary job," Sheppard said, "that has lasted a half century."

Among the approximately 4,500 baseball games he has worked are an incredible 121 consecutive postseason contests (1951-2006), including 62 games in 22 World Series. Additionally, Sheppard was the public address voice for the football Giants for 50 seasons—from their move to Yankee Stadium in 1956 until his retirement after the 2005 season. Some the events he lists as the most memorable of his incredible career are: Don Larsen's perfect game in Game 5 of the 1956 World Series on October 8, 1956; Roger Maris' 61st home run on October 1, 1961; Reggie Jackson's three home runs in Game 6 of the 1977 World Series on October 18, 1977; and the Giants-Colts overtime NFL Championship Game on December 28, 1958.

Sheppard has also served the New York Titans of the American Football League at the Polo Grounds, the New York Stars of the World Football League at Downing Stadium as well as the New York Cosmos (soccer) and St. John's University basketball and football games. Sheppard also handled the PA duties for five Army-Navy games in Philadelphia.

Over the years, the eloquent linguist has also written and delivered hundreds of moving tributes and eulogies to departed legends ranging from Mickey Mantle (1995) and Joe DiMaggio (1999) to those lost in the attacks of September 11, 2001, to Ray Charles (2004) and former President Ronald Reagan (2004).

In 1998, Sheppard was presented with the prestigious William J. Slocum "Long and Meritorious Service" award by the New York chapter of the BBWAA as well as the "Pride of the Yankees" award by the ballclub. He was even honored with a ceremonial first pitch before Game 2 of the 1998 World Series at Yankee Stadium (he recorded his own introduction). And, during his 50th season as the Yankees' PA announcer in 2000, he presented his most-recent Yankee Stadium microphone to the Baseball Hall of Fame during induction ceremonies in Cooperstown, N.Y.

In one of the game's truly memorable moments, Sheppard introduced President George W. Bush before Game 3 of the 2001 World Series (on October 30) as Mr. Bush became the first sitting President to throw out a ceremonial first pitch at Yankee Stadium.

The native New Yorker has been elected to the St. John's University Sports Hall of Fame, the Long Island Sports Hall of Fame and the New York Sports Hall of Fame. He has been awarded honorary doctorates from St. John's University (Pedagogy) and Fordham University (Rhetoric), and in 2007, received the Medal of Honor from St. John's, the highest award that the university can confer on a graduate.

Sheppard has also made cameo appearances in numerous motion pictures and television shows, including *61, It's My Turn, It Could Happen to You, Anger Management, Seinfeld and Mad About You.

Not bad for a part-time job.

"Most men go to work, but I go to a game," Sheppard said. "How many men would love to do that?"

He resides on Long Island with his wife, Mary. They have four children, four grandchildren and nine great grandchildren.

Voices Before Sheppard

Hard to believe, but Bob Sheppard is not the only Public Address Announcer in Yankee Stadium's fabled history. But no one—not even Sheppard himself—could remember who immediately preceded the current Stadium P.A. announcer behind the microphone. After all, the last game by this mystery man would have been 58 years ago, probably the fourth and final game of the 1950 World Series between the Yankees and Philadelphia's "Whiz Kids" Phillies.

But, after years of search and research, the answer may have turned up in the transcript of an interview conducted in 1991 by writer Paul Doherty with Don Carney, the producer-director of Yankees telecasts for more than three decades.

Extolling Sheppard's longevity, Carney told Doherty that "Bob's been around forever. He followed Red Patterson, who was the club's Public Relations Director and also did the P.A."

Red Patterson: The man who preceded Sheppard

Carney's words give not only the answer but may also explain the mystery. Sheppard's predecessor was widely but anonymously quoted in the newspapers for an infamous gaffe he made during a Yankees-Philadelphia Athletics game on May 31, 1946. "Will the spectators in the front row please remove their clothing..." he began, with the rest of his announcement: "from the front railing," drowned out by the crowd's laughter.

The story got into the papers, but the identity of the speaker did not. Of course, it didn't. The writers didn't want to embarrass their main conduit for information about the club!

Additional research shows that Yankee Stadium was the last ballpark in the Majors to install a public-address system. It debuted in Game 3 of the 1936 World Series and was manned by Jack Lenz and George Levy, two veterans of the time when information was still relayed to the crowd by megaphone.

The careers of Lenz and Levy began in 1915 when the Yankees and Giants shared the Polo Grounds. When the Yankees hopped across the Harlem River in 1923, Levy stayed with the Giants while Lenz took the Yankee post. "I grabbed the offer," Lenz said. "Who wouldn't, with the old Bambino holding forth at the Stadium?"

To do his job, Lenz sat in a box alongside the Yankees dugout (then on the third-base side of Yankee Stadium) and shouted the batting orders and batteries (each team's pitcher and catcher) as well as the changes throughout the game. Unlike today, players were not announced each time they came to bat and Lenz was called upon only when a change was made.

Jack Lenz: "The little man with the big voice."

According to a feature article which appeared in the New York Evening News in the early 1930s to celebrate a career of more than 2,000 consecutive games, Lenz—the "mild-mannered megaphone man"—would receive the lineups and batting orders from both managers approximately 15 minutes before the start of the game (3:15 p.m. in those days). After telephoning the press box with the "necessary dope," Lenz would pick up his megaphone and shout the batting orders and batteries. He directed his voice first toward the bleachers, then to the upper tiers of the grandstand and again to the lower stands.

Due to the vast size of their new ballpark, the Yankees actually began the 1927 season with two public address announcers to service Yankee Stadium. After the idea proved successful before a crowd of more than 65,000 on Opening Day, the "two-ply announcer system" of Lenz and Levy was used again for the second game when the crowd was only about 7,000. The experiment was likely short lived.

2008 All-Star Game at Yankee Stadium

On July 15, 2008, all eyes will converge upon Yankee Stadium as the best and brightest stars in Baseball give "The House That Ruth Built" an All-Star send-off when the New York Yankees host Major League Baseball's 79th All-Star Game in the Stadium's final season.

Commissioner Allan H. (Bud) Selig, along with New York City Mayor Michael Bloomberg, made the announcement on January 31, 2007, that the New York Yankees would host the 2008 Major League Baseball All-Star Game at Yankee Stadium – during Yankee Stadium's final year. The five-day event is estimated to generate more than $100 million dollars of revenue for New York City.

This will be the fourth All-Star game to take place at Yankee Stadium and the first since July 19, 1977, in the second season of the remodeled Yankee Stadium. Only Cleveland's old Municipal Stadium has hosted as many All-Star Games. Overall, this will be New York City's eighth MLB All-Star Game, passing Chicago (seven) for the highest total in Major League history. Prior to 1977, the Yankees hosted the Midsummer Classic in 1939 and 1960 (Game 2) at Yankee Stadium, while the Polo Grounds (1934 and 1942), Ebbets Field (1949) and Shea Stadium (1964) were also used as All-Star sites.

Major League Baseball's first All-Star Game was played at Chicago's Comiskey Park in 1933. It was the first event of its kind in professional sports history and continues to be the most popular and most widely watched All-Star contest in North America. In its 75-year history, MLB's All-Star Game has been held in 26 different cities and 50 different ballparks. This year will be the first time the Midsummer Classic will be held in the host team's final season at its ballpark.

The 2008 MLB All-Star Game will be the 15th All-Star gathering in New York City, including professional baseball, basketball and hockey. Omitting the NFL's Pro Bowl which was moved exclusively to Honolulu, Hawaii, in 1980, no other U.S. city has hosted as many All-Star events as New York. The National Hockey League brought their All-Star festivities in 1973 (Rangers), 1983 (Islanders) and 1994 (Rangers), while the National Basketball Association has held its All-Star Game at New York City's Madison Square Garden four times (1954-55, '68, '98).

Since the game originated in 1933, the Yankees have had the most All-Star players (112) and the highest total All-Star selections (376) of any Major League Baseball franchise. Mickey Mantle owns the most All-Star selections in club history, having been named to 20 All-Star teams, fourth-most all-time. Yankees pitcher Lefty Gomez is the only pitcher in All-Star Game history to earn three wins, having made five career All-Star starts. Joe DiMaggio (13 career All-Star nods) and Tom Tresh (three career All-Star selections), own the distinction as the only Yankees rookies to start for the American League (1936 and 1962, respectively). Of the 78 All-Star Games, a Yankees Manager has skippered the American League team 28 times (36%). There are 12 current New York Yankees players with a combined 52 All-Star Game appearances (as of Feb. 20). Third baseman Alex Rodriguez leads the team with 11 trips to the Midsummer Classic, followed by shortstop Derek Jeter and closer Mariano Rivera with eight All-Star appearances apiece. According to the Elias Sports Bureau, Jeter and Rivera are the only players to be named to the All-Star squad with their current team at least eight times. Jeter holds the distinction as the only All-Star MVP in club history, taking home the honor in 2000 after going 3-for-3 with 1 double and 2RBI in the AL's 6-3 win at Atlanta's Turner Field. He became just the fourth shortstop to earn the award. Rivera, who last made the All-Star team in 2006, is tied with Dennis Eckersley for most saves in All-Star Game history with three. In 2007, Rodriguez led the All-Star balloting for the first time in his career, garnering 3,890,515 votes.

In celebration of the 2008 All-Star Game, New York City will host five days of fanfare and player events prior to the game on July 15. The DHL All-Star FanFest will take place from Friday, July 11 through Tuesday, July 15 at the Jacob Javits Center in New York City. Yankee Stadium will host Taco Bell All-Star Sunday on July 13, featuring both the XM All-Star Futures Game and the Taco Bell All-Star Legends and Celebrity Softball Game. Gatorade All-Star Workout Day will take place on Monday, July 14, at Yankee Stadium and will feature the State Farm Home Run Derby. On Tuesday, the MLB All-Star Red Carpet Show Presented by Chevrolet will usher the MLB All-Star players through the streets of New York City prior to the 79th Annual All-Star Game.

Yankees All-Star Game Highlights

July 6, 1933 (First All-Star Game) – Babe Ruth hit a two-run home run that proved to be the difference and Lefty Gomez earned the win in the first-ever All-Star Game, a 4-2 American League victory. Gomez's second-inning RBI single drove in the first run in All-Star Game history.

July 7, 1937 (Fifth All-Star Game) – Lou Gehrig doubled and homered in a game dominated by Yankees All-Stars who accounted for seven hits and a win by starter Lefty Gomez (3.0IP, 0ER).

July 11, 1939 (Seventh All-Star Game) – In the first All-Star Game at Yankee Stadium, Yankees outfielder Joe DiMaggio hit a solo home run in the fifth inning of the American League's 3-1 win.

July 13, 1943 (11th All-Star Game) – Joe McCarthy managed the AL squad to a 5-3 win at Shibe Park (Philadelphia) in the first-ever All-Star Game played at night.

July 8, 1947 (14th All-Star Game) – Frank (Spec) Shea (3.0IP, 1ER) became first rookie pitcher to earn a win in an All-Star Game in a 2-1 American League victory.

July 12, 1955 (22nd All-Star Game) – The American League plated four runs in the first inning, including a three-run home run by Mickey Mantle off Robin Roberts before a single out had been recorded. The National League, however, mounted a comeback for a 6-5 victory.

July 8, 1958 (25th All-Star Game) – Yankees second baseman Gil McDougald's pinch-hit single scored the go-ahead run in the sixth inning as the American League held on for a 4-3 victory.

August 3, 1959 (27th All-Star Game) – Yankees catcher Yogi Berra hit a two-out, two-run home run in the third inning in the American League's 5-3 win.

July 11, 1967 (38th All-Star Game) – Yankees pitcher Al Downing, in his only All-Star Game appearance, tossed two scoreless innings of relief (ninth and 10th innings) in an All-Star Game-record 15-inning game which ended in a 2-1 National League win.

July 12, 1994 (65th All-Star Game) – Jimmy Key (2.0IP, 1H, 1R, 1K) became the first Yankees pitcher to start an All-Star game since Mel Stottlemyre in 1969.

July 11, 2000 (71st All-Star Game) – Derek Jeter took home Most Valuable Player honors, going 3-for-3 with a double, two singles and 2 RBI in the AL's 6-3 win. He became the first and only Yankee to win the All-Star MVP and the fourth shortstop to take home the honor.

July 10, 2001 (72nd All-Star Game) – Derek Jeter led off the sixth inning with a solo home run in his only at-bat and three Yankees pitchers (Roger Clemens, Andy Pettitte, Mike Stanton) combined for 3.2 scoreless innings in a 4-1 AL victory.

July 11, 2006 (77th All-Star Game) – Yankees closer Mariano Rivera recorded his third All-Star Game save, tying Dennis Eckersley for the most in All-Star Game history, as the American League recorded a 3-2, come-from-behind victory.

Did You Know?
The Yankees have reached the World Series in each of the three years that the All-Star Game has been played at Yankee Stadium and have won the Fall Classic in two of those three seasons (1939 and 1977).

Seventh All-Star Game

American League 3, National League 1

July 11, 1939, Yankee Stadium

Yankee Stadium was chosen to host the 1939 All-Star Game due to the World's Fair which was being held at Flushing-Meadows in Queens during the 1939 season. The Cubs' Gabby Hartnett managed the National League squad while Yankees skipper Joe McCarthy led the American League squad, which featured 10 Yankees All-Stars, six of which were starters. Yankees centerfielder Joe DiMaggio was 1-for-4 in the game, belting a solo home run. Lou Gehrig, who announced his retirement in May of 1939, was an honorary member of the A.L. squad.

Home Run Derby
The 2008 All-Star Game Home Run Derby will be the first Home Run Derby to take place at Yankee Stadium. Two Yankees have won the yearly competition which began in 1985: Tino Martinez (1997) and Jason Giambi (2002).

On This Date
This year's All-Star Game will be the fourth Midsummer Classic to be played on July 15:
- Game 46 (July 15, 1975) at Milwaukee's County Stadium, 6-3 NL win.
- Game 57 (July 15, 1986) at Houston's Astrodome, 3-2 AL win.
- Game 74 (July 15, 2003) at Chicago's U.S. Cellular Field, 7-6 AL win.

29th All-Star Game

National League 6, American League 0
July 13, 1960 (Game #2), Yankee Stadium

On July 13, 1960, Yankee Stadium hosted baseball's second All-Star Game in three days. The National League completed the All-Star sweep with a 6-0 win, having won Game 1 on July 11 in Kansas City, marking the only year that both All-Star Games were won by the same team. Yankees hurler Whitey Ford was the starting pitcher for the AL squad, while fellow Yankees Yogi Berra (catcher), Mickey Mantle (left field), Roger Maris (center-field) and Bill Skowron (first base) all appeared in the starting lineup. The National League used six different pitchers to combine on the shutout effort and belted an All-Star record-tying four home runs, including one by Willie Mays. The 38,000 fans that attended the game witnessed Ted Williams in his final All-Star appearance.

July 19, 1977 , Yankee Stadium

Showcasing its renovation, Yankee Stadium hosted the All-Star Game on July 19, 1977, in a game dedicated to Jackie Robinson. With the Yankees defending their 1976 pennant, Billy Martin managed the American League team on his home field. The National League won its sixth consecutive All-Star Game, 7-5, part of the senior circuit's 11-game win streak. Joe Morgan opened the game with a home run off Jim Palmer as the N.L. squad scored four first-inning runs. Yankees outfielder Reggie Jackson and second baseman Willie Randolph started for the American League. National League Manager Sparky Anderson described the game's lopsided final saying, "the only reason we're here is to kick the living hell out of those guys."

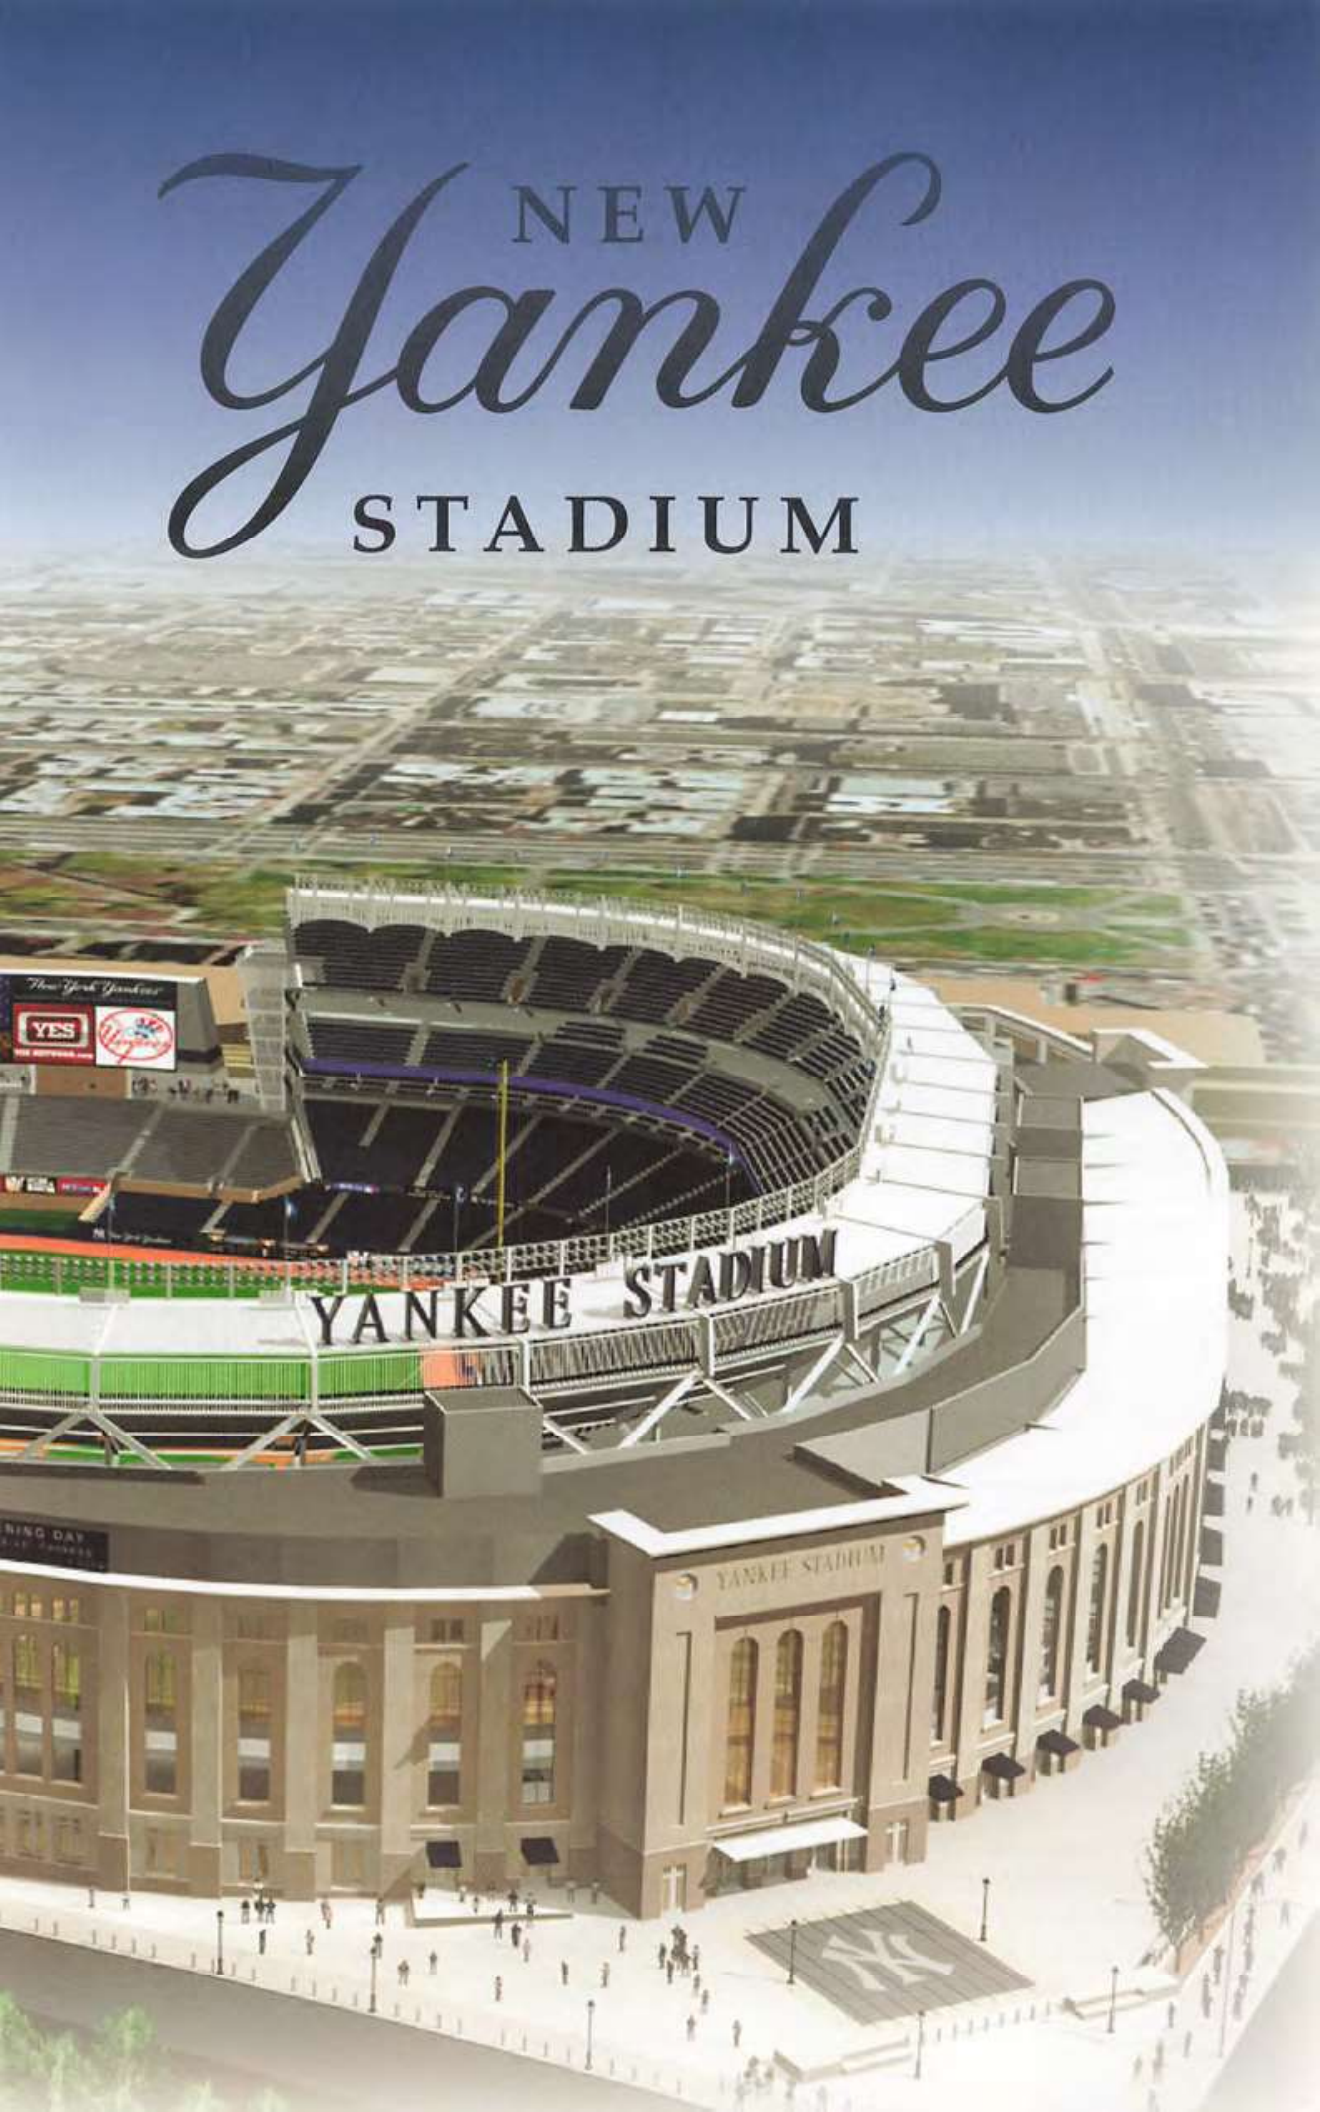
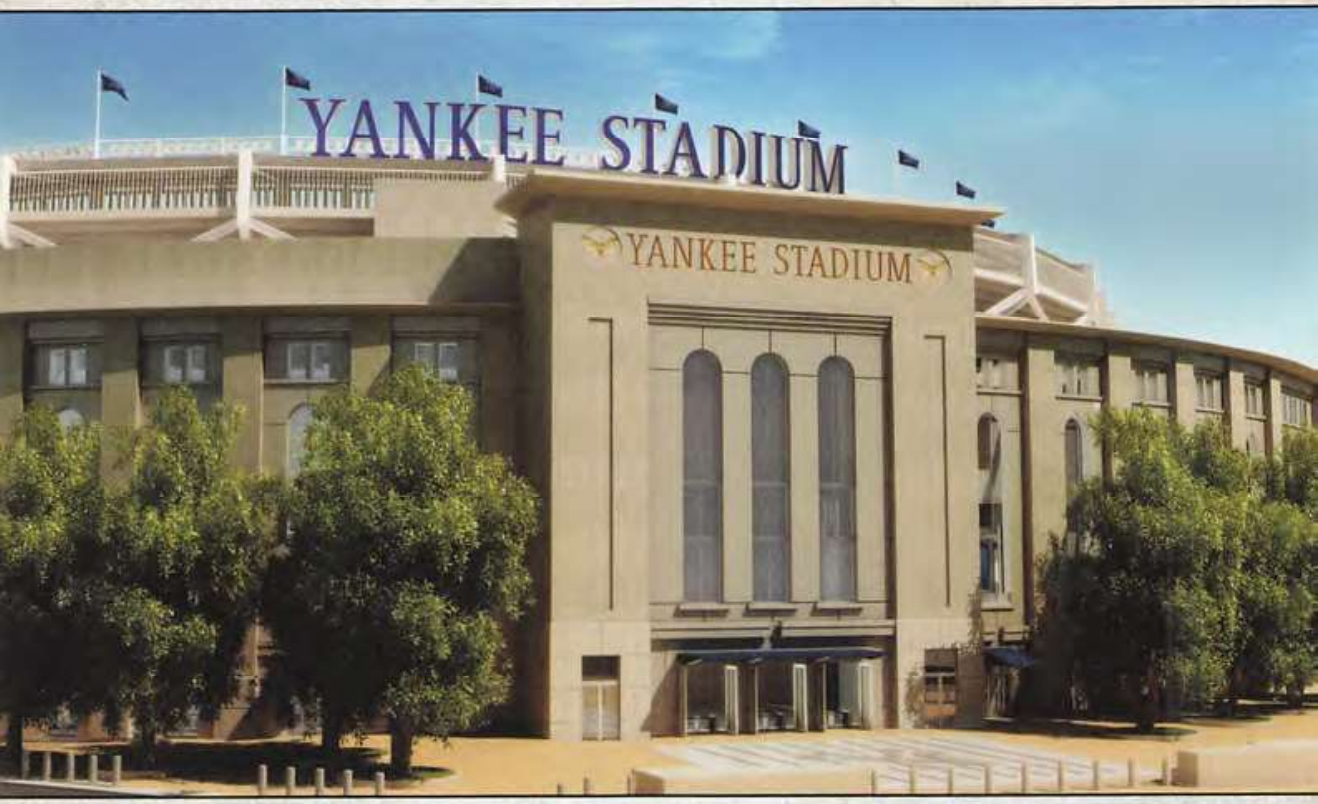
NEW Yankee STADIUM



New Yankee Stadium - Coming in 2009

New Yankee Stadium, which is scheduled to open for the 2009 season, was designed to pay homage to the Yankees' long and storied tradition of excellence. The goal was to replicate as many aspects of past and present Yankee Stadium as possible, while creating a state-of-the-art facility to deliver an unparalleled fan experience. At a size of 1.35 million square feet, the new Stadium will be a half-million square feet (or 63 percent) larger than the current ballpark, providing ample space for world-class features.



GATE 4 ENTRANCE: The Stadium's exterior has a design that resembles that of the original 1923 Yankee Stadium, including the tall vaulted arches and the main entrance by home plate.

MONUMENT PARK: An anchor of Yankee Stadium, Monument Park will be moved to its original position behind centerfield. Monuments and plaques will be relocated from the current Yankee Stadium and placed in the new expanded area.

STADIUM INTERIOR: The seating bowl will maintain the aspects of the current Stadium, including the blue seats, while offering improved sight lines. The Frieze will be repositioned above the entire grandstand as it was from 1923-73.

New Yankee Stadium

FEATURES OF THE FIELD:

- Field Dimensions: Are identical to the current Yankee Stadium—318 feet down the left-field line, 408 feet to straightaway center field and 314 feet down the right-field line.
- Auxiliary Scoreboards: Are located in left and right field and are similar to the original manually-operated scoreboards of the 1923-73 Stadium.
- Video Screens: Include a 58'-by-103,' 16-millimeter true high-definition video screen located in center field that will be six times larger than the video board at the current Stadium. It will be accompanied by a state-of-the-art sound system and a full-colored LED ribbon board spanning the entire length of the Terrace Level.

Suite Lounge

SEATING:

- Capacity: Will accommodate approximately 53,000 fans (including standing room). Two-thirds of the seats will be located in the lower deck.
- Two Seating Decks: Will each have two levels, with the Upper Deck containing the Grandstand and Terrace Levels and the Lower Deck containing the Main and Field Levels.

Sporting News* N.L. Manager of the Year

N.L. All-Star Team
- 2000

Managing/Coaching Career

- The 2008 season will mark Joe Girardi's first as Manager of the New York Yankees...was named the 32nd manager in club history on 10/30/07, becoming the 17th Yankees manager to have played for the club and the fourth former Yankees catcher to skipper the team (also Bill Dickey, Ralph Houk and Yogi Berra)...at 43 years old, Girardi is the third-youngest manager in the Major Leagues, behind the Washington Nationals' Manny Acta (39) and the Cleveland Indians' Eric Wedge (40).
- Re-joined the YES Network for the 2007 season, working as an analyst in the booth for Yankees games...also served the same role with FOX throughout the season on the network's Saturday broadcasts and served as a studio host during postseason coverage.
- Was named the 2006 National League "Manager of the Year" by the Baseball Writers Association of America and the Sporting News...guided the Florida Marlins to a 78-84 record in his first season as a Major League manager...with the award, joined the Houston Astros' Hal Lanier (1986) and the San Francisco Giants' Dusty Baker (1993) as the only managers to win the honor in their managerial debuts...at the age of 41, became the youngest manager in Marlins history (previously 47-year-old John Boles in 1996)...was named Marlins manager just two seasons after retiring as a player prior to the 2004 campaign, marking the shortest time between being an active player (2003) and making a managerial debut (2006) since 1987, when both John Wathan (Kansas City) and Larry Bowa (San Diego) became managers after last playing during the 1985 season.
- Became the first manager to improve his club's record to above .500 after falling at least 20 games below the .500 mark during the same season...the Marlins were a season-low 20 games under .500 on 5/21 (11-31), but then went 62-41 through 9/12 to improve to 73-72...the only other Major League team to return to the .500 mark after falling 20 or more games below was the 1899 Louisville Colonels, who were 22 games under at 16-38 and improved to 72-72-3 before finishing with a record of 75-77-3.
- Managed Anibel Sanchez's no-hit performance on 9/6/06 vs. Arizona...was the fourth no-hitter in Marlins history and the fourth that Girardi has been a part of (caught two–Dwight Gooden's on 5/14/96 and David Cone's perfect game on 7/18/99, and was a teammate when David Wells threw a no-hitter on 5/17/98)...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, Girardi became the first person since Jeff Torborg to both catch and manage a no-hitter...Torborg managed Wilson Alvarez's no-hitter on 9/11/91 with the White Sox after catching no-hitters by Sandy Koufax (perfect game, 9/9/65), Bill Singer (7/20/70) and Nolan Ryan (5/15/73).
- The 2006 Marlins club featured 22 rookies, 21 of which appeared before 9/1, with 11 making their Major League debuts...Florida hit a then-club-record 182 home runs, featuring four players with 20 or more homers and 10 players with double-digit home run totals...the '06 Marlins also became the first National League team that season to have five different pitchers record 10 or more wins, accomplishing the feat for the first time in franchise history...rookie pitchers accounted for 50 of the Marlins' 78 wins, the most rookie victories for a Major League team since the 1952 Dodgers (51).
- Made his coaching debut in 2005, serving as bench coach and catching instructor on Joe Torre's New York Yankees staff...assisted in guiding the Yankees to a 95-67 (.586) record and the American League East title.
- Appeared in 39 career postseason games as a player, most among all current American League managers...only the Mets' Willie Randolph (47), Chicago's Lou Piniella (44) and Cincinnati's Dusty Baker (40) appeared in more postseason games as a player among current Major League skippers.

Playing Career

- Played parts of 15 seasons as a catcher in the Major Leagues with the Chicago Cubs (1989-92 and 2000-02), Colorado Rockies (1993-95), New York Yankees (1996-99) and St. Louis Cardinals (2003)...was a member of three World Series Championship teams in New York (1996, 1998-99) and played in a total of six postseasons with the Cubs (1989), Rockies (1995) and Yankees (1996-99).
- In 1,277 career Major League games, batted .267 (1,100-for-4,127) with 454 runs, 186 doubles, 36HR and 422RBI, finishing with a .991 career fielding percentage while throwing out 27.6% of potential base stealers...batted .184 (21-for-114) with 2 triples and 1RBI in 39 career postseason games.
- Saw his first Major League action in 1989 as the Cubs' Opening Day catcher...was the first rookie catcher to start a season opener for the Cubs since Randy Hundley in 1966...was selected to Baseball Digest's All-Rookie Team...played in four games of the 1989 NL Championship Series against San Francisco recording one hit.
- In 1990, played his first full big league season...stole eight bases, the most by a Cubs catcher since Gabby Hartnett's 10 in 1924...ranked second among NL catchers in assists (61) and threw out 33.3% of baserunners attempting to steal (38-of-114).
- On 8/7/91, in his first game back after missing nearly four months with a strained lower back, suffered a broken nose in a home plate collision with the Phillies' John Kruk.

DID YOU KNOW? Joe Girardi and Yogi Berra are the only Yankees catchers to be behind the plate for two regular season no-hitters. Girardi was the catcher for Dwight Gooden's no-hitter on 5/14/96 vs. Seattle and David Cone's perfect game on 7/18/99 vs. Montreal. Berra caught both of Allie Reynolds' no-hitters in 1951.

- Was the expansion Rockies' starting catcher in 1993, batting .290 (90-for-310) with 3HR and 31RBI in 86 games...was selected by the Rockies with the 19th pick in the Expansion Draft from the Cubs.
- Established career highs with 8HR, 55RBI and 63R in 1995 with the Colorado Rockies...recorded 4H and 4R on Opening Day vs. the Mets (4/26)...hit his first career pinch-hit homer on 8/6 off San Diego's Trevor Hoffman.
- Acquired by the Yankees on 11/3/95 from the Rockies in exchange for LHP Mike DeJean...hit a career-high .294 with 2HR and 45RBI for the World Series Champions...stole 13 bases–the highest total among big league catchers and a record for a Yankees catcher...stole home on the front end of a double steal on 4/11 vs. Kansas City, becoming the first Yankees catcher to steal home since Jake Gibbs on 7/13/1968...had two triples during the 1996 postseason, including a run-scoring three-base hit off Greg Maddux in Game 6 of the World Series at Yankee Stadium.
- Was the catcher for Dwight Gooden's no-hitter on 5/14/96 vs. Seattle...in his final season as a player with the Yankees, caught David Cone's perfect game on 7/18/99 vs. Montreal...had a career-high 7RBI on 8/23/99 in a 21-3 victory at Texas, going 4-for-6 with 2 doubles and 1 triple.
- Rejoined the Cubs organization in 2000 and earned his first and only trip to an All-Star Game that season in Atlanta as a replacement for the injured Mike Piazza (did not play)...when he homered on 5/2/00 vs. Houston off Jose Lima, it was his first Cubs home run since 5/8/92...only one player, Billy Jurges, had a longer span between homers with the Cubs...Jurges hit a home run on 8/2/1938 and 8/27/1947 – a span of over nine years.
- Recorded his 1,000th Major League hit on 5/27/01 vs. Milwaukee off RHP Jimmy Haynes – a seventh-inning, game-winning, two-run double.
- Was one of the Cubs' co-captains in 2001 and 2002.
- Played his final career regular season game on 9/28/03 at Arizona with the St. Louis Cardinals...his single in the ninth inning off the Diamondbacks' Edgar Gonzalez gave him 1,100 hits for his career.

Personal/Miscellaneous

- Graduated high school in 1982 from the Spalding Institute (Ill.), where he was an All-State selection in baseball.
- Graduated from Northwestern University in 1986 with a bachelor's degree in industrial engineering...was a three-time Academic All-American and two-time All-Big 10 selection at catcher...was elected to the College Sports Information Directors Hall of Fame on 7/1/07, becoming the first former Major Leaguer to be enshrined...also received the 2007 Distinguished Alumni Award from the Northwestern University Department of Industrial Engineering and Management Sciences.

- Was the recipient of the Ben Epstein "Good Guy Award" in 1997, presented annually by the New York chapter of the BBWAA...was honored at the 2007 Lou Gehrig Sports Award Benefit Dinner.
- Following his retirement as a player in 2004, Girardi joined the YES Network as an analyst and won an Emmy Award for hosting YES' "Kids on Deck" series...in 2007, he rejoined YES, working as an analyst on Yankees broadcasts...also worked with FOX during the regular season and postseason...Girardi gained broadcast experience as a member of ESPN Radio's team for the 2003 National League Division Series.

On the Offensive

- The 2007 Yankees were just the 18th team in Major League history to have five players with 90RBI (Rodriguez, Matsui, Abreu, Cano, Posada)...the last team to do it was the 2002 Yankees (Giambi, Soriano, Posada, B. Williams and Ventura)...the only other Yankees teams to accomplish the feat were in 1933, 1936 and 1938.
- The 2007 squad also became just the second team since 1900 – and the first since the 1950 Red Sox – to have seven players score 90 or more runs in a single season (Rodriguez, Abreu, Jeter, Matsui, Cano, Damon and Posada).

Status

- Acquired from the Philadelphia Phillies on July 30, 2006, along with RHP Cory Lidle in exchange for RHP Carlos Monasterios, LHP Matt Smith, INF C.J. Henry and C Jesus Sanchez…signed a five-year contract extension with Philadelphia on February 20, 2002, extending through the 2007 season with a team option for 2008…Yankees exercised his 2008 option on November 2, 2007.

- Hit .283 (171-for-605) with a career-high 123R, 40 doubles, 5 triples, 16HR, 101RBI and 25SB in 158 games with the Yankees (150 starts in RF and one start at DH)…led the Majors with 90 two-strike hits and ranked second in the American League with 123 runs scored…also ranked third in the Majors seeing 4.38 pitches per plate appearance and saw a total of 3,060 pitches, second-most in the Majors behind Cleveland's Grady Sizemore (3,101).
- Stole at least 20 bases for the ninth consecutive season (1999-2007), the longest current streak in the Majors, according to the Elias Sports Bureau…also reached the 30-double plateau for the ninth straight season…has played in at least 150 games in each of the last 10 seasons (1998-2007) and—according to the Elias Sports Bureau—is only the 10th player in Major League history to accomplish the feat (Willie Mays holds the all-time record with 13 straight seasons, 1954-66)…his 1,569 games played over that same 10-year span is second in the Majors behind only Andruw Jones (1,577).
- Reached the 100-run plateau for the fourth consecutive season and the eighth time in his career (1999-2002; 2004-07)…also drove in 100 runs for the fifth straight year and sixth time in the last seven seasons…over the last 10 seasons (1998-2007), only Todd Helton (453) has collected more doubles than Abreu (404) in the Majors…during the same span, ranks fourth with 289 stolen bases, fifth with 1,051 runs and eighth with 1,714 hits…over the last five seasons (2003-07), ranks fifth with 200 doubles and sixth with 542 runs.
- Is four stolen bases shy of becoming only the 12th player since 1950 to reach 400 doubles, 200HR and 300SB.

- Appeared in 52 games over three separate stints with the Orioles, going 0-2 with a 3.35 ERA and one save…his 52 appearances ranked fourth among American League rookies…was fourth in games pitched among Orioles relievers and posted the fifth highest total ever by an Orioles rookie pitcher…opponents batted .228 (46-for-202, 4HR); LH .301 (22-for-73, 0HR), RH .186 (24-for-129, 4HR)…retired 42-of-52 first batters faced (81%) and prevented 16-of-19 inherited runners from scoring (84%).
- His 3.35 ERA was third among AL rookies with 40 or more innings pitched…appeared in the second-most games (52) without a win among all AL pitchers, behind Detroit's Jamie Walker (0-1 in 56 appearances)…allowed a run in only 10 of 52 appearances.

- Was recalled from Double-A Bowie on 4/12...made his Major League debut that night and tossed 0.2 scoreless innings at Tampa Bay (1BB, 1K)...allowed 5R (3ER) on 6H in a 2.0-inning appearance on 4/18 vs. Cleveland, the only runs and hits he allowed in four outings (4.2IP) before being optioned to Bowie on 4/29.
- Was recalled on 5/15 and did not allow a run in his first 10 appearances, spanning 11.2IP...streak ended when he allowed a tie-breaking, two-run homer to Alex Rios and took his first Major League loss on 6/6 vs. Toronto, while pitching in his fourth straight game...had a 2.20 ERA in 28 appearances through the All-Star break (32.2IP, 8ER)...retired 38-of-44 batters over 10 outings from 6/14 through the break...had another string of eight scoreless appearances from 7/18-8/2, lowering his ERA from 3.15 to 2.47.
- Was recalled from Bowie a third time on 9/4 ...was charged with the loss in his first outing on 9/6 at Los Angeles (AL), allowing a sixth-inning go-ahead run on 2H...did not give up a run and allowed only 3H and 2BB over his last eight appearances, covering 5.1IP...earned his first Major League save with a perfect ninth inning in the Orioles' 5-4 win at Tampa Bay on 9/19.
- Made 13 relief appearances overall for Bowie, going 1-0 with a 2.81 ERA and two saves.
- Following the season, was acquired by the Yankees from the Baltimore Orioles in exchange for RHP Jaret Wright and cash considerations on 11/12.

- Went 6-0 with a 1.60 ERA and six saves in 46 relief appearances with Single-A Frederick...allowed runs in only nine of his 46 relief appearances...had an ERA under 1.00 in four of six months during the season...held opposing hitters to a .172 batting average (47-for-274) for the year, third-lowest in the Carolina League...had a 4.8-to-1 strikeout-to-walk ratio, striking out 110 batters to only 23 walks and allowed only 70 baserunners in 78.2IP (lowest in the CL)...led the league averaging 12.68K/9.0IP...worked 2.0 or more innings 20 times, including seven games in which he pitched 3.0 innings or more.
- Tossed a season-high 3.2 innings to earn the win on 5/22 vs. Lynchburg...allowed one run in his first 14 games through 5/14, spanning 23.1IP...went 3-0 with two saves and a 0.77 ERA (35.0IP, 3ER) in 19 games through 6/1...then allowed runs in four of five outings from 6/4-15 (6ER, 9.0IP),...after that stretch, allowed 1ER over his next 12 appearances through 8/5, a span of 21.1IP...finished the season with six scoreless appearances (7.2IP), going 1-0 with 3 saves...was the finishing pitcher in nine of his first 40 appearances, then closed out games in each of his last six outings.
- Earned a win in the Carolina League playoffs, allowing one run in 7.0IP in five games...pitched in three games in the championship series vs. Kinston, helping his squad earn the title.

- Joined Single-A Delmarva in May and tied for the team lead in wins, going 9-4 with a 3.75 ERA and one save in 27 games (eight starts)...pitched 3.0 hitless innings in his first outing of the season on 5/7 at Lexington, which was his first appearance since 8/10/02.
- Earned a win and a save in his first four games, allowing only 1ER in 11.0IP (0.82 ERA)...went 5-1 with a 2.61 ERA (31.0IP, 9ER) in seven games over the final month of the season...started each of his last four appearances of the year and went 5-1 with a 3.43 ERA in eight starts on the season.

- Missed the entire season after having surgery to remove bone chips from his right elbow in March.

2002

- Made eight starts and one relief appearance for Bluefield of the Appalachian League, going 3-0 with a 4.54 ERA...earned all three wins in consecutive outings from 6/23-7/6...had a 3.10 ERA over his first six games before allowing 11ER in 15.1IP (6.46 ERA) over his final three outings.

2001

- Appeared in 12 games, including three starts, in his first professional season with the GCL Orioles...went 2-3 with a 2.76 ERA...allowed more than 1ER in only two of his 12 outings.

Personal

- Full name is Christopher Daniel Britton...graduated from Plantation (Fla.) High School, where he was first team All-Broward County and second team All-State...returns to his hometown each offseason and holds baseball camps at his former high school...played American Legion ball...hobbies are hunting and fishing...was signed by Nick Presto (Orioles).

BRIAN BRUNEY

- Went 1-1 with a 0.87 ERA in 19 appearances across two stints with the Yankees...struck out 25 batters in 20.2IP...opponents batted .189 (14-for-74, 1HR); LH .115 (3-for-26, 0HR), RH .229 (11-for-48, 1HR)...made appearances in consecutive games five times...retired 14-of-19 first batters faced (73.7%)...prevented 11-of-17 inherited runners from scoring (64.7%)...did not have a save opportunity.
- Began the season with Triple-A Tucson (Arizona), pitching in four games and going 0-1 (2.2IP, 10ER) before being placed on the disabled list on 4/14 with a right elbow strain...was released by Arizona on 5/24 and signed by the Yankees to a minor league contract on 7/1.
- Was assigned to the Gulf Coast Yankees and appeared in three games (3.2IP, 2ER) from 7/10-16 before being transferred to Triple-A Columbus...with Columbus, was 1-1 with three saves and a 3.14 ERA in 11 appearances (14.1IP, 10H, 5ER, 8BB, 22K)...limited right-handed hitters to a .121 batting average (4-for-33)...had contract purchased from Triple-A Columbus on 8/17 and made his Yankees debut that night vs. Baltimore, striking out the side in the ninth inning (1BB)...was optioned back to Columbus on 8/19 after making two appearances but was recalled again on 8/23.
- Tossed a career high 2.1IP in 8/26 loss at Los Angeles (AL), allowing 1H and 1ER (3K)...on 9/13 vs. Tampa Bay, tossed 2.0 scoreless innings (1H, 2K) to earn his first win as a Yankee...in 9/16 (G1) loss vs. Boston, struck out a career-high five batters in 1.2IP (2BB)...allowed only one run in his final 16 appearances of the season (15.2IP from 8/30-10/1).
- Made three appearances vs. Detroit in the Division Series, allowing 1H and 1ER in 2.2IP...struck out four of the eight batters he faced (0BB, 1HR).

- Opened the year on the Major League roster and appeared in 47 games for the Arizona Diamondbacks...served as the primary option at closer from mid-May through July, totaling 12 saves, third-most on the team, trailing Jose Valverde (15) and Brandon Lyon (14)...first batters hit only .158 (6-for-38), which ranked sixth among NL relievers and 10th among all ML relievers...was more effective against left-handed hitters (.280, 23-for-82) than right-handers (.314, 33-for-105)...closed out Arizona's 5-2 win on 4/13 vs. Colorado for his first Major League save.
- His lone win of the year came on 6/10 vs. Kansas City in a 12-11 victory...set down the Royals in the 10th before Troy Glaus hit a "walk-off" homer...converted 11-of-12 save opportunities from 5/15-7/27, but had an 8.20 ERA in 21 games over that stretch...recorded his final save of the year on 7/27 at Milwaukee with a perfect ninth inning.
- Was optioned to Triple-A Tucson on 8/20 and went 1-0 with a 1.93 ERA in four appearances with the Sidewinders...was recalled on 9/2, but appeared only once over the remainder of the season, working a scoreless inning on 9/15 vs. Milwaukee (2H, 1BB, 1K).

- Began the year with Triple-A Tucson, going 2-0 with a 1.15 ERA during 11 April appearances...had his first of three promotions to the big leagues on 5/8 and made his Major League debut that day vs. Philadelphia with a scoreless inning (1H)...at 22 years old was the youngest player on the Arizona roster at that time...limited Major League opponents to a .189 batting average, third-best among rookies with at least 30.0IP.
- Did not allow a run over his first six big league appearances (6.0IP)...earned his first Major League win on 5/11 vs. the Mets...was placed on the disabled list on 5/27 with an inflamed right elbow...made five rehab showings from 6/25-7/3, then was activated on 7/6 and made five more appearances for Arizona.
- Was optioned to Tucson on 7/22 and tossed 12.2 scoreless innings over 12 games (17K)...was recalled on 8/20 to fill the roster spot opened by the trade of Elmer Dessens to Los Angeles (NL).

Topps Major League Rookie All-Star Team
- 2006

MLB All-Star Futures Game
- 2005

Status

- Signed as a non-drafted free agent on November 13, 2001…signed through the 2008 season.

- Hit .273 (149-for-545) with 66R, 8HR, 73RBI and 13SB in 150 games with the Yankees (117 starts in CF, 16 starts in LF and four starts in RF).
- Started 101 of the Yankees' final 111 games of the season in CF (since 6/1) with the team going 72-39 (.649)…during the stretch, hit .290 (119-for-411) with 55R, 21 doubles, 7 triples, 6HR, 58RBI, 32BB and 10SB…batted .224 (30-for-134) with 11R, 3 doubles, 1 triple, 2HR and 15RBI through the first two months of the season.
- Tied for third in the American League with 16 outfield assists, tied for fourth with nine sacrifice flies, tied for fifth with 10 sacrifice hits and tied for sixth with eight triples.
- His 16 outfield assists tied Lou Piniella (1974) and Jesse Barfield (1989 and '90) for the fourth highest single-season total by a Yankees outfielder in the last 50 years…led all Major League centerfielders with 14 assists, matching Bobby Murcer's 1973 total for the third highest total by a Yankees centerfielder in the last 50 years, trailing only Murcer (15 in 1970) and Elliot Maddox (18 in 1974)…his 14 assists marked the highest total among AL centerfielders since Rocco Baldelli had 15 assists in 2003 with Tampa Bay.
- The switch-hitter batted .260 (39-for-150, 8 doubles, 2HR) from the right side and .278 (110-for-395, 16 doubles, 8 triples and 6HR) from the left.
- Made his first Opening Day roster in 2007…went 73AB to begin the season without an extra-base hit until his double on 4/28 vs. Boston…hit solo-HR (#1) in 5/10 loss vs. Texas—his first HR since 8/10/06 at Chicago (AL), a span of 266AB without a home run…collected two extra-base hits in four at-bats in the game, after registering just two in his first 99AB of the season.
- Hit a team-high .368 (39-for-106) with 18R, 6 doubles, 1 triple, 3HR and 17RBI in 28 games in July…his 39 hits tied for third best in the Majors and his .368BA ranked third in the American League for the month…hit safely in 13 straight games from 7/1-17…during the streak, batted .393 (22-for-56) with 7R, 1 double, 1HR, 7RBI and 1SB…had three hits in consecutive games for the first time in his career from 7/5-7/6, and five multi-hit games in six contests from 7/1-7/6.
- Was 1-for-6 with a career-high five strikeouts in 7/7 loss vs. the Angels…became the fourth Yankee—and third position player—to strike out five times in a game, joining Johnny Broaca (6/25/23 vs. Chicago-AL), Bernie Williams (8/21/91 at Kansas City) and Andy Phillips (5/2/05 at Tampa Bay).
- Was one of only four AL qualifiers whose batting average increased in each of the first four months of the season (April-July)…hit .200 (15-for-75) in April, .254 (15-for-59) in May, .298 (28-for-94) in June, and .368 (39-for-106) in July.
- Collected three extra-base hits in a game for the first time in his career in 8/7 win at

*as a second baseman

- In his sophomore season, batted .342 (165-for-482) with 41 doubles, 15HR and 78RBI in 122 games with the Yankees (115 starts at 2B, four at DH).
- Earned his first Silver Slugger Award and was selected to his first American League All-Star Team (was replaced on roster due to injury)...led the AL with a .364 road batting average and a .363 average versus right-handed pitchers, ranked third in overall batting average (.342) and tied for ninth with 41 doubles...led all Major Leaguers with a .339 average as a second baseman.
- His .342 batting average was the third-highest for a Yankee in his second season in the Majors (minimum: 400 at-bats)...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, only Joe DiMaggio (.346 in 1937) and Don Mattingly (.343 in 1984) posted higher marks in the season following their rookie year.
- Had five hit streaks of at least nine games in 2006 (15G from 6/1-17; 13 games twice, from 4/8-26 and 9/18-10/1; and nine games twice from 4/29-5/10 and 8/14-21).

- In 4/3 win at Oakland, became the third different starting second baseman for the Yankees on Opening Day since Alfonso Soriano started three straight Opening Day games from 2001-2003 (Enrique Wilson started at 2B in 2004, Tony Womack in 2005)...made his first Opening Day roster in 2006.
- Went 42 plate appearances without a strikeout from 4/9-26...batted fifth in the order for the first time in his career in 5/14 loss vs. Oakland (was 1-for-4).
- His solo HR on 6/8 vs. Boston was his first home run in 39 games (160AB), marking the longest such stretch of his career...hit game-winning solo-HR (#4) in sixth inning of 6/13 win vs. Cleveland, the fourth game-winning HR of his career.
- Hit in 15 consecutive games from 6/1-17, batting .452 (28-for-62) during the streak...it was the longest streak by a Yankee since 2004 when Derek Jeter hit safely in 17 straight games from 7/30-8/17.
- Was placed on the 15-day disabled list from 6/27-8/8 with a strained left hamstring (missed 35 games)...suffered the injury while running out a double in the sixth inning of 6/25 loss vs. Florida (second game of a day-night doubleheader)...made four rehab-assignment starts (3 at 2B, 1 at DH) for Double-A Trenton (8/3-6) and was 7-for-15 with 1R, 2 doubles, 2RBI and 3BB.
- Drove in at least one run in six straight games from 8/15-20 (13RBI total) and had 16RBI over a nine-game span from 8/12-20...hit third in the lineup for the first time in his career in 9/14 win vs. Tampa Bay, going 2-for-4 with 1R, 2 doubles and 3RBI.
- Hit .373 (41-for-110) in the month of September after posting a .381 average in September 2005 (40-for-105), becoming the first player to post averages of .370-or-higher in consecutive Septembers of at least 100AB since Wade Boggs batted over .400 in three straight Septembers from 1984-86...concluded the season with a 13-game hitting streak...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, it was the longest hitting streak by a Yankee to conclude a season since Reggie Jackson also hit safely in 13 straight games to end the 1980 season.
- In his final 53 games of the season after being reinstated from the disabled list on 8/8, hit .365 (77-for-211) with 24 doubles, 11HR and 51RBI...the 24 doubles and 51RBI were the most in the Majors over that span...was named American League "Player of the Month" for September, batting .373 (41-for-110) with 15R, 11 doubles, 7HR, 28RBI and reached base safely in 25 of 28 games...hit .133 (2-for-15) in four Division Series games vs. the Detroit Tigers.

- After his promotion to the Yankees in May, stabilized the team's second base position while emerging as one of baseball's most talented rookies...finished second behind Oakland's Huston Street in American League "Rookie of the Year" voting...hit .297 (155-for-522) with 14HR and 62RBI in 132 games with the Yankees (130 starts at 2B).
- Ranked first in the American League with a .335 road batting average...led American League rookies with a .297 batting average, 78R, 155H, 34 doubles, 47 multi-hit games and 239TB...ranked second with 52 extra-base hits and a .534 slugging percentage, ranked fourth with 62RBI and ranked fifth with 14HR...his 34 doubles ranked second on the team (behind Hideki Matsui's 45).
- Began the season with Triple-A Columbus and in 24 games was batting .333 (36-for-108) with 8 doubles, 3 triples, 4HR and a club-high 24RBI...hit safely in 21 of his 24 games with the Clippers, including his first 10 from 4/7-16...was recalled from Triple-A Columbus on 5/3 and made his Major League debut that night at Tampa Bay, starting at 2B and going 0-for-3.
- Became the 19th second baseman to start alongside Derek Jeter with the Yankees...was 2-for-4 with 1R and 1RBI in 5/4 loss at Tampa Bay, recording his first Major League hit with a third-inning single...doubled in five straight games from 5/10-16, the longest such streak by a Yankee since Raul Mondesi did it in five straight games from 4/1-6/03...went 15-for-27 (.556) in eight games after snapping an 0-for-18 stretch with a third-inning single in 5/10 win vs. Seattle.
- Established a single-game career high with four hits in 5/15 win at Oakland, going 4-for-5 with 1 double and 1RBI...hit his first career home run—a solo-homer in the eighth—and was 1-for-3 with 2RBI and 1SF in 5/24 win vs. Detroit...hit two-run, pinch-hit HR (#4) in seventh inning of 6/8 win at Milwaukee, the first pinch-hit HR of his career.
- Hit in 34 of 36 games from 6/12-7/26, including a season-high 13-game hitting streak from 7/9-26...batted .397 (23-for-58) with 10R, 6 doubles, 3HR and 9RBI during the streak...was the longest hitting streak by an AL rookie in 2005...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, it was the longest hitting streak by a Yankees rookie since Derek Jeter hit safely in 17 straight games in 1996.
- Had 20-game road hitting streak from 6/27-8/5, the longest such streak in the Majors in 2003 and the longest in the Majors since teammate Derek Jeter hit in 26 straight road games in 2003...was also the longest road hitting streak by a rookie since Ichiro Suzuki hit safely in 25 straight road games in 2001 (credit: Elias Sports Bureau).
- Established single-game career highs with 3R and 5RBI in 9/15 win at Tampa Bay, going 3-for-5 with 1 double, 1 triple and game-tying, sixth-inning grand slam—the first of his Major League career (off Seth McClung)...drove in 12 runs in a three-game span from 9/14-16, going 7-for-15 with 7R, 2 doubles, 1 triple, and 3HR...recorded his first career multi-homer game in 9/16 win at Toronto with three-run HR (#11) and two-run HR (#12) and equaled single-game career highs with 3R and 5RBI (for second straight game)...homered in consecutive games for the first time in his career and—according to the Elias Sports Bureau—became only the second rookie in the last 40 years to collect at least 5RBI in each of two consecutive games (also Brian Daubach with Boston in 1999).

- Was named the American League's "co-Player of the Week" for the period ending 9/18 after batting .429 (12-for-28) with a league-leading 13RBI and 9R...also had eight extra-base hits, including 3HR, 4 doubles and 1 triple while leading the Majors with 27TB...was the first rookie to win the honor since Hideki Matsui (6/29/03).
- Was named American League "Rookie of the Month" for September, batting .381 (40-for-105) with 22R, 9 doubles, 2 triples, 5HR and 16RBI...hit safely in 23 of 27 games played in the month.
- Hit .263 (5-for-19) in five Division Series games vs. the Angels with a team-leading 5RBI...delivered three-run double in his first postseason at-bat in Game 1.

Second-Half Surge

The Yankees posted a 51-25 record after the All-Star Break in 2007, leading the Majors in wins and winning percentage (.671). They also led the Majors over the second half in batting average (.300), home runs (112), hits (816), runs (504), RBI (487), OBP (.376) and slugging percentage (.493). Their post-All-Star break winning percentage was the highest for any American League team since the Oakland Athletics went 53-21 (.716) following the Midsummer Classic in 2002. For the Yankees, it was their highest Post-All-Star break winning percentage in a non-strike season since 1978, when they went 54-25 (.684).

A.L. All-Star Team
- 2002, 2005

Status

- Signed as a free agent to a four-year contract on December 23, 2005...contract extends through the 2009 season.

- Hit .270 (144-for-533) with 93R, 27 doubles, 12HR, 62RBI and 27SB (in 30 attempts) in 141 games with the Yankees (48 starts at DH, 45 starts in CF and 31 starts in LF).
- In 31 starts in left field, batted .348 (46-for-132) with 29R, 9 doubles, 4HR and 24RBI...the Yankees were 23-8 in those starts...hit .262 (48-for-183) as a centerfielder with 9 doubles, 4HR and 22RBI...as a DH, hit .229 (46-for-201) with 8 doubles, 4HR and 15RBI.
- Was the fifth-hardest player to double-up in the American League, grounding into just four double plays in 533AB (once every 133 AB)...since his debut in 1995, has grounded into a double play in only 5.2 percent of his at-bats in a GIDP situation...only Ichiro Suzuki (4.6) and Corey Patterson (4.7) have grounded into a lower percentage of double plays over the span.
- Over the last 10 seasons (1998-2007), ranks third in the Majors with 1,118 runs and fifth with 1,779 hits and 285 stolen bases...his 333 career stolen bases are the fifth most among active players...is just 17 steals shy of becoming only the fourth active player with 350SB and 2,000 hits.
- Has played in at least 140 games in each of his last 12 Major League seasons (since 1996), the longest current streak of its kind in the Major Leagues...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, only six players in Major League history have had longer streaks: Pete Rose (16, 1965-80), Brooks Robinson (16, 1960-75), Hank Aaron (16, 1955-70), Willie Mays (15, 1954-68), Lou Gehrig (13, 1926-38) and Billy Williams (13, 1961-73).
- Had his streak of nine consecutive seasons (1998-2006) with at least 100 runs and at least 30 doubles snapped in 2007...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, was one of three players all-time to accomplish the feat (also Lou Gehrig, 1926-34 and Stan Musial, 1946-54).
- Made his 11th career Opening Day start in 4/2 win vs. Tampa Bay...was 1-for-2 with 1R, 1BB and 1SB before being removed in the sixth inning with cramps in both calves...missed the second and third games of the season (4/5-6) with a mild strain of his right calf...did not start in 4/21 loss at Boston because of mild back stiffness...pinch-hit in the ninth inning and went 0-for-1.
- Became the 20th active player to reach the 2,000-hit milestone with his second-inning single in 5/30 win at Toronto...also hit a leadoff HR (#3) in the first inning—the 22nd of his career and sixth as a Yankee...was the only leadoff homer by the Yankees in 2007.
- Entered 6/19 loss at Colorado in the seventh inning at 1B...was his second career appearance at 1B (also 7/18/06 vs. Seattle).

Hit Streak
29g – 6/10-7/17/05

- Went 39 consecutive plate appearances without a strikeout from 7/6-16, his longest such streak since going 50 plate appearances without a strikeout in May 2005 (credit: Elias Sports Bureau).
- Was 1-for-4 with 1BB in 7/20 loss vs. Tampa Bay, snapping a career-high 0-for-20 stretch with an eighth-inning single...recorded a season-high 4RBI in 7/21 (G2) win vs. Tampa Bay, going 2-for-5 with 2 doubles, 1BB and 1SB.
- Grounded into two double plays for the first time in his Major League career in 7/28 loss at Baltimore, going 0-for-4 with 1BB and 1SB...his third-inning GIDP was his first since 9/16/06 (102G/370AB)...scored a season-high four runs in 7/29 win at Baltimore, going 3-for-5 with 1 double, 2RBI and 1BB.
- Hit .358 (43-for-120) with 26R, 10 doubles, 1 triple, 4HR and 23RBI from 7/20-8/29...the stretch was sandwiched between 0-for-20 and 0-for-17 stretches...went 4-for-6 with 1R, 2 doubles and 1RBI in 9/14 win at Boston...was his first four-hit game since 6/17/06 at Washington.
- Tied a career high with five hits on 9/25 at Tampa Bay, going 5-for-5 with 2R and 2SB...was his sixth career five-hit game, tying Ichiro Suzuki for the most among active players...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, the only American League players with more five-hit games than Damon during the expansion era (since 1961) are Rod Carew and Paul Molitor (each with seven).
- Hit solo-HR (#12) and was 2-for-5 with 2R and 1 double in 9/28 loss at Baltimore...his sixth-inning home run was his 21st career HR against the Orioles, his most against any team...was the only home run to reach Eutaw Street in 2007 (beyond the RF wall at Camden Yards)...was the Yankees' 200th home run of the season, establishing a Major League-record eight consecutive seasons for the club with 200 or more HR.
- Hit a team-high .565 (13-for-23) with 7R, 3 doubles, 1HR and 3RBI during the final six-game road trip of the season (9/25-30)...in his final 14 games of the season, hit .356 (21-for-59) with 11R, 6 doubles, 1HR and 6RBI.
- Batted .278 (5-for-18) with 2HR and a team-high 5RBI in four Division Series starts in LF against the Indians...led off Game 1 loss at Cleveland with a home run off C.C. Sabathia...was the fifth leadoff homer by a Yankee in the postseason, second in the Division Series (also Derek Jeter in Game 2 of the 2004 ALDS vs. Minnesota)...was Damon's second career postseason leadoff homer (Game 4 of the 2004 World Series at St. Louis)...was the first-ever leadoff home run to start a postseason series...hit three-run HR and drove in four runs in Game 3 win at Yankee Stadium...owns a .327 career batting average in Division Series play (34-for-104)...of his seven career postseason home runs, five have given his team the lead.

- In his first season with the Yankees, batted .285 (169-for-593) with 115R, 35 doubles, a career-high 24HR, 80RBI and 25SB in 149 games (129 starts in CF and 15 starts at DH).
- Was tied for third in the American League with 115 runs scored and was tied for ninth with 25 stolen bases...only Cleveland's Grady Sizemore (28) had more home runs from the leadoff spot than Damon in the American League.
- Became the fourth player in franchise history to hit at least 20 home runs and steal 20 bases in his first season with the Yankees, joining Alex Rodriguez (36HR/28SB in 2004), Rickey Henderson (24HR/80SB in 1985) and Bobby Bonds (32HR/30SB in 1975).
- Tied a single-game career high with 3SB on 4/26 vs. Tampa Bay (also compiled 3SB on 4/26/00 with Kansas City vs. Tampa Bay)...was caught stealing in the third inning of 4/28 loss vs. Toronto, snapping his streak of 19 straight stolen bases...scored a career-high five runs and hit two home runs in 4/29 win vs. Toronto, going 3-for-5 with 3RBI, 1BB and 1SB...was his ninth career multi-home run game in the regular season and first since 7/17/04 at Anaheim.
- Hit game-winning 10th-inning solo-HR (#7) and was 3-for-5 with 2R, 1BB and 1SB on 6/3 at Baltimore...hit grand slam (#10) and was 4-for-6 with 2R, 2 doubles and a season-high 5RBI in 6/17 loss at Washington...was his second grand slam of the season (also 5/4 at Tampa Bay) and the sixth of his career in the regular season.
- Missed two games (7/6-7) with soreness in his right oblique muscle...made his first career appearance at 1B in the 10th inning of 7/18 win vs. Seattle...recorded the 300th stolen base of his career with a sixth-inning steal of second in 7/22 win at Toronto...hit two solo home runs in 7/30 win vs. Tampa Bay, his second multi-HR game of the season (also 4/29 vs. Toronto) and the 10th of his career in the regular season.
- Hit solo-HR (#18) to lead off the first inning and was 3-for-4 with 1 double in 8/17 loss vs. Baltimore...was his fifth leadoff HR of the season and 21st of his career...hit two-run HR (#20)—his third in as many games and fifth in an eight-game span—in 8/18 Game 2 win at Boston...recorded four straight three-hit games 8/16-19...became the first Major Leaguer to have four straight games of three or more hits since Edgar Renteria accomplished the feat with Boston from 5/26-29/05...the last Yankee to match Damon's streak was Steve Kemp from 5/30-6/3/84...was named American League "Player of the Week" for the period ending 8/20 (.390 average, 16-for-41, 4 doubles, 2 triples, 4HR, 12RBI, 36 total bases and a .878 slugging percentage)...had season-high 12-game hitting streak from 8/17-30, scoring at least one run in each of the 12 games...hit .414 (24-for-58) with 15R, seven doubles, 5HR and 15RBI over the 12-game span.
- Hit 9HR in the month of August, the highest monthly total of his career (hit 7HR in July of 2004)...also led the league with 27 runs scored and ranked third with 39 hits...was ejected from 9/18 win at Toronto in the top of the fifth inning by HP Umpire Bill Miller (arguing from dugout)...missed three games (9/20-23) with a bruise and abrasion on his left hand.

- Batted .235 (4-for-17) with 1HR and 3RBI in four Division Series games vs. Detroit.

- Enjoyed one of the finest seasons by any Major League leadoff hitter, earning his first career All-Star start...batted .316 (197-for-624) with 117R, 35 doubles, 6 triples, 10HR, 75RBI and 18SB in 19 attempts...his .316 average led the Red Sox and ranked fourth in the American League...also finished among league leaders in runs (fourth), hits (fifth) and multi-hit games (54, seventh)...his 20 games with three or more hits tied for the league lead with Cleveland's Grady Sizemore.
- With one strikeout every 10.0 plate appearances, was the sixth-hardest player to fan in the league...was the second-toughest AL player to double up, as he hit into just five double plays (one every 124.8 AB)...from 6/10-7/17, hit safely in 29 consecutive games, the fourth-longest hitting streak in Red Sox history and the longest in the Majors since Albert Pujols hit in 30 straight in 2003...the streak was the longest in the AL in 2005 and the second-longest in the Majors behind only Jimmy Rollins' season-ending 36-game streak...batted .348 (46-for-132) with 11 doubles, 2 triples, 3HR, 13RBI and 26R during the streak.
- Was voted to start the All-Star Game for the first time, making his second career All-Star appearance (also 2002)...batted leadoff and played CF in the AL victory on 7/12 in Detroit, going 1-for-2 with 1R.

Status
- Selected by the Yankees in the second round of the 2001 First-Year Player Draft...signed through the 2008 season.

2007
- Hit .257 (19-for-74) with 7HR and 17RBI in 34 games with the Yankees (10 starts at DH, four starts in RF and two starts at 1B).
- Batted .303 against left-handed pitchers (10-for-33, 3HR)...hit .220 off right-handers (9-for-41, 4HR)...six of his seven home runs and 15 of his 17RBI came at Yankee Stadium.
- Had contract purchased from Triple-A Scranton/Wilkes-Barre on 7/20 and made his Major League debut that night vs. Tampa Bay, starting at DH and going 1-for-4 with 1RBI...his eighth-inning RBI single off Brian Stokes was his first Major League hit and RBI.
- Hit two-run HR (#1) off Jae Kuk Ryu—his first Major League home run—and was 1-for-4 in 7/21 Game 1 win vs. Tampa Bay...hit three-run HR (#2) and solo-HR (#3) and was 2-for-4 with 4RBI and 2BB in 7/22 win vs. Tampa Bay, becoming the first Yankee in the last 60 years (since 1947) to hit as many as 3HR in his first four Major League games (credit: Elias Sports Bureau)...also became the first player to hit three home runs within his first three days in the Majors since Dave Kingman did so for the Giants in 1971 (7/31-8/1).
- With his two-run HR in 8/1 win vs. Chicago (AL), became the first player to hit 5HR in his first 22 Major League at-bats since Graig Nettles (w/ Minnesota) from September 1967 to September 1968 (credit: Elias Sports Bureau)...was his fourth home run in a three-game span at Yankee Stadium and fifth in his first five games in which he had an at-bat at home.
- According to the Elias Sports Bureau, became the third player to hit each of his first six Major League home runs at Yankee Stadium with his three-run HR in 8/15 loss vs. Baltimore, joining Bobby Brown (first 11 career homers from 1947-50) and Aaron Robinson (first 8HR in 1945)...missed seven games from 9/9-16 (bone bruise in left pelvis and small inguinal hernia).
- Hit two-run HR (#7) and was 2-for-4 with 2R in 9/29 win at Baltimore...was his first career homer on the road.
- Appeared in three Division Series games vs. Cleveland, pinch-hitting and entering defensively at 1B in each game...batted .500 (2-for-4) with 1R.
- Began the season with Scranton/Wilkes-Barre, batting .295 (99-for-336) with 58R, 18 doubles, 1 triple, 25HR, 79 RBI and 45BB in 91 games...led all Scranton/WB players in RBI and set a franchise record with 25HR...led the International League with a .576 slugging percentage and ranked second in the league in HR and RBI at the time of his callup...his 79RBI ranked third among all Yankees farmhands.
- Was named Scranton/Wilkes-Barre "Player of the Year" and was selected to the 2007 International League All-Star team as the DH...also named the designated hitter for both the Topps and Baseball America Triple-A All-Star team .
- Homered in consecutive games six times with Scranton/WB...homered in three straight games twice (4/13-16, 5/31-6/2).
- Was named International League "Player of the Week" for the period ending 4/15,

- Became the first player in Oakland history to hit two home runs on Opening Day on 4/3 vs. Detroit...hit the first of his franchise-record four grand slams on 4/9 vs. Chicago (AL)...hyper-extended his right knee on 4/14 and did not play on the next day, the only game he would miss over the A's first 120 games...finished April with 9HR and 27RBI, then hit 7HR in his first 13 games in May...had 16HR and 46RBI over his first 37 games to lead the American League...committed his first error of the season on 5/6, snapping a 69-game errorless streak at first base dating back to 8/1/99...on 6/7 vs. San Diego, was 4-for-4 with 2HR and a career high 7RBI, beginning a 19-game stretch where he hit .541 (33-for-61) with 25 walks (.678 on-base percentage), 10 doubles, 5HR, and 23RBI from 6/7-29...had two streaks where he reached base safely in 10 consecutive plate appearances (6/13-16 and 6/21-24).

- Stole home on 6/11 at Los Angeles (AL), the 39th steal of home in Oakland history...finished June with a .450 average, one of three times he has hit .400 in a month (.404 in August 1999 and .400 in September 2000)...started at 1B in the All-Star Game and was 0-for-2 with 1BB...was the first A's player voted in by the fans since McGwire and Jose Canseco in 1992...recorded his 500th career RBI on 7/17 at Colorado and snapped a season-long 51 at-bat homerless streak the next day at the Rockies.
- Recorded his 100th RBI of the season on 8/12 vs. Detroit (game #114), the earliest in Oakland history a player had reached 100 RBI...suffered an anterior left shoulder strain on 8/14 vs. Cleveland and missed eight of the A's 13 games from 8/19-9/1...received a cortisone shot following the game on 8/30 and went on to hit .400 (38-for-95) in September with 26R, 13HR, 32RBI, 25BB, an .853 slugging percentage and a .529 on-base percentage in 27 games.
- Was named AL "Player of the Month" in September, the first Oakland player to win the award since McGwire in June 1996...led the American League in home runs (13), on-base percentage (.529) and slugging percentage (.853) in September and ranked second in RBI (32), tied for second in walks (25), third in batting (.400) and tied for third in runs (26)...the home runs were his most ever in a month and two short of McGwire's Oakland single-month record of 15 set in May 1997...the 32RBI were also his most ever in a month...tied his career high with 7RBI on 9/15 at Tampa Bay when he hit his franchise-record fourth grand slam...earned American League "co-Player of the Week" honors with Manny Ramirez the week of 9/11-17 as he hit .625 with 3HR and 12RBI...hit his 40th home run of the season on 9/25 vs. Anaheim and finished the season by homering five times in his last eight games.
- Hit .286 with 7BB in five starts at first base in the Division Series vs. New York (AL).

- Topped the Athletics in batting (.315), runs (115), hits (181), doubles (36), RBI (123) and walks (105)...ranked among the American League's top 10 in walks (second), RBI (tied for sixth), on-base percentage (tied for seventh, .422), runs (ninth) and extra base hits (tied for 10th, 70)...he and Manny Ramirez were the only American Leaguers who finished in the top 10 in all five of those categories...hit .353 (98-for-278) at home to set an Oakland record for highest home batting average, ranking him fifth in the AL...for the third consecutive season, led the A's in average with runners in scoring position (51-for-163, .313)...led the A's in multi-hit games (46), multi-RBI games (31) and game-tying/go-ahead RBI (32)...was tied for second among American League first basemen with a .995 fielding percentage (seven errors in 1,303 total chances).
- Batted .361 (97-for-269) in 74 games after the All-Star Break with 18HR and 72RBI, the second-highest second-half average in the Majors behind Ivan Rodriguez (.369)...his RBI tied for second with Rafael Palmeiro behind Mark McGwire's 75...was batting just .186 (19-for-102) with 2HR and 6RBI against left-handed pitchers at the All-Star break but hit .405 (32-for-79) with 6HR and 31RBI vs. lefties the second half of the season.
- Was the Athletics' Opening Day starter at designated hitter but made 140 starts at first base during the season...recorded his first of four two-homer games on 4/17 vs. Texas...compiled a season-high 18-game hitting streak from 7/23-8/10...began with a grand slam, his second of the season, at Kansas City...then hit a pair of three-run home runs the next night...hit .465 (33-for-71) during the streak, his fifth of 15 or more games in his career...batted an American League-leading .404 (40-for-99) in August and also topped the circuit with 12 doubles for the month.
- Snapped a season-high 20-game, 73-at-bat homerless streak on 9/5 vs. Detroit..the next day, hit his 100th and 101st career home runs, both off the Tigers' Jeff Weaver.

- Led the team in batting (.295), home runs (27) and RBI (110) to become the fifth player (sixth time) to win an Oakland triple crown...had hitting streaks of 17-and 16-games to become the first player in Oakland history with two hitting streaks of 15 or more games in the same season...hit .319 in April, including the first of two two-homer games on 4/16 vs. Kansas City (also on 8/23 vs. Detroit)...then went 21 games and 83AB before connecting for his next homer on 5/12 at Toronto...went another 23 games and 83AB before homering in consecutive games, 6/7-8.
- Finished the season with a team-leading 45 multi-hit games...suffered a mild concussion on 8/4 in the ninth inning of the second game of a doubleheader vs. New York (AL) when he was hit in the head by Derek Jeter's knee on a play at first base...missed just one game but had a season-high 0-for-17 slump after his return...had batted fifth for most of the season but was inserted into the three spot in the order on 8/15 and made each of his last 39 starts there...batted .289 with 12HR and 55RBI when batting fifth and .320 with 10HR and 37RBI when hitting third.
- Recorded his 500th career hit on 9/8 with a fifth-inning single off Doug Johns, part of his 16-game hitting streak from 9/5-24...streak was part of a career-high-tying 39-game stretch where he reached base safely via hit or walk in each game from 8/12-9/25...led the A's with a .309 (51-for-165) average with runners in scoring position...committed an Oakland-record 14 errors at first base which led the league and was the most by an Athletics first baseman since Eddie Robinson made 17 in 1953 with Philadelphia...his .990 fielding percentage was second-lowest among AL first basemen...played on the Major League All-Star team that toured Japan during the offseason and hit .385 with 1HR in six games.

- In his second full season in the Majors, batted .293 with 20HR and 81RBI...broke his own club record for doubles with 41 and became the fourth player in Athletics history with 40 doubles in consecutive seasons, joining Al Simmons (1925-26 and 29-30), Frank Baker (1911-12) and Harry Davis (1905-06)...was batting just .248 entering play on 5/12 but doubled that night against Baltimore to start an Oakland-record and career-high 25-game hitting streak that lasted through 6/23...hit .409 (38-for-93) during the streak to break Carney Lansford's previous record of 24 set in 1984.

- Led the team with 66 runs scored, 152 hits and 44 multi-hit games and tied for the team lead with 81RBI and 21 multi-RBI games...began the season as the A's left fielder, starting 30 of the team's first 32 games in LF...13 of his next 15 starts came at DH before he returned to left field...moved to first base following the McGwire trade on 7/31 and started 47 of Oakland's final 53 games at 1B...for the season, made 67 starts in LF, 48 at 1B and 22 at DH.
- Hit his first career grand slam on 5/22 at Texas off John Burkett...14 of his 20 home runs came with men on base...10 of his home runs either tied the game or put the A's ahead as did 28 of his 81RBI...finished May with a team-leading .353 batting average and followed that up by hitting .364 in June...had seven straight multi-hit games from 8/31-9/7 and posted his second career two-homer game on 9/20 vs. Seattle...finished September with a .366 average, his third month in 1997 over .350.

- Batted .291 with 20HR and 79RBI in 140 games while starting games at five different positions (43 games in LF, 42 at 1B, 38 at 3B, 16 at DH, one in RF) in his first full season in the Majors...became the first player in Oakland history to start at least 30 games at three different positions...set what was then an Oakland record with 40 doubles...began the year as the A's first baseman while McGwire was injured and had a 19-game hitting streak from 4/7-30 that had his average at the .344 mark for the month.
- Made his first professional appearance in the outfield with a start in RF at Kansas City on 5/4...took over as the Athletics' starting third baseman on 5/5, starting 38 of the A's next 47 games at 3B due to an injury to Scott Brosius...earned AL "Player of the Week" honors for the week of 5/6-12 by hitting .538 with 8R, 5 doubles, 1HR, and 5RBI...hit the 4,000th home run in Oakland history on 5/17 at Boston off Tim Wakefield...moved to LF following the return of Brosius and immediately homered in four consecutive games from 6/25-29...had an Oakland-record-tying 5H on 7/2 at Seattle.
- Was hitting .323 at the All-Star break but batted just .245 in the second half...average was at the .305 mark on 9/10, but he then went 1-for-28 over his final nine games to finish the year at .291...missed the final seven games of the season because of a sprained right wrist.

- Made his Major League debut with the Athletics in two separate stints, batting .256 with 7 doubles, 6HR and 25RBI in 54 games...began the year at Triple-A Edmonton but was recalled by Oakland on 5/8 when Mike Bordick was injured...made his Major League debut that night with a start at DH vs. Texas and picked up his first Major League hit with an eighth-inning single off Roger Pavlik...went 2-for-11 in four games and was optioned back to Edmonton on 5/15.
- Returned to Oakland for good on 7/7 and hit his first Major League home run the next day off Toronto's David Cone...homered in three consecutive games at Kansas City from 8/14-16...injuries limited his playing time over the final six weeks of the season, missing five games with a strained hamstring, seven games with a mild concussion suffered on 8/26 in Boston and the final eight games with a sore right rib cage...split his playing time between 3B (26 starts) and 1B (20 starts) and he also made two starts at DH...batted .313 with RISP and raised his average from .235 in innings 1-6 to .298 from the seventh inning on...came to the plate 11 times with a runner on third and less than two outs and drove in the runner in 10 times.
- While at Edmonton, hit .342 with 26 doubles and 41RBI in 55 games at 3B.

- Split his year between Double-A Huntsville and Triple-A Tacoma, combining to hit .268 with 29 doubles, 10HR and 68RBI...opened the year in Huntsville and was promoted to Tacoma when Craig Paquette was promoted from Tacoma to Oakland...spent a month playing at Triple-A then returned to Huntsville on 6/29 when Paquette was optioned down from Oakland...hit two homers on 7/8 at Birmingham...after 18 games at Double-A, returned to Tacoma for the remainder of the year when Paquette fractured his ankle...with Tacoma, was 18-for-56 (.321) with runners in scoring position and hit .346 (9-for-26) with runners in scoring position and two outs...spent the fall playing third base for the Arizona Fall League-champion Peoria Javelinas, hitting .283 with 2HR and 21RBI in 39 games.

- Played the full year at Single-A Modesto of the California League, batting .291 with 30 extra-base hits and 60RBI in 89 games...was the starting third baseman for the North squad in the California League All-Star Game played in June...went on the disabled list in late July with a sore right thumb and missed nearly a month of the season...spent part of the winter playing for the Kauai Emeralds of the Hawaiian League.

1992

- Was Oakland's second-round selection in the First-Year Player Draft but spent most of his summer playing for the USA Olympic Team that competed in Barcelona, Spain...returned from the Olympics in late August and was assigned to Single-A Southern Oregon of the Northwest League...in 13 games at Southern Oregon, hit .317 with 3HR and 13RBI.

Status

- Selected by the Yankees in the 26th-round of the 2000 First-Year Player Draft...signed through the 2008 season.

- Was 2-2 with a 7.12 ERA in 27 games (1GS) over five stints with the Yankees (4/2-5/15; 6/5-22; 7/22-8/4; 8/15-28; 9/9-9/30)...seven of his relief outings were 2.0 or more innings...opponents batted .293 (44-for-150, 6HR); LH .288 (17-for-59, 2HR), RH .297 (27-for-91, 4HR).
- Made his first career Opening Day roster in 2007...tossed a scoreless inning in 4/2 Opening Day win vs. Tampa Bay...threw a season-high 3.1 innings of relief in 4/11 loss at Minnesota, allowing 3H and 1ER while stranding two runners...was the only earned run he allowed in his first nine appearances (12.1IP, 9H, 2R, 3BB, 4K).
- Earned his first Major League win on 4/19 vs. Cleveland, allowing one unearned run in the ninth inning (1.0IP, 2H, 1K)...the Yankees won on Alex Rodriguez's three-run, "walk-off" home run in the bottom of the frame.
- In 5/10 loss vs. Texas, allowed 3H and 4ER in 0.2IP (1BB, 2K, 1HR)...surrendered a pinch-hit grand slam to Victor Diaz, becoming the first Yankees pitcher to surrender a pinch-hit slam since Ted Lilly on 9/4/01 at Toronto (Tony Fernandez).
- Earned second win of the season on 6/10 vs. Pittsburgh, tossing 2.0 scoreless innings (1H, 2BB, 2K)...was his first appearance since being recalled from Scranton/WB on 6/5.
- Tossed 2.0 scoreless innings (2H, 1BB, 3K) in 7/22 win vs. Tampa Bay...made his first career Major League plate appearance in the eighth inning of the 21-4 victory, striking out.
- Recorded a no-decision in his only start in 9/30 win at Baltimore in the Yankees' regular season finale...allowed 1ER in 3.0IP (1BB, 2K, 1HR).
- Was 1-3 with a 3.24 ERA in 16 games (3GS) with Scranton/WB this season (33.1IP, 29H, 12ER, 9BB, 30K, 1HR)...opponents batted .238 (29-for-122, 1HR); LH .190 (8-for-42, 1HR), RH .263 (21-for-80, 0HR)...did not allow a run over a five-game stretch from 6/1-7/7, holding opponents scoreless for 13.2IP with 10K and only 2BB...had a 1.33 ERA in home games and a 6.23 mark on the road.
- Went 1-0 with a 3.00 ERA in eight spring training relief appearances (9.0IP, 3ER).

- Appeared in four September games with the Yankees, going 0-1 with a 4.82 ERA...was recalled from Triple-A Columbus on 9/5 and made his first appearance of the season with the Yankees that night at Kansas City, allowing 1H and 1ER in 1.0IP.
- Made only Major League start of the season on 9/20 at Toronto, suffering the loss in a 3-2 Blue Jays victory (3.2IP, 3ER)...tossed 3.2 scoreless relief innings in his final outing of the year on 9/28 vs. Baltimore.
- Went 3-1 with a 4.01 ERA in 18 games (6GS) with Columbus...allowed only 1HR in 42.2IP...was 3-1 with a 4.10 ERA in his six starts...allowed 7ER in 16.1IP as a reliever (3.86 ERA).
- Was placed on the disabled list on 4/17 after only two starts with a strained left shoulder, missing nearly two months...activated on 6/13 and made four more starts before he was shifted to the bullpen...made first relief appearance of the season on 7/2 vs. Louisville, throwing two scoreless innings...was only his third professional appearance out of the bullpen and first since 2003.

- Landed on the D.L. again from 7/15-8/15 with a strained left groin...allowed only 3ER over his final eight appearances (10.2IP) with the Clippers following the injury.
- Pitched for Peoria Saguaros in the Arizona Fall League, going 3-1 with a 7.43 ERA in nine relief appearances (13.1IP, 16H, 11ER, 11BB, 12K).

- Saw his first Major League action, making three starts for the Yankees over two stints (5/3-5; 6/19-26)...went 0-3 with a 11.12 ERA.
- Recalled from Double-A Trenton on 5/3 and made his Major League debut the next night at Tampa Bay in a spot start (2.1IP, 7H, 6R, 5ER, 2BB, 0K), receiving the loss...optioned to Triple-A Columbus the following day to make room for Tanyon Sturtze.
- Recalled by New York for a second time on 6/18 to replace Kevin Brown...lost both of his starts before being optioned back to Columbus on 6/29.
- Combined to go 7-6 with a 2.66 ERA in 20 minor league starts between Trenton and Columbus...ranked third among all Yankees minor leaguers in ERA...allowed only 6HR in 111.2IP and held opponents to a .240 average (95-for-396).
- Began the year with Trenton, going 2-1 with a 0.71 ERA in four starts while allowing only 16 hits in 25.1IP...held opponents scoreless in three of his four starts before joining the Yankees.
- Was 5-5 with a 3.23 ERA in 16 starts with Columbus (86.1IP, 79H, 31ER, 27BB, 64K, .254 opp. avg.)...went 3-1 without allowing an earned run in four consecutive starts from 5/14-31 (29.0IP, 14H)...pitched first career complete-game shutout on 5/31 at Ottawa (2H, 0BB, 3K), carrying a no-hitter into the eighth inning before allowing a lead-off single... was placed on the disabled list from 7/22-8/4 with tightness in his left forearm...pitched 6.2 innings over three starts before being placed back on the D.L. on 8/18 with the same injury, missing the remainder of the season.

- Made his Double-A debut, spending the entire season with Trenton...went 6-8 with a 4.41 ERA in 27 starts...led the Eastern League with 163.2IP, was tied for first with 27 starts and ranked ninth with 118K...pitched into the seventh inning in 11 of 27 starts...led Thunder starters with 13 no-decisions.
- Went into the sixth inning of his start on 7/17 vs. Portland with a perfect game, but ended up allowing 2ER on 3H in 7.0IP and suffered the loss...pitched 7.0 innings of two-hit, shutout ball on 8/19 at Portland but did not receive a decision in the game.

- Spent the majority of the season with Single-A Tampa, going 4-3 with a 3.61 ERA in 16 starts...allowed 2ER or less in 11 of his 16 starts...opened the season on the disabled list (through 5/1) with a left elbow strain and went on the D.L. again from 6/12-7/19 with a left shoulder strain...made two rehab starts with the Gulf Coast Yankees, going 1-1 with a 2.25 ERA.

2002

- Missed the entire season recovering from left elbow surgery...despite the season-long injury, was ranked as the No. 10 prospect in the Yankees organization by Baseball America.

2001

- Made nine appearances (eight starts) in his first professional season with Single-A Staten Island, going 3-1 with a 3.00 ERA.

Personal

- Selected in the 19th round of the 2003 First-Year Player Draft…signed through the 2008 season.

- Was 1-4 with an 11.05 ERA in seven games (three starts) over three stints with the Yankees in 2007 (4/21-29; 8/1-15; 9/11-9/30)…opponents batted .397 (27-for-68, 4HR); LH .424 (14-for-33, 3HR), RH .371 (13-for-35, 1HR).
- Opened the season on the disabled list with right elbow tendinitis, missing the team's first 15 games (3/31-4/21)…made one rehab start with Single-A Tampa on 4/16 (4.0IP, 3H, 0ER, 1BB, 5K).
- Was returned and reinstated from the D.L. on 4/21 and made his season debut that day at Fenway Park, recording the loss in a 7-5 Red Sox victory (4.1IP, 9H, 7ER, 2BB, 1K, 1HR)…made his second start of the season on 4/28 vs. Boston, recording a no-decision in a 3-1 Yankees victory…was hit in the right leg by a Julio Lugo line drive on the first pitch of the game and was removed after allowing a single to his next batter faced (Kevin Youkilis).
- Was placed on the 15-day disabled list on 4/29 with a fractured right fibula…was transferred to the 60-day D.L. on 7/1 (missed 84 team games)…made five rehab starts from 7/7-27 with the Gulf Coast League Yankees, Single-A Staten Island, Double-A Trenton and Triple-A Scranton/WB, going 3-0 with a 1.07 ERA (25.1IP, 16H, 3ER, 8BB, 25K).
- Made three appearances (1GS) with the Yankees following his return from the 60-day D.L. on 8/1, allowing 13R (10ER) in 9.1IP before being optioned to Triple-A Scranton/Wilkes-Barre on 8/15.
- Was recalled by the Yankees a third time on 9/11…earned his lone win of the season on 9/22 vs. Toronto, tossing a scoreless inning in the Yankees' 10th-inning, walk-off win…in his final outing of the year on 9/25 at Tampa Bay, surrendered a Dioner Navarro "walk-off" solo home run in the 10th inning.
- Combined to go 5-0 with a 1.49 ERA in 10G (9GS) with the GCL Yankees, Tampa, Staten Island, Trenton and Scranton/WB in 2007 (48.1IP, 39H, 8ER, 13BB, 47K, 3HR)…in 4G (3GS) with Scranton/WB, went 2-0 with a 2.37 ERA (19.0IP, 20H, 5ER, 4BB, 17K, 1HR)…struck out a season-high 10 batters in 9/2 win at Pawtucket (7.0IP, 5H, 0BB).
- Appeared in five spring training games (4GS) with the Yankees, going 3-2 with a 5.87 ERA (15.1IP, 17H, 10R, 10ER, 1HR, 2BB, 13K)…did not allow a run in his first 9.0IP.
- Following the season pitched for Team USA, going 2-0 with a team-best 0.69 ERA in two starts as the Americans won the IBAF World Cup in Taiwan…tossed 7.0 innings (5H, 1ER, 0BB, 7K), earning the win in Team USA's quarterfinal victory over Korea on 11/16…overall, in four starts with Team USA (including two exhibitions), Karstens was 2-0 with a 1.37 ERA, striking out 17 batters in 19.2IP…issued just one walk and held opponents to a .194 batting average (14-for-72).

- Posted a 2-1 record with a 3.80 ERA in eight games (six starts) with the Yankees in his first Major League season…the Yankees were 3-3 in games he started…limited opposing hitters to a .242 batting average and held right-handed hitters to just .233 (20-for-86)...in six starts with the Yankees, was 2-1 with a 4.17 ERA (36.2IP, 17ER)...did not record a decision and had a 1.50 ERA (6.0 IP, 1 ER) in two relief appearances.

- Was recalled from Triple-A Columbus on 8/19 and made his Major League debut on 8/22 at Seattle, recording a no-decision in a 6-5 come-from-behind Mariners win...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, he became only the fourth pitcher in the last 100 seasons to make his Major League debut by starting against a team with a losing streak of at least 11 games (first since Tampa Bay's Delvin James in 2002 vs. Detroit).
- Recorded his first Major League win on 8/27 at Los Angeles (AL) in an 11-8 Yankees victory...suffered his first Major League loss on 9/2 vs. Minnesota despite allowing just 2ER in 7.0IP...made his first Major League relief appearance on 9/8 at Baltimore, allowing 1H and 1ER in 5.0IP, the longest outing by a Yankees reliever in 2006.
- Began the 2006 season with Triple-A Columbus...was 0-5 in his first seven starts before being transferred to Double-A Trenton on 5/14...went 6-0 with a 2.31 ERA in 11 starts with Trenton from 5/14-7/6 before being promoted to Columbus on 7/13...in his second stint with Columbus from 7/15-8/15, was 5-0 with a 1.85 ERA across seven starts (39.0IP, 35H, 8ER, 9BB, 24K) while limiting opposing hitters to a .235 batting average (35-for-149)...won 11 consecutive decisions (was 6-0 at Trenton from 5/14-7/6 and was 5-0 at Columbus from 7/15–8/15).

- In his first season at the Double-A level, went 12-11 with a 4.15 ERA in 28 games (27 starts) for Trenton...led all Yankees minor leaguers and tied for second in the Eastern League in wins...also tied for second in the league with 27 starts, ranked fourth with 147K and 169.0IP...his 147K are the fifth-highest single-season strikeout total by a Thunder pitcher...allowed two walks or less in 22 of his 28 appearances, including seven appearances without issuing a walk.
- Went at least 5.0 innings in 25 of his 28 appearances, including 17 of his first 18 games...was 3-0 with a 0.81 ERA vs. Portland (Red Sox)...was 3-1 with a 2.51 ERA in five May appearances...pitched 8.0 innings of shutout relief to earn the win on 5/21 vs. Harrisburg.

- Spent the season at Single-A Tampa, going 6-9 with a 4.02 ERA in 24 starts...tied for the team lead with 116 strikeouts...allowed two walks or less in 22 of his 24 starts and four earned runs or less in 21-of-24 games...won his first start of the season with 5.0 innings of no-hit ball on 4/21 at Ft. Myers...fired first career complete-game shutout on 7/16 at Palm Beach, allowing just two hits (1BB, 9K)...struck out a season-high 10 batters twice (5/23 at Daytona and 8/10 vs. Lakeland).

- In his first professional season, went 4-2 with a 2.54 ERA in 14 games (10 starts) for Single-A Staten Island...ranked fifth in the New York Penn League with a 2.54 ERA...also ranked fifth in the league by allowing 7.16 runners per nine innings...was 4-1 with a 2.82 ERA as a starter...in four relief appearances, was 0-1 with a 1.65 ERA, holding opponents to a .127 average (7-for-55)...went 4-0 with a 0.58 ERA in a six-game span from 7/22-8/21...struck out a career high 11 batters on 8/21 vs. Hudson Valley, throwing 6.0 shutout innings to earn the win.

Personal

- Full name is Jeffrey Wayne Karstens...was signed by Mark Batchko...attended Mount Miguel High School (Calif.) where he was named the team's "Most Valuable Player"...also earned first-team All Conference and was a second-team All-San Diego selection...played one season (2003) at Texas Tech after attending Grossmont Junior College....was a First-Team All Conference selection at Grossmont...drafted in the 45th round of the 2000 First-Year Player Draft by the Montreal Expos as a catcher (did not sign).

Kevin Lawn Award "Minor League Pitcher of the Year"
- 2007

Status

- Selected by the Yankees in the first round (21st pick overall) of the 2006 First-Year Player Draft…signed through the 2008 season.

- Was 1-0 with a 1.89 ERA in three starts with the Yankees in his first Major League action…Yankees were 2-1 in his starts…opponents batted .191 (13-for-68, 1HR); LH .161 (5-for-31, 0HR), RH .216 (8-for-37, 1HR).
- Had contract purchased from Triple-A Scranton/Wilkes-Barre on 9/1 and made his Major League debut that day vs. Tampa Bay, recording the win in a 9-6 Yankees victory (7.0IP, 5H, 3R, 1ER, 2BB, 6K)…retired 13 of his final 14 batters faced (allowed solo-HR to B.J. Upton in the sixth)…became the third Yankee in 2007 to record a win in his Major League debut (also Chase Wright on 4/17 vs. Cleveland and Tyler Clippard 5/20 at the Mets).
- Became the eighth different rookie to start a game for the Yankees in 2007, tying a franchise record for most rookie starters in a season previously set in 1907…joined Kei Igawa, Darrell Rasner, Chase Wright, Jeff Karstens, Phil Hughes, Matt DeSalvo and Tyler Clippard…was the sixth to make his Major League debut (also Igawa, Wright, Hughes, DeSalvo and Clippard)…according to the Elias Sports Bureau, prior to 2007 no more than four Yankees starting pitchers had ever made their Major League debuts in the same season…the last time as many as six pitchers did so was for the 1935 Philadelphia Phillies.
- Struck out a Major League season-high seven batters while allowing only one hit over 7.0IP on 9/13 at Toronto (4BB, 7K)…recorded a no-decision in a Blue Jays 2-1 "walk-off" victory.
- Suffered a strained upper back muscle while throwing a bullpen session prior to his scheduled start on 9/22 and missed the remainder of the season.
- Combined to go 12-3 with a 1.91 ERA in 26G (25GS) with Single-A Tampa, Double-A Trenton and Triple-A Scranton/Wilkes-Barre in 2007 (146.1IP, 91H, 31ER, 50BB, 163K, 6HR), earning the 2007 Kevin Lawn "Minor League Pitcher of the Year" Award given annually to the top pitching prospect in the Yankees organization.
- Opponents batted .182 (91-for-501, 6HR); LH .177 (41-for-231, 3HR), RH .185 (50-for-270, 3HR)…had the second-lowest opponent's batting average among full-season minor-league pitchers, ranked third in ERA and racked up the 13th-most strikeouts…in his 29 professional starts in 2007 (Majors and minors), allowed more than 3ER just once–on 6/5 vs. Binghamton in his Double-A debut with Trenton (4ER)…held the opposition scoreless nine times.
- Began the season at Single-A Tampa, going 6-1 with a 1.29 ERA in 11G (10GS)…paced the Florida State League with six wins and a 1.29 ERA through the first two months of the season before his promotion to Double-A Trenton on 6/5…was credited with a complete game in his second outing of the year on 4/11 at Clearwater, allowing only 1ER on 3H in 6.0IP in a loss to the Threshers in the second game of a doubleheader.
- Went 9-0 with a 1.72 ERA over a 12-game span (11GS) from 4/16–6/16 with Tampa and Trenton, shutting out opponents six times…pitched a minor league career-high 8.0

Status

- Selected by the Yankees in Compensation Round A (41st pick overall) of the 2004 First-Year Player Draft... signed through the 2008 season.

- Was 15-9 with a 3.65 ERA (155.1IP, 166H, 80R, 63ER, 44BB, 94K) in 27 starts with Double-A Trenton... opponents batted .270 (166-for-615, 11HR); LH .292 (83-for-284, 5HR), RH .251 (83-for-331, 6HR).
- Led the Eastern League in wins, ranked second in innings pitched and placed 10th in ERA... his 15 wins placed him second among all Double-A pitchers and tied for ninth overall in the minors... led all Yankees farmhands in wins and innings pitched, recording the second-most victories in Trenton franchise history... his 3.65 ERA ranked eighth among all Yankees minor leaguers... threw 6.0 or more innings in 17 of his 27 outings and held opponents scoreless five times.
- Opened the season going 3-1 with a 1.24 ERA in the month of April... allowed just 4ER in 29.0IP over five starts for the month, striking out 22 batters with only five walks... limited opponents to a .212 average without surrendering a home run... threw 7.0 shutout innings for the win in his final outing of the month on 4/29 at Harrisburg, allowing 7H with 6K and no walks.
- Carried a no-hitter into the sixth inning of 4/6 win vs. Bowie... left the game in the sixth inning after hitting a batter and surrendering back-to-back singles without recording an out (5.0IP, 2H, 1BB, 5K)... the 2H allowed were a season-low.
- Tossed his first complete game of the season—and second of his career—in 6/12 victory vs. Connecticut, retiring 11 of his final 13 batters faced (7.0IP, 5H, 1R, 0ER, 1BB, 6K)... in five starts vs. Connecticut (San Francisco Giants affiliate), was 4-0 with an 0.55 ERA (33.0IP, 29H, 2BB, 21K).
- Started the Eastern League All-Star Game on 7/11 in Norwich, Conn., tossing 1.0 scoreless inning (1H)... the game was cancelled due to thick fog with the score tied 2-2 in the third inning.
- Tossed his second complete game of the season in 8/28 win at Portland, retiring the side in order in the first, fourth and seventh innings (7.0IP, 6H, 2R, 0ER, 1BB, 1K).
- Struck out a season-high—and career-high-tying—nine batters over 6.0 innings (4H, 3ER, 1BB) in 9/2 victory at New Hampshire.
- Made one postseason start, tossing 7.0 scoreless innings (4H, 1BB, 3K) on 9/8 vs. Portland to earn the first-round series-clinching win in Trenton's march to the Eastern League Championship.
- Ranked as the seventh-best prospect in the Yankees organization by Baseball America following the season.

- Combined to go 7-6 with a 3.58 ERA in 20 games (19GS) with Single-A Tampa and the Gulf Coast Yankees... spent the majority of the season at Class-A and went 7-5 with a 3.61 ERA in 18 games (17GS)... was placed on the disabled list on 6/6 with a strained right elbow... made two rehab starts with the Gulf Coast Yankees from 7/24-29, going 0-1 with a 3.18 ERA before being reinstated from the D.L. on 7/31... played the remainder of the season with Tampa.

- Pitched for the West Oahu CaneFires of the Hawaiian Winter Baseball League, going 2-4 with a 7.04 ERA in nine starts (38.1IP, 43H, 39R, 30ER, 19BB, 31K, 1HR).
- Entered the 2006 season ranked by Baseball America as the Yankees' ninth-best prospect.

- Made 27 starts with Single-A Charleston, going 9-13 with a 3.42 ERA and a team-high 107 strikeouts... ranked second among all SAL pitchers in games and ninth in ERA... was named the South Atlantic League "Pitcher of the Week" for the week of 7/4-10 after going 2-0 with a 1.29 ERA in two starts... posted his first career complete game in 7/10 victory vs. Augusta (7.0IP, 7H, 1ER, 4BB, 8K).

2004

- In his first professional season, combined to post a 4-4 record with a 2.49 ERA in 15 games (13 starts) with the Gulf Coast League Yankees and short-season Single-A Staten Island... did not give up a hit in 3.0 scoreless innings of relief in his GCL debut on 6/21 (1BB, 3K)... made his first career start on 6/25, tossing four shutout innings while allowing 4H and recording 4K... tossed a season-high 6.0 innings on 8/20 vs. Brooklyn, recording the win and allowing just 2H and 1BB with 1K.

Personal

- Was signed by Fay Thompson and Jeff Patterson... attended Sacramento City College before being drafted by the Yankees in 2004 in the first supplemental round as a compensation pick from San Diego for David Wells.

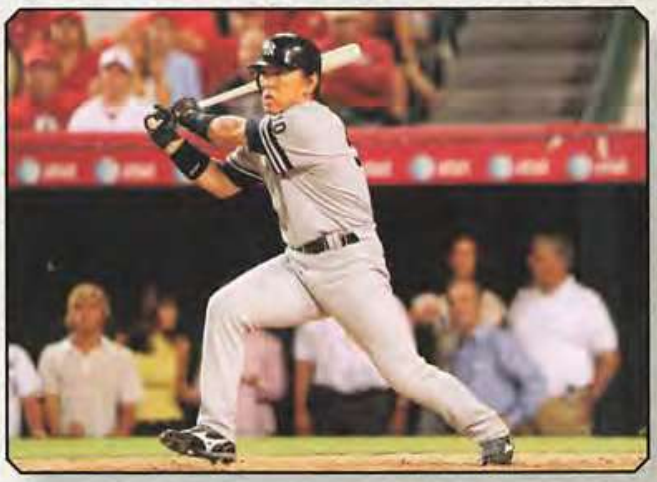
third with 28RBI during the month of July...the 31R and 13HR were the most in any calendar month of his career (his largest home run output in any previous calendar month was seven in 6/04 and 7/05).

- Scored at least one run in 11 consecutive games from 7/3-16, the longest such streak by a Yankee since Derek Jeter in 2003 (also 11 games)...hit safely in 38 of 41 games from 7/3-8/17, batting .360 (59-for-164) with 45R, 15HR and 37RBI...led the Majors in runs scored over the stretch...included was a single-season career-high 14-game hitting streak from 7/3-19...during the streak, hit .375 (21-for-56) with 14R, 6HR and 10RBI...previously hit in 16 straight games spanning two seasons from 9/26/05-4/13/06.



- Hit two-run HR (#10)—his second in as many games—and was 2-for-5 with 1R and 2RBI in 7/5 win vs. Minnesota, hitting fourth in the lineup for the first time since 6/12/05 at St. Louis...was the first time he collected home runs in consecutive games since 7/4-5/05 vs. Baltimore...hit six home runs in a 10-game span from 7/4-16, his most HR ever over any 10-game span in his Major League career.
- Homered in three straight games (over both games of a doubleheader on 7/21, and 7/22 at Tampa Bay) for just the second time in his Major League career (also a doubleheader on 9/29, and 9/30/04 vs. Minnesota)...established a regular-season career-high with five hits in 7/22 win vs. Tampa Bay, going 5-for-6 with 3R and 2RBI.
- Had 3RBI in 7/29 win at Baltimore, despite going 0-for-3...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, he was the first Major Leaguer to have three or more RBI without recording a hit since Minnesota's Nick Punto on 8/5/06 at Kansas City (0-for-1, 3RBI) and the first Yankee since Don Mattingly on 5/3/86 vs. Texas (0-for-2, 3RBI).
- Recorded his second career two-homer game in 7/31 win vs. Chicago (AL), going 2-for-3 with 4R and 2BB (also 8/16/04 vs. Toronto)...also tied his career high with 4R (fifth time, last on 6/21/05).
- Hit the 100th HR of his Major League career in 8/5 win vs. Kansas City (off Gil Meche)...became the first Japanese-born player to reach the 100-home run milestone in the Majors...hit solo-HR (#24) and was 1-for-5 in 9/17 win vs. Baltimore, snapping a 122AB homerless stretch dating back to 8/8 at Toronto...was the second-longest homerless stretch of his career (went 180AB between homers in 2005)...missed the final two games of the regular season, returning to New York to have fluid drained from his right knee.
- Started all four Division Series games vs. Cleveland at DH, hitting .182 (2-for-11) while leading the team with 4R and 5BB.
- Underwent arthroscopic surgery to clean the inside of his right knee on 11/14...the procedure was performed by Dr. Scott Rodeo at the Hospital for Special Surgery in New York City.

- Despite missing four months of the season with a fractured left wrist, hit .302 (52-for-172) with 8HR and 29RBI in 51 games (36 starts in LF, 13 at DH)...played in 1,768 consecutive professional games before his injury on 5/11 vs. Boston (1,250 with Yomiuri Giants, 518 with Yankees).
- Set a record with 518 consecutive games played to start his Major League career, surpassing the mark previously held by Ernie Banks (424, Chicago Cubs, 1953-56) and the AL record that had belonged to Al Simmons (394, Philadelphia Athletics, 1924-26)... Matsui's streak was the longest by any Yankee since Lou Gehrig's 2,130-game streak.
- In Opening Day win at Oakland on 4/3, reached base six times, going 4-for-4 with 2R, 1HR, 4RBI and 2BB...became the 18th Yankee to own two or more career home runs on Opening Day (also homered in the 2005 opener)...hit in a career-high 16 consecutive games from 9/26/05-4/13/06 (last seven games of the 2005 season and the first nine games of 2006)...snapped a 77AB homerless stretch with solo-HR (#4) in 5/4 win at Tampa Bay...was his first HR since 4/8 at Los Angeles (AL).
- Was removed from 5/11 loss vs. Boston in the top of the first inning after he suffered a fractured left wrist while diving for a fly ball (hit by Mark Loretta)...according to Rule 10.24 (c), Matsui's consecutive-game streak was snapped on 5/11 as he did not play one-half inning in the field or complete a time at bat by reaching base or making an out...was placed on the 15-day disabled list from 5/12-9/12 with a left wrist fracture (missed 110 team games)...underwent surgery at Columbia Presbyterian Medical Center on 5/12...the procedure was performed by Team Physician Dr. Stuart Hershon and Dr. Melvin Rosenwasser...played in four rehab games (at DH) with Double-A Trenton vs. Portland, going 3-for-11 with 1 double, 1RBI and 5BB (1IBB).

- Was reinstated from the D.L. prior to the game on 9/12 vs. Tampa Bay…equaled a then-single-game career high with four hits, going 4-for-4 with 2R, 1RBI and 1BB in win…according to the Elias Sports Bureau, became the first player since Lance Johnson in 1988 to go more than 90 days between Major League at-bats in a season and then record a game of four-or-more hits in his return…became the first Yankee to go 4-for-4 with hits against four different pitchers in one game since Willie Randolph on 9/5/85 vs. Oakland…started at DH and batted eighth in the order…made first 11 starts at DH after being reinstated from the disabled list…made first start in LF since returning from the D.L. on 9/26 vs. Baltimore, and concluded the season by starting in LF for the final six games…in final 19 games of the season after being reinstated from the disabled list on 9/12, hit .396 (21-for-53) with 11R, 3HR and 10RBI.

- Hit safely in each of his final seven games of the season.

- In his first full season in the Majors, batted .184 with 4 doubles and 6RBI with the Angels...appeared in 53 games, making 39 starts at catcher...committed just one error in 239 total chances (.996 fielding percentage), throwing out 25.0% of potential base stealers (6-of-24).
- Drew his lone walk of the season on 9/12 at Seattle...had gone 110 plate appearances without a base on balls.
- Had his season cut short after leaving 9/20 game at Texas during an at-bat in the fifth inning...suffered a left shoulder contusion following a collision at the plate in the bottom of the second inning with Rafael Palmeiro.

- Recalled by the Angels on 7/17, replacing his brother Bengie who was placed on the 15-day D.L...played in 29 games, making 24 starts at catcher and batting .271 with 3 doubles and 5RBI...took over back-up role following the trade of Jorge Fabregas to Milwaukee on 7/31.
- Threw out 39.1% of potential base stealers (9-of-23) as Angels pitchers had a team-best 3.01 ERA with him behind the plate...also picked off three runners.
- Appeared in 79 games with Salt Lake, batting .307 with 14 doubles, 4HR and 43RBI...rated as the best defensive catcher in the Pacific Coast League by Baseball America.
- Saw action in six postseason games, recording just one at-bat in Game 3 of the ALCS vs. Minnesota...appeared in three World Series games in 2002, recording a sacrifice bunt in his only plate appearance in Game 6 vs. San Francisco.

- In his first season with the Angels organization, saw action in 15 Major league games over two stints...batted .270 with 3 doubles, 2HR and 4RBI, throwing out 31.3% of potential base stealers (5-of-16)...was also errorless in 84 total chances and picked off three runners.
- Had his contract purchased by the Angels on 5/5 from Triple-A Salt Lake when his brother Bengie went on the 15-day disabled list...move is believed to be only the second ever involving brothers (also Bret and Aaron Boone in 1997 with Cincinnati).
- Hit his first Major League home run on 5/10 at Chicago (AL) off Rocky Biddle in the fifth inning.
- Landed on the 15-day D.L. on 5/21 with a fractured left thumb...was reinstated, activated and optioned to Salt Lake on 7/1...in 61 Triple-A games, hit .300 with 11 doubles, 5HR and 31RBI.

- Played the entire season at Triple-A Iowa , batting .234 with 9 doubles, 1HR and 17RBI in 76 games (73 at C)...hit safely in 44 games, including 12 multi-hit contests...hit .545 (12-for-22) over a season-long nine-game hitting streak from 5/28-6/7.

1999

- Saw his first Major League action after having his contract purchased by the Cubs on 8/31...batted .263 (5-for-19) with 1 double and 1RBI in 10 games (7GS) with Chicago.
- Made his big league debut on 9/6 vs. Cincinnati, going 2-for-3 with 1 double...recorded a hit in his first Major League at-bat, a single off Juan Guzman.
- Hit .263 at Triple-A Iowa with 11 doubles, 4HR and 25RBI in 74 games prior to joining the Major League club...began the year at Double-A West Tenn, batting .171 in 14 contests.

Minor League Career

- Played in a career-high 109 games in 1998 with Double-A West Tenn...threw out a Southern League-best 63 potential base stealers in 128 attempts (49.2%), the second-best caught stealing rate in the league...also led SL catchers in assists (108) and ranked second with a .991 fielding percentage.
- Appeared at three levels in 1997, playing in 93 combined games with Single-A Daytona, Double-A Orlando and Triple-A Iowa...threw out 40.6% of potential base stealers (43-of-106).
- Batted .226 with 10 doubles for Single-A Rockford in 1996...threw out 44.4% of potential base stealers (59-of-133) and had a .985 fielding percentage (11E, 729TC).
- At Single-A Daytona in 1995, batted .236 in 82 games and threw out 50.6% of potential base stealers (41-of-81) with a .987 fielding percentage (8E, 600TC).
- Played the entire 1994 season with Single-A Peoria, batting .229 with 13 doubles and 33RBI in 78 games...threw out 43.6% of potential base stealers (44-of-101).
- Began his professional career in 1993 with rookie-level Port St. Lucie, batting .218 in 33 games before his promotion on 8/22 to Single-A Daytona where he appeared in three games.

- Tied a career high with 6BB (fourth time) on 9/2 vs. Boston, allowing 7H and 4ER in 6.2IP and recording the loss...tossed a two-hit complete-game shutout—his second of the season, fifth as a Yankee and 20th of his career on 9/24 vs. Tampa Bay...struck out a season-high 12 batters, the 35th 10-strikeout game of his career...did not allow an earned run in his final 27.0IP of the season, spanning four starts...in his final seven starts of the season (from 8/28), was 3-3 with a 1.22 ERA (51.2IP, 31H, 7ER, 15BB, 55K).
- Started Game 3 of the Division Series at Anaheim, allowing 4ER and 6H in 4.0IP before being removed from the game after four innings with muscle tightness in his right groin...received a no-decision in the Yankees' 8-6 loss.

- In his first season with the Yankees, was 17-11 with a 3.15 ERA in 34GS, earning his fifth Gold Glove Award and finishing fifth in American League Cy Young Award voting...the Yankees were 20-14 in games he started...opponents batted .237 (202-for-852, 20 HR); LH .240 (101-for-421, 10 HR), RH .234 (101-for-431, 10 HR)...his four complete games were the most by a Yankees starter since David Wells recorded eight in 1998...started nine games in which he did not allow an earned run, the most in the AL (St. Louis' Matt Morris led the Majors with 10).
- Pitched seven games in which he went at least 7.0 innings and did not allow a run, tying him with John Burkett, Randy Johnson and Matt Morris for most such starts in the Majors...the last Yankee to have seven such starts in one season was Tommy John in 1980...along with Roger Clemens, became the first pair of Yankee teammates to record 200 or more strikeouts in the same season since Jack Chesbro (239) and Jack Powell (202) in 1904.
- His 214 strikeouts rank sixth on the Yankees' all-time single-season strikeout list...recorded his 150th career victory on 5/6 in his first appearance ever vs. Baltimore at Camden Yards (7.0IP, 6H, 1ER, 2BB, 3K)...recorded back-to-back 10-plus strikeout games on 5/24 (vs. Boston) and 5/30 (at Boston) for the third time in his career (also on 8/23 and 8/28/97 and on 7/10 and 7/16/99 with Baltimore)...on 7/12 at Florida, was removed after 2.0 innings plus five batters...was his shortest outing since 9/19/96 at New York (also 2.0 IP).

- On 9/2 at Boston came within one out of recording only the 16th perfect game in regular season Major League history, winning his second straight start in a 1-0 Yankees victory (9.0IP, 1H, 0R, 0BB, 13K, 115 pitches)...the near-perfect game was broken up by a two-out, pinch-hit single by Carl Everett in the bottom of the ninth...was Mussina's fourth career one-hitter and also marked the fourth time in his career that he has taken a no-hitter into the eighth inning, the most of any active pitcher who has never thrown a no-hitter...it was also the second 1-0, complete-game victory of his career...the 1-0 complete-game win was the first by a Yankee at Fenway since Stan Bahnsen tossed a three-hitter on 8/1/68...the one-hitter was the 57th in Yankees history and first since Andy Pettitte, Brian Boehringer, Mariano Rivera and Jeff Nelson combined to limit the Tigers to one single on 9/26/97 at Detroit (the last complete-game one-hitter was tossed by Jimmy Key on 4/27/93 at California).
- Was named the AL "Player of the Week" for 8/27-9/2...recorded wins in both of his starts during the week and did not allow a run in 17.0IP, surrendering only seven hits and two walks while striking out 19 batters...was his second weekly award of the season...did not allow an earned run in six of his last nine starts of the season, going 6-1 with a 1.31ERA...also allowed one run or less in six of his last seven starts, surrendering just 6ER in 49.0IP (1.10ERA).
- Made four starts for the Yankees in the postseason, going 2-1 with a 2.63 ERA...made his first postseason start with the Yankees in a must-win Game 3 of the Division Series at Oakland, trailing two games to none...threw seven shutout innings allowing 4H to earn the win in a 1-0 Yankees victory...had his 18.0-inning postseason scoreless streak snapped in the fourth inning of Game 2 of the ALCS at Seattle...recorded his only loss of the 2001 postseason in Game 1 of the World Series at Arizona, allowing 5R (3ER) in 3.0IP.

- Suffered his first losing season since going 4-5 in his rookie campaign in 1991, going 11-15 with a 3.79 ERA in 34 starts with Baltimore...led the AL with 237.2IP and finished third in ERA...pitched 7.0 or more innings in 23 of 34 starts and was tied with Sidney Ponson for third in AL with 6CG...finished third in the AL with 210 strikeouts which was the second highest single-season strikeout total in Orioles' history (behind his own personal record of 218 in 1997)...owns three of the five 200+ strikeout seasons in Baltimore franchise history...received the lowest run support in the league, at 3.71 runs per nine innings...finished third in the AL in fewest walks per 9.0IP (1.74), third in K/BB ratio (4.57) and sixth in strikeouts per 9.0IP (7.95).
- Ranked eighth in the AL holding opponents to a .255 average (236-for-924)...his 2.90 ERA at Camden Yards was the second-best home ERA in the AL behind only Boston's Pedro Martinez (1.84)...was also second in the league with 15 losses and tied for third in starts with 34...is the Orioles' all-time leader in 10-strikeout games with 26 (Jim Palmer is second with 11).
- Matched Jim Palmer's club record with his sixth Opening Day start on 4/3 vs. Cleveland, and in the process passed Dennis Martinez for sixth place on the Orioles' all-time innings pitched list...went winless in his first five starts, the first time he had not won in a span of five consecutive outings since 8/13-9/7/97...lost four straight starts from 5/4-20...allowed a season-high 4HR on 5/9 vs. Toronto (7.0IP, 12H, 5ER, 0BB, 6K).
- Recorded 15 strikeouts on 8/1 vs. Minnesota to establish a Baltimore franchise regular season record (also had 15K in Game 3 of the 1997 ALCS at Cleveland), tossing a complete-game, one-hit shutout, his third career one-hitter and 15th career shutout...also had 15K in his next-to-last-start on 9/24 at Boston in only 7.0IP.
- In an 8/21 victory vs. Kansas City, passed Mike Cuellar for third place on the Orioles' all-time wins list with 144.

- Was 18-7 with a 3.50 ERA in 31 starts with Baltimore...won at least 18 games for the fourth time in his career (19 twice)...tied for second in the AL in wins with Cleveland's Bartolo Colon and Texas' Aaron Sele...was third in the AL with a 3.50 ERA, third with a .720 winning percentage and sixth in strikeouts with 172...reached 202 career decisions with a .673 winning percentage, the highest in baseball history among right-handed pitchers with at least 200 career decisions and third all-time behind only left-handed Hall of Famers Whitey Ford (236-106, .690) and Lefty Grove (300-141, .680).
- Finished second to Boston's Pedro Martinez in AL Cy Young Award voting, his highest finish ever (finished fourth in 1994, fifth in 1995 and 1996 and sixth in 1997)...allowed only 4-of-9 runners to steal successfully, tied for the league's best percentage (44.4%) with Kansas City's Jose Rosado...opponents batted .228 (42-for-184) off him with runners in scoring position, sixth lowest in the league...in his last 17 starts, did not walk more than two batters in a game and his K/BB ratio was 5.14 (113K, 22BB) in 106.0IP...struck out a season-high 12 batters on 7/10 at Philadelphia in 7.0IP, one of four games with 10 or more strikeouts in 1999...suffered losses in three of his four complete game efforts.
- Earned his fourth straight Rawlings Gold Glove Award...had a .984 fielding percentage, committing one error in 61 total chances...allowed a career-high 10ER on 4/21 at Tampa Bay in 3.2IP...on 6/2 at Seattle, was charged with his first error since 8/7/95, a span of 120 starts between errors...was named to the AL All-

Star team for the fifth time in his career and pitched 1.0 scoreless inning in the game, striking out Sammy Sosa and Mark McGwire back-to-back with runners on second and third...in a 22-1 Orioles win on 6/13 at Atlanta, became the first Orioles pitcher to collect 3RBI in a game since Dave McNally on 8/9/72 and the first Oriole hurler to bat five times in a game since Jim Palmer on 7/3/72...his only 9.0 inning CGs came in back-to-back outings, 6/18 at Chicago (AL) and 6/24 vs. Boston...lost three straight starts, 6/27-8/6, for the first time in his career.

- Missed four starts after he was struck on the right deltoid by a line drive off the bat of Chicago's Brook Fordyce on 8/22 at Camden Yards in the fourth inning...returned to the rotation on 9/14 and went 3-0 with a 2.70 ERA in his final four starts, finishing the season with 13 scoreless innings.

- Suffered through two stints on the disabled list but still reached double-digits in victories for the seventh straight season...was 13-10 with a 3.49 ERA in 29 starts...captured his third Rawlings Gold Glove Award...compiled a 1.000 fielding percentage, handling all 50 of his chances flawlessly...ranked among league leaders in strikeout/walk ratio (second-4.27), walks allowed per 9.0IP (fourth-1.79), on-base pct. allowed (fourth-.283), fewest baserunners per 9.0IP (fourth-10.2), shutouts (tied for fifth-2), ERA (sixth-3.49), strikeouts per 9.0IP (sixth-7.63), strikeouts (eighth-175) and opponents batting average (eighth-.242).
- Notched his 1,000th career strikeout on 4/11 at Detroit (Bip Roberts)...on the year, struck out 10 or more batters in a game seven times...left game on 4/16 vs. Chicago (AL) when a wart on his right index finger split open...following the game he underwent cryotherapy, a procedure in which liquid nitrogen is sprayed on the wart...the procedure was performed by Dr. Mark Lowitt at University of Maryland Hospital...was placed on the 15-day disabled list on 4/17 and activated on 5/3.
- Tossed his 13th career shutout in a 7-0 win on 5/9 at Tampa Bay...on 5/14 vs. Cleveland, was struck above the right eye by a line drive off the bat of Sandy Alomar, Jr. with one out in the sixth inning...suffered laceration over his right eye and a displaced nose fracture and was placed on the 15-day D.L. on 5/18, retroactive to 5/15...was activated from D.L. on 6/6 and that day allowed 8ER in 4.2 innings against Atlanta, but recorded 10 strikeouts...in a 4-0 win on 8/4 vs. Detroit, had a perfect game with two outs in the eighth inning when he allowed a double to Frank Catalanotto after retiring first 23 Tiger batters...was his 14th career shutout.

- Went 15-8 with a 3.20 ERA in 33 starts with the Orioles...surpassed the 200-innings pitched mark for the third straight season and the fourth time in his career...due to a calcium deposit in his right elbow, did not start on Opening Day for the first time since 1993...set a new Orioles single season record with 218 strikeouts, surpassing his previous mark of 204 set in 1996...was the fourth most strikeouts in the AL...five of the bullpen's 10 blown saves on the season came in games that Mussina left with a lead...also ranked among league leaders in ERA (sixth) and opponents batting average (.234, sixth)...captured his second straight Rawlings Gold Glove Award, compiling a perfect 1.000 fielding pct., joining seven other AL pitchers with flawless fielding percentages.
- On 5/8 at Camden Yards, defeated Randy Johnson and the Mariners, 13-3...the win ended Johnson's 16-game winning streak, one shy of the Major League record...on 5/30 vs. Cleveland, retired the first 25 batters he faced before losing a perfect game bid with one out in the ninth on a single by Sandy Alomar, Jr...after the single, he struck out the final two hitters in the game for his second career one-hitter...it was the 10th time that an Orioles pitcher lost a no-hitter in the ninth inning and the first since Eric Bell in 1987.
- Was named to the AL All-Star team for the fourth time in his career but did not appear in the game played in Cleveland on 7/8...his single off Atlanta's John Smoltz on 6/14 at Atlanta made him the first Orioles pitcher to collect a hit in a regular season game since Roric Harrison homered at Cleveland on 10/3/72 on the final day of the season in the last year before the designated hitter rule was instituted...defeated the Phillies on 6/30 in Baltimore for his 100th career win...the win gave him a 100-43 career mark, the eighth fewest losses at 100 wins in history...also became the fourth-youngest Oriole to reach 100 wins (28 years, 6 months, 22 days)...on 7/5 at Detroit recorded 14 strikeouts over 7.0IP.
- In the AL Division Series vs. Seattle, went 2-0 with a 1.93 ERA, defeating Randy Johnson in Game 1 and again in the clinching Game 4...in two ALCS starts vs. Cleveland, did not receive a decision despite allowing just 1ER in 15.0IP, with 4BB and 25K...in Game 3 at Jacobs Field, he struck out 15 batters in 7.0IP...the 15K set an LCS record for most strikeouts in a game (later tied by Florida's Livan Hernandez in the 1997 NLCS and by Roger Clemens in the 2000 ALCS) and the total was two shy of Bob Gibson's single game postseason mark of 17 set in the 1968 World Series...in Game 3, he tied Curt Shilling's LCS record with five consecutive strikeouts...in addition, his 41 strikeouts in his three postseason starts broke Dave McNally's club record of 24 strikeouts in a single postseason in 1969 (has since been broken).

- Matched his career high by winning 19 games for the second straight season, going 19-11 with a 4.81 ERA in 36 starts...made four attempts in his effort to become the Orioles first 20-game winner since Mike Boddicker in 1984, going 0-2 over his final four starts of the season...18 of his 36 starts on the year resulted in "quality starts"...on 7/26 vs. Cleveland he lost a third straight decision for the first time in his career...captured his first career Rawlings Gold Glove Award.
- In the annual Baseball America "Tools of the Trade" poll, was tabbed as having baseball's "Best Changeup," "Best Control" and was the overall "Best Pitcher"...placed fifth in the BBWAA Cy Young Award balloting with one second place and two third place votes for a total of five points...finished behind Pat Hentgen, Andy Pettitte, Mariano Rivera and Charles Nagy...received the second-best run support per 9.0IP in the AL at 6.84 (243.1IP, 185R), trailing only Boston's Tom Gordon (7.34).

- Tied Greg Maddux for the Major League lead with a career-high 19 victories, going 19-9 with a 3.29 ERA...finished fifth in AL Cy Young balloting behind Randy Johnson, Jose Mesa, Tim Wakefield and David Cone...left-handers batted an AL-low .210 (102-for-486) against him...in addition, averaged 3.16 strikeouts for every walk allowed, the second best K/BB ratio in the league, behind only Seattle's Randy Johnson...his on-base percentage allowed was .270, second lowest to Johnson's .266...on the year, opponents were 4-for-10 (40.0%) in stolen base attempts, the third-lowest success rate against any AL pitcher.
- Through his first 11 starts of the year, was 5-5 with a 5.13 ERA (66.2IP, 61H, 38ER) and 15HR allowed...over his final 21 starts, was 14-4 with a 2.50 ERA (155.0IP, 126H, 43ER) and 9HR allowed...compiled a career-best eight-game winning streak over nine starts from 6/23-8/2...had a string of 24.0 consecutive innings without a walk spanning from 4/26-5/18...with runners in scoring position, held opponents to a .212 average (31-for-146) and with runners in scoring position and two out he limited batters to a .208 average (16-for-77).
- Put together a string of 26.0 consecutive scoreless innings from 9/21-10/1 as he ended the season with three straight complete-game victories...was the second-longest consecutive scoreless innings string in the league behind Kenny Rogers' 39.0...named as the right-handed pitcher on the Sporting News AL All-Star Team and the right-hander on the USA Today Baseball Weekly AL "Best of '95".

- Was 16-5 with a 3.06 ERA in 24 starts...finished in a four-way, second-place tie for most wins in the Majors (16) along with David Cone, Ken Hill and Greg Maddux, behind the Yankees' Jimmy Key (17)...he and Ben McDonald combined for 30 wins in the abbreviated season, most by a pair of teammates...tied the Orioles record for most wins at the All-Star Break with 13...Jim Palmer, Dave McNally and Mike Cuellar each did it twice...allowed five home runs on 7/1 vs California, tying Jim Palmer's club record...on the road, was 8-1 with a league best 2.04 ERA...became the first Oriole ever to be chosen for the All-Star team in each of his first three full seasons.

- Went 14-6 with a 4.46 ERA in 25 starts with Baltimore...reached 36 Major League wins in 69 games; only two pitchers have reached 36 wins with the Orioles in less time and neither were original Orioles...Mike Cuellar had 36 wins in his first 63 games with the Birds in 1969-70 after coming over to the Orioles from Houston prior to the 1969 season...Steve Stone earned 36 wins in 68 games with the Orioles in 1979-80 after coming over to the Orioles from the White Sox prior to the 1979 season...was one of only three active pitchers to go eight games over .500 in each of his first two full seasons in the Majors, joining Dwight Gooden and Mike Boddicker.
- Worked five or more innings 48 out of his first 50 Major League starts...no pitcher in Orioles history had ever accomplished that feat...missed six weeks during the season with a sore right shoulder and lower back pain...was on the disabled list from 7/22-8/19 with a strained right shoulder...on 5/16 at Detroit tied a club record with 14 strikeouts, a mark that was last accomplished in a regular season game more than 35 years ago (Connie Johnson, 9/2/57 vs. the Yankees).

- Finished fourth in AL Cy Young voting, going 18-5 with a 2.54 ERA in 32 starts with the Orioles...his .783 winning percentage led the Majors and was fourth-best in club history behind Dave McNally (.808, 21-5 in 1971); Jim Palmer (.800, 16-4, in 1969) and Wally Bunker (.792, 19-5 in 1964)...at 23, became the Orioles' youngest 18-game winner since 19-year-old Wally Bunker won 19 games in 1964...the only other Orioles to win that many games at a younger age are Steve Barber and Chuck Estrada, who both won 18 games as 22-year-olds in 1961 and 1960, respectively.

- His 2.54 ERA was third best in the AL and the lowest by an Oriole (excluding abbreviated 1981 season) since Jim Palmer in 1978 (2.46)...the last time an AL pitcher age 23 or younger posted an ERA that low was in 1976 when Mark Fidrych (2.34) and Frank Tanana (2.43) did it at 22 and 23, respectively...led the O's in innings pitched (241.0) and was eighth in the AL...his IP total was the most by an Oriole since Mike Boddicker's 261.0 in 1984...allowed two runs or less in 20 of 32 starts and one run or less 14 times...began the season 5-0 and finished the year with a seven-game winning streak over his last nine starts.
- In his first start after the All-Star break, on 7/17 at Texas, pitched the 29th one-hitter in Baltimore club history, winning 8-0 with 10 strikeouts, defeating 20-game winner Kevin Brown...Kevin Reimer broke up the no-hit bid with a one-out double in the fifth...at 23 years, 8 months, became the youngest Orioles pitcher to make the All-Star team since Chuck Estrada (22) in 1960.

- Split the season between Triple-A Rochester and the Orioles...went 4-5 with a 2.88 ERA in 12 starts with the Orioles...joined Baltimore on 7/31 and became the team's most effective starter over the final two months of the season...finished with the lowest ERA (2.87) among the 29 Major League rookies with 10 or more starts...posted the AL's second best ERA after 9/1 (1.66), behind only Oakland's Mike Moore (1.46)...after 9/1, Mussina allowed two runs or less in all six starts, but was only 2-1.
- Fanned 10 batters in his first Major League win, 10-2, vs. Texas on 8/14...lost 1-0 in his ML debut on 8/4 at Chicago (7.2IP, 4H, 1ER, 4BB, 1K) on a homer by Frank Thomas...when promoted from Triple-A Rochester on 7/31, was tied for the International League lead in wins (10), second in ERA (2.87) and strikeouts (107)...was the winner of the first Palmer Prize as the top pitcher in the Orioles minor league system.

- Signed with the Orioles on 7/2 after being taken in the first round (20th overall) of the First-Year Player Draft...made his official debut on 7/19 for Double-A Hagerstown vs. Canton-Akron...worked 4.0 scoreless innings, pitching against Cleveland's John Farrell, who was on a rehab assignment...in 11 starts that season, including two in the postseason for Triple-A Rochester, allowed more than 2ER only once...walked only eight batters in his last 63.1IP and none in 14.2 postseason innings for Rochester...earned his first win on 7/31, when he beat New Britain, 7-0, with seven shutout innings, while pitching for Hagerstown...in his last five regular season starts (three at Double-A and two at Triple-A), he allowed only 3ER in 36.2IP.

Personal

- Full name is Michael Cole Mussina...he and his wife, Jana, have a daughter, Kyra (18), and two sons, Brycen (9) and Peyton (4)...was signed by Orioles scout Ed Sprague...earned a degree in economics from Stanford University in December 1990...finished in only 3 1/2 years...signed a national letter of intent to attend Stanford, but the Orioles picked him in the 11th round of the 1987 First-Year Player Draft anyway...he did not sign.
- Established the Mike Mussina Foundation in 2000 to benefit children and children's charities...awards scholarships to graduating seniors from each of 12 high schools surrounding Lycoming County, Penn...is a member of the Little League Baseball International Board of Directors and has donated over $300,000 to Little League Baseball...threw out the first pitch at the Little League World Series in 2004...during 2005 spring training, presented a $10,000 check to South Florida Little Leagues devastated by hurricanes the previous summer...also donated new gloves to each player on all 10 teams participating in the 2005 Little League Baseball Urban Initiative Jamboree in Williamsport...has an extensive collection of automobiles and tractors and was the spokesman for John Deere Books for Kids in 2005...joined with Wolfgang Candy to create the "Moose Bar," a milk chocolate and peanut butter candy bar to help raise money for his foundation.

Status

- Acquired from the Arizona Diamondbacks with RHPs Luis Vizcaino and Steven Jackson and INF Alberto Gonzalez in exchange for LHP Randy Johnson and cash considerations on January 9, 2007…signed through the 2008 season.

- Was 0-0 with a 2.84 ERA in six relief appearances for the Yankees…opponents batted .208 (5-for-24, 1HR); LH .267 (4-for-15, 1HR), RH .111 (1-for-9, 0HR)…four of his six appearances were scoreless…retired his first batter faced in five of his six games.
- Was recalled from Triple-A Scranton/Wilkes-Barre on 9/9…made his Major League debut in 9/11 win at Toronto, tossing a perfect ninth inning (1.0IP, 1K)…struck out four batters in 1.1IP (1H, 1ER, 1BB, 1HR) on 9/15 at Boston in his second appearance…the lone hit allowed through his first four appearances (3.2IP) was a solo-HR to Eric Hinske.
- Made one appearance in the Division Series vs. Cleveland in Game 1 loss at Jacobs Field…pitched 1.0 inning of relief, allowing 4H and 3ER…according to the Elias Sports Bureau, became just the fourth Yankee to appear in a postseason game after making his Major League debut on-or-after September 1 of that year, joining Mike Hegan (1964), Andre Robertson (1981) and Jorge Posada (1995)…also joined Joba Chamberlain as the first pair of teammates in baseball history to pitch in the postseason less than two months after each made their Major League debut (credit: Elias).
- Combined to go 4-4 with a 4.81 ERA in 25G (13GS) with Scranton/Wilkes-Barre and the GCL Yankees (82.1IP, 99H, 44ER, 25BB, 65K, 9HR).
- Began the season with Scranton/WB, appearing in 21G (9GS) with a 3-3 record and a 5.02 ERA…as a starter, was 2-3 with a 5.24 ERA in 9GS…as a reliever, was 1-0 with a 4.57 ERA in 12 appearances.
- Threw a season-high 6.1 scoreless innings on 5/5 at Syracuse for his first win of the season.
- Was placed on the disabled list on 5/12 with a lower back strain…began rehab assignment with the GCL Yankees on 6/25…in four starts, went 1-1 with a 3.94 ERA (16.0IP,1BB, 17K)…was returned from rehab and reinstated from the D.L. on 7/14.
- Made two additional starts with Scranton/WB upon his return (1-1, 10.56 ERA) before being converted to a reliever…made his first relief appearance on 7/26 vs. Louisville, allowing 4H and 3ER in 2.0IP (1K)…earned his lone win in relief on 8/2 at Ottawa (3.0IP, 2H, 1ER, 1K)…tossed at least 2.0 innings in seven of his 12 relief appearances.
- Attended spring training as a non-roster invitee…went 0-2 with a 4.50 ERA in three relief appearances.
- Pitched for the Peoria Javelinas of the Arizona Fall League…did not record a decision in six relief appearances with a 3.52 ERA (7.2IP, 8H, 3ER, 4BB, 3K)…following the season, was tabbed by Baseball America as the Yankees' ninth-best prospect.

Consecutive Postseason Appearances

The Yankees reached postseason play for the 13th consecutive season in 2007 and have played in the Division Series every year since the inception of the three-division/wild-card format in 1995...their 13-season streak is the second longest in Major League history behind only the Atlanta Braves' streak of 14 straight postseason appearances. (1991-93, 1995-2005)...prior to the streaks by the Yankees and Braves, the Yankees (from 1949-53 and 1960-64) and the Oakland A's (from 1971-75) were the only teams in baseball history to appear in postseason play in as many as five straight seasons.

- Underwent arthroscopic surgery to remove a bone chip from his right elbow…the surgery was performed by Dr. James Andrews in Birmingham, Ala…made four rehab starts from 8/10-25…in his final rehab start with Triple-A Columbus on 8/25 vs. Indianapolis, allowed 2ER in 6.0IP to earn the win…left the game because of soreness under his right armpit and revealed that the injury occurred from a car accident on 8/15…was transferred to the 60-day disabled list with a right rib fracture on 9/5…was reinstated from the disabled list on 10/31.

- Had his first season with the Yankees cut short due to rotator cuff tendonitis, going 4-6 with a 4.77 ERA in 17 starts…the Yankees were 7-10 in games he started…opponents batted .315 (129-for-409, 17HR); LH .335 (72-for-215, 9HR), RH .294 (57-for-194, 8HR)...on 4/5 vs. Boston—in his first appearance as a Yankee—recorded a no-decision in a 4-3 Yankees win...was only the second time in his Major League career that he pitched for a crowd of 50,000 or more in the regular season.

- On 4/10 vs. Baltimore, recorded the loss in a 7-2 Orioles win...was removed from the game in the third inning after he was hit on the right side of his head by a line drive (hit by Melvin Mora) and suffered a mild concussion...was examined at Yankee Stadium by Yankees Team Physician Dr. Stuart Hershon and was alert and well-oriented...was taken to Columbia Presbyterian Medical Center for precautionary studies, all of which were normal or negative.

- Recorded his first win as a Yankee on 4/20 at Toronto in an 11-2 Yankees' victory...on 5/11 vs. Seattle, recorded a no-decision in a 13-9 Yankees win, allowing a career-high 4HR in 4.0IP (10H, 9R, 5ER, 1BB, 6K)...also tied his single-game career high with nine runs allowed (third time, first since 6/1/03 vs. Cincinnati)...on 5/17 vs. the Seattle Mariners at Safeco Field, in his second straight start vs. Seattle, tossed his first complete-game shutout as a Yankee in a 6-0 win...was the fourth shutout of his career and the first since 9/10/04 (w/ Florida) at Chicago (NL)...won four consecutive decisions over seven starts from 4/20-5/22...had his win streak snapped on 5/28 vs. the Boston Red Sox at Yankee Stadium, recording the loss in a 17-2 Red Sox win (3.2IP, 11H, 5R, 5ER, 1BB, 2K)...was his shortest non-injury-related outing since 6/27/03 (w/ Florida) when he did not retire a batter in a 25-8 Boston win at Fenway Park (6H, 6R, 6ER, 1HR).
- Made his final start of the season on 6/27 at Baltimore, allowing 9H and 4ER in 6.0IP without receiving the decision in a 6-4 Yankees victory...was placed on the 15-day disabled list on 7/7 (retroactive to 6/28) with right shoulder tendonitis...made the first of two rehab starts with the GCL Yankees on 7/27 at the GCL Tigers, allowing 2H and 1ER in 5.0IP (0BB, 5K, 1HR)...also made rehab start for Single-A Tampa on 8/3 vs. Vero Beach, allowing 6H and 3ER in 6.0IP (0BB, 3K, 1HR) to record the loss...was re-evaluated by Team Physician Dr. Stuart Hershon and Dr. James Andrews and was diagnosed with rotator cuff tendonitis and associated pain in his humerus...was prescribed at least six weeks of rest and rehab for the condition...was transferred to the 60-day disabled list on 8/30.

- Set a career high in wins, going 18-8 with a career-low 3.00 ERA in 31 starts with Florida...established the Marlins' all-time wins record, surpassing the previous mark of 17 victories, done by Kevin Brown in 1996 and Alex Fernandez in 1997...finished tied for second in the National League and tied for fourth in the Majors in wins with Roger Clemens, Bartolo Colon, Kenny Rogers and Jason Schmidt, behind only Curt Schilling (21), Roy Oswalt and Johan Santana (20 each)...was named to his first All-Star team and pitched two innings in the game, allowing three hits and two runs including a two-run homer to Boston's David Ortiz in the sixth inning.
- Ranked seventh in the NL in ERA, sixth in innings pitched (222.1), tied for third in shutouts (two) and seventh in winning percentage (.692)...Florida posted a 22-9 record in his 31 starts (.710 winning percentage)...led the Majors in road wins, was tied for third in the Majors with an .857 road winning percentage while his 2.83 road ERA was fourth-best in the NL and ranked sixth in the Majors...finished tied for fifth in the NL with 23 quality starts (74.2%)...ranked seventh in the NL, allowing 1.98 walks per game...allowed one walk or less 18 times and no bases on balls five times.
- Set Florida's single-season record for road wins, going 12-2 with a 2.83 ERA in 17 games away from Pro Player and surpassing the mark of 10 road wins by Alex Fernandez in 1997 (10-6)...after starting the season 2-1 with a 3.60 ERA in his first five road starts, went on a nine-game road win streak with a 2.75 ERA over 10 starts from 6/4-9/10.
- Posted a career-best six-game winning streak over seven starts from 5/24-6/27...worked to a 1.86 ERA over the span, holding opponents to a .200 average and averaging 6.8 strikeouts per nine innings...the six-game streak included wins in five straight starts, from 6/4-27...went 8-1 from 7/22-9/10 with a 3.17 ERA, including another five-game win streak over five straight starts from 8/16-9/10...went 5-0 with a 1.37 ERA in June, earning National League "Pitcher of the Month"...led all NL starters in wins and ERA for the month, while allowing 27 hits, fanning 31 and walking only five in 39.1 innings pitched.

- Was 15-9 with a 4.05 ERA in 34 starts (career-high-tying 36 appearances)...the Yankees were 21-13 in games he started...opponents batted .286 (238-for-832, 16HR); LH .298 (59-for-198, 7HR), RH .282 (179-for-634, 9HR)...tied for first in the American League in games started (with seven other pitchers) and ranked ninth in the AL with 215.1IP...the total was his most innings pitched with the Yankees since 1998 (216.1) and his 34 starts were his second-most as a Yankee (35 in 1997)...also recorded five pickoffs, tying with Chicago's Mark Buehrle and Seattle's Ryan Feierabend for the AL lead.
- Over the last 10 years (1998-2007), his 150 wins are tied with Tom Glavine for third-most in the Majors behind only Greg Maddux (163) and Randy Johnson (160) and his .628 winning percentage ranks 13th in the Majors over the same 10-year span...his 73 wins over the last five seasons (2003-07) rank sixth among all Major Leaguers.
- His 201 career victories are the third-most in the Majors since he debuted in 1995, trailing only Greg Maddux (216) and Randy Johnson (203)...his .640 career winning percentage (201-113) is 11th-best all-time among Baseball's 200-game winners.
- Earned his 200th career win on 9/19 vs. Baltimore, becoming the 107th pitcher all time to reach the plateau and the 27th left-hander...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, he became the seventh pitcher in the expansion era to record his 200th career win as a Yankee, joining Whitey Ford (1964), Catfish Hunter (1976), Tommy John (1980), David Wells (2003), Mike Mussina (2004) and Kevin Brown (2004)...also became the first pitcher drafted by the Yankees to win 200 games in the Major Leagues.
- Has posted a winning record and made at least 15 starts in each of his 13 seasons in the Majors...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, only one other pitcher has started his Major League career with a longer streak of winning seasons (min. 15GS) – Cy Young (15 seasons, 1890-1904).
- Owns 164 wins as a Yankee, tying Mel Stottlemyre (164) for sixth place on the Yankees' all-time list...also owns 2008.0 IP as a Yankee, ninth most on the club's all-time list (fifth most among lefties)...as a Yankee, Pettitte is 70-33 (.680) in games immediately following a Yankees loss, going 6-6 in such games in 2007...has 89 wins at remodeled Yankee Stadium (1976-present), trailing only Ron Guidry (99)...also has a .724 career winning percentage at the Stadium, trailing only Chien-Ming Wang (.743) and Goose Gossage (.727) for the highest all-time winning percentage at Yankee Stadium since 1976 (min. 25 decisions).
- Was 11-3 with a 3.84 ERA (103.0IP, 44ER) in 16 starts following the All-Star

(*) Denotes start followed a Yankees loss

- Made his season debut on 4/5 vs. Tampa Bay, his first appearance in pinstripes since 9/26/03 vs. Baltimore...made his first of two relief appearances in 2007 on 4/8 vs. Baltimore, tossing 1.0 scoreless inning with 1BB and 1K...was his first relief appearance since 7/28/06 (with Houston) vs. Arizona, and his first relief appearance as a Yankee since 9/25/98 vs. Tampa Bay...also made a relief appearance on 4/22 at Boston (1.0IP, 1BB).
- Earned his first win of the season on 4/10 at Minnesota, becoming the ninth pitcher in franchise history to reach the 150-win plateau...was the 187th win of his career, moving him past former teammate Jimmy Key (186) on Baseball's all-time list...surrendered two first inning runs on 4/15 vs. Oakland, snapping a personal streak of 15 consecutive starts (since 7/26/06 w/ Houston) without allowing a first-inning run...was the Majors' longest active streak.
- Compiled a 2-3 record with a 2.16 ERA in six May starts...among the 27 qualifying Major League pitchers with sub-3.00 May ERAs, was the only one to have a losing record...threw a season-high 8.0 innings three times, including back-to-back outings on 6/8 vs. Pittsburgh and 6/14 vs. Arizona...was the first time he tossed 8.0 innings in consecutive starts since 8/3/03 at Oakland and 8/9/03 vs. Seattle (also threw 8.0IP on 8/17 vs. Detroit).
- Allowed 8R (7ER) in 1.2IP on 7/1 vs. Oakland, his highest total since surrendering 10R on 4/4/06 (w/ Houston) vs. Florida...marked just the seventh time in 376 career starts he lasted less than 2.0IP (two of those instances were due to injury)...also allowed 8R in his next start on 7/6 vs. the Angels, marking the first time in his career he surrendered at least 8R in consecutive starts...struck out a season-high eight batters on 7/22 vs. Tampa Bay, his highest total since recording 10K on 8/21/06 (w/ Houston) at Cincinnati.
- Went 6-0 in August with a 2.36 ERA, leading the Majors in wins and earning the American League "Pitcher of the Month" Award...was his fifth career monthly award and third with the Yankees...was also selected by the fans as the "Major League Baseball Clutch Performer of the Month Presented by Pepsi" for August...has won eight straight August starts, the longest active streak in the Majors...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, became the fourth Yankees pitcher in the last 30 seasons to win at least six games in a calendar month (also Roger Clemens, 6-0, June 2001; Ed Figueroa, 7-0, September 1978; and Catfish Hunter, 6-0, August 1978)...improved his career record in August to 45-16 (.738), surpassing Lefty Gomez (.736) for the highest career winning percentage in August since 1900 (min. 60 starts).

- Went 3-2 with a 5.86 ERA in September, improving his career record for the month to 33-14 (.702), the best winning percentage for the month in the Majors since he debuted in 1995...only Greg Maddux (36) and Randy Johnson (34) have more September wins over the stretch...recorded the loss in an 8-2 Devil Rays victory on 9/2 at Yankee Stadium, allowing a season-high 11 hits (2HR)...the loss snapped his six-game winning streak and was his first loss to the Devil Rays since 9/16/98 at Tampa Bay, snapping a 17-start undefeated streak in which he went 12-0, the longest winning streak he has ever posted against one team (credit: Elias Sports Bureau).

ANDY PETTITTE & CY YOUNG

Andy Pettitte has posted a winning record and made at least 15 starts in each of his 13 seasons in the Majors...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, only one other pitcher has started his Major League career with a longer streak of winning seasons (min. 15GS)–Cy Young (15 seasons, 1890-1904).

- Allowed a season-high 9R in 9/29 win at Baltimore in his final start of the regular season...were his most runs allowed since 4/4/06 (w/ Houston) vs. Florida...surrendered a Nick Markakis two-run HR in the first inning, ending a stretch of 66 consecutive starts without allowing a first-inning homer that dated back to 4/9/06 (w/ Houston) vs. Washington's Marlon Byrd (credit: Elias Sports Bureau)...was just the second HR he allowed to a left-handed batter on the road in 2007 (Mets' Endy Chavez on 5/18 at Shea Stadium).
- Made one start in the Division Series vs. Cleveland in Game 2 at Jacobs Field, recording a no-decision in the 2-1, 11-inning Indians victory...held the Indians scoreless for 6.1 innings (7H, 2BB, 5K), exiting the game with a 1-0 lead...was his 35th career postseason start, tying him with Tom Glavine for the most all time...the start also gave him 218.1 career innings pitched in the postseason, also tied with Glavine for the most all-time...is tied with Glavine for second place on Baseball's all-time list with 14 career postseason wins (Atlanta's John Smoltz is first with 15)...has made 21 "quality" starts in his postseason career (6.0 or more IP, 3ER or less)...the Yankees are 20-11 in his postseason starts.

- Went 14-13 with a 4.20 ERA in 36 appearances (35 starts) for the Houston Astros...was his 12th consecutive season with a winning record since beginning his Major League career, tying him with Hall of Famers Carl Hubbell and Juan Marichal for the third-longest streak of consecutive winning seasons to start a Major League career behind Grover Alexander (19) and Cy Young (15)...tied a career high with 35 starts (also 1997)...his 178 strikeouts were tied for 10th in the NL and were two shy of his career-high of 180 set in 2003.
- Struck out a season-high 10 batters three times: 7/15 at Florida, 8/11 vs. San Diego and 8/21 at Cincinnati...tossed two complete games, his highest total since he logged three in 2002...allowed 238 hits, fifth-most in the NL...his 14 wins ranked second among NL lefties...his 13 losses marked a career high...was 7-4 with a 2.80 ERA (93.1IP, 29ER) in 16 second-half outings (15 starts).
- Had a seven-game winning streak snapped in his first start of the season on 4/4 vs. Florida, allowing a season-high 10R (7ER) in 4.2IP...carried a no-hitter into the seventh inning on 4/24 vs. Los Angeles (NL) that was broken up by a J.D. Drew home run and eventually won by the Dodgers, 6-2...marked the second time in his career that he pitched at least 7.0 innings and allowed only one hit with his team losing the game...also 8/3/03 at Oakland while with the Yankees (8.0IP, 1H, 1R, 1ER, 2BB, 6K)...went 1-4 with a 5.25 ERA in April.
- Tossed his fourth career complete-game shutout on 5/14 vs. Colorado, allowing three hits in a 3-0 win...made his eighth career relief appearance on 7/28 vs. Arizona (first since 9/25/98 vs. Tampa Bay), allowing 1ER in the 11th inning to record the loss (1.0IP).
- Became a 10-game winner for the 12th time in his career with 6.0 shutout innings on 8/1 at San Diego...hit his first career home run (off Chan Ho Park) and recorded the win on 8/11 vs. San Diego while tying a season-high with 10K...received the loss on 8/16 vs. Chicago (NL) despite tossing his second complete game of the season...recorded his third 10-strikeout game of the season and received a no-decision on 8/21 at Cincinnati.
- Was 4-2 with a 2.27 ERA in August, leading Major League pitchers with 49 strikeouts, the most strikeouts by a Houston pitcher in August since Randy Johnson struck out 61 in 1998... his 2.27 ERA was his lowest of any month in 2006... was 1-0 in five September starts with a 2.60 ERA... left the game on 9/12 at St. Louis after just 2.2 innings with a strained flexor muscle in his left elbow and missed one start.

- Named 2005 Astros "Pitcher of the Year" by the Houston chapter of the BBWAA after finishing 17-9 with a career-low 2.39 ERA in 33 starts...allowed three or fewer earned runs in 31 of his 33 starts...led the Majors with a 2.12 ERA at home, was tied with Chris Carpenter for the MLB lead in "quality starts" with 27 and ranked second in overall ERA...also ranked third all-time in single-season ERA by a lefty starter in club history...Houston was 21-12 in his 33 starts...did not allow more than one home run in any of his starts and allowed none 16 times.
- Ranked third in the NL in road ERA at 2.69, tied for fifth in wins, ranked sixth with a .230 opponent's batting average and eighth with a .654 winning percentage...was named NL "Pitcher of the Month" in both July and September, the first Astro to capture the award twice in one season...was one of six National League finalists for the MLB "Comeback Player of the Year Award" presented by Viagra (Cliff Floyd, Brian Fuentes, Troy Glaus, Ken Griffey, Jr. and Todd Jones).
- Did not record a decision in his first start of the season, a 4-1 Astros win over St. Louis on 4/6 (6.0IP, 1ER)...picked up his first win of the season on 4/21 vs. Milwaukee, his first since 7/21/04 at Arizona and his first at Minute Maid Park since 5/15/04...lost his third consecutive start on 5/18 vs. Arizona...pitched a season-low 5.0 innings and allowed season highs in hits (11) and runs (7)...skipped his start on 5/23 at Chicago (NL) because of tightness in his left forearm.
- Snapped a three-game losing streak on 5/29 at Milwaukee with 6.0 shutout innings, striking out a season-high eight batters...did not record a decision after tying a career high with 9.0IP on 6/26 vs. Texas (1ER, 6K)...was the 19th time Pettitte threw 9.0 innings in a game.
- Went 14-2 with a 1.56 ERA (24ER/138.2IP) in his last 20 starts of the season from 6/20-10/1, leading the Majors in ERA and wins during that time span...pitched 7.0 or more innings in 12 of his 16 starts after the All-Star Break...led the Majors with a 1.69 ERA and a .201 opponent batting average in the second half...tied Jose Contreras for the most wins after the All-Star break with 11.
- Went 5-0 with an 0.90 ERA (4ER/40.0IP) in six July starts, the second-lowest ERA among NL starters and the lowest for one month in his career...it also marked the third-lowest ERA for an Astros pitcher in a single month since 1969 (Nolan Ryan, 0.20, May 1984 and J.R. Richard, 0.67, August 1979)...earned the win and tossed a season-low 60 pitches over a season-low tying 5.0 innings on 7/6 vs. San Diego, leaving the game with tightness in his left elbow...did not miss a start...tossed 8.0 scoreless innings on 7/30 vs. NY Mets, marking his eighth straight start pitching at least 5.0 innings and not allowing more than one run (6/20-7/30)...it was the longest streak by a NL pitcher since Bill Gullickson in 1986, and only four other NL pitchers had done the same since 1960: Sandy Koufax (1962), Don Drysdale (1968), Bob Gibson (1968), and J.R. Richard (1979).
- Won seven consecutive starts from 8/21-9/20, compiling a 1.70 ERA over the stretch with 8BB and 37K... tied his career-high winning streak and was the longest winning streak for any NL starter at the end of the season... was 4-0 with a 1.86 ERA (8ER/38.2IP) in six September starts... tossed 5.2 scoreless innings on 9/5 at Philadelphia, but had his start cut short after being hit in the left foot with a line drive in the third inning.
- Was 1-1 in four postseason starts with a 4.26 ERA...earned the win in NLDS Game 1 at Atlanta, allowing 4H and 3ER in 7.0IP (6K)...suffered the loss in NLCS Game 1 at St. Louis...left two games in 2005 playoffs with a 4-2 lead, only to receive no-decisions...allowed 2ER in 6.1IP in NLCS Game 5 and 2ER in 6.0IP in Game 2 of the World Series vs. Chicago (AL).

- Made 15 starts in his first season with Houston, finishing 6-4 with a 3.90 ERA...was placed on the disabled list three times: 4/7-29 (left elbow strain); 5/27-6/28 (left forearm strain); 8/13-10/3 (left elbow surgery)...suffered the loss in his first start with Houston on 4/6 vs. San Francisco, allowing 6ER on 11 hits over 5.1IP....was placed on the 15-day D.L. on 4/10 (retroactive to 4/7) with a strained left elbow...suffered the injury during a checked swing in his first start on 4/6 vs. San Francisco and missed 19 games.
- Earned the 150th win of his career on 4/29 at Pittsburgh, his first win of the season...received a no-decision on 5/21 at Cincinnati, tossing 5.0 innings with 1ER...recorded a season-high 9K and tied his season high with 4BB...left his start on 5/26 vs. the Cubs after 4.0 innings with a left forearm strain...was placed on the 15-day D.L. on 5/27 and missed 28 games...made two rehab starts at Double-A Round Rock on 6/18 and 6/23.
- Was reinstated from the D.L. on 6/28 and received a no-decision in his start that night at Chicago (NL), allowing 3ER over 5.0IP...made his longest start of the year, tossing 8.0 innings for the win in a 5-2 victory on 7/21 at Arizona...took the loss on 7/26 vs. Arizona, allowing 2ER before leaving the game after the fifth inning with a sore left elbow.
- Returned to New York to face the Mets on 8/12 and did not record a decision, allowing 1ER over 5.2IP in the Astros' 2-1 loss...was placed on the D.L. the following day and underwent season-ending surgery on 8/24 to repair a torn flexor tendon in his left elbow...the surgery was performed by Dr. James Andrews and Dr. David Lintner.

- Finished the season 21-8 with a 4.02 ERA in 33 starts...the Yankees were 23-10 in games he started...tied for second in the American League in wins, was fifth with a .724 winning percentage, and ranked sixth with 180 strikeouts and 7.8 strikeouts per nine innings...with 21 victories, equaled his single-season career high (also 1996)...his 33 starts were the most since starting 35 games in 1997...opponents batted .272 (227-for-835, 21HR); LH .321 (72-for-224, 5HR), RH .254 (155-for-611, 16HR).
- Became the first pitcher in the post-expansion era (since 1961) to win at least 12 games in each of his first nine seasons, according to the Elias Sports Bureau...on 4/30 vs. Seattle, recorded his fourth win of the season and the 132nd of his career to surpass Allie Reynolds for sole possession of ninth place on the Yankees' all-time list.
- Lost four straight starts/decisions from 5/6-22 for the first time in his career (a span of 206 games)...in Major League history, only four pitchers have had more decisions to start their careers before a four-game losing streak: Whitey Ford (306 decisions), Juan Marichal (267), Ed Reulbach (227) and Mike Mussina (208).
- With his 12th win of the season on 7/23 vs. Baltimore, became the first pitcher to win at least 12 games in each of his first nine seasons in the Majors since Hall of Famer Stan Coveleski from 1916-1926...defeated the Orioles six times in 2003, becoming the first Yankees pitcher to beat any team at least six times in a single season since Whitey Ford went 6-0 vs. Chicago (AL) in 1956 (credit: Elias Sports Bureau).
- Won a career-high eight consecutive decisions from 6/14-7/29 with a 3.36 ERA over a nine-game stretch... on 8/9 vs. Seattle, recorded the loss in a 2-1 Mariners victory despite throwing his first complete game of the season (9.0IP, 5H, 2ER, 1BB, 5K)... did not allow a home run in his final five starts of the regular season after allowing 21 in his first 28 starts, the most he had allowed in a season since giving up 23 in 1996 (allowed six in 2002).
- Went 3-1 with a 2.10 ERA in five postseason starts...collected the win in Game 2 of the Division Series vs. Minnesota...fanned 10 batters and allowed one earned run in 7.0 innings...started Game 2 and Game 6 of the ALCS vs. Boston...allowed two runs in 6.2 innings for the win at Yankee Stadium in Game 2...did not record a decision in Game 6...was 1-1 with an 0.57 ERA (1ER/15.2IP) in two World Series starts...notched his 13th career playoff win in the Yankees' 6-1 victory vs. Florida in Game 2 of the World Series, pitching on three days' rest (1ER, 8.2IP)...was the losing pitcher in the Marlins' series-clinching Game 6 victory despite allowing 2R (1ER) in 7.0IP.

- Was 13-5 with a 3.27 ERA and a team-high three complete games in 22GS...the Yankees were 16-6 in games he started...won 11 of his final 13 decisions of the season, 10 of his last 11 and five straight to conclude the season...opponents batted .272 (144-for-529, 6HR);

- Was 15-10 with a 3.99 ERA in 31 starts...the Yankees were 18-13 in games he started...opponents batted .281 (224-for-796, 14HR); LH .251 (42-for-167, 3HR), RH .289 (182-for-629, 11HR)...collected 103 wins over a six-season span (1996-2001), the most by any pitcher in the American League and second-most in the Majors during that span behind Greg Maddux (107)...became one of only five pitchers in the last 40 years to win at least 12 games in each of his first seven seasons in the Major Leagues, joining Dean Chance (1962-68), Tom Seaver (1967-73), Dennis Leonard (1975-81) and Fernando Valenzuela (1981-87)...became the first Yankees pitcher to make at least 25 starts for seven consecutive seasons (1995-2001) since Mel Stottlemyre did it in nine straight from 1965-73 and Fritz Peterson recorded eight straight from 1966-73.
- Averaged a career-low 1.8 walks per 9.0IP...allowed only 19BB in 17 starts/101.0IP after being reinstated from D.L. on 7/1...allowed only one walk to a left-handed batter in his final 14 starts of the season...concluded the season with a 5-7 road record, his first losing record on the road since going 4-7 in his rookie campaign in 1995.
- In his 5/23 start vs. Boston, became the fourth youngest pitcher to start 200 games for the Yankees...only Waite Hoyt (27), Mel Stottlemyre (28) and Lefty Gomez (28) accomplished the feat at a younger age...on 6/15 at New York (NL), left the game after 3.1IP with a strained left groin and was placed on the 15-day disabled list on 6/16...was reinstated on 7/1.
- On 9/26 vs. Tampa Bay, left the game after two batters when he was hit on the left elbow by a Ben Grieve line drive, suffering a contusion (0.0IP, 2H)...did not pitch again until 10/6 at Tampa Bay, tossing 5.0 shutout innings (5H, 2BB, 2K) in his final outing of the regular season.

- Was 2-3 with a 4.55 ERA in five postseason starts...started and lost Game 2 of the Division Series at Oakland, snapping a streak of nine consecutive postseason wins for the Yankees in which Pettitte made the start (last lost on 10/9/98 in Game 3 of the ALCS at Cleveland).
- Was named Most Valuable Player of the American League Championship Series, going 2-0 with a 2.51 ERA in two starts...in Game 3 of the ALCS vs. Seattle, matched his career postseason best by allowing just three hits (also 9/30/98 vs. Texas).

- Went 19-9 with a 4.35 ERA in 32 starts...his 88 wins over five seasons (1996-2000) were the third most in the Majors during that span behind only Pedro Martinez (90) and Greg Maddux (90)...earned his 100th career win on 9/24 vs. Detroit, becoming the 15th Yankee to record 100 career wins and the first since Ron Guidry in 1982...at 100-54, only four then-active pitchers had fewer losses at the time of their 100th win (Dwight Gooden, 100-37; Mike Mussina, 100-43; Roger Clemens, 100-47 and Pedro Martinez, 100-49).
- Allowed only 1HR to left-handed batters in 2000 (Robin Ventura, NY Mets on 6/10 at Yankee Stadium)...was placed on the 15-day disabled list on 4/13 (retroactive to 4/8) with a strained muscle on the left side of his back...was reinstated on 4/26 and pitched 5.0 shutout innings vs. Minnesota (3H, 1BB, 4K), but did not record a decision in a 2-0 Yankees win...on 5/29 vs. Oakland, allowed a career-low two hits while registering his 15th career complete game (first since 8/19/98 at Minnesota) in a 4-1 Yankees win...lone run came on ninth inning Randy Velarde homer.

DID YOU KNOW?

- Andy Pettitte ranks second among all active Major League pitchers with 81 pickoffs, trailing only Detroit's Kenny Rogers (91).
- Since 1995, Andy Pettitte has allowed the fewest home runs per 9.0 innings among all left-handed pitchers at 0.75 (211 HR/2527.2 IP).
- Andy Pettitte's 13 career starts and 80.1 innings pitched are the most in Division Series history.

- Won seven straight starts from 7/25 at Baltimore through 8/24 vs. Texas...recorded the loss on 8/29 at Seattle, snapping the winning streak...left the game with 3-1 lead and bases loaded in the eighth (grand slam by Edgar Martinez off Jeff Nelson gave the Mariners a 5-3 lead)...in his last start of the season on 9/29 at Baltimore, lasted only 1.1IP and allowed 9ER (6H, 4BB, 2K)...was his shortest non-injury exit since 4/30/96 at Baltimore when he went 1.0-plus inning...the nine earned runs allowed were the second most of his career (allowed 10ER in 2.2IP on 7/30/96 at Texas)...did not allow a home run in his final eight starts of the season (49.2IP) and only one in his last 10 starts (65.2IP).
- Was 2-0 with a 2.84 ERA in five postseason starts...started the Yankees' World-Series clinching Game 5 on 10/25 at Shea Stadium...did not receive a decision, allowing two unearned runs in 7.0IP and leaving with the score tied at 2-2...was his third straight World Series road start in which he did not allow an earned run (22.2IP).

- Was 14-11 with a 4.70 ERA in 31 games (all starts)...his 69 wins over four seasons (1996-99) trailed only Pedro Martinez (72) and Greg Maddux (71) for the most wins in the Majors...compiled 81 wins in the 1990s, the most by any Yankee during the decade (David Cone was second with 60)...after going 5-7 with a 5.59 ERA (93.1IP, 58ER) in his first 16 starts, finished the season with a 9-4 record and a 3.84 ERA (98.1IP, 42ER) over his last 15 starts.
- Left his first-and only-spring training start on 3/7 vs. Minnesota after seven pitches with a strained left elbow...was placed on the 15-day disabled list on 4/4 with a strained elbow (retroactive to 3/26)...on 4/6 suffered a sprained right ankle during agility drills...was reinstated from the 15-day D.L. on 4/17...started that night vs. Detroit and pitched six shutout innings but did not record a decision in a 3-1 Yankees loss...earned his first win of the season on 5/5 at Minnesota...the win snapped Pettitte's three-game losing streak dating back to 1998...after 102 decisions, the three-game skid marked the first streak of at least three losses in his career...since 1900, only two pitchers have had more decisions at the start of their careers before compiling a three-game losing streak: Dwight Gooden (139) and Mike Mussina (119).
- Registered 11K and earned the win on 8/13 vs. Minnesota... was his fourth career double-digit strikeout game and first since 9/16/97 at Boston when he fanned a career-high 12... had tossed 16 consecutive scoreless innings before allowing a run in the seventh... in a three-game span (8/2-13) allowed just 2ER and 14H in 23.0IP... his five wins in August tied him with four others for the most wins in the AL for the month, the third time he has won five games in the same month... his 1.76 ERA in August was second in the AL behind Anaheim's Chuck Finley (1.62)... pitched seven-or-more innings in six straight starts from 8/2-29... the last time he had six consecutive starts of at least seven innings was a nine start stretch from 8/14-9/23/96.
- Was 2-0 with a 3.93 ERA in three postseason starts...won Game 2 of the Division Series vs. Texas on 10/7, allowing only 1ER in 7.1IP...earned the win in Game 4 of the ALCS at Boston on 10/17, limiting the Red Sox to 2ER in 7.1IP...saw his streak of 15.2 scoreless innings in World Series play come to an end in the Yankees' come-from-behind win in Game 3 on 10/26 at Atlanta, allowing 10H and 5ER in 3.2IP...did not draw a decision in the game.

- Went 16-11 with a 4.24 ERA in 33 games (32 starts)...tied for fifth in the American League in wins...led the AL with 55 wins combined from 1996-98, trailing only Atlanta's John Smoltz (56)...tossed a career-high five complete games...became the first Yankees pitcher to throw over 200.0 innings in three straight seasons since Ron Guidry did it in four straight from 1977-80.

Home Runs by Yankees Pitchers

Fifty-eight Yankees pitchers have combined to hit 154 home runs in the franchise's 106-year history. The top five: Red Ruffing, 30; Tommy Byrne, 10; Spud Chandler, 9; Don Larsen, 8; Mel Stottlemyre, 7...the first home run hit by a Yankee pitcher was by Clark Griffith on July 14, 1903...the last was hit by Lindy McDaniel on September 28, 1972 off Mickey Lolich at Detroit. No Yankee pitcher has ever homered in a postseason game. Only two current Yankee pitchers own a home run in their career – Andy Pettitte on 8/11/06 vs. San Diego (with Houston) and Carl Pavano on 5/1/04 at San Francisco and 8/22/04 at San Diego (both with Florida).

Career Highlights

A.L. All-Star Team
- 2000, 2001, 2002, 2003, 2007

A.L. Silver Slugger Award
- 2000, 2001, 2002, 2003 2007

Status

- Selected in the 24th round of the 1990 First-Year Player Draft...signed a four-year contract on November 29, 2007...contract extends through the 2011 season.

- Hit a career-high .338 (171-for-506) while establishing career highs in hits, doubles (42) and slugging percentage (.543)...also hit 20HR and drove in 90 runs in 144 games with the Yankees (125 starts at C, five at DH and one at 1B).
- Ranked fourth in the American League in average, becoming the first Yankees catcher to finish a season in the top 10 in the league in batting average since Thurman Munson finished 10th in 1978 with a .297 average...also became the only player in Major League history to bat at least .330 with 40 doubles, 20HR and 90RBI in a year in which he caught in at least half of his games played (credit: Elias Sports Bureau)...led the American League with a .344 road average, ranked third with a .426 overall on-base percentage, fifth with a .341 average against right-handed pitching, sixth with a .341 night average, eighth with a .543 slugging percentage and tied for eighth in doubles.
- Won his fifth career Silver Slugger Award and was named the starting catcher on both the Baseball America and the Sporting News Major League All-Star teams.
- His batting average (.338) was 61 points higher than in 2006 (.277), the largest increase for any Major Leaguer who qualified for the batting title in each of the last two seasons...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, over the last 70 years, the only Yankee to improve his batting average by 60 or more points from one season to the next was Bobby Murcer who hit .331 in 1971 after posting a .251 average in 1970 (an 80 point increase)...since 1940, only four players appearing primarily at catcher have recorded a higher single-season batting average: St. Louis' Joe Torre (.363 in 1971), the Dodgers' Mike Piazza (.362 in 1997 and .346 in 1995) and Minnesota's Joe Mauer (.347 in 2006).
- His average never went below .311 (on 4/29) and he never went more than three games without hitting safely...his eighth-inning single on 8/16 vs. Detroit snapped an 0-for-11 stretch, his longest hitless streak of the season...did not have a hitless streak of 10 or more at-bats since going 0-for-10 from 8/15-18/06.
- His 42 doubles established a franchise record for a catcher, surpassing his own record of 40 set in 2002...joined Ivan Rodriguez (47 in 1996 and 40 in 1998) as the only two catchers in Major League history to have two seasons of 40 or more doubles, according to the Elias Sports Bureau...is only the 17th player in Major League history to collect at least 300 career doubles while appearing in at least 1,000 games at catcher.
- Is one of only eight catchers in Major League history (min: 50% of career games at C) to reach 20HR in at least seven seasons (Mike Piazza and Johnny Bench-11; Yogi Berra-10; Gary Carter-9; Carlton Fisk-8; and Lance Parrish, Roy Campanella and Posada-7)—credit: Elias Sports Bureau.
- Has never been placed on the disabled list in his Major League career...has started at least 120 games behind the plate in each of the last eight seasons (2000-07), a streak equaled only by Jason Kendall...his 1,019 games started at catcher over the last eight seasons are the most by any AL catcher and second most in the Majors over the stretch behind only Kendall's 1,119.

- According to the Elias Sports Bureau, Posada has homered in more ballparks (25) than any player in franchise history...has 218 career home runs for sole possession of ninth place on the Yankees' all-time list (Don Mattingly is eighth with 222)...his 210HR as a catcher rank second on the Yankees' all-time list behind only Yogi Berra (306)...became just the eighth catcher all-time to reach the 200HR plateau...with 861 career RBI, ranks 12th on the Yankees' all-time list...passed Paul O'Neill (858) on 9/26 at Tampa Bay, going 3-for-6 with 1R and 3RBI.
- Has 686 RBI (as a catcher) over the last eight full seasons (2000-07), the most by any catcher in the Major Leagues during that span (Detroit's Ivan Rodriguez is second with 539 RBI)...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, his 177HR (as a catcher) over that same span are also the most among Major League catchers (Mike Piazza is second with 159).
- Was selected to the 2007 American League All-Star team, his fifth career All-Star selection and first since 2003 (2000-03; 2007)...went 1-for-3 with 1 double in 7/10 AL win, pinch-hitting for Josh Beckett in the fifth inning and remaining in game at C.
- Batted a team-high .545 with the bases loaded, ranking sixth in the majors (min. 10AB)...is a career .326 batter with the bases loaded (62-for-190).
- Threw out 28-of-130 potential base stealers in 2007 (21.5%).
- Hit solo-HR (#1)—his second career Opening Day HR and the 199th of his career—and was 2-for-4 with 2R in 4/2 win vs. Tampa Bay...was his eighth straight Opening Day start at catcher (2000-2007), the most consecutive starts by a Yankee at catcher on Opening Day since Thurman Munson made 10 straight starts behind the plate from 1970-79...hit his 200th career home run in 4/17 win vs. Cleveland...did not play in 4/21 loss at Boston (bruised left thumb)...suffered the injury catching an Andy Pettitte pitch the previous night in Boston.
- Ranked second in the Majors in May with a .394 average (37-for-94) and led the team with 19 runs scored for the month...in 26 games, had 11 doubles, 3HR and 15RBI...was his highest calendar-month batting average since June 2001 (.406)...hit safely in 21 of 23 games from 5/1-27, batting a Major League-leading .427 (32-for-75) over the span with 14R, 9 doubles, 3HR and 11RBI...compiled a career-high 15-game hitting streak from 5/3-20, batting .448 (26-for-58) with 13R, 7 doubles, 3HR and 8RBI...was the longest hitting streak for a Yankees catcher since Bob Geren hit safely in 15 straight games in 1989.
- Hit solo HR (#8) and was 1-for-2 with 2R, 1RBI and 2BB in 6/13 win vs. Arizona, making second start of season at DH....was his 206th career home run, moving him ahead of Dave Winfield (205) for sole possession of ninth place on the Yankees' all-time home run list...made 12th start of his career at first base and first since 6/25/01 vs. Cleveland in 6/19 loss at Colorado, going 1-for-4 with 1 double.

Status

- Signed as a non-drafted free agent on February 17, 1990...signed a three-year contract on December 17, 2007...contract extends through the 2010 season.

2007

- Was 3-4 with a 3.15 ERA and 30 saves in 67 relief appearances for the Yankees...ranked fourth in the American League with 59 games finished and tied for eighth with his 30 saves...opponents batted .248 (68-for-274, 4HR); LH .255 (35-for-137, 1HR), RH .241 (33-for-137, 3HR)...converted 30-of-34 save opportunities (88.2%) and owns a career 88.2% conversion rate (443-of-502), second best all-time behind only Trevor Hoffman's mark of 89.3% (min. 200 save opps.).
- Owns 443 career saves, the most ever in the American League and third-most on Baseball's all-time list behind Trevor Hoffman (524) and Lee Smith (478).
- Has the most saves in Yankees franchise history...owns six of the eight highest single-season save totals in franchise history (1. 53 in 2004; 2. 50 in 2001; 4. 45 in 1999; T5. 43 in 1997 and 2005; 7. 40 in 2003)...Dave Righetti's 46 saves in 1986 ranks third and John Wetteland's 43 in 1996 is tied for fifth.
- Has made 787 career appearances, 265 more than any other pitcher in Yankees history (Dave Righetti is second with 522)...ranks 42nd on Baseball's all-time games pitched list.
- His 395 saves over the last 10 seasons (1998-2007) are the most in the Majors (Trevor Hoffman ranks second with 389)...his 641 appearances over that same 10-year span rank ninth...also leads the Majors with 200 saves over the last five seasons (2003-07).
- Has 25 or more saves in 11 consecutive seasons (1997-2007) and trails only Lee Smith (13 straight seasons 1983-95) for the longest such streak since saves became an official statistic in 1969.
- Reached the 30-save plateau in 2007 for the fifth consecutive season and 10th time in his last 11 seasons since becoming the Yankees closer (1997-2001; 2003-07)...the only other pitchers with as many 30-save seasons are Trevor Hoffman (12) and Lee Smith (10).
- Saved consecutive games five times and earned the save in three consecutive games once, from 7/14-16...made appearances in consecutive games 11 times and three straight games once.
- Recorded 11 saves of more than 1.0IP...tossed a season-high 2.0IP twice...retired 43-of-67 first batters faced (64.2%)...prevented 19-of-26 inherited runners from scoring (73.1%).
- In his final 59 appearances of the season (from 4/28), went 2-2 with a 2.23 ERA and converted 30-of-32 save opportunities (64.2IP, 58H, 16ER, 9BB, 66K)...in his first eight games (4/2-27), went 1-2 with a 12.15 ERA while blowing both of his save opportunities (6.2IP, 10H, 9ER, 3BB, 8K).

- On 4/20 at Boston, allowed 3H and 2ER in 0.2IP (1K) to suffer his second consecutive loss and blown save...in his previous 16 appearances vs. Boston (since 4/15/05), was 1-0 with a 1.02 ERA and nine saves (in nine chances) over 17.2IP...allowed 2ER on 4/20 at Boston after allowing 3ER on 4/15 at Oakland, marking the first time he had allowed five runs over consecutive outings since 4/5-6/05 vs. Boston...was also the last time he blew back-to-back save opportunities.
- Following the consecutive setbacks, converted 19 consecutive save opportunities from 4/28-8/12, allowing just 3ER in 22.2IP (1.19 ERA) with no walks and 24K.
- Recorded saves in both games of a doubleheader on 5/3 at Texas...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, was the fifth time in his career that he has recorded two saves on the same day (in either official doubleheaders or split day/night games)...is one of only three pitchers in Major League history to accomplish the feat, joining Sparky Lyle and Jose Mesa.
- Notched his fourth save of the season in 5/30 win at Toronto, his first save and save opportunity since 5/3 at Texas (a span of 27 days)...was the longest gap between save opportunities since becoming the Yankees closer in 1997.
- Did not allow a run in nine appearances from 5/23-6/12, earning five saves over the stretch (10.1IP, 5H, 1BB, 12K)...in 6/16 win vs. New York (NL), surrendered 2ER on 5H in 1.0IP...was the first time he had allowed 5H in 1.0IP since 5/28/03 vs. Boston.
- Made 750th career appearance in 6/29 win vs. Oakland, tossing 1.1 perfect innings (3K) to earn his 11th save of the season...earned his 425th career save in 7/5 win vs. Minnesota, surpassing John Franco for sole possession of third place on Baseball's all-time saves list...earned the save on 7/18 vs. Toronto, recording the final five outs of the game...was his 42nd career save of five or more outs, most among active pitchers.
- On 8/13 vs. Baltimore, blew his first save since 4/20 but earned his third win of the season (1.0IP, 3H, 1ER)...both of his blown saves after 4/20 came against Baltimore (also 9/28 vs. Baltimore)...was his first blown save at Yankee Stadium since 8/13/05 vs. Texas...allowed at least 1ER in three consecutive appearances (from 8/12-15) for the first time since 8/3-7/03.
- Did not allow a walk in 23 consecutive appearances (27.0IP) from 6/12-8/15...retired a season-high 21 consecutive batters from 8/24-9/9, converting five saves over the seven-game stretch.
- Appeared in three games (no save opportunites) in the Division Series vs. Cleveland, throwing 4.2 scoreless innings with 1BB and 6K...has allowed only 2ER in 47.2IP over 31 ALDS appearances and his 0.38 ERA is the lowest of any pitcher in the history of Division Series play...owns 34 career postseason saves in 39 opportunities (87.2%), both most all time...also has a Major League-record nine World Series saves...his 20 World Series appearances are tied with Mike Stanton for the second-most all time behind Whitey Ford (22)...has a record 11 career two-inning saves in the postseason...owns a 0.77 ERA (117.1IP, 10ER) in a Major League-record 76 career postseason games, the lowest ERA all time (min. 20.0IP).

- Went 5-5 with a 1.80 ERA and 34 saves in 63 relief appearances for the Yankees, winning his second consecutive "DHL Delivery Man of the Year" Award and third straight "Rolaids Relief Man of the Year" Award...ranked second in the American League with 59 games finished and ninth with 34 saves.
- Converted 34-of-37 save opportunities (91.9%)...saved consecutive games four times...made appearances in consecutive games nine times, three straight games three times and four consecutive games once...recorded at least six outs in eight appearances (tossed 2.0 innings seven times and 3.0 innings once)...retired 48-of-63 first batters faced (76.2%)...prevented 11-of-18 inherited runners from scoring (61.1%)...opponents batted .223 (61-for-274, 3HR); LH .194 (25-for-129, 1HR), RH .248 (36-for-145, 2HR).

- Was selected to the American League All-Star team, his eighth career selection (1997, 1999-02, 2004-06)...at the time, the only player that had been named to the All-Star squad for his current team more often was Barry Bonds with 11 selections with the Giants (credit: Elias Sports Bureau)...tossed a scoreless ninth to earn the save in the American League's 3-2 victory on 7/11...was his third career All-Star save, tying Dennis Eckersley for most saves in All-Star history.
- In 4/15 loss at Minnesota, suffered the blown save and loss, allowing 2ER in 1.1IP (3H, 2BB)...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, it was only the 11th time that Rivera was on the mound for a "walk-off" loss in a regular season game and the first time since 7/24/04 at Boston...tossed 3.0 scoreless innings on 5/30 at Detroit to earn the win, marking his longest outing in the regular season since 9/6/96 vs. Toronto when he also went 3.0 innings...in 6/6 win vs. Boston, tossed a perfect ninth for his 12th save of the season and the 391st of his career, surpassing Dennis Eckersley for fourth place on Baseball's all-time list...did not allow a run in 11 consecutive appearances from 5/20-6/16 (16.0IP, 6H, 0BB, 14K)...in 7/16 win vs. Chicago, tossed 2.0 scoreless innings to earn his 400th career save and 21st of the season (1H, 1BB, 1K)...was the 11th two-inning save of his career.

- Was 7-4 with a career-low 1.38 ERA and 43 saves in 71 relief appearances...won his second straight "Rolaids Relief Man of the Year" Award...also was named "DHL Delivery Man of the Year"...became only the third pitcher in Major League history to save at least 40 games with a sub-1.50 ERA while working 75.0 innings or more (also John Wetteland in 1993 and Eric Gagne in 2003)...led the American League with 67 games finished, was tied for third with 43 saves and was tied for eighth with 71 games...led all American League relievers in ERA and opponent's batting average (.177)...was tied for seventh with 78.1IP...allowed more than one earned run in an appearance only once (2ER in 2.0IP on 8/13 vs. Texas)...allowed only 1ER on the road in 34 appearances (35.0IP) the entire season (0.26 ERA).
- Converted 43-of-47 save opportunities (91.5%)...saved consecutive games five times...saved three consecutive games three times...made appearances in consecutive games 13 times and three straight games six times...retired 58-of-71 first batters faced (81.7%)...prevented 16-of-18 inherited runners from scoring (88.9%)...opponents batted .177 (50-for-283, 2HR); LH .177 (25-for-141, 1HR), RH .176 (25-for-142, 1HR).
- Blew his first two save chances of the season on consecutive days, 4/5 and 4/6 vs. Boston, the first time he blew consecutive save opportunities in the regular season since 7/24/04 at Boston and 7/26/04 at Toronto (he had never blown saves on consecutive days)...following the back-to-back setbacks, converted 31 straight save opportunities from 4/9-8/11, the longest such streak of his career...over the 31 save situations allowed only 1R (1ER) in 31.2IP (0.28 ERA) while limiting batters to a .140 batting average (15-for-107, 3BB, 33K)...allowed only 4ER in his 46 overall appearances during that same span (51.2IP, 0.70ERA)...had blown saves in each of his first two appearances of the season on 4/5-6 vs. Boston prior to the stretch.
- Did not allow a run in 22 appearances from 5/9-7/4 (23.0IP, 8H, 5BB, 23K)...the longest single-season scoreless innings streak by a Yankees pitcher since Mike Mussina threw 23.0 straight scoreless innings in 2001...was the longest such streak by any Yankees reliever since 1999, when Rivera finished the regular season with 30.2 shutout innings, the longest streak of his career...it was also the longest scoreless streak by any reliever in 2005...with 5/20 appearance vs. the Mets at Shea Stadium, became the first pitcher in Yankees history to reach 600 appearances with the club.
- Was selected to the 2005 American-League All-Star team, his seventh career All-Star selection...retired the final batter of the All-Star Game to record his second career All-Star save.
- In 7/10 win vs. Cleveland, pitched 2.0 perfect innings (3K) to record his 20th save of the season and his first two-inning save since 7/11/03 at Toronto...on 8/16 at Tampa Bay, allowed game-tying ninth-inning home run (Eduardo Perez) to record fourth blown save of the season and second in span of three opportunities...prior to blowing the save, had recorded 33 consecutive saves vs. the Devil Rays, the most saves—without a blown save—by a pitcher against one particular opponent in American League history...after blowing save on 8/16 at Tampa Bay, was 11-for-11 in save situations to close out the season...allowed 1ER in final 12 appearances of the season (from 9/7), going 1-0 with eight saves and a 0.69 ERA (13.0IP, 8H).

- Recorded saves in each of his two appearances versus the Angels in the Division Series (3.0IP, 1H, 1ER, 1BB, 1K)...recorded the 15th Division Series save of his career in Game 4 vs. the Angels, tossing 2.0 perfect innings for his first two-inning postseason save since Game 5 of the 2003 ALCS at Boston...it also was his Major League-leading 34th career postseason save (in 39 opportunities).

- Was 4-2 with a 1.94 ERA and a single-season franchise-record 53 saves in career-high 74 relief appearances...led the Major Leagues in saves and was tied for fourth in the American League in appearances...his 53 saves tied Randy Myers (Chicago Cubs, 1993) and Trevor Hoffman (San Diego Padres, 1998) for fourth place on Baseball's single-season all-time list...joined Eric Gagne as the only relievers in Major League history to record two 50-save seasons...earned his third "Rolaids Relief Man of the Year" Award...converted 53-of-57 save opportunities (93.0%)...saved two consecutive games seven times...saved three consecutive games four times, and saved four straight games once...made appearances in consecutive games 13 times, three straight games seven times, and four straight games once...retired 53-of-74 first batters faced (71.6%)...prevented 11-of-17 inherited runners from scoring (64.7%)...opponents batted .225 (65-for-289, 3HR); LH .234 (36-for-154, 2HR), RH .215 (29-for-135, 1HR)...was selected to the 2004 American League All-Star team, his sixth career All-Star selection...pitched a perfect ninth inning in the American League's 9-4 win on 7/13.
- In 5/11 win vs. Anaheim, allowed 2ER in 1.0IP to suffer his first blown save of the season, snapping a stretch of 28 consecutive save conversions...in 5/19 win at Anaheim, tossed perfect ninth to record league-leading 15th save in the Yankees' 39th game of the season...became the first Yankees reliever to reach 15 saves in fewer than 50 games into any season (he earned his 15th save in the club's 50th game in both 2000 and 2001)...became the 17th pitcher in Major League history—and first Yankee—to reach the 300-save plateau in 5/28 win at Tampa Bay, recording his 17th save of the season with a scoreless ninth (1H, 1K)...became only the fourth pitcher in Major League history to record 300 saves for one team, joining Trevor Hoffman (391 for San Diego), Dennis Eckersley (320 for Oakland) and Jeff Montgomery (304 for Kansas City)...also became the fifth youngest pitcher to reach 300 saves—at 34 years, 181 days—behind Robb Nen (32 years, 251 days), Lee Smith (33/264), John Wetteland (33/265) and Trevor Hoffman (33/306).
- Saved all three games in series vs. Baltimore from 6/1-3, the fifth time of his career that he has saved each game of a three-game series and the first time since 4/27-29/01 vs. Oakland...the only other Yankee pitchers to earn a save in each game of a series (of at least three games) are Dave Righetti (1986), Steve Howe (1994) and John Wetteland (twice in 1996)...earned his fourth save in as many games and 22nd of the season in 6/4 win vs. Texas, pitching a perfect ninth...was the second time in his career saving four straight games (also 6/23-27/97)...was also the second time in his career that he has pitched on each of four straight days (also 7/31-8/3/03)...recorded saves in nine straight Yankees wins from 5/28-6/9, the longest such streak of his career...with 11 saves in June, tied his career high for any calendar month.
- In 7/8 win vs. Tampa Bay, pitched a perfect 1.2 innings (1K) to earn his 30th save...tied the American League record for fewest team games in a season to reach the 30-save plateau, joining Bobby Thigpen of the Chicago White Sox (1990) and Boston's Lee Smith (1993), who also reached 30 saves in their team's 83rd game...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, only Cincinnati's Danny Graves (77 games in 2004), Los Angeles' Eric Gagne (82 games in 2002) and Atlanta's John Smoltz (82 games in 2003) had reached 30 saves in fewer games than Rivera...established an AL record with 32 saves before the All-Star break (fell two shy of the Major League mark of 34 set by Atlanta's John Smoltz in 2003)...surrendered "walk-off," two-run home run to Bill Mueller in the bottom of the ninth in 7/24 loss at Boston...had converted 23 straight save opportunities from 5/13-7/23...it was the fifth game-winning HR allowed of his career—the second "walk-off" homer—and the first since 7/14/02 when the Indians' Bill Selby hit a ninth-inning "walk-off" grand slam in a 10-7 Indians win at Jacobs Field.

- In 8/14 win at Seattle, established the American League record for fewest team games needed to reach 40 saves (116), breaking the record of 118 games set by Bobby Thigpen of the Chicago White Sox in 1990...only the Braves' John Smoltz needed fewer games to reach 40 saves (108 in 2003 and 114 in 2002)...earned his 45th save of the season in the Yankees' 18-6 win on 8/28 at Toronto, retiring last four batters of the game (entered the game with a 9-6 lead and two runners on base)...the last Yankee to earn a save in a game in which the Yankees won by at least 12 runs was Ed Figueroa, who earned a save in a 16-3 Yankees win on 5/14/80 vs. Kansas City.
- Did not allow a run in 14 appearances from 7/30-9/1 (15.1IP, 10H, 2BB, 13K), going 1-0 with 11 saves.
- Was 1-0 with two saves and a 0.71 ERA in nine postseason appearances...earned his 10th career LCS save in Game 2 vs. Boston...recorded back-to-back blown saves for the first time in his postseason career in Games 4 and 5 of the ALCS at Boston.

- Was 5-2 with a 1.66 ERA and 40 saves in 64 relief appearances with the Yankees...ranked third in the American League with 40 saves despite missing the first 25 games of the season and having only four saves through the Yankees' 59th game...had 36 saves in the final 104 games of the season...converted 40-of-46 save opportunities (87.0%)...saved two consecutive games eight times and three consecutive games twice (6/24-26 and 6/28-30)...retired 44-of-64 first batters faced (68.8%)...prevented 18-of-35 inherited runners from scoring (51.4%)...opponents batted .235 (61-for-260, 3HR); LH .197 (29-for-147, 1HR), RH .281 (32-for-113, 2HR)...made appearances in consecutive games 11 times, three straight games five times and four straight games once.
- Began the season on the 15-day D.L. (retroactive to 3/25) with a strained right groin...suffered the injury on the last pitch of 3/24 spring training outing vs. Detroit...was reinstated from the D.L. on 4/29 (missed first 25 games of the season)...made his 2003 debut in 4/30 win vs. Seattle, surrendering 1H and allowing 1ER to close out the game in a non-save situation (1BB, 2K)...recorded his first save of the season in 5/1 win vs. Seattle, tossing a perfect ninth inning (1K)...in 6/13 win vs. St. Louis, pitched a perfect ninth to save Roger Clemens' 300th victory.
- Made fourth straight appearance on 8/3 at Oakland, allowing 2H and 1ER in 0.1IP to record his first loss of the season and fourth blown save...was the fifth time in his career he has pitched in four or more consecutive games, first since 4/10-14/01.
- Was 14-for-14 in save opportunities in 14 appearances from 8/19-9/19...was the longest such streak in the Majors since Atlanta's John Smoltz also earned saves in 14 straight appearances in 2002...did not allow a run in his final 15 appearances of the season (16.1IP, 10H, 3BB, 16K) and saved all 16 of his opportunities from 8/19 through the conclusion of the regular season.
- Was 1-0 with a 0.56 ERA and five saves in eight postseason relief appearances...also struck out 14 batters without allowing a walk in postseason play...was named American League Championship Series Most Valuable Player, going 1-0 with a 1.13 ERA and two saves in four appearances vs. Boston...earned the win in Game 7, pitching 3.0 scoreless innings–his first three-inning stint since 9/6/96 vs. Toronto.

- Made his first Opening Day appearance on 4/3 at Anaheim and recorded the save, allowing 1ER in 1.0IP...tossed 2.2IP to record his second win of the season on 4/19 at Texas, his longest outing since tossing 3.0IP and earning the win on 9/6/96 vs. Toronto...recorded his first loss and second blown save of season on 5/7 vs. Baltimore, allowing 4H and 3ER in the ninth inning...was the first time he received the loss when leading by two or more runs in the ninth inning or later since 8/2/96 at Kansas City when he allowed 4ER in 0.2IP...made third straight appearance on 6/2 at Atlanta, retiring all four batters faced (2K) to record his 13th save...with the save, moved past Sparky Lyle for third place on the Yankees' all-time saves list with 142.
- Saved both games (#20 and 21) of 7/8 doubleheader vs. the Mets (Game 1 at Shea Stadium and Game 2 at Yankee Stadium), pitching scoreless ninth innings...saved each of the Yankees' three wins of the series...pitched a scoreless 1.1IP (1K, 1BB) on 7/24 at Baltimore to record his 23rd save of the season to move into sole possession of second place on the Yankees' all-time saves list with 152, one ahead of Goose Gossage...from 8/24 through the end of the season, converted his last 10 save opportunities.
- Was 0-0 with a 1.72 ERA and six saves in a team-high 10 postseason relief appearances...with his save in Game 5 of the Division Series at Oakland on 10/8, Rivera established the Major League record for most saves in postseason play with 16 (surpassing Dennis Eckersley)...it was also his eighth career save in Division Series play, most by any pitcher...had his postseason record scoreless streak end at 33.1IP in Game 6 of the ALCS on 10/17 vs. Seattle, allowing 1ER in 2.0IP...streak had covered 23 appearances, dating back to Sandy Alomar's solo-HR in Game 4 of the 1997 Division Series at Cleveland...surpassed Whitey Ford's 33.0 consecutive scoreless innings from 1960-62...had his World Series scoreless streak snapped at 14.1 innings when he allowed 2ER in the ninth inning of Game 2 vs. the Mets on 10/22...saved Games 4 and 5 of the World Series to bring his career Series saves total to seven, the most all-time, surpassing Rollie Fingers' six.

- Made 66 appearances out of the Yankees bullpen, going 4-3 with a 1.83 ERA and 45 saves...converted 45-of-49 save opportunities (91.8%)...led the American League in saves, save percentage and relief ERA...became the first Yankees pitcher to have two 40-save seasons (also had 43 saves in 1997)...retired 60-of-66 first batters faced (90.9%)...prevented 22-of-27 inherited runners from scoring (81.5%)...opponents batted .176 (43-for-245, 2HR); LH .143 (20-for-140, 1HR), RH .219 (23-for-105, 1HR).
- Appeared in a career-high six consecutive games from 4/20-27, recording four saves over the stretch...was selected to participate in his second All-Star Game, but did not attend because of personal matters in his native country of Panama...was named American League "Pitcher of the Month" in August...saved a league-leading 11 games in the month and did not allow a run in 13 appearances (14.2IP, 15K).
- On 9/11 vs. Boston, walked the first batter he faced for the first time since 7/9/98, a span of 81 appearances...did not allow a run in his final 28 appearances of the season (30.2IP), converting his last 22 save opportunities.
- Tossed 12.1 scoreless innings in eight postseason appearances and was six-for-six in save opportunities...pitched 4.2 scoreless innings with a win and two saves in three games in the World Series vs. the Atlanta Braves and was selected as the Most Valuable Player...became only the third reliever to be named World Series MVP, joining Oakland's Rollie Fingers in 1974 and former Yankee John Wetteland in 1996...including postseason play, did not allow a run in his final 43.0IP of the season over a span of 36 appearances.

- Posted 36 saves and was 3-0 with a 1.91 ERA in 54 relief appearances...converted 36-of-41 save opportunities (87.8%)...retired 41-of-54 first-batters faced (75.9%)...prevented 20-of-24 inherited runners from scoring (83.3%)...opponents batted .215 (48-for-223, 3HR); LH .235 (27-for-115, 0HR), RH .194 (21-for-108, 3HR).
- Threw 1.1IP in his season debut on 4/5 at Oakland, leaving the game with a strained right groin...was placed on the 15-day disabled list the next day (missed 13 games)...returned on 4/24 and did not allow a run in his next nine appearances (9.2IP) and went 7-for-7 in save opportunites...in a 6/1 blown save vs. Chicago (AL), he was asked to record as many as six outs for the save for the first time in his career...entered in the eighth with no outs and a 4-2 lead, but allowed two inherited runners to score (Yankees won 5-4 in 10 innings)...following that game, converted 22 consecutive save opportunities before blowing a save on 8/18 at Kansas City (Yankees won 3-2).
- Tossed 13.1 scoreless innings in 10 postseason appearances and was 6-for-6 in save opportunities...saved three of the Yankees' four wins vs. San Diego in the World Series...earned his first career World Series save in the Yankees' 9-6 victory in Game 1 at Yankee Stadium...completed the Yankees' sweep with a save in Game 4 at San Diego...retired Mark Sweeney on a ground ball to third base for the final out.

- Took over as the Yankees' full-time closer, going 6-4 with a 1.88 ERA and 43 saves in 66 relief appearances...ranked second among American League relievers in ERA and saves...also led the AL in save opportunities (52), ranked sixth in games finished (56) and batting average with runners in scoring position (.151, 11-for-73) and seventh in save percentage (82.7%, 43-for-52)...opponents batted .237 (65-for-274, 5HR); LH .243 (37-for-152, 1HR), RH .230 (28-for-122, 4HR).
- Recorded saves in four straight games from 6/23-27, becoming only the third Yankees pitcher to save four consecutive games during the regular season...John Wetteland accomplished the feat twice in 1996 and Sparky Lyle did it in 1973...his 27 saves at the All-Star break were the sixth-highest total since the inception of the save rule...became the first Yankee to earn a save in the All-Star Game, tossing a perfect ninth on 7/8 at Jacobs Field in his All-Star debut...became only the sixth Yankees reliever to record 30 saves in a season with his save on 7/17 at Chicago (AL)...saved both games of a doubleheader on 9/16 vs. Boston (#42, 43).
- Was 0-0 with a 4.50 ERA and one save in two games vs. Cleveland in the Division Series...earned his first career postseason save in the Yankees' 8-6 victory in Game 1 at Yankee Stadium...suffered a blown save in the Yankees' 3-2 loss in Game 4 at Cleveland, surrendering the game-tying home run to Sandy Alomar, Jr. in the bottom of the eighth inning.

- Was 8-3 with a 2.09 ERA and five saves in 61 appearances in his first season of full-time relief...led all Yankees pitchers in ERA and led all Yankees relievers in wins, tying for most relief wins in the American League...was the most wins by a Yankees reliever since Lee Guetterman recorded 11 victories in 1990...opponents batted just .189 (73-for-386, 1HR); LH .215 (46-for-214, 1HR), RH .157 (27-for-172, 0HR)...struck out the side (facing only three batters) four times...had at least one strikeout in 54 of his 61 appearances...first batters were 5-for-56 (.089) with 27K, 4BB and 1HBP...recorded 130 strikeouts in 107.2 innings, the most ever by a Yankees reliever (Gossage had 122 in 1978)...permitted only one home run (Baltimore's Rafael Palmiero on 6/28 at Yankee Stadium).
- Had a 26.0-inning scoreless streak from 4/19-5/21, the most by a Yankee since Steve Farr went 27.0 innings without allowing a run from 5/29-8/4/91...picked up wins vs. Minnesota on 4/26 and 4/28, tossing three no-hit innings in each game...had a streak of 15.0 consecutive hitless innings over six appearances snapped on 5/5 vs. Chicago...recorded six strikeouts in three innings on 9/6 vs. Toronto, the most by a Yankees reliever in 1996.
- Was 1-0 with a 0.63 ERA in the postseason (14.1IP, 1ER)...picked up his second career postseason victory in the Yankees' 5-4, 11-inning victory in Game 1 of the ALCS vs. Baltimore.

- Saw his first Major League action, going 5-3 with a 5.54 ERA in 19 appearances (nine starts) with the Yankees...was 3-3 with a 5.94 ERA as a starter and 2-0 with a 4.32 ERA as a reliever...opponents batted .266 (71-for-267, 11HR); LH .246 (35-for-142, 6HR), RH .288 (36-for-1125, 5HR).
- Was recalled from Columbus on 5/16 and made his Major League debut on 5/23 at California, losing a 10-0 decision (3.1IP, 8H, 5ER, 3BB, 5K)...became the first Yankees rookie to lose his starting debut since Jeff Johnson in 1991...earned his first Major League victory in a 4-1 win on 5/28 at Oakland (5.1IP, 7H, 1ER, 3BB, 1K)...allowed two home runs for the first time in his career, including a grand slam to Geronimo Berroa, in an 8-6 loss on 6/6 vs. Oakland...was optioned back to Columbus on 6/11 and made just one start with the Clippers because of a sore right shoulder...in that start (on 6/26), pitched a five-inning, rain-shortened no-hitter.
- Was recalled on 7/4 and started that night at Chicago (AL), recording 11 strikeouts in 8.0 shutout innings (both career highs) as the Yankees won 4-1...his 11 strikeouts were the most by a Yankees rookie since Al Leiter, who also struck out 11 on 4/14/88 at Toronto...made his first Major League relief appearance on 8/1 vs. Milwaukee, picking up the win despite blowing his first save opportunity...was optioned back to Columbus between games of an 8/10 doubleheader vs. Cleveland...started Game 1 and did not receive a decision...started two games for the Clippers before again being recalled on 8/22...tossed a career-high 5.1 innings of relief on 8/25 at Seattle, allowing one run on two hits in a 7-4 loss (2BB, 5K, 1HR)...allowed his second career grand slam (Bobby Bonilla) in an 8-1 loss on 9/15 at Baltimore.
- Overall with Columbus, was 2-2 with a 2.10 ERA in seven starts.
- Was 1-0 with a 0.00 ERA in three appearances vs. Seattle in the Division Series (5.1IP, 8K)...won his postseason debut, tossing 3.1 scoreless innings of relief in a 7-5, 15-inning victory in Game 2 at Yankee Stadium (2H, 5K).

Did You Know? Mariano Rivera owns six of the eight highest single-season save totals in franchise history (1.53 in 2004; 2.50 in 2001; 4.45 in 1999; T5. 43 in 1997 and 2005; 7.40 in 2003)...Dave Righetti's 46 saves in 1986 ranks third; John Wetteland's 43 in 1996 is tied for fifth.

- Combined to go 10-2 with a 3.09 ERA in 22 starts at Triple-A Columbus, Double-A Albany and Single-A Tampa...began the season at Tampa, was promoted to Albany on 6/5 and promoted to Columbus on 7/22...ranked sixth in the organization in ERA...in 131.0IP, allowed just 126 hits and 30 walks while striking out 89...combined to go 6-0 with a 2.25 ERA in 16 starts at Albany and Tampa...was on Tampa's disabled list from 4/23-5/9 with a strained right shoulder...went 4-2 with a 5.81 ERA in six starts at Columbus...was on the Clippers' disabled list from 8/4-14 with a strained left hamstring.

1993

- Went 1-1 with a 2.08 ERA in 12 starts combined at Single-A Greensboro and Single-A Tampa...opponents batted just .208 off him...combined on a shutout with Sandi Santiago, Bruce Pool and Billy Coleman on 7/4 vs. Hickory.

1992

- Suffered through an injury-plagued season at Single-A Ft. Lauderdale...went 5-3 with a 2.28 ERA in 10 starts...allowed just 40 hits and five walks in 59.1IP...averaged less than a walk for every 9.0IP...had a strikeout/walk ratio of 8.4...season was cut short due to surgery on his right elbow...surgery was performed by Dr. Frank Jobe on 8/27...was rated the ninth-best prospect in the Yankees' system by Baseball America.

1991

- Went 4-9 with a 2.75 ERA in 29 games (15 starts) at Single-A Greensboro...struck out 123 batters in 114.2 innings, averaging 9.7 strikeouts per nine innings...allowed 103 hits and 36 walks.

1990

- Spent his first season of professional ball with the Gulf Coast Yankees, going 5-1 with a league-leading 0.17 ERA in 22 appearances (one start)...allowed just one earned run in 52.0IP, surrendering only 17 hits and seven walks while striking out 58...was named Gulf Coast League "Star of Stars"...threw a seven-inning no-hitter in his lone start on 8/31 vs. Bradenton.

Status

- Acquired from the Texas Rangers with cash in exchange for 2B Alfonso Soriano and a player to be named later (INF Joaquin Arias) on February 16, 2004...signed a seven-year contract with player options for three additional years on December 11, 2000...opted out of the contract on October 28, 2007...re-signed by the Yankees to a 10-year contract on December 17, 2007...contract extends through the 2017 season.

- Won his third career American League MVP Award, his second in four seasons with the Yankees...hit .314 (183-for-583) with 143R, 54HR, 156RBI and 24SB in 158 games (154 starts at 3B, four starts at DH)...established career highs in runs and RBI...received 26 of 28 first-place votes in BBWAA MVP voting (382 total points)...became the ninth player in Major League history to win at least three MVP Awards, fifth AL player and fourth Yankee, joining Mickey Mantle, Yogi Berra and Joe DiMaggio, who each won three...only Barry Bonds (7) has more MVP Awards...is just the fourth player to win the MVP Award three times within a five-year span, joining Roy Campanella, Berra and Bonds.
- Led the Majors in runs, home runs and RBI...since RBI became an official statistic in 1920, became only the fourth player (and the first in the past 50 years) to finish a season with the outright Major League lead in each of those categories, according to the Elias Sports Bureau: Babe Ruth (three times: 1920-21, 1926), Ted Williams (1942-also won Triple Crown) and Mickey Mantle (1956-also won Triple Crown)...also led the Major Leagues with a .645 slugging percentage and an average of 1RBI every 3.7 at-bats...tied for the lead with three grand slams.
- Led the American League with 376 total bases, ranked second with 85 extra-base hits, 21HBP and 1HR per 10.8AB, fourth with a .422 on-base percentage, tied for fourth with nine sacrifice flies, seventh with a .326 road batting average and a .340 day average, tied for seventh with 95BB and eighth with a .327 average vs. right-handed pitching.
- Hit .463 (19-for-41) with a 8HR, 21RBI, 9BB and 7K in the ninth inning of games in 2007, leading the Majors in ninth-inning homers...hit .143 (5-for-35) with 3HR, 5RBI and 13K in ninth innings in 2006...was tied with Philadelphia's Ryan Howard and Houston's Lance Berkman for the Major League lead with 22HR that tied the game or put his team ahead (credit: Elias Sports Bureau).
- His 518 career home runs rank 17th on Baseball's all-time list (Ted Williams and Willie McCovey are tied for 15th with 521HR)...has hit 173 home runs in his four seasons with the Yankees (2004-07)...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, the only player to hit more homers for the Yankees over a four-season span was Babe Ruth, whose highest four-year total was 209 (1927-30).

- Became the fifth player in Major League history to have 140R, 50HR and 150RBI in a season, joining Sammy Sosa (2001), Jimmie Foxx (1932), Hack Wilson (1930) and Babe Ruth (1921, '27) and the first to also record 20SB...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, is only the fourth player to post two seasons of at least 50HR, 130R and 130RBI (2001, '07)...Babe Ruth accomplished the feat four times; Jimmie Foxx and Sammy Sosa both did it twice...is the only player in Major League history to reach 35HR, 100R and 100RBI in 10 consecutive seasons (1998-2007)...Jimmie Foxx accomplished the feat in nine straight seasons from 1932-1940...has hit 40 or more home runs in eight seasons, tying Barry Bonds, Hank Aaron and Harmon Killebrew for second-most in Major League history...Babe Ruth hit 40HR in 11 different seasons.
- With 54HR, established the Yankees franchise record for most home runs in a single season by a right-handed batter...were the most by any Yankees player since Roger Maris (61HR in 1961) and were tied for the fourth-highest single-season total in franchise history...has hit at least 50HR in three separate seasons (54 in 2007; 57 in 2002; 52 in 2001), becoming the fourth player in Major League history to have more than two seasons with 50 home runs: Babe Ruth, Mark McGwire and Sammy Sosa each did it four times (credit: Elias Sports Bureau)...also became just the third player to hit 50 or more home runs in a season with more than one club, joining Jimmie Foxx (58HR with Philadelphia in 1932; 50 with Boston in 1938) and Mark McGwire (52 with Oakland in 1996; 70 with St. Louis in 1998 and 65 with St. Louis in 1999), according to SABR'S David Vincent...Yankees were 35-11 in games in which he homered.
- Established the Major League record for most home runs in a single season by a third baseman with 52 homers (hit two as DH) in 2007, surpassing Mike Schmidt (48 with Philadelphia in 1980) and Adrian Beltre (48 with Los Angeles-NL in 2004).
- Finished with 26 home runs at home in 2007, tying his own record (established in 2005) for the most home runs in a single season at Yankee Stadium by a right-handed batter...Yankees were 21-2 in games in which he homered at Yankee Stadium...hit 28 home runs on the road...only four Yankees have hit more road homers in a single-season: Babe Ruth in 1927 (32), Roger Maris in 1961 (31), Mickey Mantle in 1961 (30) and Jason Giambi in 2003 (29).
- His 156RBI were the most by a Yankee in a single season since 1937 when Joe DiMaggio had 167 and Lou Gehrig had 159...was the second-highest single-season total by a right-handed hitter in franchise history behind only DiMaggio's 167 in 1937...the total also ranks 10th on the Yankees' all-time single-season list and were the most in the American League since Manny Ramirez in 1999 with Cleveland (165RBI)...drove in 111 runs in his final 105 games of the season...became the first Yankee to record multiple seasons of at least 130RBI (2005, '07) since Joe DiMaggio accomplished the feat in 1937, '38, '40 and '48 (credit: Elias Sports Bureau).
- His 143 runs scored were the highest single-season total in the American League since the Yankees' Rickey Henderson scored 146 runs in 1985 and was the second-highest single-season total by a Yankee in the last 70 years (since 1938)...has scored at least 100 runs in 12 consecutive seasons (1996-2007), becoming only the fourth player in Major League history to accomplish the feat...Hank Aaron (1955-67) and Lou Gehrig (1926-38) scored 100 runs in 13 straight seasons and Willie Mays (1954-65) did it in 12 straight seasons.
- Over the last 10 seasons (1998-2007), leads the Major Leagues with 1,241R, 454HR and 1,275RBI...over the same span, ranks fourth with 1,815H...over the last five seasons (2003-07), leads the Major Leagues with 220HR and ranks second with 631RBI and 616R...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, his 1,040RBI over the last eight seasons (2000-07) are the third-most for any active player over any eight-season span...Sammy Sosa had 1,043 (1995-2002) and Manny Ramirez had 1,042 (1998-2005).
- Has both scored and driven in at least 100 runs in each of his last 10 seasons (1998-2007), marking the second longest streak of its kind in Major League history, according to the Elias Sports Bureau (Lou Gehrig accomplished the feat in 13 straight seasons from 1926-38).
- Is the only player in Major League history to compile at least 35HR and 100RBI in 10 consecutive seasons (1998-2007)...joins Babe Ruth as the only players in Baseball history with 35HR and 100RBI in 11 separate seasons...is one of only two players in Major League history to compile at least 30HR and 100RBI in 10 straight seasons (Jimmie Foxx, 12 straight seasons, 1929-40)...is one of only two players in Major League history to hit 35HR in 10 consecutive seasons (also Sammy Sosa, 10 straight seasons, 1995-2004)...has six seasons of 40HR and 120RBI, the second most in Major League history, behind only Babe Ruth (11).
- Drove in 100 runs through the club's first 99 games of the season...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, became the first player to reach the 100-RBI mark in fewer than 100 "team games" into a season since 1999, when Manny Ramirez did so in Cleveland's 93rd game...no Yankees player collected 100RBI in 100-or-fewer games since 1937, when both Joe DiMaggio (91 games) and Lou Gehrig (96 games) did so.
- Was elected to the 2007 American League All-Star team, the 11th All-Star selection of his career (1996-98; 2000-07)...was the first time he led the Majors in All-Star balloting (3,890,515 votes)...started at 3B and went 1-for-3 in the 7/10 American League win...also named "Major League Player of the Year" by Baseball America and the Sporting News and was named starting 3B on each publication's All-Star team...became just the third player in the 72-year history of the Sporting News Award to win at least three times, joining Ted Williams (5) and Barry Bonds (3)...received his ninth career Silver Slugger Award, fourth career Hank Aaron Award, the Oscar Charleston Legacy Award and Josh Gibson Award presented by the Negro Leagues Baseball Museum, and was named the MLB.com "Clutch Performer of the Year," This Week in Baseball's "Hitter of the Year" and the Latinosports.com "2007 LatinoMVP Player of the Year"...was also named the Sid Mercer "Player of the Year" by the New York chapter of the BBWAA and was selected by his peers as the Players Choice 2007 "Player of the Year" and the American League's "Outstanding Player"...was named American League "Player of the Week" three times in 2007 (4/2-9, 6/4-10 and 9/3-9)...has now received 13 "Player of the Week" honors in his career (five as a Yankee).

- Is one of three players in Major League history to record at least 500 career home runs and 250 stolen bases (also Willie Mays and Barry Bonds)...his 24 stolen bases in 2007 were the most for any player from the cleanup spot in the batting order since Preston Wilson stole 36 bases from that spot for the 2000 Marlins...became just the fourth player all-time to record 50 or more homers and 20 or more stolen bases in a single season, joining Willie Mays (1955, New York Giants), Brady Anderson (1996, Baltimore) and Ken Griffey, Jr. (1998, Seattle).
- Hit two-run HR (#1)—his third career Opening Day home run and second as a Yankee—and was 2-for-5 with 2R and 1SB in 4/2 win vs. Tampa Bay...was his fourth straight Opening Day start at 3B for the Yankees, the 12th Opening Day start of his career.
- Hit two-run HR (#2) and "walk-off" grand slam (#3) in the ninth inning in 4/7 win vs. Baltimore, and was 3-for-4 with 4R, 1 double and 1BB...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, only two other players in franchise history have hit a game-ending grand slam with the Yankees trailing when they came to the plate: Jason Giambi on 5/27/02 vs. Minnesota and Babe Ruth in 1925...the homer also marked only the eighth time in franchise history that the Yankees have won a game with a "walk-off" grand slam and the first since Giambi in 2002...was his third career "walk-off" grand slam (also on 7/27/02 w/ Texas vs. Oakland and 7/31/03 w/ Texas vs. Boston) and sixth career "walk-off" home run (third as a Yankee, last on 6/28/06 vs. Atlanta)...the grand slam was the 14th of his career and first since 7/2/06 vs. New York (NL).
- Is one of only three players in Major League history to have three career "walk-off" grand slams, joining the St. Louis Browns' Vern Stevens (1946, '49 and '50) and the Philadelphia Phillies' Cy Williams (one in 1924 and two in 1926)...became the first player in Major League history to hit as many as 6HR while driving in at least 15 runs through his team's first seven games of a season (credit: Elias Sports Bureau).

- According to the Elias Sports Bureau, became only the second player in AL history to hit six home runs through his team's first seven games, joining Ken Griffey, Jr. (1997)...a total of eight players in Major League history have accomplished the feat, including Luis Gonzalez (2001), Larry Walker (1997), Lou Brock (1967), Willie Mays (1964), Dolph Camilli (1935) and Gabby Hartnett (1925)...Mike Schmidt is the only player in Major League history with more homers at the seven-game juncture of a season (seven in 1976).

- Drove in 16 runs in his first eight games of the season (4/2-11), the most RBI for any AL player through his club's first eight games of a season since Minnesota's Brant Alyea in 1970 (credit: Elias Sports Bureau).
- According to the Elias Sports Bureau, became the first player in Yankees history (and the only Major Leaguer in the last 50 years) to collect an extra-base hit in each of his team's first eight games of a season...his streak of 11 straight regular season games with an extra base hit (dating back to 2006) was the longest for any player in franchise history, breaking the mark of 10 straight games shared by Don Mattingly (1987) and Paul O'Neill (2001).
- Became the first player in Yankees franchise history to hit 7HR in the team's first 10 games of the season and 8HR in the first 12 games...hit 12HR in the first 15 games of the season, joining Mike Schmidt (12HR in the first 15 games of 1976) as the fastest players in Major League history to reach 12 home runs...drove in 31 runs in the first 16 games of the season, the most over any 16-game span since Sammy Sosa had 32 in May/June 1998.
- Hit three-run "walk-off" HR (#10) in the ninth inning—his third home run in a three game span—and was 1-for-5 in 4/19 win vs. Cleveland...was his second "walk-off" home run of the season (also 4/7 vs. Baltimore) and seventh of his career (fourth as a Yankee)...according to Elias, became the fourth player in Major League history to hit two "walk-off" home runs so early in the season (through his team's first 14 games), joining Pat Burrell (nine games in 2002), Robin Yount (12 games in 1991) and Tommy Henrich (12 games in 1949)...is only the third player in Yankees history to hit a pair of "walk-off" homers within a span of five home games at any point in a season, joining Babe Ruth (August 1922) and Claudell Washington (September 1988) who each hit two "walk-off" home runs in three-game spans.
- Had at least one extra-base hit in 15 of his first 16 games of the season...drove in at least one run in seven of his first eight games and 14 of his first 16 while scoring at least one run in 13 of his first 15 games...in his 18th game, on 4/23 at Tampa Bay, became the fastest player in Major League history to reach 14 home runs to begin a season with his third multi-homer game of the season (previous record was held by Albert Pujols, who hit 14HR in the first 24 games of 2006)...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, only two players hit more than 14HR over an 18-game span for their team at any point during a season: Sammy Sosa in 1998 (16) and Barry Bonds in 2001 (15)...three others also hit 14 over a period of 18 games (Rudy York, 1937 Tigers; Albert Belle, 1995 Indians; and Mark McGwire, 1998 Cardinals).
- Began the season with an 18-game hitting streak, the longest hitting streak by an American League player to start a season since George Brett hit safely in the first 19 games of the 1983 season...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, over the past 40 years, only five players have fashioned a longer hitting streak to begin a season: St. Louis' Joe Torre in 1971 (22G), Detroit's Ron LeFlore in 1976 (30), the Dodgers' Steve Garvey in 1978 (21), Brett and Atlanta's Edgar Renteria in 2006 (23)...dating back to 2006, Rodriguez hit safely in a career-high 23 straight games.

- Was named the American League "Player of the Month" for April, hitting .355 (33-for-93) and leading the Majors with 14HR, 34RBI and 27R in 23 games...tied the mark for most home runs hit in April (also Albert Pujols in 2006) and finished 1RBI shy of Juan Gonzalez's Major League record for April (35) set in 1998 with Texas...with 14HR, fell 1HR shy of tying a career high for any calendar month (15HR with Texas in August 2003)...established a single-month career high with 34RBI (previous high was 31RBI with Texas in August 2003)...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, only two other players in Major League history have had 12HR and 30RBI by the end of April – Albert Pujols (14, 32) and Ken Griffey, Jr. (13, 30).
- Became the first Yankee with at least 14HR and 34RBI in any calendar month since Roger Maris in June 1961 (15I IR, 35RBI)...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, the only other Yankees with more home runs in a calendar month were Babe Ruth, who did it four times (17 in September 1927; 15 in May 1928, August 1929 and June 1930), Joe DiMaggio (15 in July 1937) and Mickey Mantle (16 in May 1956)...only Harmon Killebrew (15 with the Washington Senators in May 1959) has hit more home runs in any calendar month all time among Major League third basemen.
- Hit two-run HR (#18)—his third in as many games—and was 1-for-3 with 2BB in 5/21 win vs. Boston...became the third player in franchise history to hit as many as 18 home runs through the team's first 43 games of a season (Mickey Mantle had 20 homers through the first 43 games in 1956; Babe Ruth had 19HR at that juncture in both 1928 and 1930)...homered in three consecutive games after fashioning two separate streaks of four consecutive games with a home run during April.
- Went 47 consecutive games without committing an error from 5/30-7/23, the longest errorless streak by a Yankees third baseman since Rodriguez went 61 straight games without an error from 6/23-9/1/05.
- Hit game-winning solo-HR (#20) in the ninth and was 2-for-5 with 2RBI in 6/3 win at Boston...was his second ninth-inning, game-winning home run at Fenway Park since joining the Yankees (also 7/14/05 off Curt Schilling)...over the last 20 years, only two other Yankees have hit a game-winning homer in the ninth inning at Fenway: Bernie Williams and Alfonso Soriano (one each in 2001)...hit grand slam (#22) in the ninth—his third ninth-inning homer of the road trip—and was 2-for-4 with 1IBB in 6/7 win at Chicago (AL)...was his second grand slam of the season (also in the ninth inning on 4/7 vs. Baltimore) and 15th of his career...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, became the second player in Yankees history to hit two grand slams in the ninth inning or later in the same season, joining Darryl Strawberry who hit two pinch-hit grand slams in 1998.
- Hit game-tying solo-HR (#28) in the ninth—his seventh ninth-inning home run of the season—in 6/23 loss at San Francisco, going 4-for-6 with 3R, 1 double, 1BB and 1SB...was his second consecutive four-hit game (first time since 4/27-29/03 with Texas) and was the first Yankee to collect four or more hits in consecutive games since Bernie Williams on 8/15-16/02...stole the 250th base of his career on 6/23 at San Francisco becoming one of 20 active Major Leaguers to reach the 250-stolen base plateau.
- Was named the American League "Player of the Month" for June, his second "Player of the Month" Award in 2007, fifth as a Yankee and ninth of his career—the most among American Leaguers...led the American League with 28R, 9HR, 34RBI, a .773 slugging percentage and a .496 on-base percentage, while ranking fourth with a .402 batting average...his 34RBI tied his personal best for any calendar month of his career, which he set in in April, and were the most by any Yankee in June since Roger Maris (35RBI) in 1961...no Yankee had posted as high of calendar-month numbers in average, home runs and RBI in over 50 years since Mickey Mantle batted .414 with 16HR and 35RBI in May 1956.
- In 18 Interleague games, hit .406 (26-for-64) with 23R, 8HR and 23RBI, tying Ken Griffey, Jr. for the most Interleague home runs in 2007...missed his first game of the season in 7/5 win vs. Minnesota (strained left hamstring)...was the only Yankee to start each of the first 81 games of 2007...set personal highs for home runs (30) and RBI (86) before the All-Star break...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, Lou Gehrig (90 in 1934) is the only player in franchise history to have as many RBI at the break...was the first Yankee to lead the Major Leagues in home runs at the All-Star break since Roger Maris in 1961 (33HR)...led the Major Leagues with 79R, 30HR and 86RBI at the All-Star break, becoming the first player in the Majors to accomplish the feat since the Yankees' Mickey Mantle in 1956 (credit: Elias Sports Bureau)...also reached the All-Star break with 20HR for the Major League-record seventh consecutive season.
- On 7/12 at Tampa Bay—his 557th game with the Yankees—became the 27th player to hit at least 150 home runs for the club...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, the only players to reach that milestone for the Yankees in fewer games were Babe Ruth (411 games) and Roger Maris (508)...was 2-for-5 with 1R and 1RBI in 8/2 loss vs. Chicago (AL), snapping a career-high-tying 0-for-21 stretch since hitting his 499th career home run on 7/25 at Kansas City.
- Hit three-run HR (#36) in the first inning—the 500th of his career—and was 3-for-4 with 3R, 1BB and 1SB in 8/4 win vs. Kansas City...became the 22nd player in Major League history to reach the 500-HR plateau...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, became the youngest player to hit 500 career home runs (32 years, 8 days), surpassing Jimmie Foxx (32 years, 338 days)...became the third player to hit his 500th home run as a Yankee (also Babe Ruth and Mickey Mantle) and only the second to hit his 500th at Yankee Stadium (Mantle on 5/14/67 off Baltimore's Stu Miller)...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, is one of only two players with at least 500 career HR to have hit 100 or more with three different teams (Seattle-189; Yankees-173: Texas-156), joining Reggie Jackson (Oakland-269; Yankees-144; California-123)...went 28AB between home runs #499 and #500...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, that tied Mickey Mantle for the third-longest homerless streak between #499 and #500 (Jimmie Foxx-61AB, Harmon Killebrew-43AB).

- His 44HR were the most for a Yankee through the end of August since 1961, when Roger Maris and Mickey Mantle began September with 51 and 48 home runs, respectively (credit: Elias Sports Bureau)...hit solo-HR (#47) and two-run HR (#48) in the seventh inning and was 2-for-3 with 1BB in 9/5 win vs. Seattle...hit two home runs in the same inning for the first time in his career and became the fourth Yankee to accomplish the feat (first since Cliff Johnson in the eighth inning on 6/30/77 at Toronto).
- Hit two-run HR (#52) and was 2-for-5 with 2R in 9/9 win at Kansas City, homering in his fifth consecutive game (7HR overall) from 9/4-9/9, tying a career high (also 8/11-16/99 and 8/17-21/03)...was the first Yankee to homer in five straight games since Tino Martinez did so from 5/7-11/05...joined Albert Pujols (5) as the only Major Leaguers to homer in at least five straight games in 2007.
- Hit grand slam (#53)—snapping a season-long stretch of 55 homerless at-bats—and was 1-for-4 with 1IBB in 9/25 loss at Tampa Bay...was his third grand slam of the season and 16th of his career, tying him for eighth place on Baseball's all-time list and second among active players behind only Manny Ramirez' 20.
- On 9/28 at Baltimore, became the second player in Major League history (since RBI became an official statistic in 1920) to reach 1,500 career runs and 1,500 career RBI in the same game...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, Houston's Jeff Bagwell reached both milestones on 9/18/04 vs. Milwaukee...became the third-youngest player to reach 1,500 career RBI, behind Jimmie Foxx and Lou Gehrig (Credit: Elias Sports Bureau)...hit his 54th and final home run of the season in the game, going 3-for-5.
- Batted .267 (4-for-15) in four Division Series games vs. Cleveland with 1HR and 1RBI.

- Leads the Major Leagues with 38 wins (in 63GS) over the last two seasons (2006-07)...also leads the Majors with a .745 winning percentage during that span, recording only 13 losses with a 3.67 ERA...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, became the first pitcher to lead the Yankees in wins in consecutive seasons since Andy Pettitte in 1996 (21) and 1997 (18).
- Became the first Yankees pitcher to record at least 19 wins in consecutive seasons since LHP Tommy John in 1979 (21) and 1980 (22) and was just the fourth Yankees pitcher in the post-war era (since 1946) to accomplish the feat, joining John and RHPs Vic Raschi (1948-51) and Mel Stottlemyre (1968-69)...became the first Yankees pitcher to record consecutive seasons with a .730 or higher winning percentage since Jimmy Key in 1993-94...the Yankees have won 54 of his 80 career starts (67.5%).
- Went 10-3 after the All-Star break, tying for the second-most wins in the Majors in the second half (along with San Diego's Jake Peavy and Arizona's Brandon Webb), trailing only teammate Andy Pettitte (11)...over the last two seasons (2006-07), no other Major League pitcher has won more second-half games than Wang's 20.
- Was 10-5 with a 3.20 ERA (107.0IP, 38ER) against teams that finished the season with a winning record...was 9-2 with a 2.59 ERA (76.1IP, 22ER) in 12 starts that followed a Yankees loss in 2007, winning his last seven such starts...started and recorded the win in three of the Yankees' five shutout victories in 2007.
- Tossed at least 6.0 innings in 27 of 30 starts and has thrown 6.0 or more innings in 66 of his 80 career starts, going 45-10 in those outings (Yankees were 52-14)...lasted at least 7.0 innings in 14 starts, going 11-2 in those games (Yankees were 11-3)...in his career, is 30-3 in games he has thrown 7.0 or more innings and the Yankees are 34-6 in those starts.

- Has recorded 21 wins at Yankee Stadium (33GS) over the last two seasons, the most home victories by any Major League pitcher since the start of 2006...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, he became the first pitcher to win at least 10 games in consecutive seasons at Yankee Stadium since Tommy John (12-5 in 1979 and 11-4 in 1980) and the first right-hander to do so since Mel Stottlemyre (11-6 in 1968 and 12-5 in 1969).
- Allowed just 3HR over his final 17 starts of the season (108.1IP), including a career-best 55.2-inning homerless stretch from 7/3-8/13...surrendered just two HRs to right-handed batters in 2007 (Pedro Feliz on 6/23 at San Francisco and Seattle's Adrian Beltre on 9/4 at Yankee Stadium)...the Beltre HR was his first HR allowed to a right-hander at home since 6/23/06 (Florida's Miguel Olivo), a span of 22 home starts...Wang's career average of 0.51 HR/9.0IP (30HR, 533.2IP) is the lowest in the Majors since Bruce Berenyi allowed just 0.37HR/9.0IP over his seven-year career from 1980-86 with the Cincinnati Reds and NY Mets (min. 75GS).

(*) Denotes start followed a Yankees loss

- Opened the season on the 15-day disabled list from 3/31-4/23 (missed 18 team games) with a strained right hamstring...suffered the injury on 3/23 while doing conditioning exercises at Legends Field during spring training...made one rehab start with Single-A Tampa on 4/19 vs. Ft. Myers (5.0IP, 5H, 3ER, 1BB, 4K)...was returned and reinstated from the D.L. on 4/24, making the start that night at Tampa Bay.
- Surrendered a season-high two home runs in a 7-4 loss on 4/29 vs. Boston, the only time in his last 70 starts he has allowed two home runs in a single game...was just the third time in his career he has surrendered two homers in the same game, first since 6/28/05 at Baltimore (a span of 41 starts).
- Fell five outs shy of a perfect game on 5/5 vs. Seattle, retiring the first 22 batters he faced...surrendered a solo-HR to Seattle's Ben Broussard with one out in the eighth inning...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, the last time a perfect game ended in the seventh inning or later by a home run was on 4/20/90, when Oakland's Ken Phelps hit a pinch-hit home run off Seattle's Brian Holman with two outs in the ninth...the performance marked the first time a Yankees starter had pitched into the eighth inning in 2007 (28 games)...was the second time in five days that a Yankees pitcher took a no-hitter into the seventh (Phil Hughes went 6.1 innings on 5/1 at Texas before being removed due to injury)...the Broussard homer snapped an 0-for-27 stretch by opposing hitters vs. Wang, the longest such streak by a Yankees pitcher in 2007, according to the Elias Sports Bureau.
- Recorded his third career complete game on 6/6 at Chicago (AL) in a 5-1 Yankees victory...was the Yankees' only complete game of the season and first since Randy Johnson's 4-2 loss on 8/24/06 at Seattle (a span of 92 team games without a complete game)...was the first CG win by a Yankees pitcher since Wang last accomplished the feat on 7/28/06 vs. Tampa Bay.
- Allowed a solo-HR to Chad Tracy in the fourth inning of the Yankees' win on 6/12 vs. Arizona, snapping a 46.1IP stretch without allowing a home run (spanning eight starts)...did not induce a double-play grounder in the game for the first time in 2007, snapping a streak of nine consecutive starts from the beginning of the season with at least one GIDP...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, it was the longest streak by a Yankees pitcher to start a season since Tommy John had at least one GIDP in each of his first 17 starts in 1979.

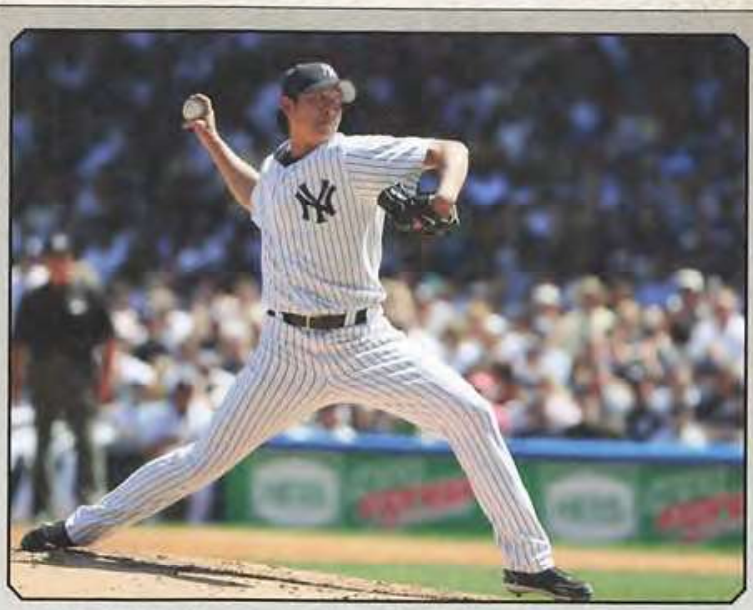
- Struck out a career-high 10 batters over 8.2IP in a 6/17 win vs. New York (NL), surpassing his previous single-game career high of eight strikeouts on 4/16/06 at Minnesota...was the first 10-strikeout game by a Yankees pitcher since Randy Johnson recorded 11 strikeouts on 7/19/06 vs. Seattle...was also the only double-digit strikeout game by a Yankee this season.
- Pitched 7.0 scoreless innings in 7/3 win vs. Minnesota, his first scoreless outing since 8/30/06 vs. Detroit (7.2IP)...walked the first three hitters of the fourth inning, marking the first and only time in his career he opened an inning by walking the first three batters.
- Won a career-high seven consecutive decisions over nine starts from 6/1-7/14, with a 2.89 ERA over the stretch (62.1IP, 20ER)...was the longest winning streak by a Yankees starter in 2007.



DID YOU KNOW... Chien-Ming Wang is one of only five players from Taiwan to appear in a Major League game...he is joined by the Dodgers' OF Chin-Feng Chen, SS Chin-Lung Hu and LHP Hong-Chih Kuo and Kansas City's RHP Chin-Hui Tsao.

- Allowed career highs with 8R and 8ER in 2.2IP in an 8/8 loss at Toronto...was the shortest start of his Major League career...had his streak of 47 consecutive starts without allowing an unearned run snapped on 8/25 at Detroit, when Brandon Inge advanced to third on a passed ball and subsequently scored on a wild pitch during the fifth inning...was the longest streak without allowing an unearned run in Yankees history.
- Won his final start of the season on 9/26 at Tampa Bay for his 19th victory of the season...the win clinched a postseason appearance for the Yankees...allowed a two-run home run to Carlos Pena in the fifth inning, snapping a stretch of 110.0 homerless innings for Yankees starters.
- Made two starts in the Division Series vs. Cleveland, going 0-2 with a 19.06 ERA (5.2IP, 12ER)...started Game 1 of the ALDS for the second consecutive season, allowing 8ER in 4.2IP (H, 4BB, 2K) and taking the loss at Jacobs Field...also started Game 4 at Yankee Stadium on three days rest, the first time in his career he received only three days rest between starts...allowed 4ER in 1.0+IP and took the loss in the 6-4 Indians victory to clinch the series...is one of only two Taiwan-born pitchers to appear in a postseason game in Major League history (also Hong-Chih Kuo, Los Angeles-NL).

- In just his first full season in the Majors, finished second behind Minnesota's Johan Santana in American League Cy Young Award Voting by the BBWAA...went 19-6 with a 3.63 ERA in 34 appearances (33 games started)...the Yankees were 22-11 in games he started...opponents batted .277 (233-for-841, 12HR); LH .275 (103-for-375, 5HR), RH .279 (130-for-466, 7HR).
- Tied for first in the American League with 19 wins (with Santana), ranked second with 14.0 pitches per inning, tied for third with a .760 winning percentage, tied for fourth with a 3.03 home ERA, fifth with 218.0IP and tied for sixth with 33 games started...his 42 assists were tops among all American League pitchers...had the lowest HR rate in the Majors (one every 18.17IP).

- With 19 victories, surpassed Chan Ho Park (18-10 in 2000) for the most wins in a single season by an Asian-born pitcher...pitched at least 6.0 innings in 24 of his 33 starts...was 9-2 with a 3.01ERA (89.2IP, 30ER) in 13 starts in 2006 that followed a Yankees loss...won nine straight decisions at Yankee Stadium from 4/21-8/2.
- Did not strike out more than three batters in 23 consecutive starts from 4/21-8/18, the longest streak of its kind in the Majors since Kirk Rueter had had no more than three strikeouts in 26 straight starts (2003-04)...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, his streak was the longest by a Yankees pitcher since Urban Shocker made 23 straight starts with three-or-fewer strikeouts (1926-27).
- Made the start in the Yankees' 2006 home opener on 4/11 vs. Kansas City, recording a no-decision in a 9-7 Yankees win...made first relief appearance of the season and recorded his first career save in a 6-5, 10-inning win at Baltimore on 6/3 (0.2IP, 2H)...became the first American League pitcher to record a complete game, shutout and save in the same season since Miguel Batista with Toronto in 2003...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, he became the first Yankee to earn a save between his normal turns in the rotation since John Candelaria in 1988...prior to Wang, only three pitchers in the Majors had done it since Candelaria: Bob Walk (1990), Terry Mulholland (1999) and Daniel Cabrera (2004).
- Combined with three Yankees relievers on a five-hit, 1-0 shutout win on 6/13 vs. Cleveland, marking his third straight victory...recorded the loss in his first career complete game on 6/18 at Washington...allowed a two-run "walk-off" home run by Ryan Zimmerman in the ninth inning, the first "walk-off" homer vs. the Yankees since Toronto's Vernon Wells on 7/28/04 in a 3-2, 10-inning loss at the Rogers Centre (off Scott Proctor)...was also the first "walk-off" home run allowed by a Yankees starter since 7/28/95 (Minnesota's Dan Masteller off Jack McDowell) in a 5-3 loss at the Metrodome...allowed a first-inning run for the first time in a 14-start stretch on 7/17 vs. Seattle.
- Recorded his first complete-game shutout on 7/28 vs. Tampa Bay, limiting the Devil Rays to two hits in a 6-0 Yankees win (9.0IP, 2H, 2BB, 1K).
- Saw his career-high 19.0-inning scoreless stretch (over four starts) snapped on 8/8 at Chicago (AL), allowing three runs in the second inning in a 6-5, 11-inning White Sox win...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, it was the longest scoreless streak by a Yankees starter since Andy Pettitte had a streak of 22.1 scoreless innings in August of 2003.
- Was 11-2 with a 2.96 ERA in his final 15 starts of the season (from 7/8-9/27), allowing 33ER in 100.1IP (106H, 23BB, 36K).

Selected by the Yankees in the fourth round of the 2003 First-Year Player Draft.

Home Sweet Home

Since 1998, the Yankees have gone 519-288 (.643) at Yankee Stadium, the most home wins and the highest home winning percentage in the Majors over the last 10 seasons.

The Yankees were 52-29 (.642) at Yankee Stadium in 2007, their 16th consecutive winning season at home (since 1992)...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, it is the longest current streak of any team in the Majors and the longest such streak by any team since a 21-year streak for the Yankees from 1969–89, which included two seasons (1974-75) at Shea Stadium...was also the Yankees' seventh straight season of at least 50 home wins, the longest such streak by any team since the Yankees won 50 or more games in a Major League-record eight consecutive seasons from 1936-43.

The Yankees own the top two highest single-season home winning percentages: .805 (62-15) in 1932 and .802 (65-16) in 1961.

First-Place Finishes

The Yankees recorded nine consecutive first-place finishes from 1998-2006, an American League record. The 2006 season marked the 45th first-place finish in team history, the most of any professional sports franchise. The Yankees are followed by the Montreal Canadiens (32), Minneapolis/Los Angeles Lakers (28), Boston/Milwaukee/Atlanta Braves (27), Brooklyn/Los Angeles Dodgers (27) and Boston Celtics (25). The Yankees' first-place total includes the strike-shortened 1981 season when they won the first-half American League East title.

On Aug. 4, 2007 vs. Kansas City, Alex Rodriguez, at 32 years and 8 days old, became the youngest player in Major League history to reach 500 career home runs.

2007 Yankees Season In Review

SPRING TRAINING: The Yankees finished their 30-game Grapefruit League schedule with a 14-13-3 record…in their 12th consecutive Spring Training at the Legends Field complex in Tampa…64 players reported to camp (24 non-roster invitees), of which 32 were either originally drafted or signed as a non-drafted free agent by the Yankees…Yankees pitchers posted a 3.62 combined ERA, ranking second among all American League teams and third in the Majors, behind only the St. Louis Cardinals (2.29) and Baltimore Orioles (3.24)…the Yankees led all American League Grapefruit League teams with a total paid attendance of 154,590 in 15 home dates at Legends Field in 2007, an average of 10,306 per game and a new Legends Field record.

2007 OPENING DAY ROSTER: Of the Yankees' 25-man Opening Day roster, 14 players appeared on the Yankees 2006 Opening Day roster (Kyle Farnsworth, Mike Mussina, Mike Myers, Scott Proctor, Mariano Rivera, Jorge Posada, Miguel Cairo, Robinson Cano, Jason Giambi, Derek Jeter, Alex Rodriguez, Bobby Abreu, Johnny Damon and Hideki Matsui) and 20 of them appeared with the Yankees in 2006 (also Brian Bruney, Sean Henn, Carl Pavano, Darrell Rasner, Wil Nieves and Melky Cabrera)…seven of the players on the 2007 Opening Day roster were originally drafted or signed as a non-drafted free agent by the Yankees (Cabrera, Andy Pettitte, Henn, Rivera, Posada, Cano and Jeter).

OPENING DAY: The Yankees opened their 105th season in franchise history on April 2 vs. the Tampa Bay Devil Rays at Yankee Stadium…with a 9-5 win, the Yankees improved to 61-43-1 on Opening Day and 32-14-1 in season openers at home…they have won a franchise-record 10 consecutive home openers, 15 of their last 16 and 21 of the last 24…they improved to 57-26 in 83 home openers at Yankee Stadium and are now 69-35-1 in home openers all-time.

IN THE STANDINGS: The Yankees completed the 2007 season with a record of 94-68, winning the American League Wild Card and reaching postseason play for the 13th consecutive season…they have now played in the Division Series every year since the inception of the three-division/Wild-Card format in 1995…their 13-season playoff-appearance streak is the second longest in Major League history behind only the Atlanta Braves' 14-season streak (1991-93, 1995-2005).

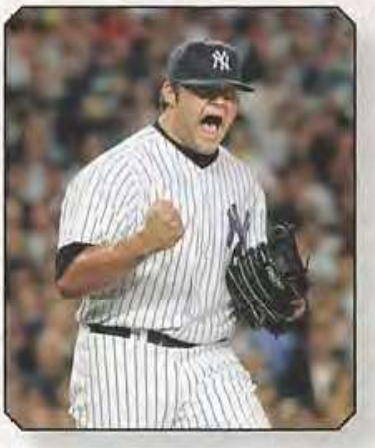
ADDING UP: The Yankees recorded their seventh consecutive season of at least 94 wins in 2007…according to the Elias Sports Bureau, it matches the second longest such streak in Major League history behind only the 1947-57 Yankees (11 seasons).

TEAM TURNAROUND: After being a season-low eight games under .500 (21-29) on 5/29, the Yankees compiled a 73-39 record in the final 112 games of the season, leading the Majors in wins and winning percentage (.652).

SECOND-HALF SURGE: The Yankees posted a 51-25 record after the All-Star Break, leading the Majors in wins and winning percentage (.671)…they also led the Majors over the second-half in batting average (.300), home runs (112), hits (816), runs (504), RBI (487), OBP (.376) and slugging percentage (.493)…it was the Yankees' highest post-All-Star break winning percentage in a non-strike season since 1978, when they went 54-25 (.684).

RUNAWAY: The Yankees scored 968 runs in 2007, the most in the Majors since the 2000 Chicago White Sox (978) and 2000 Colorado Rockies (also 968)…the Yankees' total was the seventh-highest in franchise history and most since 1937 (979)…at Yankee Stadium, the Yankees scored 520 runs (tied for the third highest total in franchise history), averaging a Major League-best 6.4 runs/game…according to the Elias Sports Bureau, it marked just the fifth time in franchise history the Yankees have scored 500 or more runs at home: also 1931 (545), 1938 (524), 1937 (520) and 1921 (500).

BALANCED ATTACK: According to the Elias Sports Bureau, the 2007 Yankees were the first team since the 1950 Boston Red Sox to have seven players score at least 90 runs in the same season (Abreu-123, Cano-93, Damon-93, Jeter-102, Matsui-100, Posada-91, Rodriguez-143)…they also became the 18th team in Major League history to have five players with at least 90 RBI (Abreu-101, Cano-97, Matsui-103, Posada-90, Rodriguez-156), joining four other Yankees teams (1933, 1936, 1938 and 2002).



CALL TO ARMS: The Yankees used an American League-high 28 pitchers in 2007, tying the franchise record previously set in 2005 (credit: Elias Sports Bureau)…nine pitchers made their Major League debuts in 2007 (Chamberlain, Clippard, DeSalvo, Hughes, Igawa, Kennedy, Ohlendorf, Ramirez and Wright), topping the previous franchise high of six, which had been done five times (last in 1946)—credit: Elias Sports Bureau.

NO PLACE LIKE HOME: The Yankees were 52-29 (.642) at Yankee Stadium in 2007, the second best home record in the Majors (Angels, 54-27) …was the Yankees' seventh consecutive season of at least 50 home wins…according to the Elias Sports Bureau, it is the longest such home streak in the Majors since the 1936-43 Yankees accomplished the feat in a record eight straight seasons…now have 16 straight winning seasons at home (1992–2007), the longest such streak for any big-league team since a 21-year streak for the Yankees from 1969-89, which included two seasons (1974-75) at Shea Stadium (credit: Elias Sports Bureau).

LONG SHOTS: With 201 HR in 2007, the Yankees became the first franchise in Major League history to hit at least 200 HRs in eight straight seasons (2000-07)…over the eight-season stretch, the Yankees have compiled a Major League-most 1,743 home runs.

DOWN BUT NOT OUT: The Yankees placed a total of 14 players on the Disabled List in 2007, including five in the first 25 games, spending a combined total of 967 days on the D.L.

IN GOOD HANDS: The Yankees committed just 88 errors in 2007, third fewest in the American League, the team's fewest miscues since 1995 (74) and the club's fourth-fewest errors all-time…included was a franchise-record 99 errorless games over the course of the 2007 season, surpassing their previous mark of 91 set in 1996.

HOT TICKET: The Yankees drew 4,271,083 fans to Yankee Stadium in the 2007 season, surpassing their previous paid-attendance record of 4,243,780 (2006) to establish a new American League record…they led the Major Leagues in average home attendance (52,729), outdrawing the Major League average by more than 21,000 fans per game…drew at least 50,000 fans to each of their last 61 home games…for the third straight season, the Yankees reached the 4 million mark in home attendance, joining the Toronto Blue Jays (1991-93) as the only other Major League teams to accomplish the feat in three straight seasons…the Yankees have increased their home attendance total in each of the last seven seasons (2001-07).

Don Larsen hurls the only perfect game in postseason history, defeating the Brooklyn Dodgers, 2-0, in Game 5 of the World Series on Oct. 8, 1956, at Yankee Stadium.

History of the New York Yankees

Considering the New York Yankees have won 39 American League pennants and 26 World Championships, the franchise has surprisingly humble origins. When the American League declared itself a Major League following the 1900 season, it sought to place a team in New York for the 1901 campaign. But due to the political strength of the National League's New York Giants, the American League instead put a team in Baltimore, calling it the Orioles, with the intent to move it to New York as soon as possible.

Managed by John McGraw, the 1901 Orioles finished 68-65 and failed to draw substantial crowds. The following season, McGraw, fearing the team would relocate to New York without him in 1903, precipitated a midseason release from his contract. He immediately teamed with Giants owner Andrew Freedman and Cincinnati Reds owner John T. Brush, helping them acquire a majority interest in the Orioles. With control of Baltimore's players, the pair of owners decimated the squad, divvying up the players between them. On July 17, 1902, the Baltimore Orioles were left with five players on their roster and were forced to forfeit their game against the St. Louis Browns. The American League quickly stepped in and lent Baltimore players from other teams so they could finish the season.

Prior to the 1903 season, the two leagues reached a truce, part of which involved the National League agreeing to allow an American League team in New York City. Racehorse owner Frank Farrell and ex-New York chief of police Bill Devery purchased the remnants of the Baltimore franchise for $18,000 and reestablished it in upper Manhattan.

The New York Americans, as they were formally named, were New York City's third Major League team, joining the Giants and Brooklyn Dodgers of the National League. They played home games at American League Park, a hastily constructed all-wooden structure at 168th Street and Broadway. Because the site was one of the highest spots in Manhattan, the team was commonly called the "Hilltoppers" or "Highlanders" and their home field "Hilltop Park." They played their inaugural game on April 22, 1903, at Washington, losing 3-1 to the Senators. The next day, they defeated the Senators, 7-2, recording the very first win in franchise history.

Led by future Hall of Famers Jack Chesboro, Clark Griffith and Wee Willie Keeler, the Highlanders finished with a 72-62 record, 17.0 games out of first place. They nearly captured the American League pennant in 1904—finishing 1.5 games behind the Boston Pilgrims—as Chesboro went 41-12 with a 1.82 ERA in 454.2 innings pitched, setting a modern-era (since 1901) record with his win total. That season marked the first of three second-place finishes for the club between 1904 and 1910.

After a spectacular fire severely damaged the Polo Grounds in 1911, the Highlanders' owners invited the Giants to share Hilltop Park until their home, the Polo Grounds, could be rebuilt. Two years later, the Giants returned the favor and allowed the Highlanders to become tenants in their rebuilt and vastly superior facility. With the move in 1913, the Highlanders officially changed their name to "Yankees," by which they had actually been known for most of their history.

From 1911 to 1919, the Yankees won as many as 80 games in a season only twice. But three key moves—the January 11, 1915, purchase of the ballclub by Colonel Jacob Ruppert and Colonel Tillinghast L'Hommedieu Huston, the 1918 hiring of Manager Miller Huggins by Ruppert (without Huston's blessing) and the 1919 midseason trade for right-handed pitcher Carl Mays (26 wins in 1920 and 27 wins in 1921)—set the stage for the most course-altering transaction in baseball history.

On January 3, 1920, perhaps the most significant date in club history, the Yankees purchased the contract of George Herman "Babe" Ruth from the Boston Red Sox for $125,000 and a $350,000 loan against the mortgage on Fenway Park.

Jacob Ruppert (L) and Miller Huggins

Ruth's impact was immediate. The Yankees won 95 games in 1920, their highest victory total up to that point, then captured their first American League pennant a year later. With the Babe hitting 54 home runs in 1920—more than any other team in the American League—Yankees attendance at the Polo Grounds doubled to 1,289,422. In 1921, the Giants, being outdrawn in their own park, asked the Yankees to vacate the Polo Grounds as soon as possible. Now bitter rivals, the two teams squared off in the World Series in 1921 and 1922 with the Giants winning both times.

Though he came up on the wrong end in both Series, Yankees pitcher—and 1969 Hall of Fame inductee—Waite Hoyt allowed just one earned run over 35.0 combined innings over the two Fall Classics. Remarkably, he went 2-2 in his five appearances (four starts), including a 1-0, Series-clinching loss (on an unearned run) in Game 8 of the 1921 best-of-nine championship.

With their departure from the Polo Grounds inevitable, the Yankees' owners set out to build a spectacular ballpark of their own. Designed to be baseball's first triple-decked structure with an advertised capacity of 70,000, it would also be the first baseball facility to be labeled a "stadium."

Construction began on May 5, 1922, and in only 284 working days, Yankee Stadium was ready for its inaugural game on April 18, 1923 vs. the Boston Red Sox. An announced crowd of 74,200 fans packed Yankee Stadium for a glimpse of Baseball's grandest facility while thousands milled around outside after the fire department finally ordered the gates closed. Appropriately, Ruth christened his new home with a three-run homer to cap a four-run third inning as the Yankees won, 4-1.

The 1927 Yankees were known as "Murderers' Row."

Playing in their new stadium, the Yankees won the American League by 16.0 games in 1923, using just eight pitchers all season. Each of their five starters—Bob Shawkey, Joe Bush, Waite Hoyt, Sam Jones and Herb Pennock—won at least 16 games. Yet it was Ruth's tremendous power that people were coming to see and Yankee Stadium quickly became known as "The House That Ruth Built." Later that season, the Stadium hosted the first of 37 World Series, and the Yankees won their first World Championship over their former landlord, the Giants.

On June 1, 1925, in a 5-3 loss vs. Washington, Huggins inserted a 21-year-old rookie first baseman as a pinch-hitter for light-hitting shortstop Paul "Pee Wee" Wanninger. No one could have imagined at the time that this appearance would be the first of 2,130 consecutive games played by Lou Gehrig, who, with Ruth and later Joe DiMaggio, anchored some of the greatest ballclubs of all time.

After a tough loss to the St. Louis Cardinals in the 1926 World Series, the Yankees rolled to World Championships in both 1927 and 1928, first sweeping Pittsburgh, then the Cardinals the following year. The 1927 club, the second Yankees team to be labeled "Murderers' Row" (the first was the 1920 squad), is often the yardstick by which team greatness is measured. During that season, Ruth broke his own single-season home run record (previously 59 in 1921) with his 60th on September 30, 1927, off Washington's Tom Zachary, and Gehrig added 47 homers and 175 RBI of his own.

In his 15 seasons in pinstripes, Ruth helped build a winning tradition with seven American League pennants and four World Championships (also 1932). He finished his unparalleled career with 714 home runs (including 49 with the Red Sox from 1914-19 and six with the Boston Braves in 1935), 12 American League home run titles and six RBI crowns, including five seasons with more than 150 RBI. A charter member of Baseball's Hall of Fame, he remains widely regarded as the greatest player of all time.

Lou Gehrig

Throughout Ruth's time in pinstripes, he often overshadowed the soft-spoken Manhattan-born Gehrig. Yet the "Iron Horse" posted incredible numbers in his own right. From 1926 through 1938, Gehrig drove in at least 112 runs each season.

Joe DiMaggio

A member of six World Championship clubs (1927-28, 1932, 1936-38), he finished with a .340 lifetime batting average and 493 career home runs in just 8,001 at-bats. He was the AL's starting first baseman in each of the first five Major League Baseball All-Star Games, and in 1934, he became the first of two Yankees in franchise history (Mickey Mantle in 1956 was the second) to win the batting Triple Crown, hitting .363 with a career-best 49 homers and 165 RBI. He also still holds the American League record for RBI in a single season with 184 in 1931.

After the 1934 season, Ruth's last in New York, the Yankees purchased the contract of a budding star named Joe DiMaggio from the San Francisco Seals of the Pacific Coast League. Two years later, DiMaggio made his debut in pinstripes and helped the Yankees to an incredible string of four consecutive World Championships under Manager Joe McCarthy from 1936 through 1939. The 1930s also produced one of the game's greatest lefty-righty pitching combinations in future Hall of Famers Lefty Gomez and Red Ruffing. A four-time 20-game winner—including 24-7 in 1932 and 26-5 in 1934—Gomez posted a 6-0 record in five World Series. Ruffing, who was acquired in May 1930 from the Boston Red Sox for outfielder Cedric Durst and $50,000, had been 39-96 with the Red Sox since his 1924 rookie season. After coming to the Yankees, however, he forged a legacy worthy of Cooperstown, going 231-124 in pinstripes while posting 20, 20, 21 and 21 wins on the four World Championship clubs from 1936 through 1939. He was also an exceptionally good hitter for a pitcher with 36 career home runs and a .269 lifetime batting average.

From 1931 through part of the 1946 season, the Yankees were led by McCarthy, who compiled a Yankees-record 1,460 wins in his time at the helm. Having also spent time leading the Chicago Cubs (1926-1930) and the Boston Red Sox (1948-50), he stands at seventh place on the all-time managerial wins list with 2,125 victories heading into the 2008 season. With the Yankees, he reached eight World Series (1932, 1936-39, 1941-43), winning a World Championship in all but one—the 1942 Fall Classic against St. Louis.

Sadly, in 1939, Gehrig was diagnosed with a crippling disease, eventually determined to be amyotrophic lateral sclerosis (ALS), and his streak of 2,130 games came to an end on May 2, when he took himself out of the lineup prior to the Yankees' 22-2 win at Detroit. He never played in a Major League game again.

On July 4 of the same season, the Yankees honored their captain with an emotional Lou Gehrig Appreciation Day at Yankee Stadium, and his uniform No. 4 became the first in Baseball to be retired. He died on June 2, 1941.

With the departure of Gehrig, DiMaggio became the pillar of the next generation of Yankees champions. In his 13 seasons in pinstripes (1936-42 and '46-51), DiMaggio made the AL All-Star team every year, and his club played in the World Series in all but three years (1940, '46, '48), winning nine World Series titles. The legendary "Yankee Clipper" compiled one of the game's most remarkable—and perhaps unbreakable—records in 1941 when he hit safely in an all-time-best 56 consecutive games.

DiMaggio's retirement after the 1951 season at the age of 37 was made easier by the emergence of Mickey Mantle, who played side-by-side with DiMaggio in the outfield in the Yankee Clipper's final campaign. With Whitey Ford joining future Hall of Famers Yogi Berra and Phil Rizzuto, the Yankees were nearly unstoppable from the late 1940s through the early 1960s. Manager Casey Stengel sublimely handled the Yankees juggernaut following his surprising appointment prior to the 1949 season. The club marched to five consecutive World Series titles from 1949 through 1953; no other team has won as many as four straight. His emphasis on platooning players (often to their chagrin) allowed him to exploit matchups in a way not emphasized in his era. Nicknamed "The Old Perfessor," with a vernacular called "Stengelese," he remains one of the most colorful personalities in the game's history. In 12 seasons as manager of the Yankees, he brought his club to the World Series 10 times, winning on seven occasions (also 1956 and 1958).

Mantle would achieve greatness despite a case of osteomyelitis and numerous other injuries. The powerful switch-hitter belted 536 home runs, collected 2,415 hits and batted .300 or higher 10 times in an 18-year career. In his first 14 seasons in pinstripes (1951-64), the Yankees missed the World Series only twice (1954 and 1959), winning the Fall Classic seven times. With his .353 batting average, 52 homers and 130 RBI in 1956, he remains the last Yankees player to win the Triple Crown.

Ford, who played his whole career in pinstripes, is the Yankees' all-time wins leader. His lifetime record of 236-106 gives him the third-best career winning percentage (.690) of any modern-era (since 1901) pitcher with 100 or more decisions, trailing only career-Yankee Spud Chandler (.717, 109-43) and Pedro Martinez (.692, 209-93). Ford paced the American League in victories three times and in ERA and shutouts twice. He still holds many World Series records, including those for wins (10), consecutive scoreless innings (33.0) and strikeouts (94).

Mickey Mantle and Roger Maris

The heart of the Yankees for 18 seasons, Berra played on an incredible 14 pennant winners and 10 World Championship teams—a record number for any individual player in Baseball history. He is one of only nine players in Major League history to win three MVP Awards, and he was selected to the All-Star team in every season from 1948 through 1962.

Rizzuto played on 10 pennant winners and eight World Series championship teams from 1941 through 1956, capturing the league's MVP award in 1950 by batting .324 with 200 hits and 125 runs scored. Eventually elected to the Baseball Hall of Fame in 1994, he gave one of the most memorable induction speeches in the history of the ceremony.

Not every notable Yankee was a future Hall of Famer. In Game 5 of the 1956 World Series vs. the Brooklyn Dodgers at Yankee Stadium, right-hander Don Larsen authored one of the game's greatest pitching performances when he retired all 27 Dodger batters for the only perfect game in World Series history.

The Yankees opened the 1960s in their usual fashion, winning pennants in the first five seasons (1960-64) and World Series titles in 1961 and 1962. Incredibly, in the 29 seasons from 1936 to 1964, the Yankees won 22 pennants and 16 World Championships. The 1961 club is still regarded as one of the best teams in Baseball history. With Mantle and Roger Maris embroiled in a season-long race to break Ruth's single-season home run record, the Yankees rolled to 109 wins en route to the World Championship. Maris broke Ruth's record when he belted his 61st home run on October 1 off Boston's Tracy Stallard at Yankee Stadium in the last game of the season.

Age finally caught up with the ballclub after a seven-game Series loss to the St. Louis Cardinals in 1964. The Yankees would finish above fourth place just once in the next nine seasons and actually fell to last place in 1966 for the first time in 53 years.

The team's fall from grace ended on January 2, 1973, when the most storied franchise in sports history was sold by CBS to a group headed by George M. Steinbrenner III. With the addition of Catfish Hunter, Baseball's first marquee free agent, shrewd trades that brought Ed Figueroa, Mickey Rivers, Chris Chambliss and Willie Randolph to the club, and a strong nucleus that included Thurman Munson, Graig Nettles, Roy White and Sparky Lyle, the Yankees would return to the postseason in 1976, ending a 11-year drought (1965-1975) by winning their first American League East title. Then on October 14, 1976, in the deciding Game 5 of the AL Championship Series vs. the Kansas City Royals, Chambliss launched a ninth-inning, pennant-winning home run to put the Yankees back in the World Series.

This newfound success took place in a remodeled Yankee Stadium. The 1974 and '75 Yankees played in Shea Stadium for two years while vast improvements were made to the original Yankee Stadium (see the Yankee Stadium section of this Media Guide, beginning on page 12, for more details).

After a disheartening four-game sweep by the Cincinnati Reds in the 1976 World Series, the Yankees introduced Reggie Jackson—the most prolific slugger of his era—as the club's newest free-agent acquisition. Jackson capped an exciting 1977 season with one of baseball's greatest individual performances. In Game 6 of the World Series vs. the Los Angeles Dodgers at Yankee Stadium on October 18, "Mr. October" belted three home runs on three swings of the bat to join Babe Ruth (Game 4, 1928 at St. Louis) as the only players to hit three home runs in a single World Series game.

In 1978, the Yankees overcame a 14.0-game deficit in the American League East to force a one-game playoff with the Boston Red Sox at Fenway Park to decide the American League pennant. Shortstop Bucky Dent erased a 2-0, seventh-inning Red Sox lead with a dramatic three-run homer, and the Yankees went on to a 5-4 win en route to a second straight World Championship over the Dodgers.

The 1978 season also saw the emergence of Ron Guidry as one the franchise's greatest pitchers. A four-time American League All-Star, Guidry compiled one of the most dominating seasons in baseball history while becoming known as "Louisiana Lightning." He went 25-3 with a 1.74 ERA in leading the Yankees to their dramatic comeback, compiling a club-record 248 strikeouts and nine shutouts en route to a unanimous selection as the AL Cy Young Award recipient. On June 17, 1978 vs. the California Angels at Yankee Stadium, Guidry set a club record by striking out 18 batters. A four-time All-Star and five-time Gold Glove Award winner, Guidry also racked up 20-win seasons in 1983 (21-9) and 1985 (22-6).

Thurman Munson, Goose Gossage

The 1970s ended with tragedy. Thurman Munson, the Yankees' first captain since Gehrig, was killed when his private jet crashed on August 2, 1979. Only 32 at the time of his death, Munson was the undisputed leader of the clubs that won three consecutive pennants and two World Championships. After the captain's death, the Yankees would make only one more World Series appearance (1981) in the next 17 years despite compiling the best record in the Major Leagues during the 1980s.

During this period, Don Mattingly became one of the most popular players in franchise history, batting .307 in a 14-year career (1982-95) played entirely in pinstripes. He compiled an incredible six-year stretch from 1984 through 1989, in which he batted .327 and topped 100 RBI five times, including a career-high 145 in 1985, when he captured the AL MVP Award. A year earlier, he outdueled teammate Dave Winfield for the 1984 AL batting crown (.343 to .340), going 4-for-5 on the final day of the season. His performance and loyalty were recognized when he was named the 10th captain in Yankees history from 1991-95.

Winfield, who came to the Yankees as the game's most sought-after free agent in 1981, compiled Hall of Fame credentials in his eight-plus seasons in pinstripes (1981-90). With the Yankees, he belted 205 home runs with 818 RBI and won five Gold Glove Awards.

After a 13-year absence (1982-94), the Yankees returned to postseason play in 1995 as the American League's first-ever "Wild Card" entry. A heart-wrenching five-game loss to the Seattle Mariners in the Division Series marked the start of the club's current run of 13 consecutive postseason appearances, a record topped only by the Atlanta Braves' 14-season streak (1991-93, 1995-2005).

In 1996 under new skipper Joe Torre, the Yankees returned to the World Series, winning a six-game Fall Classic against the Atlanta Braves. Following a Division Series exit in 1997, the Yankees won three straight World titles from 1998 through 2000, giving them four championships in five years. Their 114 victories in 1998 shattered the 44-year-old American League mark of 111 wins set by the 1954 Cleveland Indians (since broken by Seattle in 2001) and their 125 total victories, including 11 postseason wins, remains the highest single-season total in baseball history.

Rudy Giuliani, George Steinbrenner and Joe Torre

The Yankees' most recent era of accomplishment has featured a lineup of homegrown talent to rival any period in franchise history. Since the signing of nondrafted free agent Bernie Williams in 1991, the Yankees farm system has produced All-Stars Robinson Cano, Derek Jeter, Andy Pettitte, Jorge Posada and Mariano Rivera. In addition, shrewd trades and free-agent acquisitions have brought such All-Stars as Wade Boggs, Scott Brosius, Roger Clemens, David Cone, Jason Giambi, Jimmy Key, Tino Martinez, Hideki Matsui and Mike Mussina to the Bronx. Another of those players, Paul O'Neill, acquired in a November 3, 1992, trade with Cincinnati, became adored by Yankees fans for his intense and gritty approach. A winner of the 1994 batting title (.359) and often described as a "warrior," he is typically thought of as the heart and soul of the club's turn-of-the-century success.

In 2001, the Yankees fell just shy of becoming the second team in history to win four consecutive World Series titles, but they nevertheless captured the hearts of the nation in the aftermath of the terrorist attacks of September 11. The Yankees dropped the first two games of the Series at the Arizona Diamondbacks' Bank One Ballpark but rallied to win the next three at Yankee Stadium behind dramatic ninth-inning comebacks in both Games 4 and 5. On consecutive nights, Martinez and Brosius erased two-run, ninth-inning Diamondbacks leads with home runs, and the Yankees won both games in extra innings. It was in Game 4 that Jeter earned his "Mr. November" nickname with a 10th-inning "walk-off" home run. The victories marked the first time in World Series history that a team won two games in the same Series when trailing by at least two runs in the ninth inning.

No one personifies the Yankees' recent title run more than Jeter, who was a rookie on the 1996 squad. Over the last 10 seasons (1998-2007), his 1,971-hit total is tops in the Majors, and his personal career winning percentage of .602 (1,104-729-2) is the best among active Major League players who have played in a minimum of 1,000 games. In 2007, he recorded his sixth 200-hit season, joining Gehrig, who had eight, as one of two players in franchise history with as many as four. In fact, according to the Elias Sports Bureau, no other player has had as many as four 200-hit seasons while playing at least 100 games at shortstop per year.

Posada and Rivera have crafted special places for themselves in the annals of the franchise. Posada, a 24th-round selection in the 1990 First-Year Player Draft, is one of eight catchers in Major League history to hit at least 20 home runs in seven seasons while playing a minimum of 50 percent of his games behind the plate. Known for his toughness and durability, the Puerto Rico-born backstop has never been on the disabled list in his career. Rivera, with 443 career saves going into 2008, ranks third on Baseball's all-time list, behind only Trevor Hoffman (524) and Lee Smith (478). His reputation has been cemented by postseason excellence, which includes an 8-1 record and 0.77 ERA in 76 career postseason games (117.1 innings pitched). His Major League-leading 34 career postseason saves is almost as many as the totals of the second, third and fourth place pitchers on the list combined (37).

As the Yankees have continued to make the postseason in subsequent seasons, including a World Series appearance in 2003, they have constantly retooled their roster. In 2004, the organization acquired Alex Rodriguez in a monumental trade from the Texas Rangers. Since his arrival in the Bronx, the now 11-time All-Star transitioned to a new position at third base and was voted the AL MVP in 2005 and 2007. Last season, he became the 22nd—and youngest—player in baseball history to hit 500 career home runs, and in the offseason, he re-signed with the Yankees, inking a 10-year contract.

The last several seasons have seen the Yankees concentrate on procuring and nurturing young talent. Centerfielder Melky Cabrera, second baseman Cano, and two-time 19-game winner Chien-Ming Wang are illustrative of the team's commitment to youth and international scouting. Pitchers Phil Hughes, Ian Kennedy and Joba Chamberlain, all of whom made their debuts in 2007, also demonstrate the focus placed on the club's player development system. Their young careers will be well-guided by former Yankees catcher Joe Girardi, who, on October 30, 2007, was named the 32nd manager in franchise history.

As the Yankees enter their 106th campaign in 2008, the club is poised for future success. This season will mark the team's final year in the current Stadium, and 2009 will usher in a new era, with a state-of-the-art Yankee Stadium on the north side of 161st Street. The nostalgia associated with playing this final year in the original Stadium means that past and present will be intertwined more than ever for Baseball's most decorated franchise. With 39 American League pennants and 26 World Championships already in the record books, there is no better legacy to live up to.

History of the Yankees Uniform

When the Yankees (then "Highlanders") first took the field for their inaugural season in 1903, their uniform did not much resemble the iconic style for which they are known today. A large ornate "N" decorated the one breast and a large ornate "Y" the other. Two years later for the 1905 season, the "N" and "Y" were merged side by side into a monogram on the left breast, creating a forerunner of the now legendary emblem.

It wasn't until 1909 that the most recognizable insignia in sports—the interlocking "NY"—made its first appearance on the caps and left sleeves of Highlanders uniforms. The design was created in 1877 by Louis B. Tiffany for a medal to be given by the New York City Police Department to Officer John McDowell, the first NYC policeman shot in the line of duty. Perhaps because one of the club's owners, Bill Devery, was a former NYC police chief, the design was adopted by the organization. The familiar "NY" eventually migrated from the left sleeve to the left breast of home uniforms from 1912-16, albeit in a larger version than is currently worn today.

In 1912, their final season at Hilltop Park, the Yankees (as they were commonly known by then) made a fashionable debut at their April 11 home opener by wearing pinstripes for the first time in their history. The club was not the first team to wear pinstripes (eight of Baseball's other 15 teams had already worn them at some point), and they would actually abandon the look in the following two seasons (1913-14). By 1915, though, home pinstripes were back for good.

Jack Chesbro models the franchise's earliest "NY" design in 1903.

In 1917, the Yankees removed the "NY" monogram from the jersey and went with a plain, pinstripes-only look. The "NY" remained off the uniform—except for the cap—for the next 20 years until it was reinstated in 1936. Babe Ruth, whose Yankees career spanned 1920-1934, played his entire Yankees career without ever wearing the club's now-legendary insignia on his jersey.

The Yankees utilized numerous cap designs from 1903 until 1921—including pinstripes in 1915, '16, '19 and '21—until they finally settled on a solid navy cap with the interlocking "NY" insignia in 1922.

Babe Ruth sports the pinstriped-cap look of 1921.

The club's road uniforms have remained relatively unchanged since 1918—solid grey with "NEW YORK" in block letters across the chest. The notable exception was from 1927-30, when "NEW YORK" was replaced by "YANKEES." In 1973, with the introduction of more breathable double-knit uniforms, Yankees road jerseys added navy-and-white banded trim to the cuffs of the sleeves as well as white shadowing behind the jersey lettering.

The home uniform remains the Yankees' signature look. With the exception of minor alterations—including bolder pinstripes in the 1940s—it has remained mostly unchanged for more than 70 years.

Lou Gehrig and Tony Lazzeri display the pre-1936 home uniform without insignia.

In 2008, the Yankees will wear an All-Star Game patch on their left sleeve and a Yankee Stadium Final Season commemorative patch on their right sleeve.

Origin of Numbered Uniforms

Numbers first appeared on Major League uniforms on June 26, 1916, when the Cleveland Indians wore large numerals on their left sleeves in an experiment that lasted just a few weeks. Another brief trial by Cleveland the next season and a similar sleeve trial by the St. Louis Cardinals in 1923 both proved temporary. It wasn't until the 1929 season that another attempt was made, as both Cleveland and the New York Yankees began their seasons with numbers as a permanent part of their respective uniforms. Though the Yankees are typically credited as being the team with the longest-standing such policy, it should be noted that the Indians began their season two days earlier than the Bombers, as the Yankees' April 16 Opening Day contest was rained out.

The initial distribution of numbers to the Yankees roster was made according to the player's position in the batting order. Therefore, in 1929, leadoff hitter Earle Combs wore No. 1, Mark Koenig No. 2, Babe Ruth No. 3, Lou Gehrig No. 4, Bob Meusel No. 5, Tony Lazzeri No. 6, Leo Durocher No. 7, Johnny Grabowski No. 8, Benny Bengough No. 9 and Bill Dickey No. 10 (Grabowski, Bengough and Dickey shared the catching duties). By the mid-1930s, other teams adopted the idea, and uniform numbers became the standard for all teams.

Important Dates in Yankees History

 Event occurred at Yankee Stadium

Hilltop Park, first home of the Yankees

Jan. 9, 1903 - Frank Farrell and Bill Devery purchase the defunct Baltimore franchise of the American League for $18,000 and then move the team to Manhattan.

March 12, 1903 - The New York franchise is approved as a member of the American League. The team will play in a hastily constructed, all-wood park at 168th Street and Broadway. Because the site is one of the highest spots in Manhattan, the club will be known as the "Hilltoppers" or Highlanders" and their home field "Hilltop Park."

April 22, 1903 - The Highlanders play their first game, a 3-1 loss at Washington.

April 23, 1903 - The Highlanders record the first win in franchise history, a 7-2 victory at Washington. Harry Howell records the win.

April 30, 1903 - The Highlanders notch a 6-2 win vs. Washington in their inaugural home opener at Hilltop Park.

April 11, 1912 - Pinstripes first appear on Highlanders uniforms, creating a look that would become the most famous uniform design in sports.

April 1913 - The Highlanders are officially renamed "Yankees" after moving to the Polo Grounds, home of the National League's New York Giants.

Jan. 11, 1915 - Col. Jacob Ruppert and Col. Tillinghast L'Hommedieu Huston purchase the Yankees for $465,000.

April 24, 1917 - George Mogridge becomes the first Yankee to throw a no-hitter in a 2-1 win at Fenway Park.

Jan. 3, 1920 - The Yankees purchase the contract of Babe Ruth from the Boston Red Sox for $125,000 and a $350,000 loan against the mortgage on Fenway Park.

Oct. 5, 1921 - The Yankees play their first postseason game in franchise history, as Carl Mays tosses a complete game shutout to defeat the New York Giants at the Polo Grounds in Game 1 of the World Series.

May 5, 1922 - Construction begins on Yankee Stadium.

May 21, 1922 - Col. Ruppert buys out Col. Huston for $1.5 million.

April 18, 1923 - Yankee Stadium opens with a 4-1 win over the Boston Red Sox before an announced crowd of 74,200. Babe Ruth hits the Stadium's first home run.

Oct. 15, 1923 - The Yankees defeat the New York Giants, 6-4, at the Polo Grounds in Game 6 of the World Series, clinching the first of 26 World Championships.

June 1, 1925 - Lou Gehrig begins his record streak of 2,130 consecutive games played, pinch-hitting for "Pee Wee" Wanniger in a 5-3 loss to Washington at Yankee Stadium.

Sept. 30, 1927 - Babe Ruth breaks his own single-season Major League record by hitting his 60th home run (off Tom Zachary) in a 4-2 win over Washington at Yankee Stadium.

April 20, 1928 - Yankee Stadium's left field stands are enlarged to three decks.

Oct. 9, 1928 - In Game 4 of the World Series vs. the Cardinals at St. Louis' Sportsman's Park, Babe Ruth becomes the first player in Baseball history to hit three home runs in a single World Series game.

April 18, 1929 - The Yankees wear numbered uniforms for the first time in their history, two days after the Cleveland Indians permanently adopt them as well (Numbers would become standard for all teams by 1932).

Sept. 24, 1929 - The Yankees celebrate Babe Ruth Day at Fenway Park by winning, 5-3, over Boston. Ruth goes 2-for-3 with a double and Tom Zachary (pitching for the Yankees) records his final decision of the season, improving to 12-0, still a Major League record for most wins in a season without a loss.

Origin of the Names "Highlanders" and "Yankees"

When the American League moved the Baltimore Orioles to New York for the 1903 season, the club made its home at 168th Street and Broadway, one of the highest spots in Manhattan. As a result, the team became known as the "Hilltoppers" and their field "Hilltop Park," even though their formal team name was "New York Americans" and formal ballpark name "American League Park."

The name "Highlanders," as the team of that era is most-popularly remembered today, also started in the club's formative years. It originated not only as a nod to their elevated Manhattan perch, but also as a reference to club president Joseph W. Gordon, whose last name conjured up thoughts of the famous British army unit, the Gordon Highlanders.

Other nicknames for the team were "Porch Climbers," "Burglars," and "Invaders"—all three usually reserved for writers sympathetic to the New York Giants, who held lingering animosity at having American League competition in such close proximity.

As early as 1904, however, the name "Yankees" became common in the press. The earliest known use was in an April 7, 1904, article in the New York Evening Journal that bore the headline "YANKEES WILL START HOME FROM SOUTH TODAY," which was published following a successful spring training spent in the Southern U.S. A week later, the same newspaper's coverage of Opening Day was headlined "YANKEES BEAT BOSTON," and the term also appeared in the article's lead sentence.

"Yankees" was a natural fit given the club's formal name, but likely owes its success to newspaper typesetters and editors grateful for a team name with fewer letters than "Highlanders" or "Hilltoppers." When the franchise moved from Hilltop Park to the Polo Grounds in 1913, it officially changed its name to "New York Yankees."

Sept. 25, 1929 - Manager Miller Huggins, who guided the Yankees to their first six AL pennants and three World Championships, dies of blood poisoning.

June 3, 1932 - Lou Gehrig becomes the first player to hit four home runs in a single game in the Yankees' 20-13 win at Philadelphia. The news is overshadowed by the retirement announcement of New York Giants Manager John McGraw. Gehrig remains the only Yankee to hit four home runs in one game.

Aug. 13, 1932 - Red Ruffing throws a complete game shutout and hits a 10th-inning solo home run off Washington Senators pitcher Al Thomas, giving the Yankees a 1-0 victory at Griffith Stadium. Though not the first to do so, no Major League pitcher has since thrown a complete game shutout and hit a home run in a 1-0 game.

Oct. 1, 1932 - In the fifth inning of the Yankees' 7-5 victory over the Chicago Cubs at Wrigley Field in Game 3 of the World Series, Babe Ruth gestures toward the bleachers before hitting his second home run of the game. Though Lou Gehrig also hits two homers that day, the game will be remembered for Ruth's much-debated "called shot."

June 6, 1934 - Myril Hoag goes 6-for-6 in a 15-3, nine-inning win in Game 1 of a doubleheader at Boston, still the only Yankee to ever go 6-for-6.

July 14, 1934 - Babe Ruth hits the 700th home run of his career off Tommy Bridges in the second inning of a 4-2 Yankees win at Detroit's Navin Field.

Nov. 21, 1934 - The Yankees purchase Joe DiMaggio from the San Francisco Seals of the Pacific Coast League for $50,000.

Joe DiMaggio

May 24, 1936 - Tony Lazzeri hits three home runs (including two grand slams) and a triple, setting an AL record (which still stands through 2007) with 11RBI in a single game in a 25-2 win at Philadelphia.

April 20, 1937 - The Yankees' 15th season at Yankee Stadium opens with the right-field stands enlarged to three decks. Wooden bleachers are replaced by a concrete structure, and the distance to center field drops from 490 feet to 461 feet.

May 30, 1938 - A franchise-record crowd of 81,841 attends a doubleheader sweep of the Boston Red Sox.

Aug. 27, 1938 - Monte Pearson authors the first Yankee Stadium no-hitter by a Yankee, defeating Cleveland, 13-0, in Game 2 of a doubleheader.

May 2, 1939 - Lou Gehrig's playing streak of 2,130 consecutive games ends when he does not make an appearance in a 22-2 Yankees win at Detroit. Babe Dahlgren plays first base for the Yankees and contributes a double and a home run.

July 4, 1939 - "Lou Gehrig Appreciation Day" is held at Yankee Stadium in between games of a doubleheader vs. Washington. His uniform No. 4 is the first to be retired in Major League Baseball. Gehrig makes his famous "luckiest man on the face of the earth" speech.

May 15, 1941 - Joe DiMaggio's 56-game hitting streak begins with a single off Edgar Smith in a 13-1 loss vs. Chicago at Yankee Stadium.

June 2, 1941 - Lou Gehrig dies of Amyotrophic Lateral Sclerosis at the age of 37 in the Riverdale section of the Bronx.

July 17, 1941 - Joe DiMaggio's consecutive-game hitting streak ends at 56 when he goes 0-for-3 in a 4-3 Yankees win at Cleveland. Indians third baseman Ken Keltner twice robs DiMaggio of hits with great fielding plays. DiMaggio hits safely in his next 16 games, giving him hits in 72 of 73 games.

Jan. 25, 1945 - Dan Topping, Del Webb and Larry MacPhail purchase the Yankees for $2.8 million from the estate of the late Col. Jacob Ruppert. MacPhail replaces Ed Barrow as President and General Manager.

May 28, 1946 - The first night game is played at Yankee Stadium, a 2-1 loss vs. Washington before 49,917 fans.

April 27, 1947 - "Babe Ruth Day" is celebrated at Yankee Stadium and throughout Major League Baseball.

June 13, 1948 - Babe Ruth's uniform No. 3 is retired at Yankee Stadium's 25th Anniversary celebration. The visit is the Babe's final Stadium appearance.

Aug. 16, 1948 - Babe Ruth dies of throat cancer in New York at age 53.

Oct. 12, 1948 - The Yankees announce that Casey Stengel will replace Bucky Harris as manager.

Oct. 1-2, 1949 - The Yankees come back from a one-game deficit with two games to play, defeating the Boston Red Sox in the final two games of the season at Yankee Stadium, 5-4 and 5-3, respectively, marking the first of five consecutive American League pennants.

Oct. 5, 1949 - In Game 1 of the World Series vs. Brooklyn at Yankee Stadium, Tommy Henrich breaks up a scoreless pitchers' duel between the Yankees' Allie Reynolds and the Dodgers' Don Newcombe, hitting a game-winning solo home run in the bottom of the ninth.

April 17, 1951 - Mickey Mantle makes his Major League debut, going 1-for-4 in a 4-0 win vs. Boston at Yankee Stadium. The game also marks Bob Sheppard's first as Yankees public-address announcer. Boston's Dom DiMaggio is the first hitter announced.

Sept. 28, 1951 - In an 8-0 Game 1 win in a doubleheader vs. Boston at Yankee Stadium, Allie Reynolds becomes the second of four players in Baseball history to toss two no-hitters in the same season (also Johnny Vander Meer in 1938, Virgil Trucks in 1952 and Nolan Ryan in 1973). Reynolds had previously no-hit the Indians at Cleveland's Municipal Stadium on July 12 in a 1-0 win.

Dec. 12, 1951 - Joe DiMaggio officially announces his retirement.

April 17, 1953 - Exactly two years after his Yankees debut, Mickey Mantle hits what is recognized as the game's first "tape-measure" home run, a 565-foot shot off the Senators' Chuck Stobbs at Washington's Griffith Stadium.

Oct. 5, 1953 - Billy Martin singles home the winning run in the ninth inning of a 4-3, Game 6 victory over the Brooklyn Dodgers at Yankee Stadium. The win clinches the Yankees fifth-consecutive World Championship.

Oct. 4, 1955 - Brooklyn's Johnny Podres outduels Yankees starter Tommy Byrne and two relievers, 2-0, clinching the Dodgers' first World Series Championship. The World Series loss snaps the Yankees' string of seven consecutive team appearances in the Fall Classic without losing a Series (1943, '47, '49-53). It also marked the Yankees' first World Series loss to Brooklyn after wins in 1941, '47, '49, '52 and '53.

May 30, 1956 - Batting against Pedro Ramos in Game 2 of a doubleheader vs. Washington, Mickey Mantle nearly hits a home run out of Yankee Stadium, with the ball striking the upper deck frieze in right field.

Oct. 8, 1956 - Don Larsen hurls the only perfect game in World Series history, a 2-0 win over Brooklyn in Game 5 at Yankee Stadium.

Oct. 10, 1956 - Johnny Kucks pitches a complete game shutout, defeating the Brooklyn Dodgers at Ebbets Field, 9-0, to win Game 7 of the World Series.

April 22, 1959 - Whitey Ford pitches a 1-0, 14-inning complete game shutout at Washington, allowing just seven hits and striking out 15.

Oct. 1, 1961 - Roger Maris hits his 61st home run in the season's final game, establishing a then-Major League record.

June 24, 1962 - Jack Reed's two-run, 22nd-inning home run ends the longest game in Yankees history, a 9-7 win at Detroit.

Oct. 16, 1962 - In Game 7 of the World Series, superb fielding from outfielder Roger Maris holds Matty Alou at third base after a two-out, ninth-inning Willie Mays double. Bobby Richardson then snares a screaming line drive off the bat of Willie McCovey for the game's final out, securing a 1-0, Series-clinching victory over the San Francisco Giants at Candlestick Park. New York scores the game's only run when Tony Kubek grounds into a fifth-inning double play. It would be the last championship for the Yankees for 15 seasons.

May 22, 1963 - In an 8-7, 11-inning win vs. the Kansas City A's, Mickey Mantle hits the upper deck frieze in right field for the second time in his career, this time off righthander Bill Fischer.

Nov. 2, 1964 - CBS purchases 80 percent of Yankees for $11.2 million. The network later buys the remaining 20 percent.

May 14, 1967 – Mickey Mantle becomes only the sixth player—and second Yankee—to reach the 500 home run plateau, when he connects off Baltimore's Stu Miller at Yankee Stadium.

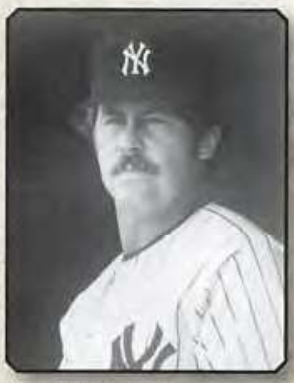
June 8, 1969 - "Mickey Mantle Day" is celebrated at Yankee Stadium and his uniform No. 7 is retired.

June 24, 1970 - Bobby Murcer hits home runs in four consecutive at-bats over two games of a doubleheader vs. Cleveland at Yankee Stadium.

Aug. 8, 1972 - The Yankees sign a 30-year lease to play in a remodeled Yankee Stadium. Completion date is set for 1976.

Jan. 3, 1973 - A limited partnership, headed by George M. Steinbrenner III as its managing general partner, purchases the Yankees for a net price of $8.7 million from CBS.

April 6, 1974 - The Yankees begin the first of two seasons at Shea Stadium as Yankee Stadium is remodeled. The Yankees will go 90-69 at Shea over the two seasons (1974-75).



Jim "Catfish" Hunter

Dec. 31, 1974 - Free agent Catfish Hunter signs a then-record five-year contract.

Aug. 1, 1975 - Billy Martin replaces Bill Virdon for his first of five stints as manager.

April 15, 1976 - Remodeled Yankee Stadium opens with an 11-4 win over the Minnesota Twins. The Twins' Dan Ford hits the first home run.

April 17, 1976 - Thurman Munson hits the first homer by a Yankee in remodeled Yankee Stadium in a 10-0 win vs. the Minnesota Twins (off Jim Hughes).

Oct. 14, 1976 - Chris Chambliss' ninth-inning home run off Mark Littell in Game 5 of the ALCS vs. Kansas City at Yankee Stadium gives the Yankees their 30th AL pennant and first trip to the World Series since 1964.

Oct. 19, 1976 - In the first night World Series Game in Yankee Stadium history, the Yankees lose Game 3 to Cincinnati, 6-2.

Nov. 29, 1976 - Free agent Reggie Jackson signs a five-year contract.

Oct. 9, 1977 – The Yankees rally for one run in the eighth inning and three runs in the ninth for a 5-3, series-clinching win in the decisive Game 5 of the 1977 ALCS at Kansas City. Sparky Lyle earns the win for the second consecutive night, finishing the game with 1.1 scoreless innings on no rest following his scoreless 5.1-inning relief appearance at Kauffman Stadium in Game 4.

Sparky Lyle

Oct. 18, 1977 - Reggie Jackson hits three home runs (on three consecutive pitches) in Game 6 of the World Series vs. the Los Angeles Dodgers at Yankee Stadium. He joins Babe Ruth (Game 3 in 1928 at St. Louis) as the only players to hit three home runs in a single World Series game.

June 17, 1978 - Ron Guidry establishes a franchise record by striking out 18 batters in the Yankees' 4-0 win vs. California at Yankee Stadium.

July 24, 1978 - Billy Martin resigns as manager.

July 25, 1978 - Bob Lemon is named manager, replacing Billy Martin.

July 29, 1978 - On Old-Timers' Day, the Yankees announce that Billy Martin will return as Yankees manager in 1980 and Bob Lemon will become General Manager.

Oct. 2, 1978 - The Yankees, 14.0 games behind Boston as late as July 19, defeat the Red Sox, 5-4, at Fenway Park in only the second one-game playoff in AL history. Bucky Dent's three-run, seventh-inning home run becomes one of the most memorable in Baseball history.

June 18, 1979 - Billy Martin returns as Yankees manager, replacing Bob Lemon.

Aug. 2, 1979 - Yankees Captain Thurman Munson dies in a plane crash in Canton, Ohio, at age 32. His No. 15 is immediately retired.

Aug. 6, 1979 - After delivering a eulogy at Thurman Munson's funeral earlier that morning in Canton, Ohio, Bobby Murcer hits a three-run seventh inning homer and a two-run ninth-inning single, accounting for all five of the Yankees' runs in an emotional 5-4 comeback win vs. Baltimore at Yankee Stadium.

Dec. 15, 1980 - Free agent Dave Winfield signs a then-record 10-year contract.

Sept. 6, 1981 - Bob Lemon is named manager for a second time, replacing Gene Michael.

April 26, 1982 - Gene Michael becomes manager for a second time, replacing Bob Lemon.

Aug. 3, 1982 - Clyde King is named Yankees manager, replacing Gene Michael.

July 4, 1983 - Dave Righetti pitches the sixth regular season no-hitter in franchise history and the first since 1951 in a 4-0 win vs. Boston at Yankee Stadium. Righetti strikes out Wade Boggs for the final out.

"The Pine Tar Game"

July 24, 1983 - The Yankees and Kansas City play the infamous "Pine Tar" game at Yankee Stadium. George Brett hits a two-out, ninth-inning home run off Goose Gossage to give the Royals an apparent 5-4 lead. Manager Billy Martin points out that the pine tar on Brett's bat is above the allowable 18 inches and Brett is subsequently called out for using an illegal bat. The Yankees (temporarily) win 4-3 (see Aug. 18, 1983).

Aug. 18, 1983 - Kansas City's protest is upheld and play is resumed at Yankee Stadium from the point immediately after the home run. Yankees pitcher Ron Guidry plays center field while lefthanded first baseman Don Mattingly plays second base. Royals' reliever Dan Quisenberry retires the Yankees in order in the bottom of the ninth for a 5-4 Royals win.

April 28, 1985 - Billy Martin is named manager for the fourth time, replacing Yogi Berra.

August 4, 1985 - The Yankees celebrate "Phil Rizzuto Day" at Yankee Stadium, dedicating a plaque in his honor and retiring his No. 10. The Yankees lose their scheduled game to the Chicago White Sox, 4-1, as Tom Seaver wins his 300th career game.

Oct. 6, 1985 - Phil Niekro tosses a four-hit complete game shutout in an 8-0 victory at Toronto's Exhibition Stadium for his 300th career win.

Oct. 17, 1985 - Lou Piniella is named manager, replacing Billy Martin.

July 18, 1987 - Don Mattingly homers off Texas' Jose Guzman to tie Dale Long's Major League record of hitting a home run in eight consecutive games (Mattingly hits 10 home runs during the streak).

Sept. 29, 1987 - Don Mattingly hits a grand slam off Boston's Bruce Hurst, setting a Major League record with six grand slams in a season.

June 23, 1988 - Billy Martin is replaced as manager of the Yankees for the fifth and final time. Lou Piniella is named manager for the second time.

Dec. 9, 1988 - The Yankees sign a 12-year television contract with the Madison Square Garden Network.

Dec. 25, 1989 - Billy Martin dies in an automobile accident at age 61.

Sept. 4, 1993 - Jim Abbott tosses a 4-0, no-hit win vs. Cleveland at Yankee Stadium.

Aug. 13, 1995 - Mickey Mantle dies of cancer at age 63 in Dallas, Texas.

Sept. 6, 1995 - Lou Gehrig's Major League record of 2,130 consecutive games played is broken when Baltimore's Cal Ripken, Jr. plays in his 2,131st.

Oct. 4, 1995 - The Yankees play the longest postseason game in their history, a 15-inning, 7-5 win over Seattle at Yankee Stadium, giving them a 2-0 series lead. The contest was the final Yankee Stadium game for Don Mattingly.

Don Mattingly

Nov. 2, 1995 - Joe Torre is named the 31st manager in franchise history.

Mar. 1, 1996 - The Yankees defeat the Cleveland Indians, 5-2, in the first game at Legends Field, the club's new spring training home.

May 14, 1996 - Dwight Gooden hurls the eighth regular season no-hitter in Yankees history, a 2-0 blanking of the Seattle Mariners at Yankee Stadium.

June 16, 1996 - Mel Allen, the legendary "Voice of the Yankees" from 1939-64, dies at age 83 in Greenwich, Connecticut.

Aug. 25, 1996 - A monument in honor of Mickey Mantle is unveiled in Yankee Stadium's Monument Park.

Oct. 23, 1996 - In Game 4 of the World Series at Atlanta's Fulton County Stadium, Jim Leyritz hits an eighth inning, three-run, game-tying homer off the Braves' Mark Wohlers, knotting the game at 6-6. The Yankees would win 8-6 in 10 innings.

Oct 24, 1996 - The Yankees' Andy Pettitte (8.1 IP) outduels Atlanta's John Smoltz (8.0 IP), 1-0, in Game 5 in Atlanta, giving the Yankees a 3 games to 2 World Series lead.

Oct. 26, 1996 - In Game 6 of the World Series at Yankee Stadium, John Wetteland closes out a 3-2 win vs. Atlanta, giving the Yankees their first World Championship in 18 years.

Jan. 22, 1997 - Don Mattingly officially announces his retirement at a media conference at Yankee Stadium.

David Wells' perfect game

Sept. 25, 1998 - The Yankees establish an American League record with their 112th win of the season (a 6-1 win vs. Tampa Bay at Yankee Stadium), breaking the mark of 111 by the 1954 Cleveland Indians (they complete the season with a then AL-record 114th victory on September 27 vs. Tampa Bay).

Oct. 21, 1998 - The Yankees complete an incredible season with a four-game World Series sweep of the San Diego Padres to capture the franchise's 24th World Championship. The 3-0 win gives the club a 125-50 record over the entire season (114-48 in the regular season, 11-2 in postseason).

March 8, 1999 - Joe DiMaggio dies at age 84 in Hollywood, Florida.

April 25, 1999 - A monument in honor of Joe DiMaggio is unveiled in Yankee Stadium's Monument Park in front of a sold out Stadium and many of DiMaggio's former teammates. Paul Simon sings "Mrs. Robinson" while standir g in center field.

July 18, 1999 - On "Yogi Berra Day," David Cone tosses the 15th regular season perfect game in Baseball history, one season after David Wells accomplishes the feat. Amazir gly, Don Larsen—who tossed a perfect game in the 1956 World Series—throws out the ceremonial first pitch.

Oct. 27, 1999 - The Yankees play Baseball's last game of the century and complete a four-game sweep of the Atlanta Braves, capturing their 25th World Championship.

July 8, 2000 - The Yankees and Mets play a unique day/night doubleheader: Game 1 is a 4-2 Yankees win at Shea Stadium and Game 2 is another 4-2 Yankees win at Yankee Stadium.

Oct. 21, 2000 - The Yankees' World Series Game 1 win vs. the Mets at Yankee Stadium marks their 13th consecutive victory in World Series play, breaking the 12-game record of the 1927, 1928 and 1932 Yankees.

Oct. 26, 2000 - The Yankees win World Series Game 5 over the Mets at Shea Stadium, clinching their third consecutive World Championship in the first "Subway Series" since 1956. It marks the first time a club has won three consecutive World Series titles since the 1972-74 Oakland Athletics.

Oct. 13, 2001 - With a 1-0 lead and two-out in the bottom of the seventh of Game 3 of the ALDS in Oakland, Derek Jeter picks up Shane Spencer's errant throw from the outfield and "flips" the ball in a backhand motion to Jorge Posada, who tags Jeremy Giambi for the final out of the inning. The Yankees go on to win the game, 1-0, and the series 3 games to 2. The play will be known as the "Flip Play."

Oct. 30, 2001 - President George W. Bush throws out the first pitch prior to the Yankees' 2-1 World Series Game 3 win vs. Arizona at Yankee Stadium.

Oct. 31, 2001 - In Game 4 of the World Series vs. Arizona at Yankee Stadium, Tino Martinez' two-out, bottom-of-the ninth, two-run home run off Byung-Hyun Kim sends the game into extra innings. Shortly after the stroke of midnight, Derek Jeter wins the game with a "walk-off" solo home run in the 10th, earning him the nickname "Mr. November."

Paul O'Neill

Nov. 1, 2001 - In the late innings of Game 5 of the World Series vs. Arizona at Yankee Stadium, fans serenade Paul O'Neill, who is playing in his last game at Yankee Stadium. Scott Brosius' two-out, bottom-of-the ninth, two-run home run off Byung-Hyun Kim sends the game into extra innings, and Alfonso Soriano singles in the winning run in the 12th.

May 17, 2002 - Jason Giambi becomes only the 21st player—and second Yankee—to hit a "walk-off" grand slam with his team trailing by three runs (Babe Ruth did it on 9/24/25). His 14th-inning slam off Minnesota's Mike Trombley erases a 12-9 Twins lead, giving the Yankees a 13-12 win.

Groundbreaking on the new Yankee Stadium

June 13, 2003 - In a 5-2 win vs. the St. Louis Cardinals at Yankee Stadium, Roger Clemens records both his 300th career win and 4,000 career strikeout (Edgar Renteria).

Oct. 16, 2003 – In Game 7 of the ALCS vs. Boston at Yankee Stadium, Aaron Boone becomes only the fifth player—and second Yankee—to end a postseason series with a "walk-off" home run (also Chris Chambliss, 1976 ALCS vs. Kansas City), when his 11th-inning leadoff solo shot clinches a 39th pennant for the Yankees.

July 1, 2004 - Derek Jeter makes his most famous catch, diving into Yankee Stadium's third base stands to nab a 12th-inning popup off the bat of Boston's Trot Nixon. John Flaherty wins the game with a 13th-inning RBI single.

Sept. 30, 2004 - Bernie Williams launches a "walk-off" home run against the Twins at Yankee Stadium, clinching the Yankees' seventh consecutive American League East crown. New York advances to its 10th consecutive postseason.

April 26, 2005 - Alex Rodriguez hits three home runs (all off Bartolo Colon) and becomes just the second Yankee in franchise history to record at least 10 RBI in a single game (also Tony Lazzeri, 11 on 5/24/36) in a 12-4 win vs. the Angels at Yankee Stadium.

June 9, 2005 - Alex Rodriguez hits two home runs at Milwaukee, becoming the youngest player in Major League history to reach the 400-homer plateau.

June 15, 2005 – The Yankees announce plans for a new Yankee Stadium—financed by the club—to be constructed in Macombs Dam and John Mullaly Parks, which are located on the north side of 161st Street (adjacent to the current Stadium's longtime site).

Sept. 25, 2005 – The Yankees conclude their 81-game home schedule at Yankee Stadium with a season attendance of 4,090,696, establishing a single-season American League record. They become only the third franchise in sports history to reach the 4 million mark, joining the Toronto Blue Jays (1991-93) and Colorado Rockies (1993).

May 16, 2006 - The Yankees tie a franchise record by overcoming a nine-run deficit vs. Texas to win, 14-13, in nine innings. Jorge Posada hits a two-run "walk-off" home off Akinori Otsuka.

Aug. 16, 2006 – The Yankees break ground for a new Yankee Stadium, scheduled to be ready for Opening Day 2009.

Aug. 4, 2007 - Alex Rodriguez becomes the 22nd and youngest (32 years, 8 days) player in Baseball history to reach the 500-home run mark in a 16-8 win vs. Kansas City at Yankee Stadium. He is the third player to hit his 500th career homer as a Yankee, joining Babe Ruth and Mickey Mantle.

Oct. 30, 2007 - Joe Girardi named 32nd manager in Yankees franchise history.

Yankees in Cooperstown

There are 45 members of the Baseball Hall of Fame that have played, managed or been an executive for the New York Yankees at one time or another. The Yankees' first inductee was Babe Ruth, who entered the Hall in its inaugural 1936 class along with Ty Cobb, Walter Johnson, Christy Mathewson and Honus Wagner. The Yankees' most recent inductee is Rich "Goose" Gossage, who will be formally enshrined in Cooperstown July 27, 2008.

Currently, the choice of which insignia appears on the cap of each Hall of Famer's plaque belongs to the Hall of Fame itself. The decision is based on the "historical accomplishments" of the player and "where that player makes his most indelible mark" (though the wishes of the inductee are always considered). It is important to remember that caps have not always had insignias and some players' images are cast as profiles without visible insignias.

Yankees Retired Uniform Numbers

Beginning with Lou Gehrig's number 4 in 1939, the Yankees have retired 15 uniform numbers to honor 16 players and managers.

1 Billy Martin (Number retired in 1986)

Born: May 16, 1928 in Berkeley, Calif. • Died: Dec. 25, 1989 in Binghamton, N.Y.
Height: 5-11 • Weight: 165 • B/T: R/R

Had as much "Yankee Pride" as any player or manager to wear pinstripes, and he implanted his own fierce desire to win in his teams. Played an integral part in four World Series in the 1950s as a player, and added another ring managing the Yankees in 1977. His .333 lifetime series batting average is sixth with at least 75 AB on the all-time series list. Combative and daring, Martin was a brilliant baseball strategist and a legend in Yankees history.

3 Babe Ruth (Number retired in 1948)

Born: Feb. 6, 1895 in Baltimore, Md. • Died: Aug. 16, 1948 in New York, N.Y.
Height: 6-2 • Weight: 215 • B/T: L/L

Baseball's greatest slugger and the most colorful figure in the game's history. Debuted as a pitcher for the Boston Red Sox, winning 89 games over six seasons before being converted to the outfield because of his tremendous power. Was sold to the Yankees in 1920 and his 54 home runs that year were more than any other American League team. En route to 714 career home runs, won 12 home run titles, hitting 60 in 1927. Added 15 home runs in World Series competition as he led the Yankees to seven Series appearances and four World Championships. A member of the inaugural class of Hall of Fame inductees in 1936.

4 Lou Gehrig (Number retired in 1939)

Born: June 19, 1903 in New York, N.Y. • Died: June 2, 1941 in Riverdale, N.Y.
Height: 6-1 • Weight: 212 • B/T: L/L

Durable, powerhitting first baseman who played in an amazing 2,130 consecutive games between 1925 and 1939. Drove in at least 100 runs for 13 straight seasons (1926-38) and established an American League record with 184 RBI in 1931. Compiled a .340 lifetime batting average and belted 493 home runs in a career shortened by terminal illness. Was honored at Yankee Stadium on July 4, 1939, and made memorable, "Today, I consider myself the luckiest man on the face of the earth" speech. Life was immortalized in classic 1942 motion picture, The Pride of the Yankees, starring Gary Cooper. Elected to the Hall of Fame in 1939.

5 Joe DiMaggio (Number retired in 1952)

Height: 6-2 • Weight: 193 • B/T: R/R

The "Yankee Clipper" is considered by many experts as the best all-around baseball player in history. Was a sensational hitter for average and power, and a splendid, graceful, ball-hawking center fielder. Owned a powerful and accurate arm, and was a daring and alert baserunner. Compiled a .325 lifetime batting average from 1936 to 1951. A two-time batting champion and three-time MVP, he powered the Yankees to the first of four consecutive World Championships in his 1936 rookie season. Many rate his 56-consecutive-game batting streak in 1941 as the top baseball feat of all time. Elected to the Hall of Fame in 1955.

7 Mickey Mantle (Number retired in 1969)

Born: Oct. 20, 1931 in Spavinaw, Okla. • Died: Aug. 14, 1995 in Dallas, Tex.
Height: 6-0 • Weight: 201 • B/T: S/R

"The Mick" was the most feared hitter on some of the most successful teams in history. Could run like the wind and hit tape measure homers, like his famous 565-footer in Washington in 1953. In the 14 seasons between 1951 and 1964, he led the Yanks to 12 Fall Classics and seven World Championships. He still owns records for most homers, RBI, runs and walks in World Series play. In 1956, Mantle had one of the greatest seasons ever at the plate, hitting 52 homers with 130 RBI and a .353 average to win the Triple Crown. Mantle was elected to the Hall of Fame in 1974.

8 Yogi Berra (Number retired in 1972)

Born: May 12, 1925 in St. Louis, Mo.
Height: 5-8 • Weight: 191 • B/T: L/R

A mainstay behind the plate for some of the most dominating teams in history from the end of World War II until the early 1960s. Although he never led the league in a single major offensive category, he was just the third man to win three Most Valuable Player Awards. Was selected to play in the All-Star Game in 15 successive seasons (1948-62). Played on 14 pennant winners and 10 World Champions, more than anyone in history. Led the Yankees to the 1964 pennant as manager. Elected to the Hall of Fame in 1972.

Yankees Retired Uniform Numbers

8 Bill Dickey (Number retired in 1972)

Born: June 6, 1907 in Bastrop, La. • Died: Nov. 12, 1993 in Little Rock, Ark.
Height: 6-1 • Weight: 185 • B/T: L/R

Regarded as one of the greatest catchers of all-time. A durable and tireless worker, he caught more than 100 games in 13 consecutive seasons (1929-41), an American League record. In 1931, he did not allow a single passed ball in 125 games behind the plate, another AL record. Dickey also excelled at the plate, batting over .300 in 10 of his first 11 full seasons, while hitting 202 homers during his career. He handled Yankees pitching staffs on eight World Series teams, winning seven championships.

9 Roger Maris (Number retired in 1984)

Height: 6-0 • Weight: 197 • B/T: L/R

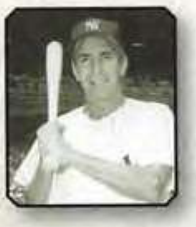
In one of the most dramatic assaults on a baseball record, Maris caught, then surpassed Babe Ruth's famous home run record of 60. Maris hit 61 home runs in 1961, a Major League record which stood until 1998 and is still the American League mark. The two-time American League MVP (1960-61) is also considered as one of the best-fielding right fielders in Yankees history.



10 Phil Rizzuto (Number retired in 1985)

Height: 5-6 • Weight: 150 • B/T: R/R

Playing 13 years for the Yankees, "Scooter" went to nine World Series. That stat may best explain why the diminutive shortstop is regarded as a true Yankees legend. He was durable, a skilled bunter and an enthusiastic baserunner with a solid .273 career batting average. In 1950, Rizzuto earned the AL MVP Award, batting .324 with 200 hits, 92 walks and 125 runs scored. He batted .320 in the 1951 World Series and was named Series MVP. He also spent 40 years as a Yankees broadcaster (1957-96) and was elected to the Hall of Fame in 1994.

15 Thurman Munson (Number retired in 1979)

Born: June 7, 1947 in Akron, Ohio • Died: Aug. 2, 1979 in Canton, Ohio
Height: 5-11 • Weight: 190 • B/T: R/R

Was the undisputed leader and most respected man on Yankees teams that won three consecutive AL pennants (1976-78) and two World Championships. Munson was a tremendous defensive catcher, winning the Gold Glove Award in three consecutive seasons (1973-75). From 1975-77, Thurman drove in more than 100 runs and hit better than .300 in each season. He hit the first Yankees home run in remodeled Yankee Stadium. There is no more tragic date in Yankees history than August 2, 1979, when Munson passed away in a plane crash.

16 Whitey Ford (Number retired in 1974)

Born: Oct. 21, 1928 in New York, N.Y.
Height: 5-10 • Weight: 181 • B/T: L/L

"The Chairman of the Board" was the ace pitcher on great Yankees teams of the 1950s and early '60s. The wily southpaw's lifetime record of 236-106 gives him the best winning percentage (.690) of any left-handed pitcher in the 20th century with 100 or more wins. He paced the American League in victories three times, and in ERA and shutouts twice. The 1961 Cy Young Award winner still holds many World Series records, including 10 wins, 33 consecutive scoreless innings and 94 strikeouts. Elected to the Hall of Fame in 1974.

23 Don Mattingly (Number retired in 1997)

Born: April 20, 1961 in Evansville, Ill.
Height: 6-0 • Weight: 185 • B/T: L/L

"Donnie Baseball" was only the 10th captain to be named by the Yankees in their storied history. The premier first baseman of his era, Mattingly was a nine-time Gold Glove winner. The 1985 American League MVP set records for most grand slams in a season (6) and most home runs in seven consecutive games (9) and eight consecutive games (10). A humble man of grace and dignity, Mattingly carried on the legacy of the pinstripe tradition and dedicated his career to the pursuit of excellence.

Yankees Retired Uniform Numbers

32 Elston Howard (Number retired in 1984)

Born: Feb. 23, 1929 in St. Louis, Mo. • Died: Dec. 14, 1980 in New York, N.Y.
Height: 6-2 • Weight: 196 • B/T: R/R

Became the first black player in Yankees history when he made the club in the spring of 1955. The versatile two-time Gold Glove catcher was an important member of AL pennant-winning Yankees teams in nine of his first 10 seasons with the club. The 1963 American League MVP, Howard was a clubhouse leader who was respected as both a player and a man. Howard's dignified manner off the field and competitive spirit on the field set a powerful example for his teammates.

37 Casey Stengel (Number retired in 1970)

Born: July 30, 1889 in Kansas City, Mo. • Died: Sept. 29, 1975 in Glendale, Calif.
Height: 5-11 • Weight: 175 • B/T: L/L

In a distinguished 54-year professional career, "The Old Perfessor" emerged as one of the game's greatest managers. His feat of guiding the Yankees to 10 pennants and seven world titles in a 12-year span ranks as one of the top managerial accomplishments of all time. Simply put, Casey Stengel was one of the best things to ever happen to the game of Baseball. He was an authentic baseball ambassador, making the game fun for millions of Americans. Elected to the Hall of Fame in 1966.

44 Reggie Jackson (Number retired in 1993)

Height: 5-10 • Weight: 181 • B/T: L/L

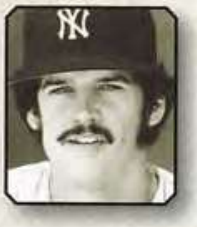
One of the game's premier power hitters, "Mr. October" blasted 563 career home runs, good for 11th place on Baseball's all-time list. In Game 6 of the 1977 World Series, Jackson hit three home runs, all on the first pitch, as the Yankees beat the Dodgers to wrap up the club's first World Championship since 1962. Jackson was an exciting clutch player and an intimidating clean-up hitter with a .490 career slugging percentage. The 1973 American League MVP once said, "Some people call October a time of pressure. I call it a time of character." He was elected to the Hall of Fame in 1993.



49 Ron Guidry (Number retired in 2003)

Born: Aug. 28, 1950 in Lafayette, La.
Height: 5-11 • Weight: 165 • B/T: L/L

Known as "Louisiana Lightning," Ron Guidry was a four-time American League All-Star and three-time 20-game winner. He compiled one of the most dominating seasons in Baseball history in 1978, going 25-3 with a 1.74 ERA. He led the Yankees to a dramatic comeback from 14.0 games behind the Boston Red Sox to capture their second straight World Championship. That season, he also compiled a club-record 248 strikeouts and nine shutouts en route to a unanimous selection as the American League's Cy Young Award winner. On June 17, 1978 vs. the California Angels at Yankee Stadium, Guidry struck out 18 Angels, breaking the club's single-game record. With Willie Randolph, he served as the Yankees' co-captain from 1986 through his retirement in 1989, he remains in the Top 10 on the Yankees' all-time list in games pitched (368), innings pitched (2392.0), wins (170), winning percentage (.651), strikeouts (1778) and shutouts (26).

50th Anniversary of the 1958 World Champion Yankees

October 2008 marks the 50th anniversary of one of the Yankees' most closely-contested World Series. After losing the 1957 Fall Classic in seven games to the Milwaukee Braves, the same two teams faced off again the following year. In 1958, the Yankees became just the second team in Baseball history to rally from a 3-games-to-1 deficit, winning Games 6 and 7 at County Stadium in Milwaukee. Hank Bauer led the Yankees with four homers in the Series, and Bob Turley took Series MVP honors, going the distance for the win in Game 5 and pitching 6.2 innings of one-run ball out of the bullpen to earn the win in Game 7.

All-Time Roster

Yankees by the Number

In 1929, the New York Yankees and Cleveland Indians became the first teams to make numbers a permanent part of the uniform. Other teams quickly adopted the idea and, by 1932, uniform numbers became standard for all teams. The initial distribution of numbers to the Yankees' roster was made according to the player's spot in the batting order. Therefore, in 1929, leadoff hitter Earle Combs wore No. 1, Mark Koenig No. 2, Babe Ruth No. 3, Lou Gehrig No. 4, Bob Meusel No. 5, Tony Lazzeri No. 6, Leo Durocher No. 7, Johnny Grabowski No. 8, Benny Bengough No. 9, Bill Dickey No. 10 (Grabowski, Bengough and Dickey shared the catching duties). After some exhaustive research, the Yankees' Media Relations staff compiled the following list of Yankees uniform numbers. The list represents uniform numbers worn by players, coaches (c) and managers (m) on Yankees' active regular-season rosters. Numbers that have since been retired by the Yankees are denoted by boldface text.

Yogi Berra congratulates Roger Maris on hitting his 61st home run on Oct. 1, 1961.

Yankees to Hit for the Cycle

Ten Yankees have hit for the cycle (single, double, triple and home run in the same game) 14 times. Tony Fernandez was the last Yankee to accomplish the feat, performing the act on Sept. 3, 1995 vs. Oakland at Yankee Stadium. He was the first Yankee to hit for the cycle since Bobby Murcer on Aug. 29, 1972 (G1) vs. Texas at Yankee Stadium. The last player to hit for the cycle vs. New York was Detroit's Travis Fryman on July 28, 1993 at Tiger Stadium. It was the first cycle vs. the Yankees since the L.A. Angels Jim Fregosi did it on Juy 28, 1964.

Don Larsen and Yogi Berra

Cone's Perfect Game

On July 18, 1999, David Cone tossed only the 15th perfect game in Baseball history (since 1901) on a day Don Larsen was on hand to throw out the game's ceremonial first pitch. It came only one season after David Wells accomplished the feat and gave the Yankees a record three perfect games in their history, including Don Larsen in the 1956 World Series. Prior to Wells' and Cone's, perfect games had only been pitched in consecutive seasons once (by Jim Bunning of the Phillies in 1964 and the Dodgers' Sandy Koufax in 1965) and never by pitchers from the same team. Yankee Stadium also became the only park to host as many as three perfect games (Dodger Stadium was the site of perfect games by Koufax in 1965 and Montreal's Dennis Martinez in 1991).

David Cone celebrates with Joe Girardi.

Mike Mussina

The most-recent one-hitter by a Yankees pitcher was thrown by Ted Lilly on 4/27/02 at Seattle (Lilly became the first Yankee pitcher ever to lose a one-hitter in the regular season)...the Yankees' last complete-game one-hit win was by Mike Mussina on 9/2/01 vs. the Boston Red Sox at Fenway Park in a 1-0 Yankees' victory...it was Mussina's fourth career complete game one-hitter, tying Randy Johnson for most one-hitters among active pitchers...he retired 26 consecutive batters before Carl Everett singled with two outs in the ninth...it was the first complete-game one-hitter by a Yankee since Jimmy Key on 4/27/93 at California in a 5-0 Yankee win...the Yankees last authored a combined one-hitter on 6/30/06 vs. the Mets at Yankee Stadium, when five pitchers, led by Mike Mussina (also Ron Villone, Scott Proctor, Kyle Farnsworth and Mariano Rivera), limited the Mets to a sixth-inning single by Endy Chavez off Villone in a 2-0 victory.

Bob Turley and Whitey Ford each hurled three CG one-hitters for New York and both men participated in a fourth...Bob Shawkey, Rip Collins, Lefty Gomez, Vic Raschi and Floyd Bevens each threw two, with one of Bevens' coming in Game Four of the 1947 World Series vs. Brooklyn...Bevens was one out from a no-hitter when the pinch-hitter Cookie Lavagetto doubled in two runs to give the Dodgers a 3-2 victory...it was the last game Bevens and Lavagetto ever played in the Majors.

The Yankees were last held to one hit on 6/30/07 at Yankee Stadium by Oakland Athletics' RHP Chad Gaudin and RHP Rich Harden...the last starter to throw a one-hitter against the Yankees was RHP Mike Maroth on 7/16/04 at Detroit...Joe Wood, Earl Hamilton and Nolan Ryan are the only three men with a pair of one-hitters against the Yankees with both of Hamilton's coming in 1913...Hoyt Wilhelm, who no-hit the Yankees in 1958, also tossed a one-hitter against them in 1959.

Horace Clarke and Don Mattingly are the only Yankees to twice serve as no-hit spoilers...Clarke had the only hit in no-hit bids by Jim Palmer and Joe Niekro...in a single month in 1970, Clarke broke up three no-hitters in the 9th inning, two of which wound up being more than one-hitters...on 5/2/84 at Chicago, Mattingly ruined a perfect game for LaMarr Hoyt with a wind-blown single in the seventh inning, and on 6/29/85 vs. Milwaukee, he also broke up a no-hit bid by Moose Haas, again with a seventh-inning single...on 9/12/81 at Yankee Stadium, Boston LHP Bob Ojeda took a no-hitter into the ninth inning only to have Rick Cerone lead off with a double, followed by a Dave Winfield double.

Yankees Grand Slams

The Yankees hit four grand slams in 2007, including three by Alex Rodriguez that tied Minnesota's Torii Hunter for most in the Majors...Rodriguez's ninth-inning, walk-off slam off Baltimore's Chris Ray on April 7 at Yankee Stadium was the eighth time in franchise history that the Yankees won a game with a walk-off grand slam...the Yankees hit a franchise-record 10 grand slams in 1987, tying the major-league mark (since exceeded eight times by seven teams)...Don Mattingly hit a Major League record six of the 10 grand slams that season...on 5/17/02 vs. the Minnesota Twins, Jason Giambi became only the 21st player in Major League history—and the second Yankee—to hit a last-inning grand slam to take a team to sudden victory when trailing by three runs (Babe Ruth did it on 9/25/25, hitting a one-out grand slam off Chicago's Sarge Connally in the 10th inning of New York's 6-5 win)...on 9/14/99 at Toronto, Bernie Williams and Paul O'Neill hit grand slams in the seventh and eighth innings respectively, the only time in franchise history that players have hit grand slams in consecutive innings...it was also only the third time in franchise history that the Yankees had two grand slams in the same game (also Tony Lazzeri on 5/24/36 at Philadelphia; and Dave Winfield and Don Mattingly on 6/29/87 at Toronto)...in 1998, Shane Spencer led the club with three grand slams (most ever by a Yankees rookie)...he also became the first Yankees rookie to hit at least two slams in one season since Yogi Berra in 1947...the Yankees gave up nine grand slams in 2000, the most in franchise history (surpassing eight in 1995)...four pitchers have hit grand slams for the Yankees - Red Ruffing (1933), Spud Chandler (1940), Don Larsen (1956) and Mel Stottlemyre (1965)...there have been 21 pinch-hit grand slams in Yankee history (by 17 players), the last by Jason Giambi on 5/17/02 vs. Minnesota.

Yankees Around the Globe

As the game of Baseball continues to grow on a global scale, "America's Pastime" has become infused with talent from all four corners of the world.

On Opening Day of the 2007 season, nearly 45 percent of all players in Major League Baseball organizations were born outside the United States, hailing from over 35 countries and territories around the world. A record 246 players on Major League Opening Day rosters were foreign born, up from 223 in 2006.

As one of the most recognized brands in the world, the New York Yankees are dedicated to making meaningful and lasting footprints throughout the international baseball community.

The Yankees' brand transcends international borders as fans around the globe show their Yankee pride.

The Yankees' 2007 Major League Opening Day roster was composed of players from seven different nations (Dominican Republic, Japan, Panama, Puerto Rico, Taiwan, United States and Venezuela). Only the Colorado Rockies–represented by eight different countries–had more. On average, 29 percent of each team's roster consisted of players born outside the United States. For the Yankees, that number was 43 percent, with 13 of the Yankees' 30 players on the team's Opening Day roster (including five on the disabled list) being born in a foreign country.

Signing exceptional talent from around the globe has become a trademark of the Yankees organization. Some of the club's acquisitions include five-time All-Star Jorge Posada of Puerto Rico, two-time All-Star Hideki Matsui from Japan, 2006 "Cy Young Award" runner-up Chien-Ming Wang from Taiwan and All-Star Robinson Cano of the Dominican Republic.

In addition, the Yankees participated in the Japanese posting process with the acquisition of Kei Igawa and announced a landmark Memorandum of Understanding with the Chinese Baseball Association in January 2007 that formalized the first-ever strategic alliance between a Major League Baseball Club and the CBA. At the minor league level, the organization has signed two Chinese minor leaguers, two players from the Israel Baseball League, Cuban-born Juan Miranda and top minor league talent from Australia, Brazil, Mexico and Nicaragua. In addition, the Yankees field two Dominican Summer League teams and operate a state-of-the-art Latin Baseball Academy in the Dominican Republic.

The Latin Béisbol Academy

For the vast majority of the Yankees' Latin American prospects, the Latin Béisbol Academy is the starting point for their professional careers.

Constructed in Boca Chica, Dominican Republic, the Yankees built their academy from scratch, allowing player development personnel to manage every detail of the project, from the trainer's room to the clubhouses to the classrooms. The end result is a four-building, four-field complex with the capacity to house up to 110 players. There's also a small apartment building for coaches and instructors. The academy, which was completed in the spring of 2006, has a campus feel to it that is not lost on the ballplayers, many of whom are spending time away from their families for the first time.

Yankees Latin Béisbol Academy.

Previously, the Yankees had leased a variety of facilities in Latin America for scouting and player development use, but it became apparent that it was necessary for player development and scouting needs to find and develop their own facility.

"We've never had as many fields or batting cages," said Mark Newman, Yankees Senior Vice President of Baseball Operations. "We've never had this level of control over player nutrition or this kind of strength and conditioning facility. All of these things enhance our player development efforts. Already, we've seen the physical, mental, emotional and fundamental maturation of players at a more rapid rate, and we should see it to a greater degree in the future."

> "The Latin Béisbol Academy was built to instruct, enhance and further develop the inherent skills in young, aspiring baseball players from all parts of Central and South America."
> ~ Yankees Senior Vice President Felix Lopez

As a dedicated investor in Latin American talent, the Yankees also look to enhance the training and instruction the players will receive on the field as well as allowing the students at the academy to spend time learning skills that will help them outside of baseball. The complex is equipped with a full-time live-in English professor who instructs classes on English, teaches the Latin prospects "American" customs and is available for one-on-one tutor sessions. The Yankees also provide Latin American prospects with guest lecturers from current and past Major League stars, such as Mariano Rivera, Robinson Cano and Reggie Jackson. In November 2007, Yankees Manager Joe Girardi visited the Béisbol Academy and gave a speech to the Latin coaches and staff followed by an interactive talk with 55 Latin players and eight players from the '06 and '07 draft. He dined with Yankees senior Latin staff and watched a Dominican Instructional League game against Toronto.

The players and staff are active in local community events as well, hosting at least four instructional clinics each year in the Dominican Republic, Nicaragua and Venezuela. In addition, the Yankees' Latin complex has hosted several R.B.I. (Reviving Baseball in the Inner City) tournament games and joined the Yankees organization in the 2007 donation of $65,000 in food and cash to hurricane-damaged areas in the Dominican Republic and Nicaragua. The Yankees have also adopted an orphanage in La Romana in the Dominican Republic, supplying food, money and clothing for those in need.

To further the goal of off-the-field instruction, the Yankees created a partnership with Iberoamerican University (UNIBE) in Santo Domingo, a private institution that brings a group of 12 college professors to the academy. The professors teach everything from basic Spanish to three different levels of English, in addition to leading lectures on subjects such as conflict resolution and financial literacy.

The Yankees' Dominican Summer League 1 Team has reached the league championship in each of the last three seasons, taking home back-to-back titles in 2005 and 2006. With the hard work and dedication of the Yankees' Player Development staff, the organization looks forward to the future, when these same young players can be a part of a World Championship in the Bronx.

Yankees, Chinese Baseball Association Reach Landmark Agreement

The New York Yankees and the Chinese Baseball Association held a press conference in Beijing, China, on January 29, 2007, to announce a landmark Memorandum of Understanding that for the first time formalized a strategic alliance between a Major League Baseball club and the Chinese Baseball Association.

The Agreement, subject to Major League Baseball's rules, regulations and agreements pertaining to the People's Republic of China, states that the Yankees will provide the CBA with guidance in training baseball players, which will include sending staff (coaches, player development, scouting and training personnel) to China to assist the CBA. The partnership will also allow the CBA to send staff to the Yankees' facilities in the United States in furtherance of those goals.

Yankees Team President Randy Levine and General Manager Brian Cashman established a working agreement with the Chinese Baseball Association on Jan. 29, 2007.

The Yankees were represented in Beijing by team President Randy Levine, Senior Vice President and General Manager Brian Cashman, Vice President and Assistant General Manager Jean Afterman, and Vice President of Corporate Sales and Sponsorship Michael Tusiani. Beijing Womei Advertising Company Limited and Sportscorp China, headed by President and Managing Director Marc Ganis and Managing Director Kenneth Huang, coordinated the meetings and were instrumental in the Yankees' involvement in China.

"This agreement marks another milestone in Baseball's international evolution," Levine said. "We are excited to begin working alongside our friends in the Chinese Baseball Association, and they will receive our full support throughout this exciting process. The Yankees brand is recognized around the world, and this unprecedented opportunity allows us to further integrate the Yankees name and our proud history of success into baseball's global landscape."

"It is a great honor to be a part of this unique and exciting opportunity," said New York Yankees General Manager Brian Cashman. "Throughout China's history it's easy to see their passion for sports and their determination to excel in all athletic fields. With that belief in excellence, we are proud to begin work with the Chinese Baseball Association, and we will provide all of our available tools and resources to help develop and cultivate their baseball program from the ground up."

Chinese minor leaguers Zhenwang Zhang (L) and Kai Liu (R) at Yankee Stadium.

The CBA was represented by Chairman Hu Jianguo, Secretary General Shen Wei and Deputy Secretary General Tian Yuan.

On June 16, 2007, the Yankees announced the signings of catcher Zhenwang Zhang and left-handed pitcher Kai Lui to minor league contracts, marking the first-ever acquisition by a Major League organization of Chinese baseball players. The two minor leaguers were introduced at a press conference at Yankee Stadium on July 6, 2007, and then reported to the Yankees Complex in Tampa, Fla., to begin their workouts. They are both scheduled to see their first professional action in the United States in 2008.

During the 2007 season, the Yankees also opened an office in Beijing in direct support of the agreement and to further pursue the club's promotional endeavors in the country. In addition, the Yankees sent front office personnel to Wuxi, China, to offer valuable instruction at a youth tournament during the 2007 baseball season.

Partners in Japan

During the 2002 season, the Yankees entered into a working agreement with the Yomiuri Giants, winners of 20 Japan Series Championships. Pursuant to the agreement, the teams consented to share baseball information, ideas and strategies. Also in 2002, the Yankees pursued and signed three-time Central League MVP Hideki Matsui. A nine-time Japanese League All-Star and three-time home run champion, Matsui became the first bonafide power hitter to make the transition from Japan to the Major Leagues.

Japanese slugger Hideki Matsui returned to Japan in 2004 when the Yankees opened the season vs. Tampa Bay.

In 2004, the Yomiuri Shimbun, the world's largest daily-circulated newspaper and under the same corporate umbrella of the Yomiuri media conglomerate, entered a sponsorship with the Yankees, including an advertisement on the left-centerfield wall of Yankee Stadium. The Yankees are also currently engaged in a sponsorship agreement with the Japanese company Komatsu and have had past Japanese sponsors in Funai and Gulliver.

The Yankees also traveled to Tokyo, Japan, in 2004 to open the regular season against the Tampa Bay Devil Rays. This historic trip marked the 70th anniversary of the Babe Ruth and Lou Gehrig All-Star team visit to Japan in 1934. It also recognized and honored the 70-year anniversary of the founding of the Yomiuri Giants franchise, Japan's oldest professional baseball team. The two-game series was just the second-ever Major League season opener to take place in Japan. The two games remain the highest-rated televised Major League games in Japan's history.

Recently, the Yankees opened a permanent office in Tokyo to pursue business partnerships within Japan as well as throughout the Pacific Rim. The Yankees employ a full-time scout in Japan and have also placed full-time scouts in Taiwan and Austrailia.

Aided by the popularity of Yankees stars Matsui and Taiwan-born Chien-Ming Wang, Major League Baseball has seen an increase of over $200 million in merchandise sales in Japan and throughout Asia over the last three years, opening the door for a flood of new advertising and sponsorship opportunities overseas. As another nod to the draw of the Yankees brand across the world, over 80 percent of Yankees games are broadcast in Japan and New York Yankees baseball is seen in places such as Taiwan, Korea, Latin America, Australia, Europe and Africa.

Yankees in Israel

On October 24, 2007, the Yankees again diversified their international footprint, announcing the signing of outfielder Jason Rees and catcher Eladio Rodriguez, who both participated in the Israel Baseball League's inaugural season in 2007. The Yankees became the first Major League organization to sign players from the IBL.

The Israel Baseball League was the first professional baseball league in the Middle East. Players from nine nations, including a dozen Israeli players, competed in the league's initial season in 2007.

ALL-STAR FUTURES GAME HISTORY

In 1999, Major League Baseball held the first All-Star Futures Game at Boston's Fenway Park prior to the 70th All-Star Game. The annual tradition has since continued, pitting the game's best young stars from the United States against the World in a showcase of minor league talent. Major League Baseball, in conjunction with the 30 Major League Clubs, MLB.com and Baseball America, selects the 25-man rosters for each club. Each Major League organization is represented and the World Team features players from 11 different countries and territories. Players from all full-season minor leagues are eligible to participate.

A	Tampa Yankees	Florida State League	83-56	(.597)
A	Charleston RiverDogs	South Atlantic League	78-62	(.557)
Short-A	Staten Island Yankees	New York-Penn League	47-28	(.627)
R	GCL Yankees	Gulf Coast League	42-17	(.712)

BEST IN BASEBALL: Yankees affiliates combined for a 484-351 (.580) record in 2007, the best minor league record among Major League organizations...this was the second straight season the Yankees have led the majors in minor league wins and winning percentage...in fact, Yankees affiliates have combined for a winning record in each of the last 18 seasons (1990-2007).

CHAMPIONS: The Double-A Trenton Thunder (83-59) won the Eastern League Championship, defeating the Akron Aeros (Indians), 3-games-to-1 in the best-of-five EL Championship Series...the title was the first in the 14-year history of the franchise...the Gulf Coast League Yankees also brought home the league championship, topping the GCL Dodgers 2-games-to-1 for their third title in the last four years.

PLAYOFF PUSH: Four Yankees' minor-league affiliates qualified for postseason play in 2007...Triple-A Scranton/Wilkes-Barre Yankees won the International League's North Division, but fell in the first round of the playoffs to Richmond (Braves)...Double-A Trenton Thunder won the Eastern League title...Single-A Staten Island Yankees clinched a Wild Card playoff berth in the New York-Penn League's McNamara Division for their third straight trip to the postseason, but fell in the first round to Brooklyn (Mets)...Gulf Coast League Yankees captured the GCL North Division title and the league championship.

MANAGER OF THE YEAR: Scranton/Wilkes-Barre Manager Dave Miley, in his second season with the Yankees Triple-A affiliate, was named International League "Manager of the Year" after guiding Scranton/WB to the IL's North Division title with the league's best record (84-59).

STREAKING: Single-A Charleston 3B Mitch Hilligoss hit safely in a South Atlantic League-record 38 consecutive games from 4/18-6/1, breaking the league mark of 35 straight games with a hit set by former Yankee Scott Seabol in 1999...was the longest hitting streak in the minor leagues since Louisville's Howie Bedell (43) in 1961...batted .368 over the stretch (60-for-163) with 30R, 4 doubles, 1 triple, 1HR and 17RBI...Hilligoss' streak, however, was bested by Brandon Watson of the Triple-A Columbus Clippers, who had a minor league season-high 43-game hitting streak.

NO-HITTERS: Yankees affiliates recorded three no-hitters in 2007, tying Cleveland for the most by any organization in 2007...Trenton RHP Brett Smith registered his first career no-hitter on 7/4 vs. Altoona, throwing five, no-hit innings in a rain-shortened game, one of 11 individual no-hitters this season in the minor leagues...The Tampa Yankees combined for two no-hitters, on 7/18 vs. Jupiter and 7/22 vs. Lakeland.

2007 DRAFT SUMMARY: With their first-round pick (30th selection) in the 2007 First-Year Player Draft, the Yankees selected RHP Andrew Brackman from North Carolina State University...the 21-year-old posted a 6-4 record with a 3.81 ERA in 13 starts as a junior with the Wolfpack in 2007 (78.0IP, 78H, 41R, 33ER, 37BB, 74K)....prior to the season, was named to the 2007 Preseason All-America Team by Baseball America...the Yankees signed each of their top 15 draft picks, including second-round selection (94th overall) C Austin Romine from El Toro High School in Lake Forest, Calif., and third round (124th overall) selection RHP Ryan Pope out of Savannah (Ga.) College of Art and Design...the 30th overall pick was the Yankees lowest first-round pick in the history of the draft.

DSL YANKEES: For the third consecutive season, one of the Yankees Dominican Summer League teams reached the league championship game in 2007...the DSL Yankees 1 won the DSL Boca Chica South Division with a 44-26 record but fell to the Nationals DSL entry in the best-of-five championship series... the DSL Yankees 1 ranked first with a .275 team batting average, leading the league with 642 hits...DH Jahdiel Santamaria led the team with a .347 average (68-for-196), ranking second in the league...OF Alvaro Ramirez led the league with eight triples.

Legends Field Renamed "George M. Steinbrenner Field"

On February 14, 2008, Hank and Hal Steinbrenner announced that the New York Yankees would rename Legends Field, their spring-training facility and home of the Single-A Tampa Yankees, to George M. Steinbrenner Field. The name change followed two unanimous resolutions recommending and supporting the change by the Hillsborough County Commission and the Tampa City Council.

"I am humbled and flattered to have this outstanding and totally unexpected honor conferred on me. I extend my thanks to the Tampa City Council and to the Hillsborough County Commissioners for passing resolutions suggesting and recommending the change. I also thank my family for supporting the renaming of the stadium and for everything they have done for so many years that helped bring about this great day," said George M. Steinbrenner.

The resolution by the Tampa City Council, passed on February 7, 2008, endorses the naming of Legends Field after George M. Steinbrenner by citing his many charitable donations on behalf of youth activities, hospitals and the arts. The resolution of the Board of the Hillsborough County Commissioners, passed on February 6, 2008, recognizes that the New York Yankees hold the naming rights to Legends Field and urges the Yankees to honor George M. Steinbrenner by renaming Legends Field in recognition of his numerous extraordinary contributions to the area.

In a joint statement Hank and Hal Steinbrenner said, "Speaking on behalf of the entire family, we couldn't be more pleased about the fact that Legends Field will now become George M. Steinbrenner Field. We have been residents of Tampa for over 30 years, and we feel this is a terrific way to honor our father's longstanding philanthropic commitment to Tampa. Our father has always made clear how much he values Tampa's role in playing host to the New York Yankees' spring training and the Tampa Yankees. The outpouring of community support for this name change has been wonderful to watch, and we're very grateful for the acknowledgement of his achievements and contributions it represents."

Yankees Broadcasters

Michael Kay

As the play-by-play announcer for the YES Network and WWOR-TV, Michael Kay immerses himself in all things New York in order to provide his listeners and viewers with original opinions and the most exclusive, up-to-the-minute Yankees information. Additionally, Kay is the host of YES' CenterStage, an interview show with superstars of sports and entertainment, and hosts his own radio talk show on ESPN 1050 AM in New York.

Before Joining the YES Network, Kay worked at the MSG Network from 1989-2001 as a Yankees reporter. In 1992, he added the assignment of Knicks locker room reporter to his responsibilities and continued in that role through the 1998-99 season.

In addition to his television work, the Bronx, N.Y., native also worked as a Yankees analyst on WABC Radio from 1992-2002. Kay was a winner with Bob Goldscholl (WBBR) for "Best Sports Reporter" at the 2000 New York Metro Achievement in Radio Awards. After the Yankees' World Series victories in 1996, 1998 and 2000, Kay and radio partner John Sterling were asked by New York City Mayor Rudolph Giuliani to host the post-parade victory celebration at City Hall.

In 1998, Kay also began co-hosting Sports Talk with John Sterling and Michael Kay, an MSG-produced nightly sports radio call-in show which aired on WABC Radio during the winter months. During the baseball season, Kay and Sterling hosted "Yankee Talk" which aired 90 minutes prior to all weekend Yankees games.

Shortly after graduating from Fordham University in 1982 with a B.A. in Communications, Kay became one of the hot sports reporters in New York City with a style that combined great reporting skills with quality writing. While at Fordham, he honed his skills working for the school newspaper and radio station, working at Sports Phone and as the public address announcer for the New York Pro Summer Basketball League. In 1982, Kay landed a job as a general assignment writer for the New York Post. Two years later he began covering college basketball (1984-85) and then the New Jersey Nets, whom he covered for two seasons before becoming the newspaper's general basketball writer. In 1987, he was moved to baseball where he served as his paper's Yankees beat reporter. While he was in that position, he got his first television job with MSG Network as host of the "Hot Stove League" segment of MSG's Sports Night. Kay moved from the Post to the New York Daily News in 1989, where he covered the Yankees until 1992, when he made the jump to radio. With the move, he became the first newspaper reporter in any sport to make the jump into the broadcast booth full-time, performing both play-by-play and analysis.

Kay was given the Dick Young Award for Excellence in Sports Media by the New York Pro Baseball Scouts in 1995. He was also a part of the Yankees/MSG Production team that was nominated for New York Emmy Awards for six consecutive years. In 1998, he was on the MSG team that won for "Outstanding Live Sports Coverage–Series." In 1996 and 1997, he was a member of the MSG team that won New York Emmys for "Outstanding Live Sports Coverage–Single Program" for Dwight Gooden's no-hitter and "The Battle for New York: Yankees vs. Mets". Kay is single and resides in Hartsdale, N.Y. He is active with the Alzheimer's Association in memory of his mother, Rose, who passed away from the disease in 2006.

Ken Singleton

Former Major Leaguer Ken Singleton enters his seventh season as a game analyst and announcer for YES Network broadcasts of the New York Yankees. Known on the diamond as a consistent power hitter, Singleton has proven to be equally as reliable since joining the radio and television broadcast booths.

Prior to joining YES, Singleton divided his time calling play-by-play and providing commentary at the MSG Network. In 1998, he was part of MSG's production team that won four New York Emmys for its Yankees coverage.

Singleton joined the MSG Network in 1997 from the Sports Network (TSN), where he served as analyst for the Montreal Expos from 1985-96. From 1991-96, he also called play-by-play and served as analyst for CIQ Radio, the Expos' flagship radio network. In 1996 and 1997, he was named by FOX Sports as a lead analyst for Saturday afternoon baseball broadcasts. In 1997 and 1998, he worked as an analyst for Major League Baseball International.

Singleton enjoyed a 15-year Major League career with the New York Mets, Montreal Expos and Baltimore Orioles, batting .282 with 317 doubles and 246HR. He is one of only six players in Baseball history to hit 35 or more home runs in a season as a switch-hitter. He also ranks among the all-time leaders in most Baltimore offensive categories, including homers, RBI and total bases. During his career, Singleton was named to the American League All-Star team in 1977, '79, and '81. He was named Most Valuable Oriole in 1975, '77, and '79 and was a member of the Orioles' 1983 World Championship team. He was the 1982 recipient of Major League Baseball's Roberto Clemente Award, honoring Singleton's contributions both on and off the field.

A native New Yorker, Singleton played both baseball and basketball in high school, and also played baseball in the Bronx Federation League at McCombs Dam Park right across the street from Yankee Stadium. After getting a scholarship to play basketball at Hofstra University and playing baseball as well for one year, Singleton was drafted by the Mets.

He enjoys golf and reading historical novels and lives with his wife Suzanne in Sparks, Md. He also has three sons and a daughter.

David Cone

Former Yankees pitcher David Cone returns to YES for the 2008 season as a Yankees analyst, splitting his time between the booth and studio. In addition, he will also host YES' children's-themed Yankees on Deck series and will participate in weekly chats on YESNetwork.com.

This is Cone's second stint in the broadcast booth, having served as both a game and studio analyst for YES during its inaugural year in 2002.

Cone compiled a 194-126 record, 3.46 ERA and 2,668 strikeouts in his 17-year Major League career with the Kansas City Royals (1986, 1993-94), New York Mets (1987-1992, 2003), Toronto Blue Jays (1992, '95), New York Yankees (1995-2000) and Boston Red Sox (2001). He was a five-time All-Star (1988, 1992, 1994, 1997 and 1999) and captured the American League Cy Young Award in 1994 after posting a 16-5 record with a 2.94 ERA. With the award, he became the first pitcher to win the Cy Young despite not leading the league in any category or pitching for a first-place club.

While with the Yankees, Cone was 64-40 with a 3.91 ERA and 888 strikeouts and was part of four World Championship teams (1996, 1998, 1999 and 2000). He had arguably his finest season in pinstripes in 1998, when he was 20-7 with a 3.55 ERA and 209 strikeouts. A year later, on July 18, 1999, he hurled the 14th perfect game in modern Major League history (since 1901, including postseason) in a 6-0 win vs. the Montreal Expos at Yankee Stadium. The performance also marked the third perfect game ever thrown by a Yankees pitcher, following Don Larsen's in Game 5 of the 1956 World Series vs. Brooklyn and David Wells' vs. Minnesota in 1998.

The Kansas City, Mo., native, was selected by the hometown Kansas City Royals in the third round of the 1981 First-Year Player Draft. He owns an 8-3 career postseason record and also won a title with the 1992 Blue Jays.

Cone and his wife, Lynn, have a son, Brian. In 1996, he established the David Cone Charitable Gift Fund. Cone was honored with numerous awards for his community service as a player and still pursues his charitable endeavors, working with the Maria Fareri Children's Hospital at the Westchester Medical Center.

John Flaherty

Former Yankees catcher John Flaherty enters his third season as a field reporter, studio analyst and game analyst for YES Network telecasts in 2008.

Drafted by the Boston Red Sox in 1988, Flaherty progressed through the Red Sox farm system before joining their Major League squad in 1992. He played 14 seasons in the Majors with Boston (1992-93), Detroit (1994-96), San Diego (1996-97), Tampa Bay (1998-2002) and the Yankees (2003-05), compiling a .252 batting average with 80 home runs in 1,047 career games.

Flaherty brought his knowledge of the game and his veteran style of leadership to the Yankees clubhouse when he signed as a free agent in 2003. Though he played in 134 games with the Yankees across three seasons, he will be long remembered for his dramatic pinch-hit, "walk-off" single that defeated the Boston Red Sox in the 13th inning of a 5-4 victory on 7/1/04.

Flaherty is a New York City native and a graduate of George Washington University.

Kimberly Jones

Kimberly Jones returns for her fourth season as a Yankees pregame and postgame clubhouse reporter. She also occasionally hosts talk shows on WFAN-AM 660 in New York.

Jones previously spent four-and-a-half years at The Star Ledger (Newark, N.J.), where she covered the New York Giants for three seasons and was the NFL columnist for one. For the 2005 NFL season, she continued to contribute as the Ledger's Sunday NFL notes columnist and also appeared as an NFL contributor on "Out of Bounds" on CN8, The Comcast Network.

Prior to moving to New Jersey, Jones worked at the Centre Daily Times (State College, Pa.), where she was the beat writer for Penn State football and men's basketball.

Jones graduated from Penn State with a B.A. in Journalism and an M.S. in Exercise and Sport Science. Following graduation, she completed a one-year internship in the communications department of the Big Ten Conference in suburban Chicago. A native of Dallastown, Pa., she currently resides in Bergen County, N.J.

Al Leiter

Entering his fourth year with the YES Network, former Yankees pitcher Al Leiter has established himself as an outstanding color commentator, providing viewers with insight gained from his 19 years as a player in the Major Leagues. Prior to signing with YES, Leiter had worked as a postseason game analyst for FOX Sports and ESPN.

Originally drafted by the Yankees in 1984, Leiter played parts of 19 professional seasons with the Yankees (1987-89, 2005), Toronto Blue Jays (1989-95), Florida Marlins (1996-97, 2005) and New York Mets (1988-2004). A two-time All-Star (1996, 2000), he was a part of two World Championship teams (with Toronto in 1993 and Florida in 1997) and became the first pitcher in history to record a victory against all 30 Major League teams. On 5/11/96, Leiter tossed the first no-hitter in Marlins history in an 11-0 win vs. Colorado.

Leiter returned to the Yankees in a trade with the Marlins on 7/16/05. His start vs. the Boston Red Sox on 7/17 at Fenway Park marked a span of 16 years and 82 days between Yankees starts (first since 4/26/89 vs. Kansas City), the longest gap between starts by a Yankees pitcher in franchise history.

A native of Bayville, N.J., Leiter has been nearly as busy off the field as he was on it. Since 1996, he has donated more than $1.5 million to various charities in the New York area and South Florida. In 2000, he was honored by Major League Baseball with the Roberto Clemente Award for his contribution to the community. With his wife, Lori, he created "Leiter's Landing," a charitable organization committed to the betterment of youth through education, health care and social and community service. Leiter has also been the recipient of numerous other awards and honors as a result of his charity work.

Yankees Broadcasters

Bobby Murcer

Bobby Murcer embodies the tradition and history of the New York Yankees from his playing days patrolling centerfield to his current role as game analyst for the YES Network. For five decades, Murcer has continued to exude class, charisma and professionalism both on and off the field. This season will mark his 24th in the Yankees broadcasting booth and 40th overall season in the Yankees organization.

Over his 17-year baseball career, Murcer played in 1,908 games, hitting .277 with 252HR and 1,043 RBI. He joined Lou Gehrig, Johnny Blanchard and Mickey Mantle as the only Yankees to hit home runs in four consecutive at-bats. He appeared in the 1980 and 1981 American League Championship Series and the 1981 World Series. A five-time All-Star from 1971-75, Murcer is the only player to have played alongside both Mickey Mantle and Don Mattingly.

In 1983, Bobby traded his glove and bat for a microphone and began broadcasting Yankees baseball, serving as color analyst for WABC radio until 1985. After serving one season as assistant general manager for the Yankees, he returned to the booth as a color analyst for Yankees games on SportsChannel New York. In 1989, the first year Yankees games appeared on MSG, Murcer served as color commentator alongside Tommy Hutton. In 1990, he joined the WPIX broadcast team and served in that capacity though the end of the 1998 season. Throughout his career, he has been recognized for his broadcasting excellence, winning three Emmy Awards.

Murcer resides in Oklahoma City with his wife, Kay. They have two children, Tori and Todd. He also takes time to speak to groups on a variety of topics and has served as chairman, fundraiser and speaker for the Baseball Assistance Team. In January 2008, he was honored with the Milton Richman "You Gotta Have Heart" Award at the annual BBWAA banquet.

Paul O'Neill

Paul O'Neill returns for his seventh consecutive season in broadcast television in 2008, serving as a pre- and post-game analyst for the YES Network.

The gritty and revered five-time All-Star outfielder played 17 years in the Major Leagues, spending his final nine seasons in pinstripes. He appeared in six World Series, winning five titles, including four with the Yankees (1996, '98-2000).

Affectionately known as a "warrior" to most Yankees followers, O'Neill began his Major League career in 1985 with the Cincinnati Reds and earned his first World Series championship in 1990. He joined the Yankees in 1993 after eight seasons with the Reds, and in 1994 claimed the American League batting title with a .359 average. From July 1995 to May 1997, he played in 235 consecutive games in right field without making an error. In 2001, at the age of 38, O'Neill became the oldest player in Major League history to steal 20 bases and hit 20 home runs in the same season.

He lives in his native Cincinnati with his wife, Nevalee, and their three children: Andrew, Aaron and Alexandra.

Kevin Smollon, Senior Producer

Kevin Smollon begins his seventh season as Senior Producer of New York Yankees baseball on the YES Network.

The five-time National Sports Emmy Award winner joined YES after nearly two decades of network sports television experience. Smollon previously served as producer of ABC Sports College Football, including the 2002 Orange Bowl. He joined ABC after a long and distinguished career at NBC Sports.

He has accrued production credits for five Super Bowls, two World Series, two League Championship Series, Rose, Orange, Fiesta and Gator Bowls, five NBA Finals, nine NBA All-Star Games, six Wimbledon Tournaments, two French Open Tennis Championships, five Breeders Cups and Summer Olympic Games in Seoul, Barcelona, Atlanta and Sydney.

In addition to Yankees baseball, Smollon also produced the first two seasons of New Jersey Nets basketball on the YES Network.

The Brooklyn, N.Y., native now resides in Franklin Lakes, N.J. He is a graduate of St. John's University.

John Moore, Director

John Moore enters his seventh season as Director of New York Yankees baseball games on the YES Network. He began his current role in 2002, the first year of the network.

Moore began working on Yankees telecasts in 1980 as a graphics coordinator with WPIX, taking over as assistant director in 1981. He assumed the role of producer and director in 1988, then assumed the role of executive producer in 1990 before serving in his current role. In addition to his work with the Yankees, Moore directed the New York Mets on Sportschannel/FSNY from 1996-2001 and has worked as a director with Major League Baseball International since 1995 and FOX's Saturday baseball broadcasts since 1996.

He has been a part of 10 Emmy Award-winning broadcasts, as has won two Emmys for "Outstanding Director." Moore has acted as director of Major League Baseball's All-Star Game as well as League Championship and World Series games.

Born in Mount Vernon., N.Y., Moore lives in the Bronx and has two children, Erin and Cris.

Yankees Broadcasters

John Sterling

"Yankees win! Theeeeeee Yankees win!"

If anything has become synonymous with the Yankees' run of success over recent years, it is John Sterling's memorable conclusion to so many Yankees victories. As the radio voice to 162 games a year, plus preseason and postseason, he has called more than 3,100 games over the last 19 seasons, without missing even one, making him one of the most recognized—and imitated voices—in all of New York sports.

Sterling joined the Yankees broadcast team in 1989 from Atlanta's TBS and WSB Radio, where he called Hawks basketball (1981-89) and Braves games (1982-87). But it was really a return to the town where he first achieved fame, hosting a talk show on WMCA from 1971-78, and calling the Nets (1975-80, and as a fill-in, in 1997) and Islanders (1975-78) for WMCA ,WVNJ, WOR-TV and SportsChannel.

Sterling has broadcast Morgan State Football (eight years) and Washington Bullets basketball in 1981. In addition to his seven years at WMCA and a year at WSB in Atlanta, he has also hosted talk shows on WFAN and WABC in New York. He has not missed a broadcast since the fall of 1981.

As the host of the YES Network's acclaimed "Yankeeography" series, Sterling has won a total of nine Emmy Awards over the last five years. He has also been honored by the New Jersey Sportswriters Association with its Radio-TV Excellence Award (1999), and was the winner of the 2001 Whitney Radio Jimmy Cannon Award. In addition, his call of a Jason Giambi home run on WCBS radio in 2002 was voted the "best baseball call" of the year in a poll conducted by MLB.com. In 2002, Sterling was also honored by the NY Air Awards for being a part of the best play-by-play team on radio.

When he's not in the booth, Sterling serves as a master of on-field ceremonies for major Yankees events. He is also well known for his emcee work at City Hall (with his longtime radio partner Michael Kay) at "Key to the City" ceremonies following Yankees World Series victories.

Sterling enjoys attending Broadway shows and boasts an extensive knowledge of the lyrics to many American pop standards. In 2007, he embarked on his own Broadway venture in a cabaret show titled "Baseball and Broadway" in which he both served as emcee and sang alongside broadway talent.

For the past 15 years, he has been a spokesman for the Leukemia Society of America. He enjoys reading, movies and swimming. He lives in Bergen County, N.J., and is the proud father of four children: daughter Abigail and triplets, Veronica, Bradford and Derek.

Suzyn Waldman

Award-winning journalist Suzyn Waldman begins her 22nd season either covering or broadcasting the New York Yankees. She joined John Sterling in the radio booth in 2005 as the Yankees' color commentator on WCBS-AM radio, becoming the first woman to hold a full-time position as a Major League broadcaster. Waldman has spent more than two decades overcoming all the obstacles that go along with being a female sports broadcaster and has risen to the top of her profession. In 2006, she became a permanent part of the "Women in Baseball" exhibit at the Hall of Fame in Cooperstown.

In 1987, Waldman became the first female voice heard on WFAN-AM in New York, the first all-sports radio station in the country. She was a mainstay on that station for almost 15 years, creating the job of the radio beat reporter, covering both the New York Yankees and New York Knicks. Her news-breaking reports, exclusive interviews and always original and controversial opinions won her countless journalism awards. Her accolades include the "International Radio Award" for her live and emotional reporting from the upper deck of Candlestick Park during the 1989 San Francisco earthquake, the 1996 "NY Sportscaster of the Year" by the National Sportscasters & Sportswriters and the American Women in Radio and TV's "Star Award" for radio in 1999. Waldman became a popular talk show host at WFAN and co-hosted the coveted midday slot until leaving WFAN in 2002 to join the YES Network.

The word "first" invariably precedes the name of Suzyn Waldman in every facet of her television and radio career. The first woman to work on a nationally-televised baseball broadcast, Waldman added another first, being the first woman to provide play-by-play for a Major League team, when she started broadcasting New York Yankees games for WPIX, MSG Network and WNYW/FOX5 in the mid 1990s. The first woman ever to host an NBA pre-and post-game show, Suzyn worked in that capacity for the New York Knicks on WFAN, provided play-by-play for the WNBA on Lifetime TV and was an analyst on St. John's basketball games for MSG and WFAN.

She has been honored by countless organizations, including the Thurman Munson Foundation, the March of Dimes, the B'nai B'rith, the Jimmy Fund of Boston and the US Federal Women's Program. In 2006 she received the first Women's Global Health Award from the Albert Einstein College of Medicine at the United Nations. She is a tireless motivational speaker at schools and cancer centers around the country, encouraging young women to pursue their dreams despite any pitfalls they may encounter.

Waldman's life and struggles have been the subject of hundreds of magazine and newspaper articles, and chapters in children's and motivational books. She has been profiled on the Today Show, CBS Evening News with Dan Rather, ABC's 20/20 and NBC's Dateline.

A native Bostonian with a degree in Economics from Boston's prestigious Simmons College, Suzyn spent 15 years on the Broadway Musical Stage and performed in countless night clubs around the world. She is proudest of her two years starring opposite Richard Kiley in Man of La Mancha. She lives in Westchester with her German Shepherds, Kiley and A.J.

1430am WNSW Radio

For the 12th consecutive season, the Yankees – in conjunctions with WCBS radio – will provide Spanish radio and SAP (second audio programming) for game broadcasts.

Beto Villa

The Venezuelan-born Beto Villa has been broadcasting the Yankees since the beginning of the network in 1996 and is one of the most recognized voices in the world of baseball. Beto begins his 12th season in the radio booth as the "Spanish voice of the New York Yankees." His famous home run call: "¡Y la bola va atrás, se va, se va, se va, se vaaaaaaa…y se fue de cuandrangular…Jonrón de…!" has made him very popular in the tri-state area and around the world.

Beto provides Spanish listeners with wall-to-wall coverage of the Yankees. He treasures his pages and pages of statistics on Latin American ballplayers which he uses during his broadcasts. He became a broadcaster in 1981 and has covered both the World Series and the Caribbean World Series over the Spanish airwaves. He is currently the editor of Latinobaseball.com, a website that covers Latin American players' stats. Beto has a daughter, Margarita.

Francisco Rivera

A native of Morovis, Puerto Rico, Francisco Rivera is in his fourth year as a color commentator and play-by-play announcer for the New York Yankees.

He attended Rutgers University from 1971-77, majoring in Spanish education. He graduated in 1978 from the Miguel A. Torres School of Communications in New York.

Rivera began his career as a sportscaster in 1992 and from 1994-2003 was a co-host of a sports talk show "WADO Deportivo." He was also a play-by-play and color commentator for the Philadelphia Phillies from 1995-98. Francisco is married to Yvette Rodriguez and has two daughters. Melissa and Lorraine.

Felix DeJesus

Felix DeJesus, a native New Yorker, enters his third season as a color commentator for the New York Yankees. He currently writes for Latinobaseball.com and is one of the co-hosts of "El Mundo de Las Grandes Ligas," an internet show on MLB Radio.

DeJesus has been involved with the Hispanic market since 1993 when he became the color commentator for the NHL's Florida Panthers. He has worked in all areas of broadcasting, TV, radio and the Internet. From 1998-2004, he covered Major League Baseball on TV for XTRA Innings in New York. He covered the Caribbean World Series in 2002 for Radio Unica 1660 AM in New York and served as one of the play-by-play voices for the international broadcast of the 2007 Caribbean Series. He has also worked for FOX Sports, ESPN International and CNN and in 1999, became the first announcer to broadcast in SAP for NBC News. DeJesus has also served as the Spanish translator for the last two years for Showtime Championship boxing.

DeJesus graduated from Fordham University in 1988 with a degree in economics and currently resides in the tri-state area. He is married to his wife, Melissa, and has two sons, Christopher and Brendan.

Carlos Silva

A native of Caracas, Venezuela, Carlos Silva will serve his eighth year as the major producer for Spanish and English Yankees broadcasts on WCBS radio. Carlos has also worked on occasion as a color commentator and has been involved in the rightsholder negotiations for WCBS. Silva provides the play-by-play announcer with important information throughout the broadcast and is very knowledgeable about the game of baseball.

Yankees in the Community

The New York Yankees organization takes as much pride in the baseball played on the field as it does in its charitable endeavors throughout the community. The Yankees' community efforts reach far beyond the Bronx and the tri-state area, encompassing programs and donations throughout the United States and even reaching into Latin America, China and Japan.

The Yankees strive to provide charitable partnerships with programs that support children's intiatives, education enhancement and health awareness. Annual contributions of donations, grants, tickets and promotional items to such programs exceed well over $1 million. In addition, Yankees players and front office personnel serve on numerous charitable boards in the tri-state area as well as in Tampa, Fla.

COMMITMENT TO COMMUNITY

Throughout the season, Yankees players and front office personnel make countless visits to various hospitals and schools throughout the tri-state area. Those spending time with area youth in 2007 included Bobby Abreu, Robinson Cano, Joba Chamberlain, Shelley Duncan, Jeff Karstens, Edwar Ramirez, Chien-Ming Wang and more. In August, Wang was honored with a special award for his dedication to the community by the Kips Bay Boys & Girls Club.

-On August 14, 2007, the Yankees held their sixth annual Disability Awareness Night, honoring JPMorgan Chase and the Special Olympics of New York for their contributions in improving the lives of people with special needs and disablilities.

The Yankees hold annual instructional clinics in the Dominican Republic, Nicaragua and Venezuela.

-On August 18, 2007, the Yankees held "Military Appreciation Day," featuring a special video tribute from Yankees General Partner Harold Z. Steinbrenner to the United States Special Operations Command. The Army's Golden Knights Parachute Team decended upon the field, and the West Point Cadet Color Guard performed the National Anthem. The Yankees also honored the Wounded Warriors Project and held a presentation in which Fisher-Price presented a $25,000 check to the WWP. The Yankees again honored the Wounded Warriors Project prior to the August 15 game vs. Baltimore as Yankees outfielder and WWP spokesman Johnny Damon presented a $50,000 donation to the WWP on behalf of William Barthman Jewelers.

Joba Chamberlain makes a holiday visit to the Pediatrics Department at Sloan-Kettering cancer Center in December 2007.

-For the third straight year, the Yankees sponsored the United Spinal Yankees Wheelchair Softball team in their tournament competitions around the United States, providing jerseys for the disabled athletes.

-In the spirit of the Thanksgiving holiday, the New York Yankees, along with Tishman-Speyer and Turner Construction, donated 300 food vouchers to the local community, which were redeemable at local supermarkets for turkeys or other Thanksgiving food.

-The Yankees teamed up with Goya to hold the 14th Annual Food Drive at Yankee Stadium to benefit Bronx-area residents in need during the holiday season. Fans donating 25 pounds of nonperishable goods received a voucher valid for four tier reserved seats to any non-premium Yankees weekday game (Mon.-Thur.) in 2008. Over 73,000 pounds of canned goods were collected as well as nearly $7,000 in cash donations. In addition, Goya donated $5,000 in nonperishable products to the drive.

YANKEES PAY TRIBUTE TO VIRGINIA TECH

In a pre-game ceremony prior to the Yankees' May 23 game vs. the Boston Red Sox at Yankee Stadium, the New York Yankees made a $1 million contribution to the Virginia Tech "Hokie Spirit Memorial Fund," established to aid in the healing process following the tragic events that took place in Blacksburg, Virginia on April 16. The Yankees also honored the memory of the victims by wearing the Virginia Tech logo on their caps, as well as painting a special Virginia Tech logo on the field. Virginia Tech President Dr. Charles Steger threw out the game's ceremonial first pitch. Also on hand for the ceremony were Director of Athletics Jim Weaver, Capt. Vince Houston of the Virginia Tech Police Department and Jason Dominczak and Matthew Johnson of the Virginia Tech Rescue Squad.

The Yankees honor the victims of the Virginia Tech tragedy.

In addition to the donation, the Yankees are scheduled to play an exhibition game on March 18, 2008, on the campus of Virginia Tech. The Yankees trip to play the Hokies' baseball team was set in motion with the hope of lending the Yankees name to help support the university and further foster a sense of unity on the school's campus and throughout the Blacksburg community.

NEW STADIUM OFFERS BRONX INCENTIVES

The new Yankee Stadium, set to open in time for the 2009 baseball season, is one of the premier building projects to take place in the Bronx in the last 50 years. The hard work and dedication of engineers, architects and construction professionals in building and designing the stadium will make the facility one of the most impressive and fan-friendly venues in Major League Baseball. Equally important is the project's dedication to support local community groups, institutions and residents as the Yankees remain devoted to the long-term development of the Bronx.

Building a new state-of-the-art facility requires an army of talented and experienced professionals. As part of the Yankees' commitment to ensure that the stadium project creates economic opportunities in the Bronx, the Yankees have made a concerted effort to recruit a wide range of vendors and employees from the local community. Of the 99 contracts awarded, 32 were allotted to local businesses (accounting for over 31 percent of the contracts and over $121 million in money invested back into the Bronx community). The Yankees have stayed committed to hiring at least 25 percent of the total workforce from Bronx residents, again providing incentive to the surrounding community.

The Yankees have also established a $1 million training program to teach local Bronx residents professional skills and knowledge to improve their job prospects and performance. Among initiatives supported by the Yankees' grant is Project H.I.R.E. (Help in Re-entering Employment), a proven job-training program at the Bronx Community College that teaches Bronx residents functional construction skills for practical use in local building projects.

YANKEES OFFER HURRICANE RELIEF

The New York Yankees donated a total of $60,000 in cash, food and supplies to the Dominican Republic and Nicaragua to aid in both countries' 2007 hurricane relief efforts. Yankees players Robinson Cano, Melky Cabrera and Edwar Ramirez, along with coaches Rob Thomson and Tony Pena, presented the Yankees' donation of $25,000 on November 14, in Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic, which was struck by Tropical Storm Noel in late October. The donation benefitted Food for the Poor, a non-profit organization that ministers to impoverished people throughout Latin America and the Caribbean in order to improve the health, economic, social and spiritual conditions of the men, women and children they serve.

Following the donation, Yankees minor league manager Jody Reed, several Yankees minor leaguers and Yankees Latin America scouts held a baseball clinic for 240 local orphans. Edwar Ramirez, along with Yankees Latin prospects and staff, helped distribute an additional $10,000 donation of food and supplies on November 18, to help rebuild a local school ravaged by the storm in Ramirez's hometown of San Juan de la Maguana in the Dominican Republic.

A $25,000 donation was also made by the Yankees to the Asociacion San Francisco de Asis in Nicaragua to assist victims of Hurricane Felix, a category 5 storm that devastated the country in early September. SFA is a non-profit organization based in Nicaragua that provides opportunities for the poor by facilitating year-round basic human needs such as nutrition, education, health care, psychological counseling, housing and vocational training.

BACK TO SCHOOL...YANKEES STYLE

Each year the Yankees are excited to assist area youth as they head back to school. Prior to the beginning of the 2007 school year, the Yankees were involved in three such programs, holding an immunization fair, a supply drive and a picnic.

Along with Lincoln Medical and Mental Health Center, the Back to School Immunization Fair allowed almost 200 children between the ages of 6-13 to receive–free of charge–the vaccinations required to attend school during the 2007-08 school year. In addition, families who attended the fairs received various give-away items and were invited to attend a New York Yankees home game.

On August 29, 2007, during their game vs. Boston, the Yankees, along with W.B. Mason and World Vision, held a school supply donation drive in which over 1,100 items were collected and distributed to various Bronx-based schools during the 2007-08 school year.

The Yankees, along with sponsors Tishman-Speyer and Turner Construction, also hosted a back-to-school picnic on Aug. 31, 2007, in Mullally Park, located several blocks north of Yankee Stadium. Local families were invited to enjoy a day of free entertainment, food and activities. In addition, school-age children in attendance received knapsacks filled with school supplies and Yankees giveaways.

MVP SCHOLARSHIPS

In an effort to highlight academic excellence, the New York Yankees work in conjunction with the administrative staff and teachers of Bronx-based high schools to identify graduating seniors who excel in academic and social environments. These students are awarded the New York Yankees Community Council Most Valuable Pupil Scholarship to assist with costs associated with attending college. To date, close to 300 MVP Scholarships have been awarded.

YOUTH LEADERSHIP CORPS

Striving to acknowledge young people who are providing a positive service to their community, the New York Yankees work with the 12 community boards of the Bronx on an annual basis to identify five area youths in each district that are making a difference. These kids serve on the New York Yankees Community Council Leadership Corps and are provided with a stipend to assist them in continuing their work in the community.

ROCK & WRAP IT UP

The New York Yankees are a strong supporter of the Rock & Wrap It Up food distribution program. After every home game, the Yankees work in conjunction with their food and beverage concessionaire Centerplate to collect all food that is prepared and packaged but not served. All collected items are distributed to local soup kitchens and food pantries to combat hunger. To date, approximately 45,000 meals have been served as a result of this partnership.

YANKEES HONORED FOR THEIR WORK

DAMON HONORED AS COMMUNITY HERO

Yankees outfielder Johnny Damon was named as the recipient of the 2007 Joan Payson Award for Community Service, given annually by the New York chapter of the Baseball Writer's Association of America. As national spokesman of the Wounded Warriors Project, Damon made a series of radio and television appearances to create awareness and fundraise for the organization, and participated in the Wounded Warriors' first-ever charity golf tournament in November. He also brought wounded soldiers out to spring training and regular season games throughout the season, giving the soldiers a chance to go on the field and meet other Yankees. Damon also organized visits to Walter Reed Army Hospital in Baltimore to visit recovering soldiers, and brought along several Yankees teammates when the team was in town to play the Orioles.

He continued his work with the Johnny Damon Foundation in 2007, hosting the second annual Johnny Damon Foundation Celebrity Golf Classic and Johnny Jam '07 to raise money for Orlando, Fla.-area charities and the Wounded Warriors Project.

In 2008, Damon will once again assume the role as Yankees

Yankees in the Community

Home Run Captain, donating money to the Children's Health Fund for each regular season and postseason homer the Yankees hit as a team.

During the season, Damon visited children suffering from cancer at Memorial Sloan-Kettering Cancer Center and made a Christmastime visit to the Arnold Palmer Hospital for Children in Florida to meet patients, sign autographs and deliver presents.

Chien-Ming Wang reads to a group of youngsters at a local hospital.

POSADA NOMINATED FOR COMMUNITY AWARD

The Yankees' Jorge Posada was selected as the team's recipient of the 2007 Roberto Clemente Award presented by Chevrolet, which was established by Major League Baseball in 2002 to honor the memory of Roberto Clemente and is given annually to the Major League Baseball player who combines outstanding skills on the baseball field with devoted work in the community.

Posada, along with his wife, Laura, created The Jorge Posada Foundation in the fall of 2000 after their son, Jorge Luis, was diagnosed with craniosynostosis 10 days after his birth. The foundation aims to provide financial assistance to families with children affected by this condition and offer them emotional support through its Mentors Program. The foundation hosted the sixth annual Heroes for Hope Gala in June 2007 and the first Celebrity Basebowl Tournament in San Juan Puerto Rico in January 2008, raising funds for the Foundation.

Jorge's off-the-field charity was also recognized with the 2007 Bart Giamatti "Caring" Award from MLB's Baseball Assistance Team.

CANO GIVES TO HOSPITALS

Yankees All-Star second baseman Robinson Cano made a significant donation from his heart in 2007, purchasing an ambulance for the local hospital in his hometown of San Pedro de Macoris in the Dominican Republic. He was inspired to make the contribution after a friend perished when he could not receive immediate medical attention following a motorcycle accident and had to be driven nearly an hour away to Santo Domingo.

Inspired by one of his many visits to Jacobi Hospital and Columbia Presbyterian Hospital to visit with ailing children, Cano donated a total of $20,000 to each hospital's oncology department.

DEREK JETER TURNS 2

Yankees All-Star shortstop Derek Jeter continued his tireless charity work in 2008 with his Turn 2 Foundation. Launched in 1996, Jeter's Foundation was aimed at creating and supporting signature programs and activities that motivate young people to turn away from drugs and alcohol and "Turn 2" healthy lifestyles. Through these ventures, the Foundation strives to create outlets that promote and reward academic excellence, leadership development and positive behavior. Turn 2's goal is to see the children of these programs grow safely and successfully into adulthood and become the leaders of tomorrow.

All-Star Derek Jeter raises everyone's holiday spirits with his annual Holiday KidsFest.

During the 2007 season, Jeter hosted a "Silver Screen" celebration where he presented an award to Sharon Robinson, acknowledging the tremendous impact her husband, Jackie, had on the game of Baseball. In August, during a visit to Comerica Park, he hosted members of Turn 2's signature programs in Michigan. Youngsters were able to come to a game and watch Jeter and the Yankees take on the Tigers. The Foundation also hosted its eighth annual baseball clinic in New York City and for the first time partnered with the United Spinal Asssociation Yankees for a Wheelchair softball clinic.

Following the 2007 season, Jeter hosted his second annual Holiday Express, his 11th Annual Foundation Dinner in New York City and his fifth annual Celebrity Golf Classic in Tampa. The Turn 2 Foundation has raised over $8 million dollars since its inception.

AROD FAMILY FOUNDATION

Three-time American League MVP Alex Rodriguez, along with his wife Cynthia, established the AROD Family Foundation in 2006, dedicated to positively impacting families in distress by supporting programs focusing on improved quality of life, education and mental health.

Three-time AL MVP Alex Rodriguez hosted a clinic in November 2007 at the Boys & Girls Club in Miami.

For his accomplishments on the field and his philanthropic work within the community, Rodriguez received the prestigous Thurman Munson Award in 2007. In January, Rodriguez co-hosted Family Fun Day at the Miami Seaquarium with the Ronald McDonald House Charities of South Florida, providing discount coupons to all who entered the park. Each charity received a portion of these discounted admissions.

A-Rod continued his tireless work with the Boys & Girls Clubs of Miami, where joined as a member in 1982 at the age of 7 and remained a member until the day he was drafted in 1993. Alex personally pledged $500,000 to the Alex Rodriguez Education Center in 2007, a 10,000 square foot educational facility for the advancement of literacy, computer study and math, that will include a state-of-the-art computer laboratory, an art room, a library, classrooms for homework and a teen center. It is set to open in April 2008.

In November, he hosted a two-hour clinic at the Boys & Girls Club for about 85 youngsters between the ages of 9 and 14 on the very field named after him. He also acts as one of three national spokespersons for the Boys & Girls Clubs of America, with former U.S. Secretary of State Colin Powell and actor Denzel Washington.

GETTING TO THE STADIUM

Located at 161st Street & River Avenue in the Bronx, Yankee Stadium is accessible from the Major Deegan Expressway (Interstate 87) at the following exits:
Northbound I-87: Exit 3 (E. 138th Street & Grand Concourse), Exit 4 (E. 149th Street) and Exit 5 (E. 161st Street)
Southbound I-87: Exit 6 (E. 153rd Street & River Avenue) and Exit 5 (E. 161st Street)

Ongoing construction of the new Yankee Stadium and surrounding areas has caused street and parking lot closures around the current Yankee Stadium. Parking will be limited. Due to the ongoing construction, directions and parking lot availability are subject to change. The Yankees strongly urge fans to use public transportation when making their next trip to Yankee Stadium.
